MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORTINDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT

India is the largest provider of generic drugs globally. Indian pharmaceutical sector industry supplies over 50 per cent of global demand for various vaccines, 40 per cent of generic demand in the US and 25 per cent of all medicine in UK. India enjoys an important position in the global pharmaceuticals sector. The country also has a large pool of scientists and engineers who have the potential to steer the industry ahead to an even higher level. Presently over 80 per cent of the antiretroviral drugs used globally to combat AIDS (Acquired Immuno Deficiency Syndrome) are supplied by Indian pharmaceutical firms.

Market Size

The pharmaceutical sector was valued at US$ 33 billion in 2017. The country's pharmaceutical industry is expected to expand at a CAGR of 22.4 per cent over 2015–20 to reach US$ 55 billion. India's pharmaceutical exports stood at US$ 17.27 billion in 2017-18 and are expected to reach US$ 20 billion by 2020.

Indian companies received 304 Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) approvals from the US Food and Drug Administration (USFDA) in 2017. The country accounts for around 30 per cent (by volume) and about 10 per cent (value) in the US$ 70-80 billion US generics market.

India's biotechnology industry comprising bio-pharmaceuticals, bio-services, bio-agriculture, bio-industry and bioinformatics is expected grow at an average growth rate of around 30 per cent a year and reach US$ 100 billion by 2025. Biopharma, comprising vaccines, therapeutics and diagnostics, is the largest sub-sector contributing nearly 62 per cent of the total revenues at Rs 12,600 crore (US$ 1.89 billion).

Investments

The Union Cabinet has given its nod for the amendment of the existing Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) policy in the pharmaceutical sector in order to allow FDI up to 100 per cent under the automatic route for manufacturing of medical devices subject to certain conditions.

The drugs and pharmaceuticals sector attracted cumulative FDI inflows worth US$ 15.59 billion between April 2000 and December 2017, according to data released by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (DIPP).

Some of the recent developments/investments in the Indian pharmaceutical sector are as follows:

- In 2017, Indian pharmaceutical sector witnessed 46 merger & acquisition (M&A) deals worth US$ 1.47 billion.
- The exports of Indian pharmaceutical industry to the US will get a boost, as branded drugs worth US$ 55 billion will become off-patent during 2017-2019.

The Indian pharmaceuticals market is the third largest in terms of volume and thirteenth largest in terms of value. Branded generics dominate the pharmaceuticals market, constituting nearly 70 to 80 per cent of the market. India is the largest provider of generic drugs globally with the Indian generics accounting for 20 per cent of global exports in terms of volume. Of late, consolidation has become an important characteristic of the Indian pharmaceutical market as the industry is highly fragmented.

India enjoys an important position in the global pharmaceuticals sector. The country also has a large pool of scientists and engineers who have the potential to steer the industry ahead to an even higher level. Presently over 80 per cent of the antiretroviral drugs used globally to combat AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) are supplied by Indian pharmaceutical firms.

The UN-backed Medicines Patent Pool has signed six sub-licences with Aurobindo, Cipla, Desano, Emcure, Hetero Labs and Laurus Labs, allowing them to make generic anti-AIDS medicine Tenofovir Alafenamide (TAF) for 112 developing countries. Owing to robust historical growth and future prospects, many MNC companies have active presence in the Indian pharma space.

Besides the domestic market, Indian pharma companies also have a large chunk of their revenues coming from exports. Major companies are focusing on the generics market in the US, Europe and semi-regulated markets; others are focusing on custom manufacturing for innovator companies. Biopharmaceuticals is also increasingly becoming an area of interest given the complexity in manufacture and limited competition.

India enjoys an important position in the global pharmaceuticals sector. The country also has a large pool of scientists and engineers who have the potential to steer the industry ahead to an even higher level.

Pharmaceutical Sector Overview

Global

The pharmaceutical industry plays a unique role in improving the lives of patients. It is also one of the world's fastest growing industries and among the biggest contributors to the world economy.

Global spending

According to the Quintiles IMS Institute, the pharmaceutical market will reach nearly USD 1,485 billion by 2021, an increase of USD 350-380 billion from the USD 1,105 billion recorded in 2016. This growth is expected to be driven by market expansion in pharmerging countries and a higher proportion of aged population in developed countries.

The Indian pharmaceutical industry is the 14th largest market in the world by value; in terms of volume it is the 3rd largest. India manufactures 20% of all generics made globally and exports to 200 countries, with USA as the principal market. While during the year under review, domestic growth slowed down in the wake of implementation of Goods and Services Tax (GST), the outlook remains positive. Increase in the size of middle-class households coupled with the improvement in medical infrastructure and jump in the penetration of health insurance in the country are expected to boost domestic demand for pharmaceutical products. By 2020, India is anticipated to become the top three pharmaceutical markets by incremental growth and 6th largest market globally in absolute size. India's focus on providing complex and speciality products, customercentricity, regulatory compliance, quality improvement and operational efficiency are expected to enhance exports. Exports from India stood at USD 16.84 billion in FY 2016-17; it is expected to reach USD 20 billion by 2020. 20 In Pursuit of Excell

The Indian pharmaceutical industry is well-positioned to reinforce its position as a global pharmaceutical provider. As per industry estimates, India's pharmaceutical industry is expected to expand at a CAGR of 12.89% over 2015-20 to reach USD 55 billion and by 2025 to grow to USD 100 billion.

FACTORS INFLUENCING GROWTH OF THE INDUSTRY

The Indian pharmaceutical industry ranks 14th in the world by value of pharmaceutical products. With a well-established domestic manufacturing base and low-cost skilled manpower, India is emerging as a global hub for pharma products and the industry continues to be on a growth trajectory. Moreover, India is significantly ahead in providing chemistry services such as analogue preparation, analytical chemistry, and structural drug design, thereby offering ample scope in contract research and other emerging segments in the pharmaceutical industry. Some of the major factors that would drive growth in the industry are as follows:

- Increase in domestic demand: More than half of India's population does not have access to advanced medical services and depend on traditional medicine practices. However, with increase in awareness levels, rising per capita income, change in lifestyle due to urbanization, and increase in literacy levels, demand for advanced medical treatment is expected to rise. Moreover, growth in the middle-class population would further influence demand for pharmaceutical products.
- Rise in outsourcing activities: Increase in the outsourcing business to India would also drive growth of the Indian pharmaceutical industry. Some of the factors that are likely to influence clinical data management and bio-statistics markets in India in the near future include: 1) its cost efficient research vis-à-vis other countries 2) highly-skilled labour base 3) cheaper cost of skilled labour 4) presence in end-to-end solutions across the drug-development spectrum and 5) robust growth in the IT industry.
- Growth in healthcare financing products: Development in the Indian financial industry has eased healthcare financing with products such as health insurance policy becoming popular. This has resulted in increase in healthcare spending, which in turn, has benefitted the pharmaceutical industry.
- Demand from emerging segments: Some of the emerging segments such as contract research and development, bio-pharma, clinical trials, bio-generics, medical tourism, and pharma packaging are also expected to drive growth of the Indian pharmaceutical industry.

SWOT ANALYSIS OF THE INDUSTRY

The SWOT analysis of the industry reveals the position of the Indian pharmaceutical industry in respect to its internal and external environment.

a) STRENGTHS

In India the cost of manufacturing pharma products are less and effective comparing to other countries. India has a strong manufacturing base. Due to the technology development the high skilled work force is available in India. The marketing and distribution system is also on the higher side in India by communication development. The diverse ecosystem also strengthens the sector.

- Higher GDP growth leading to increased disposable income in the hands of general public and their positive attitude towards spending on healthcare.
- Low-cost, highly skilled set of English speaking labour force and proven track record in design of high technology manufacturing devices.
- Growing treatment naive patient population.
- Low cost of innovation, manufacturing and operations.

b) WEAKNESSES

Even though the FDI limit is liberalized there is still less investment in research and development which has to be taken care of by the Industry and the government. The lack of co-ordination between the industry and academician is on the weak point. When comparing to other expenditures by households the expenditure incurred on health care is negligible. The manufacture of low and fake medicines which are having low quality is a threatening to this industry

- Stringent pricing regulations affecting the profitability of pharma companies.
- Poor all-round infrastructure is a major challenge.
- Presence of more un-organised players versus the organised ones, resulting in an increasingly competitive environment, characterised by stiff price competition.
- Poor health insurance coverage.

c) OPPORTUNITIES

Despite the weaknesses of the industry the growth of this industry is expected greatly because there is increased export potential. It is also expected that the export of generic drugs to the developed markets will be on the increase. There is immense scope to position India as a centre for international clinical trials. It is also expected that India will be a key player in global pharmaceutical R&D.

- Global demand for generics rising.
- Rapid OTC and generic market growth.
- Increased penetration in the non - metro markets.
- Large demand for quality diagnostic services.
- Significant investment from MNCs.
- Public-Private Partnerships for strengthening Infrastructure.
- Opening of the health insurance sector and increase in per capita income - the growth drivers for the pharmaceutical industry.
- India, a potentially preferred global outsourcing hub for pharmaceutical products due to low cost of skilled labour.

d) THREATS / RISKS AND CONCERNS

The product patent regime is one of the major threats to domestic Industry. To face this threat the industry is taking up R&D initiative aggressively. The Drug Price Control order made by the Government of India put undue pressure on product prices which affects the profitability of the pharmaceutical companies. The new MRP based excise duty regime is the threat for the small business companies.

- Wage inflation.
- Government expanding the umbrella of the Drugs Price Control Order (DPCO).
- Other low-cost countries such as China and Israel affecting outsourcing demand for Indian pharmaceutical products
- Entry of foreign players (well-equipped technology-based products) into the Indian market.

GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES

The implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) is expected to be a game-changer for the Indian Pharmaceuticals industry. It will lead to tax-neutral inter-state transactions between two dealers, thereby reducing the dependency on multiple states and increasing the focus on regional hubs. It is expected to result in an efficient supply chain management, which is expected to reduce its cost considerably. The cost of technology and investment is expected to reduce on account of tax credit which can be availed now on the duties levied on import of costly machinery and equipment.

Some of the initiatives taken by the government to promote the pharmaceutical sector in India are as follows:

- The National Health Protection Scheme is largest government funded healthcare programme in the world, which is expected to benefit 100 million poor families in the country by providing a cover of up to Rs 5 lakh (US$ 7,723.2) per family per year for secondary and tertiary care hospitalisation. The programme was announced in Union Budget 2018-19.
- In March 2018, the Drug Controller General of India (DCGI) announced its plans to start a single-window facility to provide consents, approvals and other information. The move is aimed at giving a push to the Make in India initiative.
- The Government of India is planning to set up an electronic platform to regulate online pharmacies under a new policy, in order to stop any misuse due to easy availability.
- The Government of India unveiled 'Pharma Vision 2020' aimed at making India a global leader in end-to-end drug manufacture. Approval time for new facilities has been reduced to boost investments.
- The government introduced mechanisms such as the Drug Price Control Order and the National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority to deal with the issue of affordability and availability of medicines.

ROAD AHEAD

Medicine spending in India is expected to increase at 9-12 per cent CAGR between 2018-22 to US$ 26-30 billion, driven by increasing consumer spending, rapid urbanisation, and raising healthcare insurance among others.

Going forward, better growth in domestic sales would also depend on the ability of companies to align their product portfolio towards chronic therapies for diseases such as such as cardiovascular, anti-diabetes, anti-depressants and anti-cancers that are on the rise.

The Indian government has taken many steps to reduce costs and bring down healthcare expenses. Speedy introduction of generic drugs into the market has remained in focus and is expected to benefit the Indian pharmaceutical companies. In addition, the thrust on rural health programmes, lifesaving drugs and preventive vaccines also augurs well for the pharmaceutical companies.

The Indian pharmaceutical market size is expected to grow to US$ 100 billion by 2025, driven by increasing consumer spending, rapid urbanisation, and raising healthcare insurance among others.

OUTLOOK

Overall growth outlook for the Indian drugs and pharmaceutical industry appears positive. Pharma manufacturers are likely to benefit from rise in demand for generic products. Some of the factors that would drive growth in the domestic pharma industry are:

- 1) low cost operations
- 2) research-based processes
- 3) improvements in API and,
- 4) availability of skilled manpower.

The domestic formulations and bulk drugs markets are currently facing price pressure as benefits of cheaper drugs have been shifted to end-users and trade channels. Hence, consolidation, partnership and alliances are expected to gather momentum in the near future. Off patenting of branded drugs would increase demand for generic drugs. This provides immense opportunities to the Indian pharmaceutical companies especially given their prior experience in generic drug development. Some other factors such as high penetration in the global markets and increase of share in Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) filings are likely to power growth of the formulations market. Major growth drivers for the Indian bulk drug industry include rise in demand for contract manufacturing, increase of share in Drug Master Files (DMF) filings and process innovation.

The policy on remuneration for KMPs and other employees is as below:-

1. Fixed pay

The remuneration and reward structure for employees comprises two broad components - annual remuneration and long-term rewards. The Committee would determine the remuneration of the Directors and formulate guidelines for remuneration payable to the employees.

These guidelines are as under:

a) Annual remuneration

Annual remuneration refers to the annual compensation payable to the employees of the Company. This comprises two parts - a fixed component, and a performance-linked variable component based on the extent of achievement of the individual's objectives and performance of the business unit. Employee is required to determine his/her key result areas for that particular defined role. The performance-linked variable pay will be directly linked to the performance on individual components of the performance and the overall performance of the business. An employee's variable pay would, therefore, be directly dependent on key performance measures that represent the best interests of shareholders.

The objective is to set the total remuneration at levels to attract, motivate, and retain high-caliber, and high potential personnel in a competitive global market. The total remuneration level is to be reset annually based on a comparison with the relevant peer group globally, established through independent compensation surveys, from time to time.

b) Long-term rewards

Long-term rewards may be granted to eligible key employees based on their contribution to the performance of the Company, relative position in the organization, and length of service under the supervision and approval of the Committee.

The grant, vesting and other scheme details would be formulated from time to time.

These long-term reward schemes are implemented to attract and retain key talent in the industry.

2. Minimum remuneration to Managing Director/ Chief Executive officer

If, in any financial year, the Company has no profits or its profits are inadequate, the Company shall pay remuneration to its Managing Director in accordance with the provisions of Schedule V of the Companies Act, 2013 and if it is not able to comply with such provisions, with the previous approval of the Central Government.

C. Remuneration/ Setting Fees / Commission to Non-Executive / Independent Directors

1. Remuneration/ Setting Fees / Commission

The remuneration payable to each Non-Executive Director is based on the remuneration structure as determined by the Board, and is revised from time to time, depending on individual contribution, the Company's performance, and the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules made there under.

The remuneration to the Non-executive Directors (including Independent Directors) may be paid within the monetary limit approved by shareholders, subject to the limit not exceeding 1% of the profits of the Company computed as per the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

2. Stock options

The Independent Directors shall not be entitled to any stock option of the Company.

Policy review

This policy is framed based on the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and rules there under and the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 with the Stock Exchanges.

In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 or any other regulations which makes any of the provisions in the policy inconsistent with the Act or regulations, then the provisions of the Act or regulations would prevail over the policy and the provisions in the policy would be modified in due course to make it consistent with law.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purpose in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2018, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

De-recognition of financial instruments

A financial asset is de-recognised when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

A financial liability or a part of financial liability is de-recognised from the Balance Sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

j. IMPAIRMENTFinancial assets

The company recognizes loss allowances using the expected credit loss model for the financial assets which are not fair valued through statement of profit and loss. Loss allowance on trade receivables, with no significant financing component is measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit loss. For all financial assets expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECL unless there has been significant increase in credit risk from initial recognition in which case these are measured at lifetime expected credit loss. The amount of expected credit losses or reversal that is required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date to the amount that is required to be recognized is recognized as an impairment gain or loss in the profit or loss for the period.

Intangible assets, property, plant and equipment

Intangible assets, property plant & equipment are evaluated for recoverability wherever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable.

For impairment testing, assets that do not generate independent cash flows are grouped together into cash generating units (CGUs).

For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value in use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU to which the asset belongs.

If such asset is considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized in the statement of profit and loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated recoverable amount of the asset. An impairment loss is reversed in the statement of profit & losses if there have been changes in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. The carrying amount is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceeds the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss has been recognized for the asset in prior years.

k. EARNING PER SHARE

Basic Earnings Per Share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the company to the weighted average number of Shares outstanding during the period & Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the company after adjusting the effect of all dilutive potential equity shares that were outstanding during the period, the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period including the weighted average number of equity shares that could have issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset where the company has legal enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liability simultaneously.

(ii) DEFERRED TAX ASSETS / LIABILITIES

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the assets can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset and when the deferred tax balances relate to taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but the Group intends to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risk specific to liability.

The Board of Directors reviewed policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarized below:

(i) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss.

The impairment for financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Company uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Company's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each balance sheet date. Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, however, the Company continues to attempt to recover the receivables. Where recoveries are made, these are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(ii) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to the probability of loss arising from a situation where there will not be enough cash and/or cash equivalents to meet the needs of depositors and borrowers, sale of illiquid assets will yield less than their fair value and illiquid assets will not be sold at the desired time due to lack of buyers. The primary objective of liquidity management is to provide for sufficient cash and cash equivalents at all times and any place in the world to enable us to meet our payment obligations.

(iii) Interest rate risk
