ASI submits Bhoishala survey report to HC

Times News Network

Show: The Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) submitted a 2,000-page report on its scientific survey of the disputed Bhoishala-Kamal Maula mosque complex in Madhya Pradesh high court's Indore bench on Monday.

ASI counsel Himanshu Joshi handed to the HC the report of the 98-day survey that began on March 22. The next hearing in the HC is on July 22. The Supreme Court has said that without its permission no action should be taken on the outcome of the ASI survey.

Ashish Goyal of Hindu Front for Justice (HFJ), whose petition in the HC led to the survey, told TOI, "The report contains details of nearly 1,700 archaeological remains of various objects, including brood idols of 39 gods and goddesses."

SC said without its nod, no action should be taken on the survey

Goyal was certain that the monument will be proven to be from the King Bhoj era, constructed in 1034. "Many idols and statues have also been found which could be as old as the Parmar dynasty's

SC to examine plea for early hearing

Supreme Court on Monday agreed to examine a plea seeking early hearing on the Bhoishala temple-Kamal Maula mosque complex controversy. The matter is pending in the apex court which had on April 1 allowed Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) to carry on a survey of the complex in Bhoj district of Madhya Pradesh but directed that no action would be taken on the basis of the survey report without its permission. The court had also directed ASI not to carry out any excavation on the premises which could alter the character of the structure.

to be endorsed by the apex court. "We know that any decision in this case will be taken only by the Supreme Court. I appeal to both sides to refrain from considering the findings of the report as the final truth in the interest of peace and harmony of Dhar town," Sadig said.

Representatives from both sides were allowed by the HC to accompany the ASI team during the survey every day. On March 11, while hearing a petition filed by HFJ, the Madhya Pradesh HC ordered a "multi-disciplinary scientific survey of the Bhoishala temple-cum-Kamal Maula Mosque to 'ascertain the true character, nature and form of the disputed site'."

While Hindus consider Bhoishala as a temple to Vagdevi (Goddess Saraswati), Muslims say it is the Kamal Maula mosque. The HFJ petition says the "Vagdevi temple" in Bhoishala predates the Kamal Maula mosque and demands that the old monument be restored. It has also challenged an ASI order of 2003 that allows both sides to pray at the disputed site. Hindus on Tuesdays and Muslims on Fridays.

The Maulana Kamaluddin Welfare Society challenged the March 11 HC order in the Supreme Court, which refused to stay the survey but said ASI sought time to compile data from the ground-penetrating radar and GPS. The court allowed it, which ended July 14, a Sunday. So the report was presented on Monday.

The panel is looking into allegations of her UPSC candidature and eligibility. "All these communications are official. I am not allowed to say anything," said Khedkar, who will spend this week in Washim district as part of her training.

She is expected in Akola next week to train with the tribal department.

REIGN IN SPAIN!

Rajeev Kumar back as Bengal DGP
Bengal govt brought back Rajeev Kumar as director-general of police (DGP) on Monday and sent incumbent Sanjoy Mukherjee, an Election Commission of India choice, back to his former post of director general (fire services).

Khedkar wrote different names in IAS documents

The district civil hospital at Aundh had rejected Puja Khedkar's application for a disability certificate because of "double submission", while Yashwantrao Chavan Memorial Hospital (YCMH), Pimpri, granted a 7% locomotor disability certificate citing an old ACL test report. Khedkar obtained a 7% disability certificate for locomotor disability on Oct 24, 2022, from YCMH. On Oct 11, 2022, she rejected her application dated Aug 23, 2022, on the grounds of the Unique Disability ID (UID) website showing presence of two concurrent applications. She had applied for the certificate twice. We consequently rejected her application."

However, when Khedkar wrote the UPSC code again that year, she was selected for IAS under OBC (other backward classes) and PwBD (MD), meaning multiple disabilities/categories. It appears that the three different disability certificates helped her get the IAS selection under MD quota, besides the OBC quota and non-creamy layer certificate.

Dr Nagath Yemalle, civil surgeon at District Civil Hospital, Aundh, on Monday told TOI, "Khedkar obtained a 7% disability certificate for locomotor disability on Oct 24, 2022, from YCMH. On Oct 11, 2022, she rejected her application dated Aug 23, 2022, on the grounds of the Unique Disability ID (UID) website showing presence of two concurrent applications. Deserve to be treated as innocent till proven guilty, says Khedkar

Times News Network

Washim: Probationary IAS officer Puja Khedkar, who is under investigation for allegedly misusing OBC quota and disability provisions to get into the civil services, broke her silence Monday on the controversies dogging her and demanded that she be considered "innocent till proven guilty."

"A media trial is wrong. Every citizen enjoys rights under the Constitution. You can keep saying 'alleged', but proving me guilty like this is wrong," Khedkar told reporters in Maharashtra's Washim. While Khedkar told to trouble after allegedly demanding govt facilities out of turn while being posted in the Pune district collector's office, her family has also been emwas being targeted because of her, Khedkar said, "I think everybody can see what's happening. I don't want to comment on it as the media and public are intelligent. But, I can't comment either positively or negatively. Whatever is to be said, I will speak before the probe committee."

Khedkar wouldn't confirm if she had been summoned by the committee yet. The panel is looking into allegations of her UPSC candidature and eligibility. "All these communications are official. Plea says Jan 3 verdict did not take into account Sebi's 'lapses'

The petition said the verdict did not take into account "lapses" on Sebi's part to investigate Adani group, and disregarding Directorate of Revenue Intelligence (DRI) inputs on alleged wrongdoings by the group.

During the review, the bench held that its decision had had significantly dealt with these two allegations and rejected the review petition. The order passed on May 8 but uploaded recently on the SC website, said, "Having perused the review petition, there is no error apparent on the face of the record. No case for review under the Supreme Court Rules 2013 (is made out). The review petition is, therefore, dismissed."

By inferences drawn from the report by OOCR to a third-party organisation involved in investigative reporting. "The facts of this case do not warrant a transfer of investigation from Sebi. In an appropriate case, this court does have the power to transfer an investigation being carried out by the authorised agency to a specialised investigation Team (SIT) or Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI). Such power is exercised in extraordinary circumstances when the competent authority portrays a glaring, wilful and deliberate inaction in carrying out the investigation. The threshold for the transfer of investigation has not been demonstrated to exist (in this case)," the bench had said.

3 students held for looting milk van in Jodhpur

Jodhpur: Rajasthan police arrested three medical students for looting a milk van near MDM Hospital in Jodhpur. Two more students involved in the crime are absconding. Of the five, four are students of SN Medical College and one is from AIMS, polkara. SHO Devendra Singh said prima facie it seems the students attempted the crime as an adventure. They came to the hospital gate with a plan to intercept some vehicles. The milk van fell victim to their misadventure. The students intercepted the van and asked the driver to come out. "When he did, they began misbehaving and manhandling him. Three of them pushed him at the back of the van while two others entered the cabin and drove away" the van driver's complaint reads. They also snatched Rs 4,600 from him. Police found the abandoned van some kms from the spot with two crates of milk missing.
