INTERNAL RISK

- 1. We do not have long-term agreements with our suppliers for raw materials and an inability to procure the desired quality, quantity of our raw materials in a timely manner and at reasonable costs, or at all, may have a negative impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.*

Our purchases of raw materials are concentrated from a few suppliers. The details of this concentration are provided in the following table:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended on June 30, 2024		For the Year Ended March 31, 2024		For the Year Ended March 31, 2023		For the Year Ended March 31, 2022
	Purchases	% of Total Purchases	Purchases	% of Total Purchases	Purchases	% of Total Purchases	Purchases	% of Total Purchases
Top 1 Supplier	438.24	25.83	1,448.22	24.10	1,389.18	23.24	795.83	16.20
Top 3 Suppliers	644.77	38.01	2,313.74	38.51	2,284.74	38.22	1,620.76	32.98
Top 5 Suppliers	810.67	47.79	2,968.94	49.41	2,840.17	47.51	2,131.40	43.38
Top 10 Suppliers	1,099.92	64.84	3,993.56	66.47	3,731.75	62.42	2,968.77	60.42

Our ability to remain competitive, maintain costs and profitability depend, in part, on our ability to source and maintain a stable and sufficient supply of raw materials at acceptable prices. For further information, see “Our Business” on page 130 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We depend on external suppliers for all the raw materials required and typically purchase raw materials on a purchase order basis and place such orders with them in advance based on our projected requirements. As a result, the success of our business is significantly dependent on maintaining good relationships with our raw material suppliers. The absence of long-term supply contracts subjects us to risks such as price volatility caused by various factors viz. commodity market fluctuations, currency fluctuations, climatic and environmental conditions, transportation cost, changes in domestic as well as international government policies, regulatory changes, and trade sanctions.

Our raw materials and consumables are also imported. As a result, we continue to remain susceptible to the risks arising out of foreign exchange rate fluctuations as well as import duties, which could result in a decline in our operating margins.

If we cannot fully offset the increase in raw material prices with increase in the prices for our products, we will experience lower profit margins, which in turn may have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial condition and ultimately lead to a liquidity crunch. In the absence of such contracts, we are also exposed to the risk of unavailability of raw materials in desired quantities and qualities, in a timely manner.

Although we have not faced any significant disruptions in the procurement of raw materials in the past. However, there can be no assurance that in future we will be able to procure the required quantities and quality of raw materials commensurate with our requirements. For the period ended June 30, 2024 and for the year ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022, the cost of raw materials and components consumed amounts to ₹ 1,819.02 lakhs, ₹ 5,894.98 lakhs, ₹ 5,509.36 lakhs, and ₹ 4,893.23 lakhs representing 67.24%, 71.57%, 79.39% and 80.90% respectively, of our revenue from operations. There can also be no assurance that a particular supplier will continue to supply us with raw materials in the future. Any delay in supplying finished products to customers in accordance with the terms and conditions of the purchase orders, such as delivery within a specified time, as a result of delayed raw material supply, could result in the customer refusing to accept our products, which may have an adverse effect on our business and reputation.

Further, as we generally receive purchase orders for supply of our products to customers, we rely on historical trends and other indicators to purchase the required quantities of raw materials. We, therefore, run the risk of purchasing more raw materials than necessary, which could expose us to risks associated with prolonged storage of some of these materials, and materially affect our results of operations. Conversely, if our customers place orders for greater quantities of products compared to their historical requirements, we may not be able to adequately source the necessary raw materials in a timely manner and may not have the required manufacturing capacity to meet such demand. In addition, if all or a significant number of our suppliers for any particular raw material are unable or unwilling to meet our requirements or if our estimates fall short of the demand, we could suffer shortages or significant cost increases. Continued supply disruptions could exert pressure on our costs, and we cannot assure you that all or part of any increased costs can be passed along to our customers in a timely manner or at all, which could negatively affect our business, overall profitability and financial performance.

2. Majority of our domestic purchases and imports for the last 3 Financial Years and stub period is dependent on few states and single country. Any loss of business from any of these states and country may adversely affect our ability to procure our raw materials in time to meet our customers needs.

Our domestic purchases are dependent on the top 3 States including Gujarat, Maharashtra, Delhi and all of our imports are done from China. We purchased almost i.e. 50.56%, 57.88%, 53.05% and 73.87% of the total domestic purchases for the period ended June 30, 2024 and for the financial years ended 2024, 2023, 2022 respectively and imported almost i.e. 47.35%, 38.93%, 41.80% and 26.11% of total purchases for the period ended June 30, 2024 and for the financial years ended 2024, 2023, 2022 respectively. Such concentration of purchases in above states and China may have an adverse impact on our business. Further, drastic change in taxes and other levies imposed by state government and government of China as well as other financial policies and regulations, political and deregulation policies, if changed, could harm business and economic conditions. For Further information, refer Geographical wise distribution of our revenue under chapter “Our Business” on page 130 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

3. Majority of our domestic sales for the last 3 Financial Years and stub period is dependent on few states. Any loss of business from any of these states may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our domestic sales are dependent on the top 3 States including Gujarat, Maharashtra, West Bengal. We generated almost i.e. 65.16%, 60.74%, 64.72% and 62.22% of the total domestic sales for the period ended June 30, 2024 and for the financial years ended 2024, 2023, 2022 respectively. Such concentration of revenue in above states may have an adverse effect. Further, drastic change in taxes and other levies imposed by state government as well as other financial policies and regulations, political and deregulation policies, if changed, could harm business and economic conditions. However, the composition and revenue generated from various states might change as we continue to add new customers in the different parts of India. For Further information, refer Geographical wise distribution of our revenue under chapter “Our Business” on page 130 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

4. The restated financial statements have been provided by peer reviewed auditor who is not statutory auditor of our Company.

The restated financial statements of our Company for the period June 30, 2024 and for the financial year ended March 31, 2024, 2023 and 2022 have been furnished by a peer-reviewed chartered accountant who is not the Statutory Auditor of the Company as on the date of signing the Restated Financial Information of the Company.

5. Our Major Exports are to Egypt, United States, Russia, Republic of Korea, United Kingdom, Japan and Germany. Any loss of business from any of these countries may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our export sales are majorly dependent on the Egypt, United States, Russia, Republic of Korea, United Kingdom, Japan and Germany. Our Export revenue is dependent on the above countries, the following table represent the top 5 countries on which our export revenue predominantly depends:

For the period/ year ended	Top 5 Countries	% of total Exports
June 30, 2024	Egypt, United States, Russia, Japan, Republic of Korea	71.85
March 31, 2024	Egypt, United States, Russia, Republic of Korea, Japan	62.21
March 31, 2023	Egypt, United Kingdom, Russia, Japan, Germany	62.23
March 31, 2022	Egypt, United States, Russia, Republic of Korea, Germany	74.74

Our export sales are depending on the above countries and in future if any, we are not able to sell our products to above countries our revenue will impact majorly. For Further information, refer chapter titles “Our Business” on page 130 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

6. There may be potential conflict of interests between our Company and M/s Patel Industries.

M/s Patel Industries, proprietorship of one of our Promoter Bhupesh Patel, is into a business of trading specialty chemicals same as manufactured by our Company, which may create a potential conflict of interest and which in turn, may have an implication on our operations and profits. Conflicts of interests may arise in allocating business opportunities between our Company and M/s Patel Industries activities in circumstances where our respective interests diverge. In cases of conflict, our Promoters may favor M/s Patel Industries. For further details, please refer to the Related Party Disclosures of chapter titled “Financial Information” on page 192 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

7. Our international operations expose us to complex management, legal, tax, foreign exchange and economic risks, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our products are imported and exported to up to 25 countries. As a result, our business is subject to risks and challenges associated with international operations, including risks related to complying with several local laws, restrictions on the import and export of certain intermediates, technologies, multiple tax and cost structures, cultural and language factors. Further, regulatory requirements are still evolving in many markets and are subject to change and as a result may, at times, be unclear or inconsistent. We could also face other internal or external risks, including, inter alia, foreign exchange and economic volatility, any need to obtain governmental approvals and permits under unfamiliar regulatory regimes, restrictions on the transfer of funds into or out of a country, longer payment cycles in some countries and inability to maintain or enforce legal rights and remedies and at a reasonable cost or at all. If we do not effectively manage our international operations, it may affect our profitability from such countries, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

8. Under-utilization of our production capacities could have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects and future financial performance.

For Talod, Gujarat unit with an aggregate installed production/processing capacity of 7,20,000 kgs per annum for Micro Crystalline Cellulose, we are utilizing the current capacity which can impact our operating results. The following table sets forth certain information relating to capacity utilization of our Unit calculated on the basis of total installed production / processing capacity and actual production/ processing as of/ for the periods indicated below:

Manufacturing Unit at Talod:

Product	Units	June 17, 2022 to March 31, 2023			For the year ended March 31, 2024			For the three months period ended June 30, 2024
		Capacity	Production	Utilization	Capacity	Production	Utilization	Capacity	Production	Utilization
MCC	Kgs	7,20,000	3,17,445	44.09	7,20,000	5,72,515	79.51	7,20,000	1,54,500	21.45

Note: Our Talod unit started manufacturing from June 17, 2022.

*Certified by Independent Chartered Engineer i.e. Jayendrasinh K Parmar in respect of his certificate dated December 28, 2024.

For further information, see “Our Business” starting from page 130 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These percentages are not indicative of future capacity utilization, which are dependent on various factors, including demand for our products, availability of raw materials, shipping cost, our ability to manage our inventory and improving operational efficiency. Under-utilization of our production capacities over extended periods or significant under-utilization in the short-term could materially and adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance. Our capacity utilization levels are dependent on our ability to carry out uninterrupted operations at unit, sufficient raw materials, industry/ market conditions, as well as by the product requirements of, and procurement practice followed by our customers. In the event we face prolonged disruptions at our facilities including due to interruptions in the supply of electricity, water or as a result of labour unrest, or are unable to procure sufficient raw materials, we would not be able to achieve full capacity utilization of our current unit, resulting in operational inefficiencies which could have a materially adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

9. Risk of Potential Machinery Strain and Operational Challenges Due to Overutilization of Installed Capacity

For Vatva, Gujarat unit with an aggregate installed production/processing capacity of 30,00,000 kgs for Sodium Monochloro Acetate, Sodium Starch Glycolate, Croscarmellose Sodium, Calcium CMC and Sodium Carboxymethyl Cellulose, we are overutilizing of installed capacity during the June-ending quarter which may increase the likelihood of strain on machinery, potentially elevating the risk of breakdowns if such levels of utilization persist in the future. While the machinery has performed adequately under current conditions, operating consistently beyond its optimal capacity could lead to wear and tear, reducing efficiency and reliability over time. Proactive measures, such as monitoring usage patterns and adhering to maintenance schedules, can help mitigate the possibility of such outcomes and ensure sustained performance.

The following table sets forth certain information relating to capacity utilization of our Unit calculated on the basis of total installed production / processing capacity and actual production/ processing as of/ for the periods indicated below:

Manufacturing Unit at Vatva:

Products	Units	Capacity	For the year ended March 31, 2022		For the year ended March 31, 2023		For the year ended March 31, 2024		April 1, 2024 to June 30, 2024

18. Information relating to the installed production capacity and capacity utilization of our production unit included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity may vary.

We have availed the services of an independent third-party chartered engineer, Jayendrasinh K Parmar to prepare a Chartered Engineer certificate dated December 28, 2024, for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Information relating to the installed production / processing capacity and capacity utilization of our units included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been considered by an independent chartered engineer while calculating the installed production / processing capacity of, and actual production / processing volumes at, our unit. The assumptions and estimates include the standard capacity calculation practices of the specialty chemicals industry after examining the period during which the unit were operational during the year, the expected operations, availability of raw materials, downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies, and taking into account the number of working days in a year, number of days in a month, number of shifts in a day and average number of batches per day. Actual production / processing capacity, production / processing levels and utilization rates may therefore vary from the information of our unit included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus or from the historical installed production / processing capacity information of our unit depending on the product type. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed on our historical installed capacity information for our existing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

In view of the highly competitive and dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently these fund requirements. The deployment of the funds as stated under chapter “Objects of the Issue” is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by any external independent agency. Further, we cannot assure that the actual costs or schedule of implementation as stated under chapter “Objects of the Issue” will not vary from the estimated costs or schedule of implementation. Any such variance may be on account of one or more factors, some of which may be beyond our control. Occurrence of any such event may delay our business plans and/or may have an adverse bearing on our expected revenues and earnings.

21. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantee for loans availed by us.

In the event of default of the debt obligations, the personal guarantee provided by our Promoter may be invoked thereby adversely affecting our Promoter’s ability to manage the affairs of our Company and our Company’s profitability and consequently this may impact our business, prospects, financial condition, and results of operations. Our Company has availed loans in business. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantee in relation to cash credit facility obtained by our Company, for details please see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 194 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. In the event of default in cash credit facility availed by the Company, the personal guarantee extended by our Promoter may be invoked by our lender thereby adversely affecting our Promoter’s ability to manage the affairs of our Company and this, in turn, could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

22. We intend to utilise a portion of the Net Proceeds for funding our capital expenditure requirements. We are yet to place orders for 100% of the Plant and Machinery, as specified in the Objects of the Issue chapter. Any delay in procurement of such Plant & Machinery may delay the schedule of implementation and may also lead to increase in cost of these Plant & Machinery, further affecting our revenue and profitability.

Although we have identified the installation of Plant & Machinery required. However, we are yet to place orders for 100% installation of Plant & Machinery worth ₹ 4,314.78 Lakhs as detailed in the “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 80 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We have not entered into any definitive agreements to utilize the Net Proceeds for this object of the issue and have relied on the quotations received from third parties for estimation of the cost. While we have obtained the quotations from various vendors in relation to such capital expenditure, most of these quotations are valid for a certain period of time and may be subject to revisions, and other commercial and technical factors. We cannot assure you that we will be able to undertake such capital expenditure within the cost indicated by such quotations or that there will not be cost escalations. Delay in procurement of the same can cause time and cost overrun in the implementation of our proposed expansion and can also compel us to buy the same at a higher price, thus causing the budgeted cost to vary. As a result, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

23. Any failure in our Quality control process failures may harm our business and financial condition, leading to potential product liability claims and legal actions if our products don’t meet customer expectations.

Our products may contain certain quality issues or undetected errors, due to defects in manufacture of products or raw materials which are used in the products. We have implemented quality control processes for our raw materials and finished goods on the basis of internal and international quality standards. We are engaged in export operations as well and have to fulfill the quality conditions and processes. We have a separate Quality Division which carries out necessary standard operating procedures, standard test procedures on the raw materials and the finished products. However, we cannot assure you that our quality control processes or our product will pass the quality tests and inspections conducted by various international and domestic agencies as per their prescribed standards will not fail. Any shortcoming in the raw materials procured by us or in the production of our products due to failure of our quality control procedures, negligence and human error or otherwise, may damage our products and result in deficient products. It is imperative for us to meet the international quality standards set by our international customers and agencies as deviation from the same can cause them to reject our products and can also cause damage to our reputation, market standing and brand value.

24. Our manufacturing process requires our labourers to work under potentially dangerous circumstances. In the event of any accidents, our Company may be held liable for damages and penalties which may impact the financials of our Company.

Our employees/labour may be required to work under potentially dangerous circumstances in the operation of our manufacturing unit associated with the handling, storage, movement and production of our Products, as well as accidents such as fire and explosions. Any mishandling of our equipment and machineries could also lead to serious and sometimes fatal accidents. These accidents can cause personal injury and loss of life, severe damage to and destruction of property and equipment, environmental damage and may result in the suspension of operations and the imposition of civil and criminal liabilities. Liabilities incurred as a result of these events have the potential to adversely impact our financial position and reputation. Events like these could result in liabilities, or adversely affect our reputation with suppliers, customers, regulators, employees and the public, which could in turn affect our financial condition and business performance.

25. We depend on our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management and we heavily rely on their knowledge and experience in operating our business and therefore, it is critical for our business that they remain associated with us.

Our success depends to a large extent upon the continued services of our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management team. Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management are not bound by employment or non-competition agreements and we cannot assure you that we will be able to retain them or other executive officers. We could be adversely affected by the loss of any of our senior management or other executive officers. The market for such qualified professionals is competitive and we may not continue to be successful in our efforts to attract and retain qualified people. Our success also depends, in part, on key client relationships forged by members of our Senior Management. If we were to lose these members of our Senior Management, we cannot assure you that we will be able to continue to maintain key client relationships or renew them. If we are unable to retain these members of our senior management, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be affected. Further, our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management may promote other companies/firms/ventures, this will divert their attention to the other companies, we may not be able to function as efficiently and profitably as before. We may have to incur additional costs to replace the services of our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management or we may not be able to do so at all, which could adversely affect our business operations and affect our ability to continue to manage and expand our business.

26. Depletion of forest reserves could lead to a reduction in the availability of raw materials, potentially causing an increase in the cost of raw materials.

The pharmaceutical industry relies on various excipients, which serve as inert carriers or additives in medications. These excipients can be categorized into three groups: natural, semi-synthetic, and synthetic. Among these groups, natural excipients are frequently preferred due to their minimal impurities, ready availability, and are economically cheap as compared to their synthetic counterparts. MCC is one of the most commonly used natural excipient that is obtained from wood pulp sheets and our Company also deals majorly in MCC which primary relies on wood pulp sheets as the key raw material for producing MCC and its various grades.

Our business's viability is closely tied to the ready availability of wood pulp sheets in the market. Every year, substantial areas of forests are cleared for various purposes, including human settlement, industrial activities, and farming, among others. Without corresponding afforestation efforts, this ongoing depletion of natural forest resources may lead to a decrease in the availability of raw materials, ultimately resulting in increased raw material cost. Rising raw material costs would compel us to raise product prices, negatively impacting our competitiveness. Presently, we have not identified an alternative to wood pulp sheets for our manufacturing processes, making our business highly reliant on a consistent supply of this critical raw material. If, due to dwindling forest reserves, we are unable to procure wood pulp sheets and find no substitute, we may have to suspend or permanently cease our operations. Further, if the government introduces policies or laws regulating the use of wood pulp, our operations would be highly affected by such policies and we cannot assure you that our end use customers will not be affected by the same. On happening of such events, the continuity of our business operations, revenue, result of operations and financial condition may adversely be affected.

27. The unexpected loss, shutdown or slowdown of operations at our manufacturing unit could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing units situated at Vatva and Talod, are subject to operating risks, such as the breakdown or failure of equipment, power supply interruptions, facility obsolescence or disrepair, labour disputes, natural disasters and industrial accidents. While we undertake precautions to minimize the risk of any significant operational problems at our unit, there can be no assurance that our business, financial position and operations will not be adversely affected by disruption caused by operational problems at our manufacturing unit. Any unscheduled, unplanned or prolonged disruption of our manufacturing operations, including, power failure, fire and unexpected mechanical failure of equipment, performance below expected levels of output or efficiency, obsolescence, labour disputes, strikes, lock-outs, earthquakes and other natural disasters, industrial accidents, any significant social, political or economic disturbances or infectious disease outbreaks such as the COVID-19 pandemic, could reduce our ability to meet the conditions of our contracts and adversely affect sales and revenues from operations in such period. The occurrence of any of these risks could affect our operations by causing production at manufacturing plant to shut down or slowdown.

No assurance can be given that one or more of the factors mentioned above will not occur, which could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Any interruption in production may require significant and unanticipated capital expenditure to affect repairs or increase the cost of power, which could have a negative effect on profitability and cash flows. A sustained disruption to our business could also result in a loss of customers or imposition of penalties by our customers for failure to adhere to timelines. Any or all of these occurrences could result in the temporary or long-term closure of our manufacturing plants, severely disrupt our business operations and materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

28. We have experienced negative cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the past.

We have in the past, and may in the future, experience negative cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities. The following table sets forth our net cash inflow/(outflow) from operating, investing and financing activities for the periods/years indicated:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	Period ended June 30, 2024	Financial year ended March 31, 2024	Financial year ended March 31, 2023	Financial year ended March 31, 2022
Net cash (used in)/ Generated from operating activities	(256.77)	608.02	196.73	211.50
Net cash (used in)/ Generated from investing activities	182.70	(594.45)	(327.37)	(354.74)
Net cash (used in)/ Generated from finance activities	45.73	32.16	80.95	20.52
Net increase/ (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	(28.35)	45.73	(49.70)	(122.71)
Cash and Cash Equivalents at the beginning of the period	51.73	6.00	55.70	178.41
Cash and Cash Equivalents at the end of period	23.39	51.73	6.00	55.70

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet its capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans, and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. Such negative cash flows lead to a net decrease in cash and cash equivalents. Any negative cash flow in future could adversely affect our operations and financial conditions and the trading price of our Equity Shares. For further details, please refer “Financial Information” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations” on pages 192 and 197, respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

29. Changes in technology and advancement of methods and machineries may render our current technologies and plant and machinery obsolete or require us to make substantial capital investments.

Modernization and technology Upgradation is essential in our industry to reduce costs and increase productivity. With latest technology and advancement of methods and machineries, our existing technology and machineries may become obsolete or may not be upgraded timely, hampering our operations and financial conditions and we may lose our competitive edge. Although we strive to keep our technology, plant and machinery in line with the latest technological standards, we may be required to implement new technology or upgrade the machinery and other equipment’s employed by us. Further, the costs in upgrading our technology and modernizing the plant and machineries are significant which could substantially affect our finances and operations.

30. Our business is subject to extensive regulation, if we fail to comply or obtain and renew certain registrations, licenses and permits from government and regulatory authorities may adversely affect our business operations.

We operate in a highly regulated industry and our operations are subject to extensive regulation in each market in which we do business. Our business operations require us to comply or obtain and renew certain approvals, licenses, registrations and permits, some of which may expire and for which we may have to make an application for obtaining the approval or its renewal.

We will be applying for certain approvals relating to our business. Furthermore, in certain markets where we market and sell our products, regulatory authorities must grant approval for our manufacturing facilities and products before they can be marketed, regardless of whether they have already received approval in India or elsewhere.

A majority of these approvals require renewal from time to time. There can be delays in obtaining required clearances from regulatory authorities after applications are filed. This could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain approvals in respect of such applications or any application made by us in the future. For more information about the licenses required in our business and the licenses and approvals applied for, please refer “Government and Other Approvals” on page 210 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, respectively.

31. Our success depends on stable and reliable logistics and transportation infrastructure. Disruption of logistics and transportation services could impair the ability of our suppliers to deliver raw materials or our ability to deliver products to our customers and/ or increase our transportation costs, which may adversely affect our operations. We are also 100% dependent on third-party transportation providers for the supply of raw materials and delivery of our finished products.

Our success depends on the supply and transport of the finished products from our manufacturing facilities to our customers and distributors, which are subject to various uncertainties and risks. Uncertainties and risks such as transportation strikes, failure to book vessels or delay in supply of pharmaceutical products due to port congestions, vessel / vehicle breakdown could have an adverse effect on our supplies and deliveries to and from our customers and suppliers. In addition, raw materials and finished products may be lost or damaged in transit for various reasons including occurrence of accidents or natural disasters. There may also be a delay in delivery of raw materials and products which may also affect our business and results of operations negatively. In the event we fail to maintain a sufficient volume of raw materials and delivery of such materials to us is delayed, we may be unable to meet our purchase orders in a timely manner or at all, which may result in loss of sales opportunities that our competitors may capitalize on, thereby adversely affecting our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. Any compensation received from insurers or third-party transportation providers may be insufficient to cover the cost of any delays and will not repair damage to our relationships with our affected customers and distributors. We may also be affected by an increase in fuel costs, as it will have a corresponding impact on freight charges levied by our third-party transportation providers. This could require us to expend considerable resources in addressing our distribution requirements, including by way of absorbing these excess freight charges to maintain our selling price, which could adversely affect our results of operations, or passing these charges on to our customers, which could adversely affect demand for our products.

32. We have significant power and water requirements for continuous running of our factories. Any disruption to our operations on account of interruption in power and water supply or any irregular or significant hike in power tariffs may have an effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

All our manufacturing units have significant electricity and water requirements and any interruption in the supply of water or power may temporarily disrupt our operations.

Since, we have a high power consumption, any unexpected or unforeseen increase in the tariff rates can increase the operating cost of our manufacturing unit and thereby cause an increase in the production cost which we may not be able to pass on to our customers. Water is one of the main components of our manufacturing unit, therefore continuous water supply is essential for smooth business operations of our Company. There are a limited number of electricity providers in the areas from where we operate due to which in case of a price hike, we may not be able to find a cost-effective substitute, which may negatively affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

33. Our Company has in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our Company’s financial condition and results of operations.

As on June 30, 2024, we have entered into related party transactions with our Promoters, Directors which are in compliance with section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013. Whilst these related party transactions have been disclosed in our financial statements as per AS-18, and we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on an arms-length basis, we cannot assure you that we may not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition, including because of potential conflicts of interest or otherwise. For further details kindly refer to the chapter titled ‘Financial Information’ beginning on page 192 of this DRHP.

34. Certain sections of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus contain information from the Industry Report which has been exclusively commissioned and paid for by us in relation to the Issue and any reliance on such information for making an investment decision in this offering is subject to inherent risks.

Pursuant to being engaged by us, Infomerics Analytics and Research Pvt. Ltd., an independent third-party agency, prepared a report on the Indian chemicals industry, "Industry Report on Chemicals Sector" dated December 30, 2024 ("Industry Report"), which has been exclusively commissioned and paid for by our Company (link of the Industry Report: <http://patelchem.com>). Certain sections of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus include information based on, or derived from, the Infomerics Report or extracts of such Industry Report. Accordingly, any information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus derived from, or based on, the Infomerics Report should be read taking into consideration the foregoing. The Infomerics Report uses certain methodologies for market sizing and forecasting and may include numbers relating to our Company that differ from those we record internally. Industry sources and publications are also prepared based on information as of specific dates and may no longer be current or reflect current trends. Industry sources and publications may also base their information on estimates, projections, forecasts, and assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. The Infomerics Report is subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

35. Our ability to pay dividends in the future may be affected by any material adverse effect on our future earnings, financial condition cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

Our ability to pay dividends in future will depend on our earnings, financial condition and capital requirements. Our business is working capital intensive and we are required to obtain consents from certain of our lenders prior to the declaration of dividend as per the terms of the agreements executed with them. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and our future dividend policy will depend on our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows and requirement to fund operations and expansion of the business. Although our Company has declared dividends in the past, however there can be no assurance that our Company will declare dividends in the future also. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors. For further details, please refer "Dividend Policy" on page 191 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

36. Our Company's management will have flexibility in utilizing the Net Proceeds from the Issue. The deployment of the Net Proceeds from the Issue is being monitored by the Audit Committee and not an independent monitoring agency.

Our Company intends to primarily use the Net Proceeds towards working capital requirement and for general corporate purposes as described in "Objects of the Issue" on page 80 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. In terms of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, we are not required to appoint a monitoring agency since the Issue size is not in excess of ₹100 crores. We undertake to monitor the utilisation of the issue proceed by the audit committee of the Board.

Further, pursuant to Section 27 of the Companies Act 2013, any variation in the objects would require a special resolution of the Shareholders and our Promoters or controlling Shareholders will be required to provide an exit opportunity to the Shareholders of our Company who do not agree to such proposal to vary the objects, in such manner as may be prescribed in future by the SEBI.

Accordingly, prospective investors in the Issue will need to rely upon our Audit Committee's judgment with respect to the use of Net Proceeds. If we are unable to enter into arrangements for utilization of Net proceeds as expected and assumed by us in a timely manner or at all, we may not be able to derive the expected benefits from the proceeds of the Issue and our business and financial results may suffer.

37. Compliance with, and changes in, safety, health and environmental laws and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations impose additional costs and may increase our compliance costs and a such adversely affect our results of operations and our financial condition.

We are subject to a broad range of safety, health and environmental laws and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate, which impose controls on the disposal and storage of raw materials, noise emissions, air and water discharges, on the storage, handling, employee exposure to hazardous substances and other aspects of our operations. Compliance with, and changes in these laws may increase our compliance costs and as such adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

38. If we do not successfully develop or commercialise new products in a timely manner, or if the products that we commercialise do not perform as expected, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Our success depends significantly on our ability to develop and commercialise new products in a timely manner. The development and commercialisation processes are both time consuming and costly and involve a high degree of business risk. During these periods, our competitors may be developing similar products of which we may be unaware of that could compete directly or indirectly with our products under development. Due to the prolonged period of time for developing a new product and delays associated with regulatory approval process, we may invest resources in developing products that will face competition of which we are currently unaware. Such unforeseen competition may hinder our ability to effectively plan the timing of our product development, which could have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition.

Additionally, our Company plans to manufacture new products, namely Crosscarmellose Sodium (CCS), Sodium Starch Glycolate (SSG), and Carboxymethyl Cellulose Calcium (Calcium), in the proposed plant at Indrad. However, there is no guarantee that these products, when fully developed and tested, will meet our performance expectations or receive the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, or at all. Furthermore, it may take a considerable amount of time for these new products to gain market acceptance, if they do so at all.

39. We may not be able to identify or effectively respond to evolving preferences, expectations or trends in a timely manner and a failure to derive the desired benefits from our product development efforts may impact our competitiveness and profitability.

The success of our business depends in part on our ability to anticipate, identify and respond promptly to evolving trends in demographics and preferences, customer requisitions, and develop new products to meet these requirements. Our success is dependent on our ability to identify and respond to the economic, technological, and other developments that affect demographic and end-customer preferences in the variety of our product categories.

We cannot assure you that our future product development initiatives will be successful or be completed within the anticipated period or budget, or that our newly developed or improvised products will achieve wide market acceptance from our customers. Even if these products have been successfully developed, there is no guarantee that they will be accepted by our customers and achieve anticipated sales targets in a profitable manner, which may affect our ability to grow our network of customers and gain market share. In addition, there can be no guarantee that the time and effort that we spend in developing these products would be beneficial to our Company. This could also adversely affect our ability to pursue our growth strategy of continuing to develop niche and products to grow our market share. Further, we cannot assure you that our existing or potential competitors will not develop products that are similar or superior to our products. It is often difficult to estimate the time to market new products and there is a substantial risk that we may have to abandon a potential product that is no longer commercially viable, even after we have invested significant resources in the development of such product. If we fail in our product launching efforts, our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows may be materially and adversely affected.

Further, as we continue to grow our business by expanding our products, offerings, and our geographic reach, maintaining quality and consistency may be more difficult and there can be no assurance that the customers' confidence in our products will not diminish. Failure or any delay on our part to identify such trends, to align our business successfully and maintain quality could negatively affect our image, our relationship with our customers, the rate of growth of our business, our market share, and our prospects.

We must, on a regular basis, keep pace with the preferences and quality requirements of our consumers, invest continuously in new technology and processes to provide products having the desired qualities and characteristics, and continually monitor and adapt to the changing market demand. An unanticipated change in consumer demand and any sudden change in Government regulations may adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition.

40. Our inability to effectively manage our growth or to successfully implement our business plan and growth strategy could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We have experienced considerable growth over the past three years and we have expanded our operations and product portfolio. Our total revenue grew at a CAGR of 10.84% between Fiscals 2022 and 2024, while our restated profit after tax grew at a CAGR of 49.77 % between Fiscals 2022 and 2024. We cannot assure you that our growth strategies will continue to be successful or that we will be able to continue to expand further, or at the same rate.

Our inability to execute our growth strategies in a timely manner or within budget estimates or our inability to meet the expectations of our customers and other stakeholders, could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Our future prospects will depend on our ability to grow our business and operations. The development of such future business could be affected by many factors, including general, political and economic conditions in India, government policies or strategies in respect of specific industries, prevailing interest rates and price of equipment and raw materials. Further, in order to manage our growth effectively, we must implement, upgrade and improve our operational systems, procedures and internal controls on a timely basis. If we fail to implement these systems, procedures and controls on a timely basis, or if there are weaknesses in our internal controls that would result in inconsistent internal standard operating procedures, we may not be able to meet our customers' needs, hire and retain new employees or operate our business effectively. Failure to manage growth effectively could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

41. We have not identified any alternate source of financing the 'Objects of the Issue'.

If we fail to mobilize resources as per our plans, our growth plans may be affected. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to raise money from this Issue may delay in the implementation schedule and could adversely affect our growth plans. For further details of object of Issue and schedule of implementation, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 80 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

42. Our business depends on protection of our intellectual property in our product range. Our ability to compete effectively will be impaired if we are unable to protect our intellectual property rights.

We are exposed to the risk that other entities may pass off their products as ours by imitating our brand name and attempting to create counterfeit products. We believe that there may be other companies or vendors which operate in the unorganized segment using our trade name or brand names. The measures we take to protect our intellectual property include relying on Indian laws and initiating legal proceedings, which may not be adequate to prevent unauthorised use of our intellectual property by third parties. Furthermore, the application of laws governing intellectual property rights in India is uncertain and evolving, and could involve substantial risks to us. Notwithstanding the precautions we take to protect our intellectual property rights, it is possible that third parties may copy or otherwise infringe on our rights, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

43. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group will continue jointly to retain majority control over our Company even after the Issue which will allow them to determine the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval.

Post this Issue, our Promoters and Promoter Group will collectively own [●] % of our post issue equity share capital. As a result, our Promoters, together with the members of the Promoter Group, will continue to exercise a significant degree of influence over the Company and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013 and our Articles of Association. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company. In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or other shareholders and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

44. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against certain operating hazards and this may have a material adverse effect on our business.

We are insured for a number of the risks associated with our several businesses, such as insurance cover against loss or damage by fire, earthquake, theft and robbery and taken fidelity insurance. We believe we have got our assets and employees adequately insured; however, there can be no assurance that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, in part or on time, to cover all material losses. To the extent that we suffer any loss or damage that is not covered by insurance or exceeds our insurance coverage, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected.

45. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters could be lower than the issue price.

Our Promoters’ average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company is lower than the Issue Price of the shares proposed to be issued though this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer to the chapter titled “Summary of the Issue Document” page 24 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

46. Our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may have interest in our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred, remuneration or other benefits received.

Our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may be deemed to be interested to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them and benefits deriving from their shareholding in our Company. Our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in the transactions entered into between our Company and themselves as well as between our Company and our group Company. For further details, please refer to the chapters titled “Our Business” and “Our Promoters and Promoter Group”, beginning on page 130 and 184 respectively and the chapter titled of “Financials Information” beginning on page 192 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

47. We face numerous protective trade restrictions, including anti-dumping laws, countervailing duties and tariffs, which could adversely affect our revenue from exports.

Protectionist measures, including anti-dumping laws, countervailing duties and tariffs and government subsidization adopted or currently contemplated by governments in some of our export markets could adversely affect our sales from exports. Antidumping duty proceedings or any resulting penalties or any other form of import restrictions may limit our access to export markets for our products, and in the future additional markets could be closed to us as a result of similar proceedings, thereby adversely impacting our sales from exports or limiting our opportunities for growth.

Tariffs are often driven by local political pressure in a particular country and therefore there can be no assurance that quotas or tariffs will not be imposed on us in the future. If such protective trade restrictions are imposed on us, our imports and exports could decline. Further, a decrease in exports from India or an increase in aluminium imports to India because of protective trade restrictions could have a negative impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

48. The Price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, or an active trading market may not develop.

Prior to this Issue, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares. [●] is acting as Market Maker for the Equity Shares of our Company. However, the trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India's fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the Indian Capital Markets, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnerships, joint ventures, or capital commitments. In addition, if the stock markets experience a loss of investor confidence, the trading price of our Equity Shares could decline for reasons unrelated to our business, financial condition or operating results. The trading price of our Equity Shares might also decline in reaction to events that affect other companies in our industry even if these events do not directly affect us. Each of these factors, among others, could materially affect the price of our Equity Shares. Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for our Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue, or that the price at which our Equity Shares are initially Issued will correspond to the prices at which they will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue. For further details of the obligations and limitations of Market Maker, please refer to the section titled "General Information" beginning on page 55 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

49. If we are subject to any frauds, theft, or embezzlement by our employees, suppliers or customers, it could adversely affect our reputation, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our operations may be subject to incidents of theft. We may also encounter some inventory loss on account of employee/ supplier/ customer fraud, theft, or embezzlement. Although we have set up various security measures in our office premises and unit such as deployment of security guards and operational processes such as periodic stock taking and Security Camera system, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any fraud, theft, employee negligence, loss in transit or similar incidents in the future, which could adversely affect our reputation, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

50. Strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our employees or any other kind of disputes with our employees/workmen in future could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

With an increase in our operation capacities or execution of any expansion projects in future, we expect increase in such number of employees and labours. Except as below, we have enjoyed a good relationship with our employees, labours and have not experienced any lockouts, strikes, or any disruptions of any sort due to labour unrest. However, there can be no assurance that we may not experience any disruptions in our operations in future as well. In case of disputes or other problems with our work force such as strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands, our business, financial conditions and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

51. The requirements of being a listed company may strain our resources.

We are not a listed company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. We will be subject to the listing agreements with the Stock Exchanges and compliances of SEBI (LODR) Regulations which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited half yearly results and limited review reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies which may adversely affect the financial position of the Company.

As a listed company, we will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions to support the existence of effective disclosure controls and procedures, internal control over financial reporting and additional compliance requirements under the Companies Act, 2013. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management oversight will be required. As a result, management's attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate listed company experience and technical accounting knowledge and we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely manner.

52. Compliance with, and changes in, safety, health and environmental laws and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations impose additional costs and may increase our compliance costs and a such adversely affect our results of operations and our financial condition.

We are subject to a broad range of safety, health and environmental laws and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate, which impose controls on the disposal and storage of raw materials, noise emissions, air and water discharges, on the storage, handling, employee exposure to hazardous substances and other aspects of our operations. Compliance with, and changes in these laws may increase our compliance costs and as such adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

ISSUE RELATED RISK

53. We cannot assure you that our equity shares will be listed on the SME platform of BSE in a timely manner or at all, which may restrict your ability to dispose of the equity shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

54. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

55. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchange may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including:

- a. Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- b. Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- c. Performance of Company's competitors,
- d. Adverse media reports on Company or pertaining to our Industry;
- e. Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts;
- f. Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies; and
- g. Significant developments in India's environmental regulations.

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There has been no public market for the Equity Shares and the prices of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue.

56. We have been recently converted into public limited company and any non-compliance with the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 may attract penalties against our Company which could impact our financial and operational performance and reputation.

Our Company has been recently converted into public limited from private limited pursuant to mandatory requirement for the Issue. Prior to the conversion, the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 for public companies were not applicable to us. However, consequent to the aforesaid conversion, our Company is in compliance with various provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Though our

Company will endeavour to take all possible steps comply with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 for public companies, but in case of our inability to do so or in case of any delay, we may be subject to penal action from the appropriate authorities which may have an adverse effect on our financial and operational performance and reputation.

57. The Issue price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the issue price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The Issue Price of our Equity Shares has been determined by book building method. This price is based on numerous factors (For further information, please refer chapter titled “Basis of Issue Price” beginning on page 94 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus) and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue, and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price. Among the factors that could affect our share price include without limitation. The following:

- ✓ Half yearly variations in the rate of growth of our financial indicators, such as earnings per share, net income and revenues;
- ✓ Changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports by analysts;
- ✓ Speculation in the press or investment community;
- ✓ General market conditions; and
- ✓ Domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance.

EXTERNAL RISK

58. We are subject to risks arising from exchange rate fluctuations.

We indulge transact a portion of our business in several other currencies. For the Financial Years 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the three months ended June 30, 2024, our revenue from operations outside India amounted to ₹ 621.39 Lakhs, ₹ 702.46 Lakhs ₹ 1,139.45 Lakhs, and ₹437.90 Lakhs respectively, representing 10.27%, 10.12%, 13.83%, and 16.19% respectively, of our total revenue from operations. Additionally, we also procure our raw materials from outside India and, as a result, incur such costs in currencies other than the Indian Rupee. Therefore, we are exposed to exchange rate fluctuations due to the revenue that we receive, the raw materials that we purchase. In addition, the policies of the RBI may also change from time to time, which may limit our ability to effectively hedge our foreign currency exposures and may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. The exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies, primarily the U.S. dollar, has fluctuated in the past and our results of operations may be impacted by such fluctuations. A decline in India’s foreign exchange reserves could impact the valuation of the Indian Rupee and could result in reduced liquidity and higher interest rates which could adversely affect our financial condition. A future material decline in these reserves could result in reduced liquidity and higher interest rates in the Indian economy which in turn, could adversely affect our business and future financial performance.

59. Changes in government regulations or their implementation could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business and industry are regulated by different laws, rules and regulations framed by the Central and State Government. These regulations can be amended/ changed on a short notice at the discretion of the Government. If we fail to comply with all applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business or their implementation change adversely, we may incur increased costs or be subject to penalties, which could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

60. Investors may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the equity shares voting on such resolution.

However, if the law of the jurisdiction the investors are in, does not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our Company filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless our Company makes such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued/Offered to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor’s benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in our Company would be reduced.

61. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares within 12 months in an Indian company are classified as short-term capital gains and generally taxable. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange that are held for more than 12 months is considered as long-term capital gains and is taxable at 12.5%, in excess of ₹1,25,000. Any long-term gain realized on the sale of equity shares, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, is also subject to tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares are exempt from taxation in India where an exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable to pay tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain on the sale of equity shares.

62. Taxes and other levies imposed by the Government of India or other State Governments, as well as other financial policies and regulations, may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Taxes and other levies imposed by the Central or State Governments in India that affect our industry include custom duties on imports of raw materials and components, Goods and Service. These taxes and levies affect the cost and prices of our products and therefore demand for our product. An increase in any of these taxes or levies, or the imposition of new taxes or levies in the future, may have a material adverse effect on our business, profitability and financial condition.

63. Political instability or a change in economic liberalization and deregulation policies could seriously harm business and economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting the information technology sector, foreign investment and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. Any significant change in such liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India, generally, and our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations, in particular.

64. We cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of facts and other statistics with respect to India, the Indian economy and industry in which we operate contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

While facts and other statistics in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus relating to India, the Indian economy and the industry in which we operate has been based on various web site data and IBEF that we believe are reliable, we cannot guarantee the quality or reliability of such materials. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of such information, industry facts and other statistics have not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore we make no representation as to their accuracy or completeness. These facts and other statistics include the facts and statistics included in the chapter titled "Industry Overview" beginning on page 104 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

65. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, fluctuations in commodities markets, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude, which may negatively affect our stock prices.

66. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI.

If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

67. The extent and reliability of Indian infrastructure could adversely affect our Company's results of operations and financial condition.

India's physical infrastructure is in developing phase compared to that of many developed nations. Any congestion or disruption in its port, rail and road networks, electricity grid, communication systems or any other public facility could disrupt our Company's normal business activity. Any deterioration of India's physical infrastructure would harm the national economy, disrupt the transportation of goods and supplies, and add costs to doing business in India. These problems could interrupt our Company's business operations, which could have an adverse effect on its results of operations and financial condition.

68. Any downgrading of India's sovereign rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing may be available. This could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

69. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause our Company's business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods etc. in recent years. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

70. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India's economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks in India, other incidents such as those in US, Russia, Ukraine, Indonesia, Madrid, London and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade as well the global equity markets generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company's business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

71. A third party could be prevented from acquiring control of our Company because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

There are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company, even if a change in control would result in the purchase of Equity Shares at a premium to the market price or would otherwise be beneficial to the shareholders. Such provisions may discourage or prevent certain types of transactions involving actual or threatened change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to its stakeholders, it is possible that such a takeover would not be attempted or consummated because of the SEBI Takeover Regulations.

72. Inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and if significant, on our financial condition.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of salaries, and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and the same may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase our rates to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected. Further, the GoI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20.00 to ₹24.00 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24.00	500	16.67%
1,000	23.00	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22.00	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21.00	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20.00	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Steps to be taken by the Bidders for Bidding:

1. Indian Macro Economy an overview:

The Indian economy is on a strong wicket and stable footing, demonstrating resilience in the face of geopolitical challenges. The Indian economy has consolidated its post-Covid recovery with policymakers – fiscal and monetary – ensuring economic and financial stability. Nonetheless, change is the only constant for a country with high growth aspirations. For the recovery to be sustained, there has to be heavy lifting on the domestic front because the environment has become extraordinarily difficult to reach agreements on key global issues such as trade, investment and climate.

High economic growth in FY24 came on the heels of growth rates of 9.7% and 7.0%, respectively, in the previous two financial years. The headline inflation rate is largely under control, although the inflation rate of some specific food items is elevated. The trade deficit was lower in FY24 than in FY23, and the current account deficit for the year is around 0.7% of GDP. In fact, the current account registered a surplus in the last quarter of the financial year. Foreign exchange reserves are ample. Public investment has sustained capital formation in the last several years even as the private sector shed its balance sheet blues and began investing in FY22. Now, it has to receive the baton from the public sector and sustain the investment momentum in the economy. The signs are encouraging.

National income data show that non-financial private-sector capital formation, measured in current prices, expanded vigorously in FY22 and FY23 after a decline in FY21. However, investment in machinery and equipment declined for two consecutive years, FY20 and FY21, before rebounding strongly. Early corporate sector data for FY24 suggest that capital formation in the private sector continued to expand but at a slower rate.

RBI data on India’s Balance of Payments shows us that the investment interest of external investors, measured in terms of dollar inflows of new capital, was USD45.8 billion in FY24 compared to USD47.6 billion in FY23. This slight decline is in line with global trends. Reinvestment of earnings remained the same. Repatriation of investment was USD29.3 billion in FY23 and USD44.5 billion in FY24. Many private equity investors took advantage of buoyant equity markets in India and exited profitably. It is a sign of a healthy market environment that offers profitable exits to investors, which will bring newer investments in the years to come.

That said, the environment for foreign direct investment to grow in the coming years is not highly favourable for many reasons.

Interest rates in developed countries are much higher than they were during and before Covid years. This not only means a higher cost of funding but also a higher opportunity cost to invest abroad. Second, emerging economies have to compete with active industrial policies in developed economies involving considerable subsidies that encourage domestic investment. Third, notwithstanding the impressive strides made in the last decade, uncertainties and interpretations related to transfer pricing, taxes, import duties and non-tax policies remain to be addressed. Lastly, geopolitical uncertainties, which are on the rise, will likely exert a bigger influence on capital flows, notwithstanding other reasons for preferring to invest in India.

On employment generation, the Periodic Labour Force Survey provides quarterly data on urban employment indicators and annually for the entire country, including rural India. A surge in agriculture employment is partly explained by reverse migration and the entry of women into the labour force in rural India. The Annual Survey of Industries has data on workers in nearly 2.0 lakh Indian factories. The total number of factory jobs grew annually by 3.6% between 2013-14 and 2021-22. Somewhat more satisfyingly, they grew faster at 4.0% in factories employing more than a hundred workers than in smaller factories (those with less than a hundred workers). The annual growth rate was 1.2% in the latter set of factories. In absolute numbers, employment in Indian factories has grown from 1.04 crore to 1.36 crore in this period.

Between the last Economic survey published in January 2023 and this one, big changes are afoot in the geopolitical environment. The global backdrop for India's march towards Viksit Bharat in 2047 could not be more different from what it was during the rise of China between 1980 and 2015. Then, globalisation was at the cusp of its long expansion. Geopolitics was largely calm with the end of the Cold War, and Western powers welcomed and even encouraged the rise of China and its integration into the world economy. Concerns over climate change and global warming were not so pervasive or grave then as they are now. Fourth, the advent of Artificial Intelligence casts a huge pall of uncertainty as to its impact on workers across all skill levels – low, semi and high. These will create barriers and hurdles to sustained high growth rates for India in the coming years and decades. Overcoming these requires a grand alliance of union and state governments and the private sector.

Employment generation is the real bottom line for the private sector

It is worth reiterating that job creation happens mainly in the private sector. Second, many (not all) of the issues that influence economic growth, job creation and productivity and the actions to be taken therein are in the domain of state governments. So, in other words, India needs a tripartite compact, more than ever before, to deliver on the higher and rising aspirations of Indians and complete the journey to Viksit Bharat by 2047. In more than one respect, the action lies with the private sector. In terms of financial performance, the corporate sector has never had it so good. Results of a sample of over 33,000 companies show that, in the three years between FY20 and FY23, the profit before taxes of the Indian corporate sector nearly quadrupled. Further, newspaper headlines told us that the corporate profits-to-GDP ratio rose to a 15-year high in FY24. Business Line reported, "The corporate profit for the Nifty-500 universe was up 30 per cent last fiscal to ₹14.11-lakh crore against ₹10.88 lakh crore in FY23. The nominal GDP grew 9.6 per cent y-o-y to ₹295-lakh crore (₹269-lakh crore). Hiring and compensation growth hardly kept up with it. But, it is in the interest of the companies to step up hiring and worker compensation.

The Union government cut taxes in September 2019 to facilitate capital formation. Between FY19 and FY23, the cumulative growth in private sector non-financial Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF) is 52% in current prices. During the same period, the cumulative growth in general government (which includes states) is 64%. The gap does not appear to be too wide.

Future ahead:-

While contemplating the challenges that lie ahead, one should not be daunted because the social and economic transformation of democratic India is a remarkable success story. We have come a long way. The economy has grown from around USD288 billion in FY93 to USD3.6 trillion in FY23. India has generated more growth per dollar of debt than other comparable nations. Abject poverty has all but been eliminated. Human development indicators have improved, and more Indians, especially women, are getting educated. For all its flaws and warts, the system has delivered accountability through the democratic process and public discourse, where the occasional and rarer mature commentary proves effective. We should not lose sight of that.

Global Economy:-

Following the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic crisis, the global economy has experienced a combination of both risks and opportunities. Progressing toward recovery, the global economy started returning to normalcy after a prolonged struggle; the governments worldwide have taken swift and appropriate measures, including widespread vaccination efforts and the consistent implementation of fiscal and monetary support strategies. Right when the economic situation seemed to be improving after the Covid-19, the Russia-Ukraine geopolitical conflict unfolded, contributing to global inflationary pressures and resulting in record-high levels not witnessed in the past four decades. Moreover, the impact of the conflict between Israel and Hamas on global financial markets will be contingent on the involvement of major regional powers. If the conflict remains localized between Israel and Hamas, its effects are likely to be limited, primarily affecting countries directly engaged in trade with Israel or Palestine. However, should the conflict extend to major oil-producing nations in the region, such as Iran, the global economy may experience significant consequences. Interruptions in the oil supply could lead to a sharp increase in energy costs for businesses and households, posing a potential threat to the overall stability of the global economy. To tackle this, Central Banks are adopting a hawkish approach and implementing interest rate hikes.

On the back of enhanced vaccination coverage and continued fiscal and monetary stimuli across countries, the GDP of the World grew by 13.2% CY 21 against a contraction of 3.0 % in CY 20. The positive trend continued into CY 22, with a growth rate of 4.7%.

The global GDP is forecasted to grow from USD 101.0 trillion in CY 22 to 128.5 in CY 27, thus growing at a CAGR of 4.9% during the forecasted period. The GDP (at current price) of the major economies in the world is presented in the table below

The world economy has experienced a contraction in GDP growth during the pandemic i.e. in CY 20. However, the governments and central banks globally have taken decisive actions by implementing fiscal and monetary stimulus measures to bolster the process of economic recovery. Further, the gradual recovery of global supply chains and increased international trade have contributed to the positive growth trajectory. These well-calibrated initiatives and the recovery to global supply-chain have been directed towards reinstating consumer and business confidence, stimulating demand, and achieving stability in financial markets. As a result of these concerted efforts, multiple countries and regions have demonstrated encouraging signs of economic revival and notable growth.

2. Indian Macro Economy an overview:

India's economy carried forward the momentum it built in FY23 into FY24 despite a gamut of global and external challenges. The focus on maintaining macroeconomic stability ensured that these challenges had minimal impact on India's economy. As a result, India's real GDP grew by 8.2 per cent in FY24, posting growth of over 7 per cent for a third consecutive year, driven by stable consumption demand and steadily improving investment demand.

The economies of India and China witnessed remarkable growth in nominal GDP during the calendar year 2021 and 2022, following the COVID-19 pandemic. India demonstrated a substantial year-on-year nominal GDP growth rate of 21.8% in CY 21 followed by a growth of 11.7% in CY 22. Meanwhile China experienced a notable growth rate of 20.4% in CY 21 and 6.2% growth in CY 22. On the other hand, major economies like the United States and Germany reported GDP growth rates of 10.4% and 10.3% respectively during CY 21 followed by 9% and 4.7% GDP growths in CY 22. Japan, however, experienced a negative growth in GDP (-2.0%) during CY 21. Nevertheless, in CY 22, Japan's GDP rebounded with a growth rate of 2%.

India's nominal GDP has grown at a CAGR of 9.6% between FY 17 and FY 22 and is expected to continue the trend by registering an expected CAGR of 8.9% for 5-year time period from FY 23 to FY 28.

Since FY 05, the Indian economy's growth rate had been twice as that of the world economy and it is expected to sustain this growth momentum in the long term. From FY 23 to FY 28, India's nominal GDP is expected to grow at a CAGR of 8.9%, which compares favourably to the world average (4.9%) and with other major economies, including China (6.5%), UK (4.6%), Japan (0.4%), Germany (2.1%) and the USA (4.1%) for the similar period of CY 22 to CY 27. It is also expected that the growth trajectory of Indian economy will enable India to be among the top 3 global economies by FY 28. Several factors are likely to contribute to economic growth in the long run.

These include favourable demographics, reducing dependency ratio, rapidly rising education levels, steady urbanization, growing young & working population, IT revolution, increasing penetration of mobile & internet infrastructure, government policies, increasing aspirations and affordability etc.

Macro-Economic and Overview – Inflation

Inflation is measured by the consumer price index (CPI), is defined as the change in the prices of a basket of goods and services that are typically purchased by specific groups of households. The world has witnessed a significant rise in inflation during the year 2022 where the average global inflation was recorded at 8.8%. As per the IMF report, the global inflation rate is expected to drop to 6.6% in CY 23 and 4.3% to CY 24 as compared to a pre-pandemic level of 3.5% during CY 17 to CY 19.

The economies of both India and the world are undergoing a recovery process following the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. However, the speed of their recovery is influenced not only by the severity of the COVID-19 impact but also by their ability to handle the challenges arising from the economic consequences of the ongoing geopolitical conflict between Russia and Ukraine.

Due to a substantial increase in global crude oil and commodity prices, India along with other developed countries are faced significant challenges related to high levels of inflation in recent years. Further, the pandemic has led to disruptions in global supply chains, affecting the availability of goods and raw materials. In response to this inflationary pressure, these countries are compelled to raise their domestic interest rates. RBI has been working towards reducing inflation by increasing the Repo rate to control the supply and demand of goods and services.

The RBI has increased repo rate by a cumulative 250 basis points, from 4% in April 2022 to 6.50% in April 2023, with an aim to tackle the current inflation scenario in India. The CPI inflation rate in India has been above the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) medium-term target of 6%. The country's retail inflation slipped to 4.25% in May 2023, from 6.44% in January 2023. The CPI inflation in India is expected to fall from 6.9% in FY 22 to 5.1% in FY 23 and further dropping to 4.4% during the year 2024.

Private Final consumption: -

GDP growth in India is expected to be driven by rising private final consumption expenditure. India is a private consumption driven economy where the share of domestic consumption is measured as private final consumption expenditure (PFCE). This private consumption expenditure comprises both goods (food, lifestyle, home, pharmacy etc.) and services (food services, education, healthcare etc.). High share of private consumption to GDP has the advantage of insulating India from volatility in the global economy. It also implies that sustainable economic growth directly translates into sustained consumer demand for goods and services. India’s domestic consumption has grown at a CAGR of 10.4% between FY 17 and FY 23, compared to 5.5% and 12.7% in the USA and China, respectively during the similar period of CY 16 and CY 22. Further, Indian total PFCE is expected to grow at same pace during the next 5 years at a CAGR of 10.8% and projected reach to USD 3 trillion by FY 27.

In FY 22, PFCE accounted for ~60% of India’s GDP. This is much higher than that in China (~39%), Germany (~50%) and comparable to that of the US (~68%) and the UK (~61%) for similar time of CY 21. With the rapidly growing GDP and PFCE, India is expected to be one of the top consumer markets in the world. It is estimated that the Private Final Consumption expenditure contribution to India’s GDP will be 60.55% for FY 23.

PFCE in India has exhibited varying y-o-y growth rates over the past few years. During FY 18 and FY 19, the PFCE grew by 10.6% and 12.0% respectively, indicating a robust expansion in consumer spending and a sustained momentum in private consumption. However, FY 21 witnessed a significant contraction in PFCE growth, with a y-o-y rate of -1.7% caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Data for FY 22 estimate a substantial rebound with a growth rate of 17.1%, reflecting the anticipated revival in consumer demand as the economy recovers from the pandemic-induced downturn. With a projected growth rates of 10.5% in FY 25 and 11.5% in FY 27, it is forecasted to have a sustained positive trajectory for PFCE growth rate in India.

Private Final Consumption Expenditure to India's GDP:-

A high share of private final consumption expenditure to GDP indicates that the economy is driven by consumer spending, which can be a positive sign for economic growth. However, if the share of private consumption expenditure is too high, it can lead to inflationary pressures and an unsustainable economy. India's share of private final consumption expenditure to GDP has increased over the years and has recorded 61.12% in FY 22 from 59.34% in FY 17. As per Ministry of Statistics and Program Implementation report, the share of India's PFCE to GDP will account for approximately 60.55% in FY 23.

Per Capita Income Growth:-

Income growth, presented by the GNI (Gross National Income) which is defined as the total amount of money earned by a country's businesses and individuals. India's gross national income growth with a CAGR of ~8% for the period FY 17 to FY 22 and is expected to continue the growth momentum with a CAGR of 12.6% from FY 22 to FY 25. Growing GNI is one of the strongest drivers for higher private consumption trends. The GNI per capita for the top five economies of the world such as the USA (USD 76,370), China (USD 12,850), Japan (USD 42,440), Germany (USD 53,390) and the UK (USD 48,890) is higher for CY 22 than that of India's GNI of USD 2,422 (INR 1,93,790) for a similar period of FY 23.

Correlation between India's Per Capita income growth to per capita consumption growth:-

In recent years, India has experienced a significant economic growth, with per capita income increasing from INR 1.16 lakhs in FY 17 to INR 1.70 lakhs in FY 22 and is expected to have reached INR 1.93 lakhs during FY 23. During this period, there has also been a corresponding increase in per capita consumption, as people have more money to spend on a variety of goods and services. The per capita PFCE of India increased from INR 0.70 lakhs in FY 17 to INR 1.02 lakhs in FY 22 and INR 1.18 lakhs in FY23. There is generally a positive correlation between a country's per capita income growth and per capita consumption growth.

India's per capita income has grown at a CAGR of 6.50% from the period of CY 15 to CY 22 while the per capita GDP for other developed and developing countries such as US, China, Japan and Germany grew at the CAGR of 4.10%, 7.12%, -0.25% and 2.36% respectively over a similar time period of CY 15 to CY 22.

Sectorial share of Gross value added (GVA)

The shares of the agriculture, industry and services sector in overall GVA (Gross value added) at current prices were 17.7 per cent, 27.6 per cent and 54.7 per cent respectively in FY24. GVA in the agriculture sector continued to grow, albeit at a slower pace. Erratic weather patterns during the year and an uneven spatial distribution of the monsoon in 2023 impacted overall output. This is reflected in the marginal decline in total foodgrain output for FY24 of 0.3 per cent as per the third advanced estimate of foodgrain production released by the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare (MoAFW). Within the industrial sector, manufacturing GVA shrugged off a disappointing FY23 and grew by 9.9 per cent in FY24. Manufacturing activities benefitted from reduced input prices while catering to stable domestic demand. The input price advantage was reflected in the subdued growth in the Wholesale Price Index (WPI) inflation, which led to a deflator of (-)1.7 per cent for the manufacturing sector during FY24. Manufacturers also passed on the reduction in input prices to consumers, reflected in the sustained decline in the core consumer price inflation. The strength of manufacturing is further corroborated by the strong performance of the HSBC India PMI for manufacturing, which consistently remained well above the threshold value of 50, indicating sustained expansion and stability in India's manufacturing sector. Construction activities displayed increased momentum and registered a growth of 9.9 per cent in FY24 due to the infrastructure buildout and buoyant commercial and residential real estate demand.

Outlook of the Indian Economy: -

The Indian economy recovered swiftly from the pandemic, with its real GDP in FY24 being 20 per cent higher than the pre-COVID, FY20 levels. This meant a CAGR of 4.6 per cent from FY20, despite a 5.8 per cent decline in FY21 inflicted by the pandemic. During the decade ending FY20, India grew at an average annual rate of 6.6 per cent, more or less reflecting the long-run growth prospects of the economy. This is the background against which we can see the prospects for FY25.

IMF projects the global economy to grow at 3.2 per cent in 2024, with risks being broadly balanced. The average annual global growth was 3.7 per cent during the decade ending FY20. Inflationary pressures have moderated in most economies with declining global commodity prices and easing of supply chain pressures. However, core inflation remains sticky and driven by high service inflation. Many central banks have hinted at the peaking of the interest rate hike cycle. The ECB has already cut the policy rate, while the Fed has hinted at reducing the rate in 2024. If the services inflation across economies moderates faster, that may allow central banks to bring forward the monetary policy easing cycle earlier than currently anticipated. A likely reduction in policy rates by central banks of AEs, especially the Fed, will open the space for central banks of EMEs to follow the lead, bringing down the cost of capital.

On the downside, any escalation of geopolitical conflicts in 2024 may lead to supply dislocations, higher commodity prices, reviving inflationary pressures and stalling monetary policy easing with potential repercussions for capital flows. This can also influence RBI's monetary policy stance. The global trade outlook for 2024 remains positive, with merchandise trade expected to pick up after registering a contraction in volumes in 2023. Conversely, increased fragmentation along geopolitical lines and renewed thrust on protectionism may distort merchandise trade growth, impacting India's external sector. Global financial markets have scaled new heights, with investors betting on global economic expansion. However, any corrections in the elevated financial market valuations may have ramifications for household finances and corporate valuation, negatively impacting growth prospects. Hiring in the information technology sector had slowed down considerably in FY24, and even if hiring does not decline further, it is unlikely to pick up significantly. However, leveraging the initiatives taken by the government and capturing the untapped potential in emerging markets, exports of business, consultancy and IT-enabled services can expand. Despite the core inflation rate being around 3 per cent, the RBI, with one eye on the withdrawal of accommodation and another on the US Fed, has kept interest rates unchanged for quite some time, and the anticipated easing has been delayed.

Domestic growth drivers have supported economic growth in FY24 despite uncertain global economic performance. Improved balance sheets will help the private sector cater to strong investment demand. A note of caution is warranted here. Private capital formation after good growth in the last three years may turn slightly more cautious because of fears of cheaper imports from countries that have excess capacity. While merchandise exports are likely to increase with improving growth prospects in AEs, services exports are also likely to witness a further uptick. A normal rainfall forecast by the India Meteorological Department and the satisfactory spread of the southwest monsoon thus far are likely to improve agriculture sector performance and support the revival of rural demand. However, the monsoon season still has some ways to go. Structural reforms such as the GST and the IBC have also matured and are delivering envisaged results.

4. Pharma Industry board overview Global Scenario:-

Global health systems have demonstrated remarkable resilience in the face of the pandemic, global inflation, and regional conflicts and have moved forward to adopt novel therapies and increase usage. Overall, the global use and spending on medicines is exceeding pre pandemic growth rates and is expected to continue significantly above those trends through 2028. The pharmaceutical industry has and will continue to have a significant impact on the global economy in terms of contribution to GDP.

The Pharmaceuticals market has been growing steadily in recent years, which is mainly driven by innovative drugs and an increasing demand for drugs and treatments worldwide. The largest driver of medicine spending growth through the next five years is still expected to be the availability and use in developed markets of innovative therapeutics and offset by losses of exclusivity and the lower costs of generics and biosimilars. Traditionally, innovative medicine growth has occurred most in the years immediately following launch, whereas recent years and the forecast outlook show growth driven by older products. This mix of spending growth between volume driven growth, and mix-driven changes in the cost of therapy are showing most geographies shifting to more expensive therapies, reflecting the broader availability and patient access to medicines with higher clinical value.

Global medicine spending growth is expected to accelerate over the next five years, driven mostly by increased growth contribution from existing branded products even as most growth segments are expected to increase compared to the last five years. The impact from brands losing exclusivity (LOE) is expected to more than double to $192Bn, although a large part of that increase is from biologics facing biosimilars where the impacts have had more uncertainty.

Spending and volume growth by region

With the start of the year 2024, we are hopeful about the fact that the pharma industry stands at the threshold of significant changes driven by advancements in technology, regulatory shift, and evolving market dynamics. They are new trends creating a sense of anticipation, dominance of small molecule drugs, a growing usage and adoption of a growing biologics, the outsourcing of drug development and manufacturing, an increasing interest in personalized medicine with the advent of AI, and a grave emphasis on emerging markets. Pharma companies are also facing the task of addressing challenges related to regulatory compliance, rising expenses in research and development, effective management of supply chains, acquisition of intellectual property, coping with the substantial costs linked to medications, and much more

Global Market trend:-

The global medicine market, measured by list price levels, is projected to grow at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 5-8% through 2028, reaching approximately US$2.3 trillion in total market size. This growth outlook represents a 2% increase compared to previous forecasts, despite a significant downward revision in expected spending on COVID-19 vaccines and therapeutics. Developed markets, characterised by larger established economies, are expected to experience more rapid growth driven by the introduction of new and existing branded products.

In the United States, the market is forecast to grow at a CAGR of 2-5% over the next five years, a decrease from the 5.3% CAGR observed in the previous five years. This projection includes the anticipated effects of the Inflation Reduction Act. Europe is anticipated to see an increase in spending of US$70 billion through 2028, propelled by the introduction of new brands, albeit offset by the presence of generics and biosimilars.

Japan’s medicine spending growth is expected to range from -1 to 2% through 2028. Despite robust brand growth, this increase is mitigated by annual price cuts and ongoing shifts towards generics. While spending growth in developed markets may vary, overall, they are anticipated to maintain positive trajectories, supported by ongoing innovation and market dynamics.

USA
Medicine spending at net levels in the U.S. pharmaceutical market is expected to grow at a rate of 2% to 5%, primarily driven by increasing brand spending on an invoice basis. Off-invoice discounts and rebates are projected to be amplified by the provisions of the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA), resulting in spending estimates that are 37% lower than invoice levels in 2023, anticipated to reach 47% lower by 2028. The IRA is anticipated to influence gross-to-net differences, impacting growth trajectories in various therapy areas.

Key trends:-

Acceleration in Therapy Areas: Notably, oncology, immunology, diabetes, and obesity have shown accelerating growth, driven by the adoption of novel therapies. These therapy areas are expected to be major contributors to overall spending growth.

Market Dynamics and Patent Expiries:

Market dynamics around the use of medicines, adoption of newer treatments, impact of patent expiries, and competition from generics and biosimilars will significantly shape spending patterns through 2028.

Increased Usage of Existing Branded Products: The largest driver of growth is expected to be increased usage of existing protected branded products, contributing substantially to overall spending over the next five years.

Loss of Exclusivity Impact:- Losses of exclusivity in the U.S. are projected to have a substantial impact on spending, totalling US$145.5 billion through 2028. This impact is notable in both small molecule and biologic products. Small molecule expiries are expected to reduce brand spending by US$106 billion, while biologics are forecasted to result in US$39.5 billion in lower brand spending over five years.

Europe

Medicine spending in the top five European markets is poised to increase by US$70 billion over the next five years, reflecting a notable shift in the drivers of growth. New brands, the largest contributor to growth from 2018 to 2023, are expected to continue driving spending but may face challenges due to the lingering effects of the pandemic on marketing operations and increasing budget pressures. However, generics, including biosimilars, are projected to contribute significantly to growth, adding US$18 billion over the next five years, despite facing price deflation.

(Source: “Industry Report on Chemicals Sector” dated December 30, 2024 (the “Infomerics Report”) prepared and issued by Infomerics Analytics & Research Private Limited

Key trends:-

Impact of Losses of Exclusivity (LOEs): The impact of LOEs in the five largest European markets is expected to more than triple over the next five years, with over half of the impact attributed to biologics. This impact is particularly significant in 2023, 2025, and 2026, driven by patent expiries of key biologics such as ranibizumab (Lucentis), ustekinumab (Stelara), and aflibercept (Eylea).

Market Dynamics and Payer Actions: Payer actions will be influenced by the pace of economic and COVID-19 recovery, as well as broader inflation concerns and the impact of fuel commodity costs related to the Ukraine conflict. Economic recovery and budget pressures may shape reimbursement decisions, impacting the growth trajectory of new brands.

Innovation and Health Technology Assessments: Despite uncertainties, innovation is expected to remain strong over the next five years. However, there may be greater scrutiny of the value of new medicines, particularly through health technology assessments. This could affect the growth of new brands and established brands in the market.

Pharmerging market:-

Over the years, pharmerging markets have witnessed significant growth primarily driven by increased consumption of older generic medicines. However, recent trends indicate a notable shift in spending patterns, particularly in countries like Russia and Turkey, where rising pharmaceutical expenditures and improved GDP per capita have propelled them into the category of ‘other developed’ nations. Despite these advancements, pharmerging markets continue to grapple with challenges, including limited access to specialty medicines, which accounted for 13% of spending in 2023 and are projected to maintain a similar share by 2028.

The growth trajectory of pharmerging markets is expected to be more influenced by volume rather than the adoption of expensive therapies. These markets typically rely on generics or non-original branded products, resulting in lower shares of spending on originator products compared to developed markets. Moreover, pharmaceutical products in pharmerging and lower-income countries often carry lower price tags, reflecting the cost-conscious nature of these regions and the need to ensure affordability for a significant portion of the population.

Pharma Industry-Present Indian scenario:-

Indian pharmaceutical industry is known for its generic medicines and low-cost vaccines globally. Transformed over the years as a vibrant sector, presently Indian pharma ranks third in pharmaceutical production by volume. The Pharmaceutical industry in India is the third largest in the world in terms of volume and 14th largest in terms of value. The pharma sector currently contributes to around 1.72% of the country’s GDP. The Indian pharmaceuticals industry is expected to grow 9-11% in the financial year 2024, as per ICRA.

Pharmaceutical is one of the top ten attractive sectors for foreign investment in India. The pharmaceutical exports from India reach more than 200 nations around the world, including highly regulated markets of the USA, West Europe, Japan, and Australia. In 2020, India supplied around 45 tonnes and 400 million tablets of hydroxychloroquine to around 114 countries globally. The market size of the medical devices sector in India was estimated to be US$ 11 billion in 2023 and its share in the global medical device market is estimated to be 1.5%. Indian pharmaceutical industry is known for its generic medicines and low-cost vaccines globally. Transformed over the years as a vibrant sector, presently Indian Pharma ranks third in pharmaceutical production by volume. Indian drugs are exported to more than 200 countries in the world, with the US as the key market. India's exports of Drugs & Pharmaceuticals stood at US$ 27.9 billion during FY24. About 20% of the global exports in generic drugs are met by India. The government has set ambitious target to elevate the medical devices industry in India from its current US$ 11 billion valuation to US$ 50 billion by 2030. Building on the outstanding performance in FY21, Indian pharmaceutical exports registered a healthy performance in FY22 and FY23. The pharma exports in FY22 sustained a growth despite the global trade disruptions and drop in demand for COVID-related medicines. The Indian vaccine industry developed Covid vaccine with indigenous technology in collaboration with India's research institutions like Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) and the National Institute of Virology (NIV) within the shortest time on par with highly developed countries like America and EU. India has provided 301 million doses of vaccines to more than 100 countries.

R&D spending in Indian Pharmaceuticals:-

The biotechnology and pharmaceutical sectors have showcased resilience and grit in the face of the pandemic, continuously evolving and innovating for better outcomes. The industry has witnessed innovation in the fields of new vaccine technology and treatment methods as well as in the R&D that goes behind making these vaccines and treatments. Utilizing modern technologies to manufacture pharmaceuticals, improve scientific procedures, and identify novel treatment approaches is fast catching on. India is making an effort to build a policy framework that incorporates intellectual property and technology commercialization, government procurement, scientific research, education, and skill development, as well as ease of doing business, regulatory legislation, and tax and financial incentives, these regulatory adjustments will open the door for further private sector investment in pharmaceutical R&D. The Union Budget 2023 aims to provide stimulus towards innovation with the announcement of the promotion of research and innovation programmes in pharmaceuticals through Centres of Excellence. For innovation in the pharmaceutical sector, through centres of excellence, a new initiative to encourage pharmaceutical research and innovation will be implemented. The government persuades businesses to spend money on R&D in a few chosen priority fields. At the grassroots level, the government has also announced on building of 157 nursing colleges in colocation with government medical colleges. The government would also facilitate select ICMR labs with facilities like research by both public and private medical college faculty alongside, private sector R&D teams. In the Interim Budget 2024-25, the government earmarked US$ 120 million (Rs 1,000 crore) for the promotion of bulk drug parks for FY25, a significant increase from the previous year. The total outlay for the development of the pharmaceutical industry for FY25 was also increased to US$ 156.5 million (Rs. 1,300 crore). The budget for the promotion of medical device parks was also raised to US$ 18 million (Rs. 150 crore) for FY25. The Department of Pharmaceuticals, in partnership with NIPERs, launched new initiatives in 2023 to boost R&D and innovation in the pharma sector, including the National Policy on Research & Development and Innovation in Pharma-MedTech Sector in India, and Scheme for Promotion of Research & Innovation in Pharma sector (PRIP). Additionally, a scheme for Human Resource Development in Medical Devices Sector was also approved

Foreign Direct Investment:-

Pharmaceutical sector has emerged as a favourite destination for the foreign investors and is one of the top ten attractive sectors for foreign investment in India. The Government has put in place an investor-friendly Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) policy to promote investment in the sector. 100% foreign investment is allowed under automatic route in Medical Devices. In pharmaceuticals, up to 100% FDI in greenfield projects and up to 74% FDI in brownfield projects is allowed under the automatic route. Foreign investment beyond 74% in brownfield projects requires Government approval. After the abolition of the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB) in May 2017, the Department of Pharmaceuticals has been assigned the role to consider the foreign investment proposals under the Government approval route. Apart from this, the Department considers all FDI proposals of the pharmaceutical sector and medical devices sector arising out of Press Note 3 dated 17.04.2020 wherein investors/ ultimate beneficiaries in the investment proposals are from the countries sharing land border with India.

The sector contributes about 3.80% of total FDI inflows in the country across various sectors. Total FDI inflows in Pharma and MediTech Sectors has been ₹ 1,57,087 crore from April 2000 to March 2024. During the financial year 2023-24, Department of Pharmaceuticals approved 14 FDI proposals that would result in foreign investment inflow of ₹ 11,858 crore in the brownfield projects of pharmaceutical sector.

FDI inflows in Drugs & Pharmaceuticals:-

Financial Year	FDI Inflows Drugs & Pharmaceuticals (Amount in ₹ crore)
2019-20	3,650
2020-21	11,015
2021-22	10,552
2022-23	16,654

Growth driver in Pharma Industry:-

Market size of India pharmaceuticals industry is expected to reach US$ 65 billion by 2024, ~US$ 130 billion by 2030 and US$ 450 billion market by 2047. According to the government data, the Indian pharmaceutical industry is worth approximately US$ 50 billion with over US$ 25 billion of the value coming from exports. About 20% of the global exports in generic drugs are met by India. The pharmaceutical industry in India is a significant part of the nation's foreign trade and offers lucrative potential for investors. Millions of people around the world receive affordable and inexpensive generic medications from India, which also runs a sizable number of plants that adhere to Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) standards set by the World Health Organization (WHO) and the United States Food and Drug Administration (USFDA). The Indian Government has taken many steps to reduce costs and bring down healthcare expenses. The National Health Protection Scheme, which aims to offer universal healthcare, the ageing population, the rise in chronic diseases, and other government programmes, including the opening of pharmacies that offer inexpensive generic medications, should all contribute to boost the Indian pharmaceutical industry. Some of the initiative taken by the Government to promote the pharmaceutical sector in India are; 1) The government earmarked Rs. 1,000 crore (US$ 120 million) for the promotion of bulk drug parks for FY25, a significant increase from the previous year; 2) The total outlay for the development of the pharmaceutical industry for FY25 was increased to Rs. 1,300 crore (US$ 156.5 million) while the budget for the promotion of medical device parks was raised to Rs. 150 crore (US$ 18 million) for FY25.; 3) The allocation for assistance to medical device clusters for common facilities (AMD-CF) was pegged at Rs. 40 crore (US$ 4.1 million) for FY25.; 4) The outlay for the Jan Aushadi scheme, the initiative to provide affordable generic medicines in the country, was hiked to Rs. 284.5 crore (US$ 34 million) for FY25, up from Rs. 110 crore (US$ 13 million) in the revised estimate for FY24.

Growth Driver factors:-

Strong Demand: Rising income, greater health awareness, lifestyle diseases and increasing access to insurance will contribute to growth. The healthcare sector, as of 2024, is one of India's largest employers, employing a total of 7.5 million people. A recent research report predicts that the integration of Artificial Intelligence (AI) within the Indian healthcare sector will create nearly 3 million new jobs by 2028.

Attractive Opportunities:-

India's public expenditure on healthcare touched 2.1 % of GDP in FY23 and 2.2% in FY22, against 1.6% in FY21, as per the Economic Survey 2022-23. Two vaccines Bharat Biotech's COVAXin and Oxford- AstraZeneca's Covishield manufactured by the Serum Institute of India) were instrumental in medically safeguarding the Indian population and those of 100+ countries against COVID-19.

Policy and Government support: The Government aims to develop India as a global healthcare hub. Public health surveillance in India will further strengthen the health systems. In the Interim Union Budget 2024-25, the government allocated Rs.90,659 crore (US$ 10.93 billion) to the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (MoHFW). In March 2021, the Parliament passed the National Commission for Allied & Healthcare Professions Bill 2021, which aims to create a body that will regulate and maintain educational and service standards for healthcare professionals.

Rising Manpower: Availability of a large pool of well trained medical professionals in the country. The number of allopathic doctors with recognised medical qualifications (under the I.M.C Act) registered with state medical councils/national medical council increased to 1.3 million in November 2021, from 0.83 million in 2010.

Growing space:- This industry is still in its growing phase, according to the Life Cycle of an Industry. So, it can still go a long way and spread its wings further apart. So, it can still take control over the market, given the right marketing and advertising.

Foreign investment: Per India's Consolidated FDI Policy, foreign direct investment in the pharmaceutical sector in greenfield (new) projects is permitted up to 100% without the approval of the Department of Pharmaceuticals (the "DoP"). 100% FDI in the pharmaceutical sector is allowed in brownfield pharmaceuticals; wherein 74% is allowed under the automatic route and thereafter through the government approval route.

Continued Rise of Digital Health: The rise of digital health technologies will transform the pharma industry. Patients will be able to monitor their health remotely through telemedicine and wearables. This technology will also provide valuable data for pharma companies to develop more effective treatments.

Favourable Policy Measures Support Growth:-

Strengthening of Pharmaceutical Industry (SPI)

Opportunities abound in clinical trials and high-end drugs:-

India is among the leaders in the clinical trial market. Due to a genetically diverse population and availability of skilled doctors, India has the potential to attract huge investments to its clinical trial market. In October 2021, AstraZeneca India launched a Clinical Data and Insights (CDI) division to further strengthen its global presence and manage data-related aspects of its clinical trials. In November 2021, US-based Akston Biosciences announced that it will start the clinical trial of its second-generation COVID-19 vaccine 'AKS-452' in India soon.

Due to increasing population and income levels, demand for high-end drugs is expected to rise. Growing demand could open up the market for production of high-end drugs in India.

With 70% of India's population residing in rural areas, pharma companies have immense opportunities to tap this market. Demand for generic medicines in rural markets has seen a sharp growth. Various companies are investing in the distribution network in rural areas.

Contract research and manufacturing services (CRAMS) is one of the fastest growing segments in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industry. The pharmaceutical market uses outsourcing services from providers in the form of contract research organizations (CROs) and contract manufacturing organizations (CMOs).

Threats for Pharma Industry & SWOT Analysis:-

Demand for a skilled workforce: The pharmaceutical industry requires a workforce that has significant knowledge, experience, and skills. Training the workforce helps to acquire the necessary skills to ensure, enhance and improve their participation in their daily tasks. This will also help to fill in any skills gaps that may be observed in the workforce.

Supply chain disruption: Supply chains have witnessed an unprecedented disruption all around the world, and this represents one of the major challenges facing the pharmaceutical industry. Many pharma companies are looking to supply chain innovative and circular supply chain models to tackle these challenges and build business resilience.

Regulatory compliance: Pharmaceutical companies must comply with various regulations, from clinical trial requirements to manufacturing and distribution standards. Keeping up with these regulations can be daunting, and failure to comply can result in costly fines and reputational damage.

R&D Costs: Developing new drugs and treatments is an expensive and time-consuming process. With rising R&D costs and increasing pressure to deliver results, pharmaceutical companies must be able to streamline their research processes and optimize their resources.

Intellectual property: - The pharmaceutical industry is highly competitive and intellectual property is critical to the success of any company. Protecting and enforcing patents can be a complex and costly process, and the threat of patent infringement is a constant concern.

Pricing pressure:- Pharmaceutical companies face increasing pressure to control the cost of their products, both from government regulators and consumers. This pressure can lead to lower profit margins and increased competition, making it harder for companies to invest in R&D and bring new products to market.

Supply chain management:- The pharmaceutical supply chain is complex and highly regulated, with multiple stakeholders involved in drug production, transportation, and distribution. Ensuring the safety and quality of pharmaceutical products at every stage of the supply chain is essential but can be challenging.

SWOT Analysis: -

Strengths of the Indian Pharma Sector: -

Strong government support- The pharmaceutical sector in India continues to develop with Government initiatives and the involvement of the private sector. The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare has undertaken several steps to ensure drug quality is available in India.

Lower production cost- One of the greatest strengths that made India a pioneer in the pharmaceutical industry is its inexpensive labour and supply and low cost of drug output.

Widespread usage of IT- Healthcare organizations have started using customized high-end hardware and software for billing, patient scheduling and medical recording. This makes the process faster and more consumer friendly and enables record keeping to be more precise and accurate.

Strong interpersonal relationship- In the face of rapidly spiraling prices, hospitals face intense pressure to offer expanded access to high-quality services. Consequently, cost management has been one of the significant challenges for the pharmaceutical industry. Network partnerships that provide ample opportunity to develop partnerships between patients and providers are considered an essential strength of the Indian pharmaceutical industry to maintain SCM and reduce costs.

Well developed facilities for growth-The country has well developed chemistry, R & D and manufacturing infrastructure with a proven track record in advanced chemistry capabilities, design of high tech manufacturing facilities and regulatory compliance.

Well equipped for drug discovery-India is considered a desirable destination for offshoring of data management functions for clinical trials and also due to its rich biodiversity and strength in Chemistry which are essential for drug discovery.

Weakness:-

Procurement risk- Over the past few years, concerns with the quality of material have drifted, giving rise to batch failures, slowdowns in manufacturing and a shortage of available resources all over the industry.

Complex and unequipped distribution network- Interruptions in distribution and inventory scarcities highly affect the supply chain management. The critical factor behind this matter is the highly decentralized distribution system, inadequate warehouses and various drug transport requisites, including the cold storage facilities and the augmentation system.

Long lead time-One of the most critical shortcomings of the Indian pharmaceutical SCM is the long lead time. This includes time for new product development, competency acquisition, procurement, manufacturing, delivery, regulative process and cash-to-cash cycle time.

Quality issue- Illegally manufactured, diverted, counterfeited, or adulterated products have quicker exposure across the black market to the delivery network. People often buy loose tablets instead of complete strips. As a result, neither barcode solution nor hologram and other methods like this fit here. The Indian Ministry of Health assessed that 5% of India's medicines are counterfeit, whereas 0.3% are spurious. In the US$5 billion Indian pharma market, 20% are false medicines.

Lack of expert workforce- India's healthcare industry provides for a growing population, and the business is expected to expand above previously estimated levels of 10–12%. But, recent studies show a massive shortage of qualified healthcare executives and supervisors employed with clinics, pharmaceutical firms, health insurers, third-party management and other healthcare providers.

Lack of training facilities-The majority of the pharmaceutical organization did not provide enough training and knowledge-sharing programs for their employees. Studies showed that storekeepers did not undergo instruction in stock management.

Opportunities

Increased prevalence of lifestyle-related illnesses- Along with communicable and infectious disorders, there is likely to be a more significant cardiovascular disorder, oncology and diabetes. Due to this rapid population increase, the emergence of both communicable and non-communicable disorders and economic advancement, the demand for pharmaceutical drugs has expanded several folds.

he emergence of new technologies in HSCM- The healthcare industry is a knowledge-intensive market. The technology has quickly improved the standards for doing business internationally with the potential to deliver prompt, precise and credible details . The recent advancement of IT has created enormous opportunities to improve SCM's effectiveness and reliability, which includes a cloud-based micro health centre.

Purchase in alliance- Community partnerships effectively lower healthcare expenses as they minimize the drug's price, particularly medical supplies and pharmaceutical products.

Wide range of adaptive policies for sustainable inventory management

The PSC comprises many supply chain parties, such as principal manufacturing plants etc. and reducing the complexity between these interrelated factors can be of huge advantage by several new policies. One of them is periodically-affine policies, which allow decision-makers to efficiently monitor and regulate large-scale newsvendor networks in the face of volatile demand without needing delivery forecasting.

Threats

Varying regulatory requirements across domestic and export markets- Procurement and transferring drug management involved addressing current regulatory frameworks. In India, various laws regulate the flow and sale of medicine around the region, creating complexities for SCM.

Increased competition- Over the past five to ten years, several markets have seen steady growth, including China, Germany, Brazil, Italy, etc in the Pharmaceutical industry. Currently, several products with identical characteristics, bioequivalence and price ranges are commercialized by several multinational companies.

Poor supplier service-In terms of Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients, Indian pharmaceutical companies extensively depend on China. Around 70% of the total raw material is imported from China. Therefore, it creates considerable uncertainty and vulnerability to disruption in the SCM.

Uncertainty in demand- The heterogeneity of customers leads to substantial volatility in drug demand. Pharmaceutical settings are typically highly diversified in the real world, with numerous products and decision-making phases. It becomes more crucial for the vendors due to these uncertainties in demand.

5. Food & Beverage Industry

Global Food & Beverage Industry:-

Overall retail value of food and beverage sales across the world in 2018 reached US$2.43 trillion, up from US$2.27 trillion in 2013. Based on an expected forecast CAGR of 2.1%, the industry is projected to reach US$2.73 trillion in 2023. While beverages alone are projected to see a slightly better performance with a CAGR of 2.2% between 2018 and 2023, they also account for a significantly lower portion of the market. Value sales of soft drinks and hot drinks alone stand at US$0.69 trillion in 2018. They are expected to reach US$0.77 trillion in 2018.

Coming from a low per capita base, Sub-Saharan Africa will be the most rapidly expanding food and beverage market between 2018 and 2023, forecasted to witness a CAGR of 3.84%. In actual terms however, Asia Pacific is set to be significantly more important. With a CAGR of 3.47% in the same timeframe, the region will see value sales increase by US$143 billion, compared to merely US$17 billion in Sub-Saharan Africa. In both regions, sales are benefiting from burgeoning populations, rapid urbanization and better access to packaged food and beverage items on the back of an on-going modern trade expansion. The star performer in Asia Pacific is thereby India. The country is expected to see the highest percentage growth between 2018 and 2023, as well as the second highest increase in actuals. Economic expansion, rising incomes and a rapidly expanding middle class has led to increased spending in the last five years and has also supported a shift from unpackaged to packaged foods.

The slowest growth of food and beverage sales over the coming five years is expected in North America. Canada and the USA are saturated and mature markets with an increasing urban population and a growing number of single households. Both is benefiting foodservice sales rather than retail sales. Growth opportunities are therefore mainly found within innovative health and wellness as well as speciality products, as increasing rates of obesity, diabetes and cardiovascular diseases force many to reconsider unhealthy eating habits. Similar developments can be seen in Europe, where health and wellness is often seen as a key driver. The region is additionally benefiting from growth in less mature markets in Easter Europe, such as Russia, Poland and the Ukraine.

By 2025, India is set to become the 3rd largest consumer economy with a nominal year-over-year expenditure growth of 12% which is more than double the anticipated global rate of 5%. Demographically India is one of the youngest consumer markets (33% of the population is younger than 15 years and 50% younger than 24 years) (Source: Technopak). Generally, consumers purchase brands they recognize. In this sense, it is necessary to invest in advertising and marketing to promote one's product. India is a highly price sensitive market. Over 38% of the Indian population is vegetarian (Source: World Atlas) and customers visit both traditional mom and pop (Kirana) stores and modern stores in the ratio 5:1 times on a weekly basis (India Retailing).

India is expected to become the fifth largest consumer market in the world by 2025, according to a paper prepared by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and Grant Thornton. Food and beverages is the biggest of the consumption categories. The F&B sector is supported by the vast agriculture sector: India is the biggest producer of pulses, and the second biggest producer of rice, wheat, sugarcane, and fruits and vegetables. It is also the biggest producer of milk and buffalo meat and ranks fifth in poultry production. The other helpful factors: large extents of arable lands, favourable climate, long coastline, and low wages.

The beverage industry, excluding alcoholic beverages, is worth about $16 billion. Tea and coffee are the most popular beverages, followed by soft drinks (carbonated drinks and juices), health drinks, milk-based drinks, flavoured drinks, and energy drinks. Half of the tea and coffee consumed in the country is sold unpacked. The alcohol beverages market is estimated to be worth about $35 billion, with whiskey, beer, and wine as the most popular drinks.

Growth drivers for Indian Food & Beverage Industry:-

Economic developments and supportive government policies have resulted in the development of production, processing, distribution and marketing of F&B in India. Apart from India's strong macro-indicators and production base, there are seven factors that have led to an increase in the consumption:

- Affluence of working population with increase in disposable income;
- Rising urbanization leading to changing lifestyles and less time to prepare food at home;
- Changes in taste and preference of the Indian consumers;
- Increase in tourism in India and international travel by Indians increased the interest of Indians in international food products;
- Innovative advertisements, rise in supermarkets and e-commerce boom, creating increasing awareness among consumers and also making the products easily accessible to the consumers;
- Promised quality standards, health benefits of the products;
- Increase in consumption of fast growing F&B (Food and Beverage) segments during special occasions and celebrations.

6. Cosmetic Industry: Indian Cosmetic Industry

The Indian cosmetics industry is majorly categorised into skin care, hair care, oral care, fragrances, and colour cosmetics segments. It currently has an overall market standing of USD 6.5 billion and is expected to grow to ~USD 20bn by 2025 with a CAGR of 25%. In comparison, the global cosmetics market is growing steadily at 3.7% CAGR and will reach ~USD 488 billion 2025. This means that by 2025, India will constitute around 3% to 4% of the total global cosmetics market and become one of the top 5 global markets by revenue.

With the improving purchasing power, demand for enhanced products and increasing image consciousness of the Indian clientele, many international brands started establishing footprints in India, across various retail formats. Also expected are uber luxury brands, to clamour for the Indian consumers' wallet and mindshare. Social media & favourable demographics are playing an important role in spreading awareness about cosmetics products and developing fashion consciousness, not only in metros but also in tier-1 & 2 cities. This is a golden opportunity for many cosmetics companies to expand beyond the top-8 cities and generate handsome revenue from all across the country.

Coupled with multiple other factors, herbal cosmetics products are driving growth due to increasing adoption, and the segment alone is expected to grow at 15%, as people become more aware of the possible perils in consistently using chemical formulations switch to 'safer' herbal and Ayurvedic products. Many Indian & international brands have been trying to seize the established player position in this segment by launching multiple products across categories. With rising demand in this space, luxury and super luxury brands have also launched products in this space.

7. Industry Outlook:

Pre-Covid scenario

The MCC market globally is projected to grow from USD 938 million in 2019 to USD 1,315 million by 2024, at a CAGR of 7.0%, between 2019 and 2024. The growth of the MCC market is primarily triggered by the increasing demand for processed food and growing production of pharmaceutical and cosmetic & personal care products. MCC manufactured from non-wood sources is an emerging trend in the market and is projected to grow at healthy pace.

North America held the dominant position, in terms of revenue, in the global microcrystalline cellulose market and accounted for a share of 29%, followed by Europe and Asia Pacific. Asia Pacific is projected to be the fastest growing region in the global microcrystalline cellulose market, registering the highest CAGR of 7.33% over 2019- 2024.

The microcrystalline cellulose (MCC) market size in India was estimated at USD 85 million in 2018 and is projected to reach USD 115 million by 2022, registering a CAGR of 6.25% from 2018 to 2022. The growth of the MCC market is primarily triggered by the increasing demand for processed food and growing production of pharmaceutical and cosmetic & personal care products.

As per estimates, from a market size of USD 39 billion in FY 2018-19, the Indian pharmaceutical market will grow to USD 55 billion by 2022-23. Growth in the domestic pharma market is expected to be driven by increase in the penetration of health insurance, improving access to healthcare facilities, rising prevalence of chronic diseases and rising per capita income.

The food and beverage market was estimated at US$30.12 billion in 2015 and is expected to reach US$142 billion by 2020, with a compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) of 36.34%. The beverage industry, contribute 8-9% to the total Food & Grocery (FG) market. The total market value of the beverages industry is close to €24 billion and is projected to increase steadily at a CAGR of 20-23%. The Indian cosmetics industry is majorly categorised into skin care, hair care, oral care, fragrances, and colour cosmetics segments. It currently has an overall market standing of USD 6.5 billion and is expected to grow to ~ USD 20bn by 2025 with a CAGR of 25%.

Outlook (Post-Covid)

As MCC market is primarily triggered by increasing production of pharmaceutical and increased demand for processed food and cosmetic & personal products, after covid-19 outlook is hard to forecast due to various changing factors. In best case scenario, it is expected that the with lockdown and social distancing impact of COVID-19 is going to lower in the remaining year of 2020 and worldwide economy is expected have “V” or “U” shape recovery as per various government policies and measures.

Pharmaceutical makes up to approx. 40% of MCC share worldwide and post covid-19, it is expected that the global pharmaceuticals market size is set to decline marginally in 2020. Food & Beverage and Cosmetics & Personal Care constitute around 25% and 20% of MCC share worldwide respectively.

Globally, the food & beverage industry is expected to experience the differential impact of this rapid spreading COVID-19 on each stage of its value chain through the mediums of the affected workforce at industrial level, raw material supply (agricultural produce, food ingredients, and intermediate food products), trade & logistics, demand-supply volatility and uncertain consumer demand at foodservice outlets—among other factors. Production, distribution, and inventory levels across the food & beverage industry spectrum are expected to be impacted.

With the outbreak of Covid-19 since January 2020, the market of global cosmetic products has shown declining results in the growth rate. Due to the lockdown situation going on across the globe cosmetic manufacturers had to shut down their production units as a result of the labour shortage. Additionally, numerous cosmetic stores were also shut down as the result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Going with best case scenario of containment of Covid19 impact, with “V” shape recovery of world economy in year FY-2020-21, it is expected that Pharmaceutical, Food & Beverage and Cosmetics & Personal Care segment will also growth at rapid pace and the support the MCC market growth.

KEY MANUFACTURING PROCESS

a) Sodium Monochloro Acetate (SMCA)

Reaction of MCA with NaOH

Monochloroacetic acid (MCA) is reacted with sodium hydroxide in a reaction vessel. The sodium hydroxide neutralizes the MCA, producing sodium monochloroacetate (SMCA) and water. The reaction is conducted at temperatures between 40°C and 60°C, ensuring complete conversion and preventing overheating.

Drying of SMCA

Once the reaction is complete, the resulting reacted mass is transferred to a rotary vacuum dryer (RVD) or tray dryer for drying. The drying process is essential to remove any residual moisture and to prepare the material for further processing.

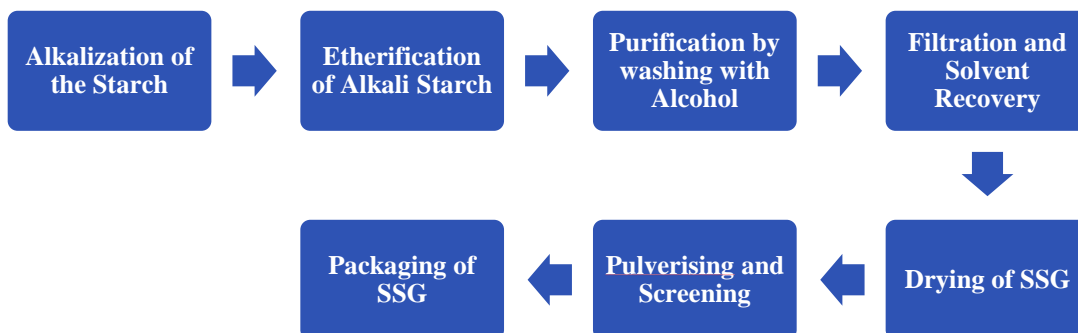

Screening and Packing of SMCA

After drying, the material is passed through a vibro sifter to screen and remove any large particles or "greets," ensuring that only the desired fine product remains for the next stage.

Packing of SMCA

The final product is then blended in a ribbon blender to ensure uniformity across different batches. Once blended to a consistent quality, the Sodium Monochloro Acetate is packed into suitable packaging materials, ready for dispatch.

b) BlowTab® Sodium Starch Glycollate

Reaction (Alkalization of the Starch and Etherification of Alkali Starch)

Starch is first treated with sodium hydroxide (NaOH) under controlled cooling conditions in the presence of alcohol. This treatment forms alkali starch. Once the alkali starch is prepared, sodium monochloro acetate is added to the reactor at a controlled temperature to initiate the etherification reaction, where the alkali starch reacts with sodium monochloro acetate to form sodium starch glycolate (a type of alkali starch ether).

Purification

After the etherification reaction is complete, the reacted mass is transferred to a vessel where it is neutralized using hydrochloric acid (HCA) to adjust the pH. Following neutralization, the mass is washed with alcohol to remove impurities, such as sodium chloride and sodium glycolate, ensuring the purity of the product.

Filtration and Solvent Recovery

After the etherification reaction is complete, the reacted mass is transferred to an agitated nutsche filter where it is filtered to separate the solid and liquid phases. The spent alcohol from the filtration process is then sent to a distillation unit for recovery. To further recover any residual alcohol left in the filter cake, steam is applied to the mass.

Drying

The filtered and steam-treated mass is then transferred to a rotary vacuum dryer (RVD) or tray dryer to remove the remaining moisture. This step ensures that the product is sufficiently dried before proceeding to the next phase.

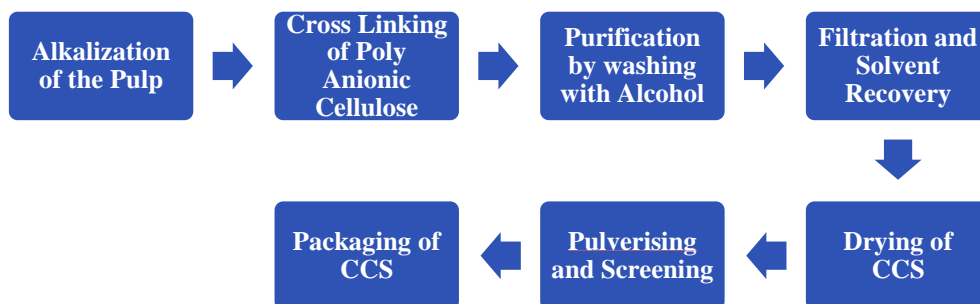

Pulverizing and Screening

The dried material is then ground using an ultrafine pulverize to achieve the desired fine particle size. After grinding, the material is passed through a vibro sifter to ensure that it meets the required specifications and is free from any coarse particles.

Packing

The final product is blended in a ribbon blender to ensure uniformity in quality across different batches. Once the blending process is complete, the material is packed in suitable packaging, ready for dispatch to customers

c) Disolwell - Croscarmellose Sodium (CCS)

Reaction (Alkalization of the Pulp and Cross Linking of Poly Anionic Cellulose)

Poly-anionic cellulose is treated under specific conditions in the presence of a crosslinking agent to form Croscarmellose Sodium. This reaction creates a crosslinked network structure that imparts the desired disintegrant properties to the product.

Purification

After the reaction is complete, the reacted mass is transferred to a vessel, where it is neutralized using an alkali medium to adjust the pH. The mass is then washed with alcohol to remove impurities such as sodium chloride and sodium glycolate, ensuring a higher purity of the final product.

Filtration and Solvent Recovery

After the etherification reaction is complete, the reacted mass is transferred to an agitated nutsche filter where it is filtered to separate the solid and liquid phases. The spent alcohol from the filtration process is then sent to a distillation unit for recovery. To further recover any residual alcohol left in the filter cake, steam is applied to the mass.

Drying

The filtered material is then loaded into a rotary vacuum dryer (RVD) or tray dryer, where it is dried to remove any remaining moisture. The drying process ensures that the Croscarmellose Sodium is in a stable, dry form for further processing.

Pulverizing and Screening

Once dried, the material is ground using an ultrafine pulverize to achieve the desired fine particle size. It is then passed through a vibro sifter to ensure uniformity and remove any larger particles, ensuring a high-quality final product.

Packing

The final product is then blended in a ribbon blender to ensure uniformity in quality across different batches. Once blending is complete, the material is packed into appropriate packaging for dispatch, ready for delivery to customers.

d) Swellcal - Carboxymethyl Cellulose Calcium (Calcium CMC)

Reaction (Cross Linking of Poly Anionic Cellulose and Addition of Calcium Salt to Cross linked PAC)

Calcium Carboxymethyl Cellulose (Calcium CMC) is synthesized by treating poly-anionic cellulose under specific conditions in the presence of a crosslinking agent to form Croscarmellose Sodium. Once this reaction is complete, the resulting product is then treated with calcium salt to form Calcium CMC.

Purification

The reacted mass is transferred to a vessel where it is neutralized with an alkali medium to adjust the pH. After neutralization, the mass is washed with alcohol to remove impurities such as calcium chloride, ensuring a purer final product.

Filtration and Solvent Recovery

The washing slurry is then transferred to an agitated nutsche filter where it is filtered to separate the solid and liquid phases. The spent alcohol is recovered by distillation, and steam is applied to the filter cake to recover any remaining alcohol.

Drying

The filtered mass is then loaded into a rotary vacuum dryer (RVD) or tray dryer to remove moisture. This step ensures that the Calcium CMC is properly dried before further processing.

Pulverizing and Screening

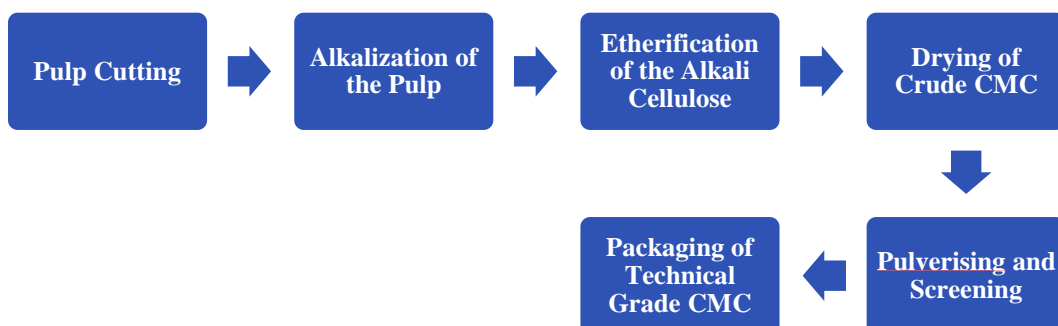

After drying, the material is ground using an ultrafine pulverize to achieve the desired particle size. It is then passed through a vibro sifter to ensure that the final product is uniform and free from any large particles.

Packing

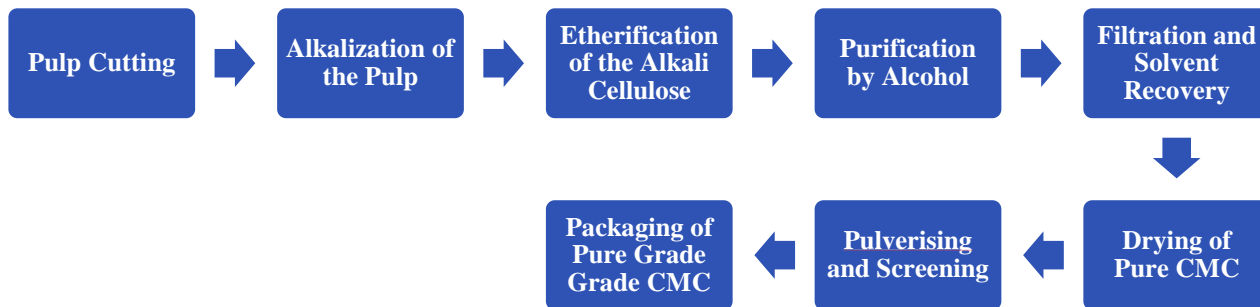

The final product is blended in a ribbon blender to achieve uniform quality across different batches. After blending, the material is packed in appropriate packaging materials, ready for dispatch.

e) Rheollose – Sodium Carboxymethyl Cellulose (Sodium CMC)

Technical Grade Carboxymethyl Cellulose Sodium (CMC)

Pure Grade Carboxymethyl Cellulose Sodium (CMC)

Pulp Cutting

The process begins with wood pulp being cut into small pieces using a shredding machine. This step is essential for increasing the surface area of the pulp and preparing it for further chemical treatment.

Reaction

The wood pulp is treated with sodium hydroxide (NaOH) to produce alkali cellulose under cooling conditions. The alkali cellulose is then subjected to etherification by adding sodium monochloro acetate to the reactor at a controlled temperature. This chemical reaction results in the formation of sodium carboxymethyl cellulose (NaCMC), a key cellulose derivative with a variety of industrial applications.

Purification

After the etherification reaction is complete, the reacted mass is transferred to a vessel where it is neutralized using hydrochloric acid (HCA) to adjust the pH. Following neutralization, the mass is washed with alcohol to remove impurities, such as sodium chloride and sodium glycolate, ensuring the purity of the product.

Filtration and Solvent Recovery

The washing slurry is then transferred to an agitated nutsche filter where it undergoes filtration. The spent alcohol is recovered by distillation and reused. To recover any residual alcohol left in the filter cake, steam is applied, ensuring maximum alcohol recovery and reducing waste.

Drying

The filtered material is then loaded into a rotary vacuum dryer (RVD) or tray dryer, where it is dried to remove any remaining moisture. The drying process is carefully controlled to prevent degradation of the product and to ensure the final material has the appropriate moisture content.

Pulverizing and Screening

Once the material is dried, it is ground using an ultrafine pulverize to achieve the desired fine particle size. The ground material is then passed through a vibro sifter to ensure uniform particle size and to remove any coarse material or lumps that may remain.

Packing

The final product is blended in a ribbon blender to ensure consistency and uniform quality across different batches. Once thoroughly blended, the sodium carboxymethyl cellulose is packed in appropriate packaging materials, ready for dispatch.

f) Hindcell - Microcrystalline Cellulose (MCC)

Wood Pulp Cutting

The first step in the production of Microcrystalline Cellulose (MCC) involves cutting wood pulp into small strips using a shredding machine. This preparation of the pulp is essential for the subsequent hydrolysis process.

Hydrolysis of the Wood Pulp

The wood pulp strips are then transferred to a reaction vessel, where they undergo hydrolysis in the presence of water and hydrochloric acid (HCl), aided by steam. The hydrolysis process breaks down the cellulose into smaller, crystalline segments, a necessary step in producing MCC.

Filtration and Washing

After the hydrolysis reaction, the reacted mass is moved to a filtration unit, typically a filter-press or an Automatic Neutralization Filter (ANF). The mass is neutralized using ammonia liquor to balance the pH and remove any residual acidity. The neutralized material is then washed thoroughly with water to remove any impurities, resulting in a product of the desired purity.

Drying and Screening

The washed MCC cake is then subjected to drying using methods such as fluid bed drying, spin flash drying, or spray drying. The drying process is carried out at a controlled temperature to remove excess moisture. Once dried, the material is screened through various mesh sizes to segregate the MCC into different grades based on particle size distribution.

Packaging of Finished MCC

The final step involves blending the different batches of MCC in a ribbon blender to ensure uniform quality. Once blended, the material is packed into suitable packaging materials, ready for dispatch to customers.

The regulations and policies set out below may not be exhaustive and are only intended to provide general information to the investors and are neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for professional legal advice. For details of Government Approvals obtained by the Company and its Subsidiaries in compliance with these regulations, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 210 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

The statements below are based on current provisions of Indian law, and the judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, which are subject to change or modification by subsequent legislative, regulatory, administrative or judicial decisions.

Our Company is engaged in manufacturing of the high-quality cellulose based excipients which predominantly find application in the Pharmaceutical, Nutraceutical, Cosmetic and Industrial applications. Our business is governed by various central and state legislations that regulate the substantive and procedural aspects of our business. We are required to obtain and regularly renew certain licenses/ registrations and / or permissions required statutorily under the provisions of various Central and State Government regulations, rules, bye-laws, acts and policies.

Given below is a brief description of the certain relevant legislations that are currently applicable to the business carried on by us:

A. INDUSTRY RELATED LAWS AND REGULATIONS:

1. The Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 (the “DCA”) and the Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945 (the “Rules”)

The Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 governs the import, manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs in India and deals with aspects of labeling, packing, testing and licensing. The term ‘drugs’ has been given a wide import under this legislation and includes not only the active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) component of medicines but also substances that are intended for use as components of a drug, such as empty gelatin capsules. The Central and the State Governments have been given the power to appoint inspectors under the Act, who must carry out and perform the functions as prescribed including but not limited to search and seizure, examination of records, registers and documents. Penalties have been provided for the manufacture for sale or distribution, stocking and exhibition of drugs in contravention of the Act and for the non-disclosures of names of the manufacturers, as may be prescribed. The Rules framed under this legislation provide that for the purpose of importing drugs, an import license and registration certificate is required from the licensing authority. Even the manufacture for sale or distribution of drugs, requires the grant/renewal of a license by the Central License Approving Authority. Persons have been prohibited from the manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs which are not of the standard prescribed under the Act, or are misbranded, adulterated or spurious.

2. The Drugs (Price Control) Order, 2013 (“DPCO 2013”)

The DPCO 2013 was issued by the Central Government under Section 3 of the ECA and in supersession of the Drugs (Prices Control) Order, 1995, thereby giving effect to the National Pharmaceuticals Pricing Policy, 2012. The DPCO 2013, inter alia, provides that the Central Government may issue directions to the manufacturers of active pharmaceutical ingredients or bulk drugs and formulations to increase production or sell such active pharmaceutical ingredient or bulk drug to such manufacturer of formulations and direct the formulators to sell the formulations to institutions, hospitals or any agency, procedures for fixing the ceiling price of scheduled formulations of specified strengths or dosages, retail price of new drug for existing manufacturers of scheduled formulations, method of implementation of prices fixed by Government and penalties for contravention of its provisions. The Government has the power under the DPCO 2013 to recover amounts charged in excess of the notified price from the manufacturer, importer or distributor and the said amounts are to be deposited in the Drugs Prices Equalization Account. The DPCO 2013 prescribes certain instances in which case the provision of the DPCO 2013 will not be applicable. These provisions are applicable to all scheduled drugs and other drugs may be regulated, if warranted in public interest.

3. The Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 (“FSSA”)

The FSSA is a comprehensive legislation that has empowered the Central Government to establish a body known as the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India to exercise the powers conferred on and perform the functions assigned to it, under the FSSA. Its duty involves the regulation and monitoring of the manufacturing, processing, distribution, sale and import of food so as to ensure its safety. Such authority may by regulations specify the standards and guidelines in relation to articles of food and the limits of use of food additives, processing aids, antibiotics and pharmacological active substances, etc. The FSSA prohibits addition of food additives or processing aids to the food articles, which are not in accordance with the regulations made thereunder. As per the FSSA, the substances and materials that are not consumed as a food ingredient by themselves but are used in the processing of raw materials, food and its ingredients must also conform to the standards laid down under this FSSA.

4. The Food Safety and Standards (Food Products Standards and Food Additives) Regulations, 2011 (the “Regulation”)

These Regulation lists various additives, which are recognised as suitable to be added in foods and have been assigned the label of ‘Acceptable Daily Intake’ or on the basis of other criteria mentioned in the Regulation, have been considered as safe for intake. The use of additives is required to be made in accordance with the principles of Good Manufacturing Practice (“GMP”) which includes limiting the quantity of the food additive to a level which is necessary to accomplish the desired effect whilst ensuring that the additive is of appropriate food grade quality and handled in the same way as the food ingredient. The Regulations provides for specifications regarding the use of various anti-caking agents, bulking agents, emulsifying agents and stabilizing agents, among other substances.

5. The Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (the “ECA”)

The Central Government has been given the power to regulate and control the production, supply and distribution, of essential commodities as specified in the Schedule to the Act. Such essential commodities have been defined to include drugs as defined under the DCA. Section 3 of the ECA confers wide powers on the Central Government including the power to mandate that licenses and permits be issued for the production and manufacture of certain commodities and the power to control the price at which essential commodities may be bought and sold. The State Government has been brought under the ambit of the ECA and its authorities and officers may be directed to exercise the powers and carry out the duties as mandated under the ECA, for the regulation of essential commodities. The ECA also prescribes penal consequences for violations of the provisions mentioned therein.

E. ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS

The National and State governments are jointly responsible for the sustainable management of the forest resource. Since our Company deals primarily in manufacturing activities relating to wood waste and Agro forestry, there are various environmental and forest specific laws that are required to be taken into consideration. By virtue of the 42nd amendment to the Constitution of India in 1976, the subject matter of 'forest' was brought from the state list to the concurrent list empowering the Central Government to legislate on this subject. In India, various state governments have enacted their own Forest Acts or made an amendment to the Indian Forest Act, 1927. Further, the Indian Forest Act, 1927 empowers the state government to enact rules to regulate various aspects of forest management such as prescribing procedure for issuance of transit pass, setting up of saw mills, saw pits etc. In a practical sense, the State forest departments act as the custodians of the public forest resource and as the forest authorities, managing the forest resources in the basis of the forest management plans that they submit to the central government.

Our manufacturing activities are subject to, among other laws, environmental laws and regulations promulgated by the Ministry of Environment and Forest of Government of India, Saw Mill Rules, the State Forest Policy, State Pollution Control Board and Central Empowered Committee. These include laws and regulations about cutting of trees, discharge of effluents, polluted emissions, hazardous substances etc. On wood based industries, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has given specific directives from time to time and the same would be applicable to our Company as well. Laws relating to excise, customs, GST, factory and labour related matters etc. are applicable to our Company, as they are applicable to other manufacturing establishments. The applicable environmental laws are summarized below:

1. The Environment Protection Act, 1986 and Environment (Protection) Rules, 1986 and Environmental Impact Assessment Notification, 2006

The Environmental Protection Act, 1986 is an "umbrella" legislation designed to provide a framework for co-ordination of the activities of various Central and State authorities established under various laws. The potential scope of the Act is broad, with "environment" defined to include water, air and land and the interrelationships which exists among water, air and land, and human beings and other living creatures such as plants, micro-organisms and property. Further, the Ministry of Environment and Forests looks into Environment Impact Assessment. The Ministry receives proposals for expansion, modernization and setting up of projects and the impact which such projects would have on the environment which is assessed by the Ministry in detail before granting clearances for such proposed projects. Additionally, under the Environmental Impact Assessment Notification, 2006 and its subsequent amendments, projects are required to mandatorily obtain environmental clearance from the concerned authorities depending on the potential impact on human health and resources.

2. Indian Forest Act, 1927

The Indian Forest Act, 1927 (“Forest Act”) is India’s guiding forestry legislation that seeks to consolidate and preserve areas with forest cover or significant wildlife, to regulate movement and transit of forest produce, and to levy duties on timber and other forest produce. It lays out the procedure by which a State government can declare an area a Reserved Forest, Protected Forest or a Village Forest. It also defines as to what is a forest offence, what are the acts prohibited inside a Reserved Forest, and what penalties occur on violation of the provisions of the Forest Act. The Forest Act gives the State Governments the power to formulate rules to regulate matters such as the cutting, sawing, conversion and removal of trees and timber, and the collection, manufacture and removal of forest-produce from protected forests; the granting of licenses to persons felling or removing trees or timber or other forest-produce from such forests for the purposes of trade, and production etc. Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 (the “Act”).

The Act was promulgated to provide for the conservation of forests and for matters connected therewith or ancillary or incidental thereto. The Act prevents state governments from making any order directing that any forest land be used for a nonforest purpose or that any forest land is assigned through lease or otherwise to any private person or corporation not owned or controlled by the Government without the approval of the GoI. The Ministry of Environment and Forests (“MoEF”) mandates that Environment Impact Assessment (“EIA”) must be conducted for projects. In the process, the Ministry receives proposals for the setting up of projects and assesses their impact on the environment before granting clearances to the projects.

The EIA Notification S.O. 1533, issued on September 14, 2006 (“EIA Notification”) under the provisions of the Environment Act, prescribes that new construction projects require prior environmental clearance from the MoEF. The environmental clearance must be obtained from the MoEF according to the procedure specified in the EIA Notification. No construction work, preliminary or other, relating to the setting up of a project can be undertaken until such clearance is obtained. Under the EIA Notification, the environmental clearance process for new projects consists of four stages – screening, scoping, public consultation and appraisal. After completion of public consultation, the applicant is required to make appropriate changes in the draft ‘EIA Report’ and the ‘Environment Management Plan.’ The final EIA Report has to be submitted to the concerned regulatory authority for appraisal. The regulatory authority is required to give its decision within 105 days of the receipt of the final EIA Report.

The Water Cess Act has been enacted to provide for the levy and collection of a cess on water consumed by persons carrying on certain industries and by local authorities, with a view to augment the resources of the central and State PCB for the prevention and control of water pollution constituted under the Water Act. The Water Cess Rules have been notified under Section 17 of the Water Cess Act and provide, inter alia, for the standards of the meters and places where they are to be affixed and the furnishing of returns by consumers.

5. The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981

The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 (“Air Act”) requires that any individual, industry or institution responsible for emitting smoke or gases by way of use of fuel or chemical reactions must apply in a prescribed form and obtain consent from the State PCB prior to commencing any activity. The consent may contain conditions relating to specifications of pollution control equipment to be installed. Within a period of four months after the receipt of the application for consent the State PCB shall, by order in writing and for reasons to be recorded in the order, grant the consent applied for subject to such conditions and for such period as may be specified in the order, or refuse consent. The Air Act prescribes penalties for contravention in terms of fine, imprisonment or both.

The Hazardous Waste Rules also prescribe the hierarchy in the sequence of priority of prevention, minimization, reuse, recycling, recovery and co-processing. Further, State PCBs are mandated to prepare an inventory of the waste generated, waste recycled, recovered and utilized including co-processed, re-exported and disposed, based on annual returns received from occupiers and operators, and submit it to the Central Pollution Control Board on an annual basis.

The present national policies for environmental management are contained in the National Forest Policy, 2018, the National Conservation Strategy and Policy Statement on Environment and Development, 1992, the Policy Statement on Environment and Development, 1992; and the Policy Statement on Abatement of Pollution, 1992. Some sector policies such as the National Agriculture Policy, 2018; National Population Policy, 2000; and National Water Policy, 2012 have also contributed towards environmental management. All these policies have recognized the need for sustainable development in their specific contexts and formulated necessary strategies to give effect to such recognition. The Policy seeks to extend the coverage, and fill in gaps that still exist, in light of present knowledge and accumulated experience. It does not displace, but builds on the earlier policies.

The Objectives of the Policy are as follows:

- Intra-generational equity: Livelihood security for the poor
- Inter-generational equity
- Integration of environmental concerns in economic and social development

The Policy evolved from the recognition that only such development is sustainable, which respects ecological constraints and the imperatives of justice. The objectives stated above are to be realized through various strategic interventions by different public authorities at Central, State and Local government levels. They would also be the basis of diverse partnerships. The principles followed in the Policy are:

- Human beings are the center of sustainable development concerns
- Right to development must be fulfilled so as to equitably meet developmental and environmental needs of present and future generations.
- In order to achieve sustainable development environmental protection shall constitute an integral part of the development process and cannot be considered in isolation from it.

Phased implementation of Unified Payments Interface

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by RIIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to upto three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a) Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Retail Individual Bidder, besides the modes of bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.
- b) Phase II: This phase has commenced with effect from July 01, 2019 and will continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Under this phase, submission of the Bid cum Application Form by a Retail Individual Investor through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and has been replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be six Working Days during this phase. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till further notice.
- c) Phase III/T+3: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023 vide T+3 Press Release. In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Press Release as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked not later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalized. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Issue BRLMs will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues shall also provide the facility to make application using UPI. The Company will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/ or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Bidders using the UPI.

The processing fees for applications made by Retail Individual Bidders using the UPI Mechanism may be released to the remitter banks (SCSBs) only after such banks provide a written confirmation on compliance with SEBI Circular No: SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/P/CIR/2021/570 dated June 2, 2021 read with SEBI Circular No: SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2021/2480/1/M dated March 16, 2021.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue, it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹ 24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹ 22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the BRLMs, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹ 22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Anchor Investors are not allowed to withdraw their Bids after Anchor Investors bidding date.
