Management discussion and Analysis

Economic overview

We embarked upon Financial Year 2011-12 with a lot of expectations regarding the robustness of the recovery in the domestic economy. The sharp and broad-based recovery of the Indian economy which ensued was backed by the robust consumption as well as the investment demand. The fiscal prudence undertaken and the thrust in infrastructure spending by the government to propel the investment momentum had also largely aided the growth process. However, the strength and pace of the economic recovery outlived our expectations, especially during the first quarter of the financial year 2012-13.

Given the domestic and global developments, expecting a great turn around in the next six months appear to be unlikely on various grounds. The rise in exports witnessed during this fiscal is expected to be moderate in the wake of continued global uncertainty.

As the macroeconomic numbers continued to display a strong performance during the course of the fiscal year 11, they were marked by a lot of volatility; the volatility was evident not only in the numbers but also in the sentiments primarily driven by the global clues and policy responses to cater to inflation. The volatility was strongly evident in the FII flows, the movement in the exchange rate, the stock market sentiment as well as in the data for industrial production.

The Company is operating in three segments namely :-

1. Auto Component Sector

India: During the year, slowdown in India's economic growth was 6.9% in 2011-12. This is primarily attributed to weak global economic recovery and inadequately addressed domestic challenges such as high inflation, tight monetary policy, slowdown in investment and expected than fragile growth in industrial output.

The 2012 outlook for the Indian auto industry was stable, driven by the expectation that credit metrics of most companies, though weak, will continue to be in line with values expected during a cyclical downturn. Price -based competition amid sluggish sales is expected to reduce industry operating margin by 250-300 basis point in 2012. Industry leverage of the auto sector will increase in 2012-13 due to committed capex plans as well as due to the need to support the working capital requirements of the value chain. However, a continuation of the high rate environment or a downward revision in economic activity would also significantly affect the credit performance of companies, especially the Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) in the medium and heavy commercial vehicles (MHCV) segment.

Long-term estimates: According to the Automotive Component Manufacturing Association of India (ACMA) and Ernst & Young report, the domestic auto component industry is expected to achieve an annual turnover of US$110 billion by 2020; it will contribute about 3.6% of India's GDP from the current level of 2.1%.

2. Power Sector

The Indian power sector is one of the most diversified in the world. Sources for power generation range from commercial source like coal, lignite, natural gas, oil, hydro and nuclear power to other viable non-conventional source like wind, solar and agriculture and domestic waste. The demand for electricity in the country has been growing at a rapid rate and is expected to grow further in the years to come. In order to meet the increasing requirement of electricity, massive addition to the installed generating capacity in the country is required. While planning the capacity addition programme, the overall objective is sustainable development has been kept in mind. However, in short term there are various factors which have hampered the Power sector. This sector overall was under stress due to Financial related load, linkage and slackness in policy making decision by the Government.

3. Tippers and Trailers:

Company has established its trailer manufacturing plant during 2007-08 in Tax free Zone at Sitarganj, Uttranchal. During the Financial Year 2011-12, as an on going improvement and addition of new product line, company has successfully launched two new products line of Sub-Frame and Tipper Body . These two products are being manufactured mainly to the order of Ashok Leyland Ltd. Going forward, Company intends to expand this activity in a bigger way.

Slowdown is being felt across segments/applications but multi-axle vehicles (MAVs), tractor trailers appear to be more vulnerable; slowing demand from container applications, heavy industries like steel and surplus capacity available in the long-haulage, heavy duty trucks is mainly responsible

As most of the STUs have added capacity (as part of JNNURM) over the last two years, demand for buses has got impacted during the current year

Despite slowing sales, pricing power continues to remain in the hands of OEMs as reflected by successive price increase to combat higher input material costs and stable discount levels; unlike passenger vehicles, interest subvention is also not so common in case of CVs

Growth Drivers during Financial Year 2011-12

Domestic demand for automobiles continues to be the main factor driving the auto component industry's growth. With a score of 0.75, this parameter received the highest ranking. Export orders received the second highest ranking of 0.62; a significant 36% of the survey respondents revealed that exports will be a major growth driver in Financial Year 2011-12. The depreciation of rupee against USD has been in favour of our Company thus exports are getting a boost. Further, this has resulted in our competitiveness with china in our favour in International Market.

Your Company has developed into 3 segments of business :

- Exports of Automotive Component
- Heavy Steel Fabrication for Boiler structure for Power Plants (BHEL)
- Manufacturing of Tipper / Load Bodies / Chassis components.

Company achieved exports turnover of Rs. 56.23 crores during Financial Year 2011-12. With the development of new parity rate between INR and USD, there is paradigm shift in exports of the Company. We are now more competitive as compared to our competitors from China who had been giving us very tough time due to 17 to 20% subsidy being enjoyed by them and now substantial increase in exports.

Outlook

ANG has emerged out of the market uncertainties post 2009 as a much stronger Company in terms of internal operational parameters, customer relations and product development capabilities.

Global economic uncertainties will be there in the near future. The Company believes that with the de-risked business model, strong design and engineering capabilities, it can create opportunities for itself in this uncertain environment. With a focus on innovation and technology to best leverage its strong customer relation.

Awards

Sources of funds: The capital employed increased in the business increased 9.78% from Rs 9017.87 lacs in 2010-11 to Rs [9912] lacs in 2011-12 owing to an increase in share capital (preferential issue to promoters during the year at Rs 48 per share) which also expanded the reserves and surplus balance and an increase in external funds. There are two important changes during the year which need special mention: The Shareholders brought in Rs. 422.63 Lacs during the year 2011-12.

- The revaluation reserve of Rs 50.72 lacs (as on March 31, 2012) has been completely written off; hence the entire reserves and surplus balance is real and can be deployed for implementing future growth initiatives

Application of funds: The additional funds deployed in the business during the year under review have been utilised to expand the gross block, repayment of debts from Banks and fund day-to-day operations. The addition to the gross block was primarily in machinery and tools, buildings and vehicles strengthening the Company's competitive advantage which is required to supply vehicles in bulk quantity to OEM's like Ashok Leyland Ltd.,
