Chairman's Message

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me immense pleasure to apprise you about our performance in the year 2016-17, and to give a glance of our plans for near future.

J. Lakshmana Rao, CMD

At the outset, I would like to inform that, our Company has added another feather in our cap by winning the INDIASTAR - 2017 Award for our "Rotolock" Container in collaboration with MTR Foods Private Limited. Achievement of this award for second time shows our innovative spirit and strengthens our leadership position in Indian Packaging Industry - INDIASTAR Award is the National Award for Excellence in Packaging which is held in a great esteem in India. Another two awards that our Company bagged in 2016-17 are the Asian Paints PACON- PACON-2016 for Winnovation and 3rd Rank in plastic Category in PACON-2016-17, competition.

Our Company, in financial year 2016-17 achieved a growth rate of 12% in terms of volume. Though demonetisation had slackened growth of Indian economy, our Company managed to grow at 12%, thanks to the exceptional performance in 1st and 2nd quarters of the financial year 2016-17.

EBITDA is up by 14% and Net profit after tax (standalone) is up by 12% and Earnings per share (EPS) has gone up to Rs. 9.75 from Rs. 8.70 in the financial year 2015-16. Company had declared an interim dividend of 40% (i.e.Rs. 2 per Equity share) and recommended a final dividend @ 32% (i.e.Rs. 1.60 per equity share) i.e a total dividend @ 72% (Rs. 3.60 per share) for the financial year 2016-17.

The new plant at RAK, (UAE) started operations in November 2016, currently running at 25% to 30% capacity utilization which we hope will go up to 50% to 55% (Break Even Point) by October-November 2017. Many enquiries are being received from reputed lube, paint and food product manufactures in UAE and the Middle East.

The major development that happened this year is IML Containers order for "Dairy Milk Lickables" by Mondelez. Our Company set up the manufacturing facilities for this prestigious product within four months and received several compliments from the world renowned leader in Chocolate Industry, Mondelez for excellent execution, quality and consistent supplies. Going forward our Company can expect many more such opportunities in food and FMCG segments.

With an endeavor to expand and grow we are expanding our existing capacity at Hyderabad main plant by investing Rs. 25 crore for the production of Food and FMCG Thin wall containers. The 1st phase of the project will go into production by December 2017 and will be completed by June 2018. This project will enhance our Thin Wall F& F Products capacity from 1400 TPA to 3000 TPA.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW

Your Company has shown a healthy performance at standalone level in terms of revenue, EBIDTA & PAT. Your Company has achieved a total revenue of ₹345,36 lakhs from ₹308,71 lakhs in the previous year with a growth rate of 12%. The operating profit (EBIDTA) increased by 14%, from ₹46,26 lakhs to ₹52,74 lakhs, overall resulting into sharp increase in net profits by 12% amounting to ₹26,99 lakhs as against the profit of ₹24,10 lakhs for financial year 2015-16. The EPS on weighted average equity has increased from ₹8.70 in the financial year 2015-16 to ₹9.75 in the financial year 2016-17, leading to an increase of 12%.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

While demonetization impacted sales in second half of the financial year, introduction of GST on 1st July made a major impact on business segments, these changes are necessary for the economy and the entire country is now under a uniform tax code. However, change also brought in uncertainty and disruption in supply chain resulting in a dampening effect on demand in June and July 2017.

However as your Company is now establishing its growth plans in new business segments like food & FMCG & new geographies like the Middle East, the future outlook is bright though the first half of the current financial year may get partly impacted by GST.

RAK plant: RAK plant started commercial production from November 2016 and the process of plant and product approvals by various clients is happening in last few months, currently the plant is working around 25% capacity utilisation and is expected to cross breakeven point of around 50-55% capacity utilization with by November 2017.

2 new plants for Asian Paints: Land has been acquired both at Mysore and Vizag for construction of two manufacturing plants for Asian Paints, signing & contracting has been completed and civil works will start from October 2017. As informed, in first phase, your Company shall set up these plants with a capacity of 3,500 TPA to be increased to 14,000 TPA by 2024. Product designs are completed and molds are being manufactured to meet Asian Paints' target date of trials by July 2018 and commercial production by October 2018.

FOOD & FMCG: During last financial year, your Company has received a major order from chocolates leader in India Mondelez India Foods Private Limited (Formerly, Cadbury India Limited) and executed a project to produce IML containers for their famous brand 'Lickables.' Mondelez was very happy at the expeditious, way the project was implemented and assured preferred vendor status to Moldtek for its IML based product development.

Your Company is also setting up a ₹25 crore expansion project at its Hyderabad plants to enhance IML label production capacity by 300% and also molding capacity of thin wall food & FMCG products from 1,400 TPA to 3,000 TPA in two phases i.e. November 2017 and June 2018.

There are many enquiries from leading food & FMCG companies and your Company hopes to convert and execute these orders from November-December 2017 onwards.

The growth in food and FMCG segment has reached 6% from 5% last year, showing a healthy growth. This is expected to reach around 12-15% in the current financial year. Higher value added IML food & FMCG products is expected to improve margins in the coming years. In spite of setback in demand due to GST, your Company hopes to clock a double digit volume growth in the current financial year and coming years.

a. Conservation of energy

Energy conservation is one of the words we are hearing more and more. Energy conservation is not about making limited resources last as long as they can, that would mean that you are doing nothing more than prolong a crisis until we finally run out of energy resources all together. Conservation is the process of reducing demand on a limited supply and enabling that supply to begin to rebuild itself. Many times the best way of doing this is to replace the energy used with an alternate.

Without energy conservation, the world will deplete its natural resources. While some people don't see that as an issue because it will take many decades to happen and they foresee that by the time the natural resource is gone there will be an alternative; the depletion also comes at the cost of creating an enormous destructive waste product that then impacts the rest of life. The goal with energy conservation techniques is reduce demand, protect and replenish supplies, develop and use alternative energy sources, and to clean up the damage from the prior energy processes.

Steps taken for conservation of energy

- a. Monitoring and analysis of energy consumption on periodic basis;
- b. New moulding machines selected are always either servo controller or fully electric machines;
- c. Replacement of conventional tubes and bulbs with LED;
- d. Monitoring, benchmarking and selection of energy intensive equipment only;
- e. Minimum use of energy by optimizing processes and material movement in factories;
- f. 'Machine On' alarms and automatic switch off machines;
- g. Share and implement best energy saving practices across manufacturing units.

b. Technology absorption

Mold-Tek operates in an industry which requires continuous technology upgradation for manufacturing products and research activities to stay ahead of the market. Currently, the Company has a centralized integrated tool room to develop and repair molds. While the Company's centralized tool room provides advantages such as early development of products at cheaper cost, Mold-Tek will continue to make investments in R&D including and not limited to developing robots, new molds and processes since the Company depends significantly on such processes for upgrading the technologies and processes from time to time. The top management devotes considerable time to develop new design and technologies at the tool room. These R&D activities are critical since it may improve demand for the Company's products and profitability, if the same proves to be successful.

c. Foreign exchange earnings and outgo

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OVERVIEW

The financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) in India. The management accepts responsibility for the integrity and objectivity of these financial statements as well as for various estimates and judgments used therein. These estimates and judgments relating to the financial statements have been made on a prudent and reasonable basis, in order that the statements reflect, in a true and fair manner, the state of affairs and profits for the year. This report may also contain certain statements that the Company believes are or may be considered to be 'forward looking statements' which are subject to certain risks and uncertainties.

GLOBAL ECONOMY

The global economy remains trapped in a prolonged period of slow economic growth and dwindling international trade growth. In 2016, the world economy expanded by just 2.2%, the slowest rate of growth since the Great Recession of 2009. Underpinning the sluggish global economy are the feeble pace of global investment, dwindling world trade growth, flagging productivity growth and high levels of debt. Low commodity prices have exacerbated these factors in many commodity-exporting countries since mid-2014, while conflict and geopolitical tensions continue to weigh on economic prospects in several regions.

World gross product is forecast to expand by 2.7% in 2017 and 2.9% in 2018, with this modest recovery more an indication of economic stabilization than a signal of a robust and sustained revival of global demand. The slight increase in gross domestic product (GDP) growth projected for developed economies in 2017 is largely driven by the end of the destocking cycle in the United States of America and additional policy support in Japan.

Dwindling world trade growth is both a contributing factor and a symptom of the global economic slowdown. World trade volumes expanded by just 1.2% in 2016, the third-lowest rate in the past 30 years. The ratio of world trade growth to world gross product growth has declined significantly since the 1990s. While global import penetration is expected to exhibit a modest recovery, world trade growth is unlikely to outpace world gross product significantly in the coming years. World trade is projected to expand by 2.7% in 2017 and 3.3% in 2018.

INDIAN ECONOMY

The Economic Survey of 2014-15 spoke about the sweet spot for the Indian economy that could launch India onto a trajectory of sustained growth of 8-10%. Last year's Survey assessed that 'for now, but not indefinitely, that sweet spot is still beckoningly there.' This year's stocktaking suggests that shifts in the underlying vision will be needed to overcome the major challenges ahead, thereby accelerating growth, expanding employment opportunities, and achieving social justice. In the aftermath of demonetization, and because cyclical developments will make economic management harder, articulating and embracing those shifts will be critical to ensuring that that sweet spot is enduring not evanescent.

This year has been marked by several historic economic policy developments. On the domestic side, a constitutional amendment paved the way for the long-awaited and transformational goods and services tax (GST) while demonetization of the large currency notes signaled a regime shift to punitively raise the costs of illicit activities. On the international front, Brexit and the US elections may herald a tectonic shift, forebodingly laden with darker possibilities for the global, and even the Indian, economy.

The GST will create a common Indian market, improve tax compliance and governance, and boost investment and growth; it is also a bold new experiment in the governance of India's cooperative federalism. Further tax reforms, including bringing land and real estate into the GST, reducing tax rates and stamp duties; and acting to allay anxieties about over-zealous tax administration.

A radical governance-cum-social engineering measure was enacted on November 8, 2016. The two largest denomination notes, ₹500 and ₹1000, together comprising 86% of all the cash in circulation were 'demonetized' with immediate effect, ceasing to be legal tender except for a few specified purposes. These notes were to be deposited in the banks by December 30, while restrictions were placed on cash withdrawals. In other words, restrictions were placed on the convertibility of domestic money and bank deposits. Demonetization was aimed at signaling a regime change, emphasizing the government's determination to penalize illicit activities and the associated wealth. In effect, the tax on illicit activities as well as on legal activities that were not disclosed to the tax authorities was sought to be permanently and punitively increased.

The broad conclusion is that demonetization will create short-term costs and provide the basis for long run benefits.

Short-term costs have taken the form of inconvenience and hardship, especially those in the informal and cash-intensive sectors of the economy who have lost income and employment. These costs are transitory, and may be minimized in recorded GDP because the national income accounts estimate informal activity on the basis of formal sector indicators, which have not suffered to the same extent. But the costs have nonetheless been real and significant. The benefits of lower interest rates and dampened price pressure may have cushioned the short-term macroeconomic impact.

At the same time, demonetization has the potential to generate long-term benefits in terms of reduced corruption, greater digitalization of the economy, increased flows of financial savings, and greater formalization of the economy, all of which could eventually lead to higher GDP growth, better tax compliance and greater tax revenues.

These actions would allow growth to start returning from in 2017-18, following a temporary decline in 2016-17. Looking further ahead, societal shifts in ideas and narratives will be needed to overcome three long-standing meta-challenges: inefficient redistribution, ambivalence about the private sector and property rights, and improving but still-challenged state capacity in the aftermath of demonetization and GST, at a time of gathering gloom about globalization, articulating and embracing those ideational shifts will be critical to ensuring that India's sweet spot is enduring not evanescent.

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT

The Indian plastic industry is making significant contribution to the economic development and growth of various key sectors in the country which includes automotive, construction, electronics, healthcare, textiles, food and FMCG. The developments in the plastic machinery sector are coupled with developments in the petrochemical sector, both of which support the plastic processing sector. This has facilitated plastic processors to build capacities for the service of both the domestic market and the markets overseas.

Today, the plastic processing sector comprises over 30,000 units involved in producing a variety of items, gaining notable importance in different spheres of activity with per capita consumption increasing. The plastic processing industry has the potential to contribute in bringing foreign investments and thus India's vision of becoming a manufacturing hub.

Indian plastics processing industry has grown at a CAGR of 10% in volume terms from 8.3 MMTPA in 2009-10 to 13.4 MMTPA in 2014-15 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 10.5% from 2014-15 to 2019-20 to reach 22 MMTPA. In value terms, the plastic processing industry has grown at a CAGR of 11% from ₹35,000 crore in 2004-05 to ₹100,000 crore in 2014-15.

Current low levels of per capita consumption (11 Kg), increased growth in end use industries and higher penetration of plastics in various existing applications and ever growing range of new applications could further propel the growth of plastics in India.

However, despite having a good growth potential, the plastic processing industry faces many challenges in terms of environmental myths, lack of advanced technology, limited infrastructure, & high volatility in feedstock prices. To overcome these challenges, significant efforts will have to be made by all the stakeholders to realize the real potential of this industry.

The industries which plastics cater to heavily are food and FMCG, construction and infrastructure and agriculture. Increasing population, growing urbanization and shift in lifestyle has pushed these sectors to gain a high growth in past decade. This has prompted a double-digit growth for plastics in India. With sectors like pharmaceuticals, personal and home care, etc. emerging in the rural areas and reinforced efforts in bringing out innovative plastic products, the industry is expecting further uplift in near future. Packaging being the first contact of consumer experience, before consuming the content, consumer opinion about the product is highly influenced by the attractiveness of the packaging. With modern demand increasing rapidly, demand for better packaging is expected to shoot up in near future.

BUSINESS SEGMENTS OVERVIEW

Your Company is engaged in the manufacturing of rigid plastic packaging containers through injection molding technology mainly for paints, lubes, & FMCG sectors.

PAINT INDUSTRY

The Indian paint market is expected to reach ₹70,875 crore by 2019-20 from around ₹40,300 crore in 2014-15. In value terms, the Indian paint industry is expected to grow at a CAGR of around 12% during 2016-17 to 2021-22.

This is due to the shift in preferences of people from the traditional whitewash to higher quality paints like emulsions and enamel paints. This, along with water soluble paints, are catching up in the market. It has been noticed that not only high quality paints, but also the frequency of painting has increased, leading to paint companies launching highly advanced products and customized products.

The shift in trend is also more accentuated in Tier 1 and Tier 2 cities, which are leading in demand for dust and water-resistant paints. Coming to the demand part, decorative paints enjoy maximum demand. Under the decorative segment, the emulsion paint market has witnessed a massive demand over the past few years and is expected to drive the market in the coming years too. The domestic paint industry had been growing at a rapid pace over the years, but it was not supported by supply of adequate skilled talent. The market for raw materials too is growing with the growth of the paint industry.

We saw that demonetization impacted Asian Paints and Akzo Nobel the most, with most of the paint manufacturers witnessing a decelerating quarterly growth of 2-3% in Q3 of 2016-17, as against the 8-13% growth witnessed in the previous quarter. Asian Paints, which has high penetration in rural markets, felt the accentuated effect more than in the urban markets.

However, we expect the growth to pick up and normalize in 2017-18. Also, with the implementation of GST in 2017-18, organized players like Asian Paints and Kansai Nerolac can expect market share gains seeping in the near future. This will be largely due to the level playing field that the organized sector will be enjoying with the unorganized sector.

LUBE INDUSTRY

India is expected to be one of the largest contributors to non-OECD petroleum consumption growth globally. Total oil imports rose 4.24% year-on-year to USD 86.45 billion in April-March 2016-17. India's oil consumption grew 8.3% year-on-year to 212.7 million tonnes in 2016, as against the global growth of 1.5%, thereby making it the third-largest oil consuming nation in the world.

India is the third largest lubricant market in the world after the US and China and currently one of the fastest growing lubricants markets globally. Broadly, the Indian market can be segmented into three major categories - automotive, industrial including marine applications and process oils/white oils. The market has a very competitive landscape with more than 15 national level players catering to the market needs. It is marked by the presence of the nationalized oil companies (NOCs), global marketers and a few domestic players. For the automotive and industrial lubricants segments, NOCs are the biggest lubricant suppliers in volume terms followed by the MNC brands.

FOOD AND FMCG INDUSTRY

FMCG is the fourth largest sector in the Indian economy. During 2016-20, FMCG market in India is expected to grow at a CAGR of 20.6% and is expected to reach USD 103.7 billion by 2020. Total consumption expenditure is estimated to reach nearly USD 3,600 billion by 2020 from USD 1,411 billion in 2014. The rural FMCG market in India is expected to grow at a CAGR of 14.6%, during 2016-25 and reach to USD 100 billion by 2025.

As of 2016, the overall rural FMCG consumption stands at an estimated USD 29.4 billion. Rising incomes and growing youth population have been key growth drivers of the sector. Brand consciousness has also aided demand. In the long run, with the system becoming more transparent & easily compliable, demonetization and GST is expected to benefit organized players in the food and FMCG industry.

Annexure 'B' to the Independent Auditors' Report

Annexure 'B' to the Independent Auditors' report of even date on the Standalone Financial Statements of Mold-Tek Packaging Limited

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Mold-Tek Packaging Limited ('the Company') as of 31st March, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended as on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note'), issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and the Guidance Note, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Mold-Tek Packaging

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
