MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INDIAN ECONOMY

As per United Nations Report, Indian economy is expected to grow at 6.4% rate in 2013, outpacing the 6% expansion in developing Asia-Pacific economies in the same period.

India is expected to recover from its relatively low 5% growth in 2012 to 6.4% in 2013. As projected by minister's economic advisory council - chairman C Rangarajan, India's economic growth in 2013-14 will be better than 2012-13, but will be lower than the pre-crisis level and India needs to organize itself to go back to pre-crisis level growth rate of 9%.

While talking about India's current account deficit which has touched a record high of 6.7%, Mr. C Rangarajan said that he believes that macroeconomic stability is necessary pre-condition for faster economic growth. He also believes that falling prices in the commodities like gold, crude oils and other commodities would be beneficial to India. World Bank also said in its report that India is regaining economic momentum and growth is expected to recover to its high long-term potential in the times to come. Recent structural reforms like the cabinet committee on investments (CCI), decontrol of sugar and oil, FDI in Retail and other measures have helped in improving the general investment mood in the country. The Chairman ADB believes that if India can get its investment story right and manage to get a political consensus on reform measures like GST, it has the potential to grow at 8-9% annually.

STARCH INDUSTRY – AN OVERVIEW

GLOBAL STARCH MARKET

Global starch consumption is projected to reach 133.5 million metric tons by the year 2018, driven primarily by the diversity and sheer number of end-use applications in both food and non-food industries, according to a new report from market researcher global industry analysts, inc. (GIA).

According to "Starch: A global strategic business report" economic recovery, rise in per capita consumption, and growing demand for starch products from developing nations translates into a bright outlook for the sector. Starch end-use applications have grown in number over the years, and now include diverse applications ranging from food and beverages to medicine, cosmetics, pharmaceuticals and more.

Growing consumption of liquid starches and modified starches has been one of the key reasons behind the quick recovery of the market post recession. With the global economy gradually improving and resulting in an increased intake of processed and convenience foods, the market for modified starch, which finds substantial usage in these food applications, is finding increased demand, thereby driving the overall market at a CAGR of more than 7% till 2018.

According to the report, the United States is the largest supplier of starch in the world, followed by China. Recent growth in the global starch market has been particularly driven by developing markets in Asia-Pacific. In fact, the sector, which includes China, India, Thailand, South Korea and Philippines, is slated to have a CAGR of 9% till 2018.

INDIAN STARCH SCENARIO

Over the past five years, production of maize has only risen by 0.9%, against which consumption grew by 1.7%. In 2013-14, however, production is expected to shoot up by 10.3% and consumption by 6.2%. Spot prices of maize have fallen from their peak of Rs 15,770 a MT on the MCX in August 2012 and is expected to stabilize with good monsoon expected this year. Maize is the third-largest agricultural crop in India, accounting for over 50% of total kharif coarse cereal production. Production of maize has grown at a CAGR of 4.9% over the past decade and amounted to 21.5 MT in 2011-12. In contrast, consumption of maize has grown at a CAGR of 3.28% and stood at 18-18.5 MT last fiscal. Around 50% of total consumption is used for feed, primarily poultry feed, while around 5-10% is used by the starch industry. The weather will play an important role in determining the extent of maize production and price of the same in 2013-14.

Indian corn starch market is forecasted to double in the next four years. The utilization of corn starch in wide array of industries and new food consumption habits are the major drivers of the market. The end user industries such as paper, textile, pharmaceuticals and confectionery are witnessing positive growth rate, thus increasing demand for corn starch in the country. India currently has more than 5,000 tons per day (TPD) of wet milling processing capacity spread across the country. Combined revenue of major corn starch companies have grown at a rapid pace in last five years. The growth potential for corn starch is tremendous in the country with current starch consumption per capita way below global average.

The Indian organized starch industry has an estimated size of around Rs.4000 crores. The industry is at a nascent stage comprising around 40 starch and derivative products from corn as against international market which comprises more than 800 such products. Thus there is a huge scope of increase in demand in the coming years. During the period 2005-10, the Indian starch industry grew at a CAGR of 21% and is expected to grow at 15% p.a. in the coming years. The size of the starch industry in India is negligible as compared to international market. The profit of the industry also fluctuate from year to year due to erratic availability of the basic raw material- corn being an agri-product and depends on natural vagaries.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

OPPORTUNITIES

Per capita consumption of starch in India is very less at approx. 2 kg as compared to global average of around 6 kg and US average of 65 kgs. There is also a huge scope of increase in starch and derivative products in India, where just 40 starch and derivative products are produced as against approx. 800 such products globally. All this augurs well for the starch industry in India and Sayaji Industries Limited which is one of the largest players in the Industry with diversified product portfolio is expected to gain from this growth of demand.

THREATS/ RISKS

Risk relating to increased competition in Starch Industry.

Risk mitigation

Though the company is located at a far distance from the maize growing area, it is near to the industries which utilizes the products of the company. Thus the disadvantage is mitigated by being near to the markets which utilizes the products of the company. In addition to above the company has also entered into an exclusive agreement with Yashwant Sahakari Glucose Karkhana Limited, located at Siddheshwar Nagar, Taluka Shirala, Dist. Sangli, Maharashtra since July 2012 which is a maize growing area. The company has also been able to cater to western and southern market more effectively due to this.

Change in environment regulations

Risk mitigation

The company has its own state-of-the-art facilities to treat the effluents generated from its manufacturing processes. ## Notes Forming Part of the Financial Statements

NOTE 1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

i Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements:

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, on the accrual basis of accounting and in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in India and the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, as adopted consistently by the Company.

ii Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual result and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known/materialised.

iii Fixed Assets:

Fixed Assets are stated at cost (Net of Taxes) of acquisition or construction. Cost includes all costs incurred to bring the assets to their present condition and location. They are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation.

Capital assets under erection/installation are reflected in the Balance Sheet as "Capital work-In-Progress".

iv Leased Assets:

In case of operating leases, rentals are expensed with reference to lease terms and other considerations. The aggregate lease rentals payable are charged as Rent in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The leasing arrangements which are not non cancellable are for period of eleven months or longer.

v Depreciation:

Depreciation on all fixed assets is provided on Straight Line Method as per Section 205(2)(b) of the Companies Act, 1956, at the rates and in the manner prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Depreciation on fixed assets purchased/acquired during the year is provided on pro-rata basis according to the period of each asset was put to use during the year. Similarly, depreciation on assets sold/discarded/demolished during the year is provided on pro-rata basis.

vi Impairment:

Impairment is ascertained at each balance sheet date in respect of Cash Generating Units. An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of the assets exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net realizable value and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor.

vii Investments:

Long Term Investments are stated at cost. Provision for diminution in value is made, if permanent.

viii Inventories:

Stores, Spares, Chemicals and Packing materials are valued at weighted average cost or net realisable value whichever is lower.

Raw materials and Coal are valued at cost (FIFO basis) or net realisable value whichever is lower.

Finished Goods and Process Stock are valued at cost or net realisable value whichever is lower. Cost thereof is determined on absorption costing method.

By products are valued at net realisable value.

ix Employee Benefits:

a) Defined Contribution Plan.

The Company's contributions paid/payable for the year to Provident Fund and Superannuation Fund are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

SAYAJI INDUSTRIES LIMITED

Notes Forming Part of the Financial Statements

b) Defined Benefit Plan

The Company's liabilities towards gratuity and leave encashment are determined using the projected unit credit method which considers each period of service as giving rise to an additional unit of benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation. Past services are recognized on a straight-line basis over the average period until the amended benefits become vested. Actuarial gain and losses are recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss as income or expenses. Obligation is measured at the present value of estimated future cash flows using a discounted rate that is determined by reference to market yields at the balance sheet date on Government bonds where the currency and terms of the Government bonds are consistent with the currency and estimated terms of the defined benefit obligation.

x Borrowing Cost:

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue.

xi Revenue Recognition:

- (a) Revenue from Sales is accounted on dispatch. Sales are net of discounts and returns. Excise Duty and VAT collected on Sales are shown by way of further deductions from Sales.
- (b) Dividend Income is accounted when right to receive the dividend is established.
- (c) Revenue in respect of Other Income is recognised when a reasonable certainty as to its realisation exists.

xii Foreign Currency Transactions:

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing at the time the transactions are effected.

Any income or expense on account of exchange rate difference either on settlement or on translation is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss for the period in which the difference takes place.

At the year end, monetary items denominated in foreign currency are reported using the closing rate of exchange.

In cases of items which are covered by forward exchange contracts, the differences between the year end rates and rate on the date of contract is recognised as exchange difference and the premium paid on forward contract is recognised over the life of contract.

Non monetary foreign currency items are carried at historical cost.

xiii Taxes on Income:

Income tax expense for the year comprises of current tax, deferred tax. Current tax provision is determined on the basis of reliefs, deductions etc. available under the Income Tax Act. Deferred Tax is recognised for all timing differences between book and taxable profit, subject to the consideration of prudence, applying the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date.

In Pursuance to Guidance Note on MAT Credit Entitlement issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the Company has accounted for MAT Credit Entitlement considering the virtual certainty and probability of reversal of MAT Credit and the same has been disclosed under the head "Short Term Loans & Advances."

xiv Provision, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets:

Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognised when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent liabilities are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.
