The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, has released the revised National List of Essential Medicines (NLEM), 2022. In the coming days, the National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority will fix the ceiling price for the cost to patients of the products included in this revised list. Since insulin glargine (100 IU/ ml) is now a part of the NLEM 2022 list, our Company's insulin glargine brand Lantus® will also be subject to price revision. The potential impact on the Company will be known only after the NPPA releases the prices. Though the price revision is likely to have an impact on sales, the Company does not expect a material impact on the profitability considering the arms-length operating model principle being followed with regard to sourcing of this product from Sanofi Group.
