MAHARASHTRA GOVT FORMATION

Fadnavis to take oath as CM today

● Ajit Pawar to be sworn in as Deputy CM, no other ministers to be named as yet

SHUBHANGI KHAPRE, VALLABH OZARKAR & ALOK DESHPANDE
Mumbai, December 4

MORE THAN 10 days after the Mahayuti swept the Maharashtra elections, the suspense is finally over. At 5.30 pm on Thursday, Devendra Fadnavis will be sworn in as Chief Minister at Mumbai's historic Azad Maidan. While it is confirmed that Ajit Pawar will be taking oath as Deputy CM along with him, Eknath Shinde is also likely too, though a confirmation is still awaited.

In another indication that the negotiations between Mahayuti partners BJP, Shiv Sena and NCP are still continuing, no other leader will be taking oath for now. Maharashtra can have a ministry of 43 members.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah, who helped pull off the BJP's historic 132-seat win in Maharashtra, will be present for the swearing-in.

Earlier, Shinde, who is functioning as the caretaker CM, Fadnavis and Pawar together met Governor C P Radhakrishnan and staked claim to form the government with letters of support from their MLAs.

Mahayuti leaders Devendra Fadnavis and Eknath Shinde at a press meet in Mumbai Fadnavis, who visited Shinde on Tuesday evening to iron out the final wrinkles in the way of his becoming CM, presented a united front, telling the media in front of the Raj Bhavan: "The CM / DyCM posts are technical arrangements. All three of us will take decisions in the larger interest of Maharashtra. Even in the past, we took collective decisions and worked as a team."

He added: "I personally requested Eknath Shinde to be a part of the government. I told him that it is the wish of BJP and Shiv Sena members too that he should become a part of the Mahayuti government."

Sources in the Sena said that Shinde may be holding out but has come around to the idea of serving as Deputy CM.

In his remarks to the media after meeting the Governor, Shinde pledged his party's support to Fadnavis as CM, adding: "Exactly, two-and-a-half years ago, it was at this very place that Fadnavis announced my name for CM post. For Fadnavis who had served as CM of Maharashtra in the past, it was his generosity to do so. Today, I am happy to support and propose his name for the CM post."

Underlying differences between the partners, the Sena leader said: "Government formation is being done in a cordial and friendly manner."

On his sudden decision to head off to his village in Satara in the middle of talks for government formation, Shinde said he had gone there to "take rest". "I am fine now, but for a little sore throat."

At a joint press conference addressed by Fadnavis, Pawar and him later on Wednesday, Shinde said he would take a call on joining the government "in the evening". Till reports last came in, that confirmation was awaited.

That Fadnavis would be the CM after all, and not be denied the post again, was clear once the BJP core committee early on Wednesday approved his name. The 132-member BJP legislature party then unanimously chose him as its leader.

Union minister Nirmala Sitharaman and former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, deputed as central observers, were present at both the meetings.

Stopped on way to Sambhal, Rahul says it's my duty as LoP

NEETIKA JHA
Ghaziabad, December 4

A CONGRESS DELEGATION led by Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi and party MPs Priyanka Gandhi and K C Venugopal was stopped by Uttar Pradesh Police from going to violence-hit Sambhal at the Ghazipur border with Delhi on Wednesday morning.

After being stuck for around two hours on the six-lane Delhi-Meerut Expressway, which saw the deployment of over 200 police personnel, Rahul said, "I am trying to go to Sambhal. It is my right as the Leader of Opposition. The police are not allowing me. I even told them I am ready to go alone or accompanied by them. They told us if I return in a few days, I will be allowed."

The Gandhis had on Tuesday announced their visit to Sambhal, where four persons were killed and several policemen injured during clashes over a court-ordered survey at the Shahi Jama Masjid on November 24. The court had ordered the survey on a petition that claimed that a temple once stood at the site of the mosque.

After the Congress leaders' announcement, the Sambhal district administration had written to the police commissioners of Gautam Buddha Nagar and Ghaziabad and the SPs of Amroha and Bulandshahr districts, urging them to stop them at the borders of their districts.

Waiting at the border, Rahul held up a pocket-size copy of the Constitution, handed to him by Priyanka, and said the move violated its principles.

"All we want is to go to Sambhal, see what happened there, and meet the families. But my constitutional right is not being given to me. This is a new Hindustan... destroying the Constitution of Ambedkar. But we will keep fighting," he said.

Priyanka questioned claims of maintaining law and order in the state.

"Rahul Ji is the Leader of Opposition, the position gives him certain constitutional rights which are different from others. He cannot be stopped this way. He has constitutional position and rights. He even said that he can go alone with police but even this was not allowed," she said. "If the UP Police is so weak that it cannot control this, then how do you (UP government) say that you have maintained the law and order situation in the state?"

On Tuesday, the police had said that the Congress leaders will not be allowed to go to Sambhal. "We will be stopping them at the Delhi border," Sambhal SP Krishnan Kumar Bishnoi had told The Indian Express. "Section 163 of BNS (not allowing assembly of five or more people) has been imposed in the district and no outside person will be allowed in."

Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge, in a post on X, said, "BJP-RSS is busy tearing the Constitution to shreds with its divisive agenda. Preventing the Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi from visiting the victim families in Sambhal proves this very thing."

Sukhbir Singh Badal survives a gunfire attack at Golden Temple

KAMALDEEP SINGH BRAR
Amritsar, December 4

FORMER PUNJAB CHIEF Minister Sukhbir Singh Badal (62) had a narrow escape on Wednesday as a man, identified as a former militant, attempted to open fire at him while the Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) leader was on "punishment" guard duty at the Golden Temple.

The attack was foiled by a police officer who was part of Badal's security detail - he is a Z-plus protectee. Even as the attacker, Narain Singh Chaura (68), was overpowered, he managed to fire a bullet. The bullet hit the shrine's entrance wall behind Badal, who escaped unhurt.

Police sources said CCTV footage showed that Chaura was at the Golden Temple on Tuesday too, when Badal and other Akali leaders began the religious punishment ordered by the Akal Takht, over "mistakes" made by the SAD government in Punjab from 2007 to 2017. They are required to perform these duties for a consecutive 10 days.

Wednesday's attack, which took place at around 9:30 am, was captured on camera as several mediapersons had gathered at the spot to cover the second day of Badal performing the duty of "sevadar".

Video clips of the incident showed Chaura slowly walking up to Badal, who was sitting in a wheelchair due to a fractured leg, and pulling out a gun from his pocket. A police officer in plain clothes, later identified as Badal's PSO (personal security officer) and Assistant Sub-Inspector Jasbir Singh, reacted instantly, quickly reaching for Chaura's weapon and pushed him back. Additional personnel then arrived and quickly overpowered Chaura.

At his home in Dera Baba Nanak, Chaura's wife, Jasmeet Kaur, told reporters: "He left home at 6 am. He told me that he was going to attend a religious function. I only came to know about the attack from the media."

Protest held against ISKCON saint arrest

THE SARVA HINDU Samaj demonstrated here on Wednesday against the arrest of ISKCON temple saint Chinmay Krishna Das in Bangladesh and the "continuous oppression" of Hindus there.

People associated with the organisation gathered in large numbers at Badi Chaupad and demonstrated. They raised slogans against the atrocities on Hindus in Bangladesh. People from the Sarva Hindu Samaj, including saints, public representatives, youths, and women, participated in the demonstration.

Speakers said it is the time to unite and not to divide on the basis of caste. Everyone has to show the power of unity together. At the same time, the central government should raise this issue in the United Nations and Human Rights Council and find a proper solution, they added.
