Personal Care (1/5): Personal Wash impacted by higher input costs

- Personal Wash delivers flattish volume growth; continue to gain market share
- Category has been witness to higher-than-anticipated inflation in palm; leading to margin erosion which is likely to continue for the remainder of the year. However, historic trends suggest it will normalise in a few quarters.
- Magic Handwash continues to deliver strong double-digit volume growth and gain market share

Personal Care (2/5): Significant increase in palm oil prices is leading to re-balancing of growth and margin

- Palm Oil and its derivatives' prices have been on a rising trend and have increased in high double-digits since the start of the year
- Management has decided not to pass on the entire cost increase to consumers and hence pricing growth will lag increase in input prices
- This will result in reduced UVG* and increased UPG* for the remainder of the year
- Margin pressure is likely to remain for the next few quarters before it normalises

* UVG: Underlying Volume Growth, UPG: Underlying Pricing Growth

Personal Care (3/5): GCPL, a firm believer in providing high quality soaps

- GCPL is a firm believer in providing high-quality soaps. This strategy has resulted in almost doubling its soaps market share over the past decade while significantly increasing its Relative Price Index.
- 'Structuring' is an existing technology, where good cleaning agents are replaced with fillers in the hope that consumers don't notice.
- GCPL has significant know-how and access to this technology, but has decided not to adopt it in the past, as it firmly believes in the quality of its product.
- Furthermore, there is no material impact on GCPL with the change in soap formulations in the market.

Personal Care (4/5): Hair Colour delivers strong performance

- Hair Colours volume grew in double-digits
- Godrej Expert Rich Crème access packs continue to outperform
- Shampoo Hair Colour continues to grow in strong double-digit in volume terms

- Sexual Wellness continues its healthy performance and continues to gain market share
