Address by the Chairman

Mr. Ravi Subramanian at the 29th Annual General Meeting

Dear Shareholder's

Welcome to the 29th Annual General Meeting of your company Silverline Technologies Ltd. On behalf of the Board of Directors, I thank you for joining us today. Your presence today is indeed a true testimony of the deep interest you have in the company and the support you have extended to the company management.

In the last AGM I shared with you our revival plan and the game plan for the implementation of the revival strategy. I must admit that despite our best efforts we were unable to take up the implementation of the revival plan. The main constraint was our inability to mobilize funds required for implementing the revival plan.

As you are aware our trading at the BSE is under suspension and this proved to be major hurdle in our fund raising efforts. We realized that unless we are back in the trading of securities it would be very difficult to mobilize funds. Towards this end we held extensive deliberations to understand all the outstanding issues which need to be addressed to qualify for removal of suspension of trading at the BSE. The company not being in operation for over 9 years proved to be a major deterrent and we had to address several open issues in different quarters.

We were committed to revival of the company and the lean team which worked with me did a remarkable job in progressively ensuring that each of the open issues is fully addressed and closed out. The progress on this front despite the various constraints has been very good and I sincerely thank the team for their contribution in this area.

In this period, we fine-tuned the revival strategy and realized the need to address the market opportunities in the Digital space. The reconstituted SBU's is as under:

- SBU 1 - SAP Consulting Services
- SBU 2 - SAP HANA Practice
- SBU 3 - Pharma/Life Sciences -SMB segment
- SBU 4 - Supply Chain Finance
- SBU 5 - Cyber Security Business
- SBU 6 – Digital Business initiatives.

We are confident that in the coming year we would have successfully initiated implementation of the revival plan and all efforts are being made to get the suspension of the trading removed and ensure commencement of trade. I fully appreciate the patience shown by each one of you and you can be rest assured that your management team is fully geared up to deliver the commitments made for removal of the suspension of trading at the BSE and initiating implementation of the revival plan for the company.

I take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to our Partners, Clients, Employees and other stake holders who stood with us in the difficult times. I thank them for the advice, guidance and support. Your goodwill and continued patronage have been the motivating force in our drive to revive the company and achieve the pinnacle of growth which this company achieved in the past. I am very confident that together we can make this happen.

Best wishes to each one of you and your family and please do take good care.

Thanking You

Ravi Subramanian

The management of the Company is taking all the efforts to revive the business of the Company.

There have been significant changes in terms of the pending regulatory compliances as a step towards the revival of the Company.

Revival of the overall functioning and operations of the Company

During the year under consideration and upto the date of this report, your Directors have pleasure to inform all the stakeholders of the Company that there have been several positive improvements in the overall functioning of the Company.

During the last 3 years, the Board of Directors of the Company had been completely re-constituted. The Directors appointed on the Board have immense experience in the field of business administration and management. Further, the Company has hired several qualified Professional's including Corporate Advocates, Company Secretaries, IT Professional's etc. to enable the company to run efficiently.

These professionals along with the Management of the Company had successfully completed various pending Compliances with Bombay Stock Exchange, Registrar of Companies (Ministry of Corporate Affairs), NSDL, CDSL, and the Registrar and Share Transfer Agents which were pending since almost a decade.

The Management is assured that before the end of the current financial year, the Company shall take another step forward. Further, the Management is taking every effort to get the shares of the Company traded at the BSE Limited which is suspended as on now. Despite of the COVID-19 Pandemic crisis, the management of the Company has been continuously working hard to comply with all the requirements and directions of the various regulators.

We feel honored that our stakeholder's had shown faith and trust in the time when we faced several formidable challenges where few of them threatened the very survival of the company. We have faced and conquered every unsure mountable challenge through our grit and spider instinct. At times, many even doubted about the very integrity of the organization.

The Management of the Company have been working meticulously to achieve the long term path as set in the road map towards the progress.

7.a Status on Trading at BSE

As you are aware our trading at the BSE is under suspension and this proved to be major hurdle in our fund raising efforts. We realized that unless we are back in the trading of securities it would be very difficult to mobilize funds. Towards this end we held extensive deliberations to understand all the outstanding issues which need to be addressed to qualify for removal of suspension of trading at the BSE. The company not being in operation for over 9 years proved to be a major deterrent and we had to address several open issues in different quarters.

We were committed to revival of the company and the lean team which worked with me did a remarkable job in progressively ensuring that each of the open issues is fully

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone Ind AS financial statements for the year under audit. We determined that there is no key audit matter to be communicated in our audit.

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements, or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance as required under SA 720 'The Auditor's Responsibilities Relating to Other Information'. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibility of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate implementation and maintenance of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. ""* ;

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

ANNEXURE B TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

(Annexure Referred to in paragraph 2(A)(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report to the Members of SILVERLINE TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED of even date)

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of SILVERLINE TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") as of March 31, 2021 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ("the Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under sub-section 10 of Section 143 of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2021, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of the plant and equipment. When significant parts of plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of fixed assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

Depreciation on Property , Plant and Equipment

Company has not provided depreciation on factory building and flat as prescribed by the Accounting policies and guideline.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are recognized when it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the assets will flow to the Company and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably.

Payments received under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to profit or loss as per the arrangement over the period of the lease unless the payments are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increases. Company has not taken machinery on lease during the reporting year.

g. Revenue Recognition-

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to The company and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is being made. Sale of Service -

Interest Income-

For all debt's instruments are measured at amortised cost. Interest income is recorded using the effective rate of interes

h. Taxes

The tax expenses are comprised of current income tax and deferred tax:

Current Income tax-

Current income tax including MAT is measured at the amount expected to be payable under the Income tax act,1961 enacted to India at the reporting date.

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

Deferred tax-

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet approach on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount for financial reporting purposes at their reporting date.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

Deferred tax should be recognized to that extent only, subject to consideration of prudence in respect of deferred assets, or timing differences, being the difference between the taxable income and accounting income that originate in one year and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent years, having tax consequences.

Deferred tax assets, arising from loss/depreciation carried forward are not recognized unless there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable will be available against such deferred tax can be realized.

i. Retirement and other employee benefits-

Employee benefits of short-term nature are recognized as expenses as and when accrued. The Company makes defined contribution to Provident Fund which is recognized in the Profit and Loss Account on accrual basis.

Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The company has no obligation, other than the contribution to provident fund on reporting date.

The company is not providing provision for gratuity as on date of reporting or have defined operative plan in India which require contribution towards the retirement benefit.

j. Earning per Shares-

Basic earning per share is computed by dividing the Profit/(Loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the number of Equity shares outstanding at the end of the year. Diluted EPS is computed by dividing the Profit/(Loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the number of Equity shares outstanding at the end of the year.

k. Financial Instruments –

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial Assets of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial assets and liabilities are recognized initially at fair value plus, in case of financial asset not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction cost that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset or financial liability on initial recognition except those of Trade receivable which are initially recognised at transaction price.

Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial Assets or Financial liabilities, that are carried at fair value through the profit or loss account are immediately recognized in the profit or loss.

Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement financial assets are classified into two broad categories :

Financial asset at fair value and at amortised cost [Non Derivative]

Where assets are measured at fair value, gains and losses are either recognised entirely in the statement of profit or loss (i.e. fair value through profit or loss), or recognised in other comprehensive income (i.e. fair value through other comprehensive income)

A financial asset that meet the following two conditions is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income unless the asset is designated at fair value through profit or loss under the fair value option.

- Business model test : the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets
- Cash flow characteristics test : The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payment of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Even if an instrument meets the two requirements to be measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, a financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency (sometimes referred to as an 'accounting mismatch') that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains or losses on them on different basis.

All other financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either
 - a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or
 - b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivable.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition.

The Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on the portfolio of trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivable and is adjusted for forward looking estimates, if any. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

I. Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings.

Loans and borrowings – subsequent measurement

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

m. Derivative financial Instruments-

The company does not hold any derivatives instruments on the date of reporting such as foreign exchange forward and option contracts to mitigate the risk of change in the exchange rates on foreign exchange currency exposure.

n. Equity Share Capital

Equity shares issued by the company are classified as equity. Incremental cost directly attributable to the issuance of new ordinary shares and share option are recognized as deduction from the equity, net of any tax effects.

o. Impairment of Assets

i) non-financial assets

As at each balance sheet date, the Company assesses whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired and also whether there is an indication of reversal of impairment loss recognised in the previous periods. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, if any, the Company determines the recoverable amount and impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is determined as the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value in use.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

ii) Financial Assets –

The Company recognized loss allowances using the expected credit loss(ECL) model for the financial Assets which are not fair valued through profit or loss.

p. Cash and Cash Equivalent-

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. For the purpose of statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalent consists of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management

q. Cash flow statement –

The Cash flow statement is prepared segregating the cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flow from operating activities is reported using indirect method. Under the indirect method, the net profit is adjusted for the effects of:

- (i) transactions of a non-cash nature.
- (ii) any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and
- (iii) items of income or expense associated with investing or financing cash flows.

r. Provision for Contingent Liabilities and contingent Assets-

Provisions:

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

Where the Company expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, for example under an insurance contract, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

Contingent Liabilities:

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that can't be recognised because it can't be measured reliably. The Company does not recognise the contingent liability but disclose its existence in its financial statements.

Contingent assets:

Contingent assets are neither recognised, nor disclosed.

Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date.
