Managing Director's Letter

Dear Shareholders,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. On behalf of Rich Universe Network Limited, I am writing to provide you with an update on the company's performance for the fiscal year ending 2023, as well as offer insights into the prevailing economic conditions in India.

The Indian economy, like many others globally, experienced its fair share of ups and downs during the year. Despite the prevailing circumstances, our company managed to adapt to the dynamic market conditions and remained resilient. However, the economic environment has presented several obstacles, such as increased market volatility, changing regulatory policies, and fluctuations in global financial markets. These factors have collectively impacted our financial performance.

It is with mixed sentiments that I report that the company's performance for the past year has shown a slight decline compared to the previous year. While we have maintained a strong market presence and diligently executed our strategies, we faced certain challenges that affected our overall financial results.

Despite these challenges, I want to emphasize that our team has worked tirelessly to mitigate the adverse effects and explore new opportunities. We have taken proactive measures to streamline our operations, optimize costs, and enhance our risk management practices. These efforts will position us favorably for future growth and enable us to navigate any potential challenges ahead.

Our management team is continuously monitoring the evolving economic landscape and adapting our strategies accordingly. We remain committed to improving our performance and delivering sustainable value to our shareholders. Rest assured, we are actively exploring opportunities to expand our market reach, diversify our portfolio, and capitalize on emerging trends within the industry.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support and trust in Rich Universe Network Limited. Your confidence in our vision and strategy is invaluable, and we are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of corporate governance and transparency. We will continue to keep you informed about significant developments and progress within the company.

Once again, thank you for your continued support. We remain optimistic about the future and are confident in our ability to overcome challenges and drive sustained growth in the coming years.

Wishing you all very best

Basis for Qualified Opinion

- i) We draw attention to the note number 4 "Other Non-current assets" of the financial statements where the balances related to income tax which are under appeal or seized by the department and balances related to SEBI and Service tax which are under protest, the management has not booked any contingent liability in the financial statements and not reflected in the notes. However, we have relied on the balances as per management representations provided to us by the management.
- ii) As per our opinion the management has not made any provision for recovery of sundry debtors related to the balance of one of the party New E-World Services Limited. We have relied on the management for the balances for sundry debtors.

Our Opinion is qualified for the above matters.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to the note no. 34 of the financial statements where adjustment of Rs.7,12,577 related to previous years Mat credit has not been booked which has been duly booked during the current year which will impact (increase) our profit after tax.

Our opinion is not qualified on the above matter.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion on standalone financial statements.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statement :

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's standalone financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements:

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguard.
