h) Income taxes:

Income taxes are accounted for in accordance with Accounting Standard 22 on “Accounting for Taxes on Income”, (AS 22) issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Tax expense comprises both current and deferred tax. Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to / recovered from the tax authorities using the applicable tax rates. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to timing differences between taxable income and accounting income that are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods and are measured at relevant enacted or substantially enacted tax rates. At each Balance sheet date, the company reassesses unrealised deferred tax assets, to the extent they become reasonably certain or virtually certain of realization, as the case may be.

i) Revenue Recognition:

- ❖ Revenue on sale of products is recognised when the products are despatched to the customers, all significant contractual obligations have been satisfied and the collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably expected. The sales are stated net of returns.
- ❖ Revenue from sale of power produced on generation of electrical energy is accounted when electricity is delivered at the metering point in terms of power purchase agreement with the customer.
- ❖ Revenue in respect of insurance or other claims, quantity discount on purchase, interest etc. is recognised only when it is reasonably certain that the ultimate collection will be made.

j) Provisions, Contingent liabilities and Contingent assets:

Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognised when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent liabilities are not recognised, but are disclosed in the Notes. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.

k) Impairment of Assets:

An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of the asset exceeds its recoverable value.
