Article 370 won't be restored even if Indira Gandhi returns from heaven: Amit Shah

Udday Singh in fo@impressive times.com

NEW DELHI: Days after the Congress-National Conference government in Jammu and Kashmir introduced a resolution in the Assembly to restore Article 370, which had granted special status to the erstwhile state, Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Wednesday asserted that the provision would not be restored even if Indira Gandhi were to return from heaven. Speaking at an election rally in Maharashtra, Shah said, "Even if Indira Gandhi were to return from heaven, Article 370 won't be restored." Responding to Congress leader and former Union Minister Sushilkumar

Dr. Jitendra Singh also shed light on the recently launched National

Quantum Mission (NQM), which tious provision has been buried deep in the ground. "Because of your wishes and blessings, your sevak Modi buried Article 370 deep in the ground. Article 370 worked to divide the nation; it gave room to the separatist movement in the Kashmir Valley," PM Modi emphasised. Article 370 of the Indian Constitution, which allowed limited autonomy and a state constitution, among other provisions, was abrogated on August 5, 2019. The state was reorganised into union territories. The Omar Abdullah-led government, which came to power after the recent election--the first since the abrogation--has vowed to restore full statehood and reinstate Article 370.
