No Vertigo Mid- & Small-cap Indices Make New Records

Our Bureau

Mumbai: Mid-cap and small-cap indices hit new highs on Wednesday extending their winning run as retail investors continued to lap them up despite growing concerns over elevated share valuations in these spaces.

However, the benchmark Nifty 50 lingered below the psychological resistance of 25,000 level.

Nifty's Midcap 150 index, which gained 18.32% since the election results on June 4, made an all-time high of 21,913.1 on Wednesday. It closed 0.51% higher at a new record 21,920.95.

Nifty's Smallcap 250 also made a lifetime high of 16,038.1 on Wednesday but closed 0.2% lower at 17,948. It has returned 21.6% since June 4. Nifty's Microcap index, which made a lifetime high of 24,971.65 during the trading session, ended 0.1% higher at a record close of 24,083.6. The index has grown 27.2% in this period.

Since election results day, the Nifty and Sensex have gained 14% and 13.4%, respectively.

The mid-caps and small caps have been outperforming the benchmarks despite expensive valuations due to the excess liquidity in the market," said Shrikant Chouhan, head of research at Kotak Securities. "Traders have preferred

GEOPOLITICAL WORRIES

Oil Prices Climb More Than 2% After Killing of Hamas Leader

Reuters

London: Oil prices rose more than 2% on Wednesday rebounding from seven-week lows, as the killing of a Hamas leader in Israel rattled up tensions in the Middle East and overshadowed a drawdown in US crude stockpiles driven by robust exports.

Brent crude futures rose $1.97, or 2.5%, to $80.60 a barrel ahead of expiry on Wednesday while the more active October contract was up $2.14 at $80.21.

US West Texas Intermediate crude futures gained $2.32, or 3.1%, at $76.20 a barrel.

US crude stocks decreased by 3.4 million barrels last week, government data showed, more than thrice analysts' expectations for a 1.1 million-drop. Stocks fell for a fifth straight week.

STANLEY DRUCKENMILLER'S FUND AMONG INVESTORS

Adani Energy's $1-billion QIP Subscribed Over Six Times

Rajesh Mascarenhas

Mumbai: Duquesne Family Office, the fund founded by billionaire investor Stanley Druckenmiller, and two other US-based long-only funds — Driehaus Capital Management and Jennison Associates — have invested in the qualified institutional placement (QIP) of Adani Energy Solutions, market sources told BT.

This marks the first time these three funds have invested in Indian equities. The $1-billion QIP launched after trading ended Tuesday and closed before market hours on Wednesday, was oversubscribed six times, garnering a demand of more than ₹50,000 crore, sources added.

Stanley Druckenmiller is known for his significant role in 1992 when he and George Soros broke the Bank of England by shorting the British pound, leading to its crash and earning over a billion dollars. His fund Duquesne Capital Management gave an average annual return of 30% investment Authority. Domestic mutual funds such as SBI, HDFC, Axis, Tata, LIC, WhiteOak, and 360 One WAM also participated in the QIP, according to sources.

The issue comprises a base deal of up to ₹5,631 crore ($700 million) and a greenshoe option to upsize by up to an additional ₹2,513 crore ($300 million). The company is issuing 60.1 million equity shares as the base issue with an option to upsize to 25.7 million shares. According to the term sheet, the dilution at the base deal is 5.38% of the pre-issue outstanding equity capital, and at the upsized deal, it is 2.0% at the indicative issue price.

The company intends to use the proceeds to fund capital expenditure requirements of some of its subsidiaries for setting up transmission systems, purchasing and installing smart meters, repaying certain outstanding borrowings, and for general corporate purposes.

Brokers, SEs Face Tougher Futures and Options as Sebi Bids to Curb F&O Frenzy

NSE & BSE profits may fall by up to 33%; Discount brokers like Zerodha, Groww and AngelOne could be worst hit

Rajesh Mascarenhas

Mumbai: India's stock brokers are gearing up for challenging times ahead as the likelihood of stricter norms in equity derivatives is expected to aggravate the industry's woes already weighed down by a slew of regulatory tightening measures and higher taxes on options trading. Broking officials and analysts said the profitability of these firms, especially discount brokers like Zerodha, Groww and AngelOne, and even stock exchanges could be hit by these moves.

On Tuesday, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) in a consultation paper proposed to make it more expensive for individual traders to trade in index futures and options and scrapped some weekly products to curb the exuberance in the Indian equity derivatives market.

Profit Squeeze Ahead?

Geojit Fin.	110.4	-2.2	6.2	15.7

"We see exchanges and retail-focused brokers being most affected from the proposed changes," said Jefferies in a client note. The brokerage said the likely impact of Sebi's move on Zerodha, Angel One and Paytm Money will be "very high".

"BSE can offset impact and even gain, if volumes spillover from discontinued products," it said. BSE shares rose 6% on Wednesday to ₹2,559. NSE's unlisted shares have declined 10.12% in the past month to ₹5,400 in the unofficial market, said brokers, on expectations of the tighter derivative regulations. Among brokers, AngelOne gained 1.2% on Wednesday. The stock is down 16% in the past one month.
