Annexure I to the Directors' Report

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS (MD&A)

Overview

The financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, 1956, guidelines issued by Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) in India. Our Management accepts responsibility for the integrity and objectivity of these financial statements, as well as for various estimates and judgments used therein. The estimates and judgments relating to the financial statements have been made on a prudent and reasonable basis, so that the financial statements reflect in a true and fair manner the form and substance of transactions, and reasonably present our state of affairs, profits and cash flows for the period.

Macro-Economic Environment

The Indian economy still remains one of the fast growing economies in the world having registered growth rates of 8.06% and 9.3% in FY 2009-10 and FY 2010-11 respectively. However, on account of macro economic uncertainties, it has showed signs of slow down in the last two financial years. The GDP growth was 6.2% in FY 2011-12 which further dipped to 5.0% in the FY 2012-13. The two important sectors – manufacturing and services – grew at a lesser rate leading to the decline in GDP growth.

Nevertheless, moderating inflation and easing of regulatory requirements to induce investments is expected to provide the much needed stimulus for growth. The Economic survey has pegged the GDP growth at around 6% for the current financial year.

Sector Overview

In India, the real estate sector is in an evolution phase. While the sector was historically dominated by a handful of players in the early 90's, it has witnessed a spate of new developers entering the fray in the recent years. The changing customer preferences of urban households have led to increasing demand for quality housing with value added amenities.

There are various factors which act as strong drivers for long term sustainable real estate demand in india such as:

1. Continued economic growth
2. Trend towards nuclear families
3. Young working population
4. Rising disposable incomes
5. Inherent desire to own a home

The Economic Survey 2013 points the following interesting facts which have a bearing on the real estate sector:

1. The real estate Sector contributed 10.8% of GDP while the housing sector contributed 5.9% of the GDP.
2. The per capita income is expected to increased by 11.7%.
3. Due to moderation of inflations, the Reserves Bank of India has undertaken certain monetary policies to ease the interest rates. The interest rates were marginally reduced, the benefit of which has been passed onto the customers. However, the Banks have not yet passé on the benefits to the companies operating in the sector.

4. RBI, to prevent asset bubble in the real estate sector, continued to assign high risk to loans disbursed to the companies operating in the sector.
5. There is thrust on providing low cost housing loans for the affordable housing segment.

However, in spite of importance of the sector, there are various short term factors which impact growth such as:

1. Inflation.
2. Non-availability of low cost working capital.
3. Employment growth.
4. Time lag during the approval process while launching a project.
5. Higher statutory levies.
6. Non-availability of skilled manpower.
7. Uncertainties surrounding land title.

The employment generated in the construction and real state sector is tremendous and it is, in fact, the second largest employer in the country. The development of the real estate and construction industry can also be directly linked to the development of approximately 250 different industries like cement, steel, building materials etc. It is, therefore, imperative that impetus should be provided to the construction and real estate sector so that overall economic development can be achieved.

Our Markets

Our prime focus will remain on the core residential business to generate positive cash flows through faster execution and monetization of receivable and to maintain the debt at optimum levels.

Regulatory Environment

Real Estate and Construction industry remains one of the most highly, regulated sectors in India. The sector is also one of the highest tax paying sectors.

The Government has introduced the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Bill, 2011 which was placed in the public domain for comments. The Bill seeks to establish a Real Estate Regulatory Authority for the planned development of the real estate sector. It also mandates prior registration with the Real state regulatory Authority for any projects exceeding 4,000 square meters and compliance with the requirements stated through a web enabled platform. It also provides for the establishment of a Real Estate Appellate Tribunals as a dispute redressal authority. This is a welcome step and would weed out players who do not have the expertise to meet customer commitments.

During the year, the Reserve Bank of India had issued Guidelines for allowing External Commercial Borrowing (ECB) for low cost housing projects. However, since the company is not engaged in the business of low cost housing, any likely benefits accruing to the Company are not significant.

Due to increase in excise duty on cement and steel along with the introduction of a negative list in the taxation of services, the end product cost have increased by 2%.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India had issued revised Guidance Note on Accounting for Real Estate Transactions during the year which has resulted in lower revenue recognition and understatement of profits.

The Union Budget for the year 2013-2014 has evoked mixed response from the real estate and construction sector. The much awaited industry status for real estate companies has not still gained ground amongst the policy makers. There has been no sector specific initiative like the erstwhile Section 80(IA) and Section 80(IB) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 in the Budget through such initiatives had resulted in nature and which support the real estate and construction industry. However, the introduction of Section 80(EE) will be advantageous for first time home buyers. Though the introduction of withholding taxes in case of immovable property transactions is a welcome step to check the avoidance of taxes, the procedural hassles involved will have to be examined as to whether the provisions would yield the desired results. The abatement for services tax has been reduced from 75% to 70% in case of residential units beyond a carpet area of 2,000 square feet and where the unit value is more than Rs. 10 million whichever is higher.

We continue to be remain cautious about the macroeconomic headwinds and the regulatory hurdles being faced by the sector as a whole.

PARLE SOFTWARE LIMITED

1 Significant Accounting Policies:

a. Basis of Preparation of financial statement:

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards prescribed by the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 and guidelines issued by SEBI. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

b. Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the GAAP requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period.

Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as the Management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

The Management periodically assesses using, external and internal sources, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's net selling price and value in use, which means the present value of future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and its eventual disposal. An impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill is reversed if, and only if, the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The carrying amount of an asset other than goodwill is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in previous years.

c. Revenue Recognition:

The company generally follows mercantile system of accounting and recognises significant terms of income and expenditure on accrual basis.

i. Revenue from sale of finished properties / buildings / Land are recognized on transfer of property and once significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer. Similarly, revenue from sale of Transferable Development Rights (TDR) is recognized on transfer of the rights to the buyer. Revenue recognition is postponed to the extent of significant uncertainty.

ii. Profit on sale of investments is recorded on transfer of title by the company and is determined as the difference between the sale price and carrying value of the investment. Lease rentals are recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Interest is recognized using the time-proportion method, based on rates implicit in the transaction. Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive dividend is established.

d. Fixed assets, including goodwill, intangible assets and capital work-in-progress:

Fixed assets are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairments, if any. Direct costs are capitalized until fixed assets are ready for use. Capital work-in-progress comprises outstanding advances paid to acquire fixed assets and the cost of fixed assets that are not yet ready for their intended use at the reporting date. Intangible assets are recorded at the consideration paid for acquisition of such assets and are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment. Goodwill comprises the excess of purchase consideration over the fair value of the net assets of the acquired enterprise. Goodwill arising on acquisition is not amortized but is tested for impairment.

e. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on the straight-line method based on useful lives of assets as estimated by the Management. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during the period is proportionately charged. Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, commencing from the date the asset is available for its use. Leasehold improvements are written off over the lower of the remaining primary Period of lease or the life of the asset. Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date.

Cost of Application Software for internal use are generally charged to revenue as incurred due to its estimated useful lives being relatively short, usually less than one year.

f. Investments:

Trade investments are the investments made to enhance the company's business interests. Investments are either classified as current or long term based on the Management's intention at the time of purchase. Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value of each investment individually. Long-term investments are carried at cost less provisions recorded to recognize any decline, other than temporary, in the carrying value of each investment.

g. Borrowing Costs:

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue.

h. Income Taxes:

i) Income taxes are accrued at the same period in which the related revenue and expenses arise. A provision is made for income tax annually based on the tax liability computed after considering tax allowances and exemptions. Provisions are recorded when it is estimated that a liability due to disallowances or other matters is probable. MAT paid in accordance to the tax laws, which gives rise to future economic benefits in the form of tax credit against future income tax liability, is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet if there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal tax after the tax holiday period and the resultant asset can be measured reliably. The company offsets, on a year-on-year basis, the current tax assets and liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right and where it intends to settle such assets and liabilities on a net basis.

ii) Deferred tax resulting from "timing differences" between book and taxable profit is accounted for using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date. The deferred tax asset is recognised and carried forward only to the extent that there is a reasonable /virtual certainty that the asset will be realised in future. Provision for Income Tax & Deferred Tax liabilities/ Assets.

i. Provision and Contingent Liabilities:

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by the best estimate of the outflow of economic benefits required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. Where no reliable estimate can be made, a disclosure is made as contingent liability. A disclosure for a contingent liability is also made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

j. Research and development:

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Software product development costs are expensed as incurred unless technical and commercial feasibility of the project is demonstrated, future economic benefits are probable, the Company has an intention and ability to complete and use or sell the software and that these costs can be measured reliably.

k. Foreign Currency Transactions

Revenues are accounted at daily rates. Exchange fluctuations arising on realization are dealt with in the Profit and Loss Account.

1. Earning Per Share:

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The diluted potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value, which is the average market value of the outstanding shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as at the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. The number of shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues, including for changes effected prior to the approval of the financial statements by the Board of Directors.

m. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash and cash on deposit with banks and corporations. The company considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash to be cash equivalents.

n. Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby net profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the company are segregated.

PARLE SOFTWARE LIMITED1.A Principles of Consolidation:

The Consolidated Financial Statements relate to Parle Software Limited ('the Company') and its Associates (collectively referred to as the 'PSL Group'). The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared on the following basis:

- i. Investments in Associate Companies have been accounted under the equity method as per Accounting Standard AS-23—Accounting for Investments in Associates in Consolidated Financial Statements.
- ii. As far as possible, the consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances and are presented in the same manner as the Company's separate financial statements.
- iii. Investments other than in Associates, have been accounted as per Accounting Standard AS-13 on "Accounting for Investments" in Consolidated Financial Statements.
- iv. The Associates Company considered in the consolidated financial statements is shown below:

Name of the Associates	Proportion of ownership interest
Hazoor Township Developers Pvt. Ltd.	45%

The reporting year for all the Associates ends on March 31. However, the financial statements of Associate Companies used in consolidation have been drawn for the period 1st April, 2011 to 31st March, 2012 on the basis of books of account which is subject to audit except for those indicated otherwise. These financial statements are certified by the management for the purpose of consolidation.

1.B Significant Accounting Policies:a. Basis of Preparation of financial statement:

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards prescribed by the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 and guidelines issued by SEBI. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

b. Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the GAAP requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period.

Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as the Management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

The Management periodically assesses using, external and internal sources, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's net selling price and value in use, which means the present value of future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and its eventual disposal. An impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill is reversed if, and only if, the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The carrying amount of an asset other than goodwill is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in previous years.

c. Revenue Recognition:

The company generally follows mercantile system of accounting and recognises significant terms of income and expenditure on accrual basis.

- i. Revenue from sale of finished properties / buildings / Land are recognized on transfer of property and once significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer. Similarly, revenue from sale of Transferable Development Rights (TDR) is recognized on transfer of the rights to the buyer. Revenue recognition is postponed to the extent of significant uncertainty.
- ii. Profit on sale of investments is recorded on transfer of title by the company and is determined as the difference between the sale price and carrying value of the investment. Lease rentals are recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Interest is recognized using the time-proportion method, based on rates implicit in the transaction. Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive dividend is established.
- d. Fixed assets, including goodwill, intangible assets and capital work-in-progress:
Fixed assets are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairments, if any. Direct costs are capitalized until fixed assets are ready for use. Capital work-in-progress comprises outstanding advances paid to acquire fixed assets and the cost of fixed assets that are not yet ready for their intended use at the reporting date. Intangible assets are recorded at the consideration paid for acquisition of such assets and are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment. Goodwill comprises the excess of purchase consideration over the fair value of the net assets of the acquired enterprise. Goodwill arising on acquisition is not amortized but is tested for impairment.
- e. Depreciation and amortization
Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on the straight-line method based on useful lives of assets as estimated by the Management. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during the period is proportionately charged. Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, commencing from the date the asset is available for its use. Leasehold improvements are written off over the lower of the remaining primary Period of lease or the life of the asset. Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date.
Cost of Application Software for internal use are generally charged to revenue as incurred due to its estimated useful lives being relatively short, usually less than one year.
- f. Investments:
Trade investments are the investments made to enhance the company's business interests. Investments are either classified as current or long term based on the Management's intention at the time of purchase. Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value of each investment individually. Long-term investments are carried at cost less provisions recorded to recognize any decline, other than temporary, in the carrying value of each investment.
- g. Borrowing Costs:
Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue.
- h. Income Taxes:
i) Income taxes are accrued at the same period in which the related revenue and expenses arise. A provision is made for income tax annually based on the tax liability computed after considering tax allowances and exemptions. Provisions are recorded when it is estimated that a liability due to disallowances or other matters is probable. MAT paid in accordance to the tax laws, which gives rise to future economic benefits in the form of tax credit against future income tax liability, is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet if there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal tax after the tax holiday period and the resultant asset can be measured reliably. The company offsets, on a year-on-year basis, the current tax assets and liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right and where it intends to settle such assets and liabilities on a net basis.
ii) Deferred tax resulting from "timing differences" between book and taxable profit is accounted for using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date. The deferred tax asset is recognised and carried forward only to the extent that there is a reasonable /virtual certainty that the asset will be realised in future. Provision for Income Tax & Deferred Tax liabilities/Assets.

i. Provision and Contingent Liabilities:

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by the best estimate of the outflow of economic benefits required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. Where no reliable estimate can be made, a disclosure is made as contingent liability. A disclosure for a contingent liability is also made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

j. Research and development:

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Software product development costs are expensed as incurred unless technical and commercial feasibility of the project is demonstrated, future economic benefits are probable, the Company has an intention and ability to complete and use or sell the software and that these costs can be measured reliably.

k. Foreign Currency Transactions

Revenues are accounted at daily rates. Exchange fluctuations arising on realization are dealt with in the Profit and Loss Account.

l. Earning Per Share:

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The diluted potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value, which is the average market value of the outstanding shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as at the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. The number of shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues, including for changes effected prior to the approval of the financial statements by the Board of Directors.

m. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash and cash on deposit with banks and corporations. The company considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash to be cash equivalents.

n. Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby net profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the company are segregated.
