- Income in Foreign Currency is NIL.
- 8) Expenditure in Foreign Currency is NIL.
- 9) Closing Stock is accounted in the books as taken valued and cretified by Directors and Authorised Person's of the Company.
- 10) Company's Profitability is affected due to non recovery of disputed finance to other parties and investment in shares of concerns in which directors are interested. As informed to us Finance Charges of current year as well as past years are not realisable and as per guidelines of RBI for NBFC income is accounted on the basis of realisation only the same are not accounted to comply with rules of RBI.
- 11) Company has received NBFC registration. During the year However Company has accepted and repaid the deposits / loan received from others. At the end of year ourstanding loans or deposits are either from Directors or concerns in which Directors are interested or Inter Corporate Deposits. These deposits need confirmation and explanation and period for which deposits are given by the deposits holders. In all transactions it is difficult to bifurcate loans / deposits as the Company is also paying interest on these advances taken and maintaining account of deposit holders like current account and paying interest on daily balance basis in few cases. Hence provisions of section 58 of the companies Act, 1956 are not complied with fully. Company is also not filing control returns with R.B.I. within Stipulated time.
