Study House rule issues: Modi to N

ARCHIS MOHAN & PTI
New Delhi, 2 July

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday asked all National Democratic Alliance (NDA) constituents to appoint spokespersons, who should regularly coordinate with each other to ensure that the government's views on issues are conveyed forthrightly and in unison.

The PM addressed the Members of Parliament (MPs) of the ruling NDA in the morning where he asked them to study parliamentary procedures, rules of conduct, attend Parliament regularly and raise issues of their respective constituencies, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Kiren Rijiju said.

Modi advised the MPs on the subject a day after Union ministers Rijiju and Ashwini Vaishnaw accused Leader of Opposition (LoP) Rahul Gandhi of having "denigrated" the post that he now occupied by the "irresponsible" statements he made in his speech in the Lok Sabha during the debate on the President's address. The PM also asked the MPs that beyond party affiliations, commitment to serve the nation should be uppermost in their mind. According to sources, the PM said the Congress is upset as for the first time a non-Congress leader, that too a "chai-wala", has become Prime Minister for a third straight term. Modi spoke of his modest beginnings and humble background. Rijiju said the PM did not refer to Rahul Gandhi's speech in the Lok Sabha. But the message is for everyone when the country's Prime Minister speaks, Rijiju added.

In his letter, Gandhi said while the Chair has powers to expunge certain remarks from the records, the stipulation is that he can erase only those kinds of words, the natures of which have been specified in Rule 380 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Lok Sabha. "I am, however, shocked to note the manner in which considerable portions of my speech have been simply taken off from the proceedings under the garb of expunction," Gandhi, whose Monday's speech was his first as the LoP in the
