Management's Responsibilities for the Consolidated Financial Results

The Statement has been prepared on the basis of the consolidated annual financial statements. The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Statement that give a true and fair view of the net profit and other comprehensive loss and other financial information of the Group including its associate in accordance with the applicable accounting standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued thereunder and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associate are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of their respective companies and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the Statement by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the Statement, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associate are responsible for assessing the ability of their respective companies to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associate are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of their respective companies.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Results

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the Statement.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Statement, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.

S.R. BATLIBOI & ASSOCIATES LLP

Chartered Accountants

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associate and to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Statement or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associate to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Statement, including the disclosures, and whether the Statement represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial results of the entities within the Group and its associate of which we are the independent auditors and whose financial information we have audited, to express an opinion on the Statement.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the Statement of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

We also performed procedures in accordance with the Master Circular issued by the Securities Exchange Board of India under Regulation 33 (8) of the Listing Regulations, to the extent applicable.

To
The Board of Directors of Le Travenues Technology Limited

Report on the audit of the Standalone Financial ResultsOpinion

We have audited the accompanying statement of quarterly and year to date standalone financial results of Le Travenues Technology Limited (the "Company") for the quarter ended March 31, 2024 and for the year ended March 31, 2024 ("Statement"), attached herewith, being submitted by the Company pursuant to the requirement of Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (the "Listing Regulations").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Statement:

- i. is presented in accordance with the requirements of the Listing Regulations in this regard; and
- ii. gives a true and fair view in conformity with the applicable accounting standards and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the net profit/ and other comprehensive loss and other financial information of the Company for the quarter ended March 31, 2024, and for the year ended March 31, 2024.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended ("the Act"). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Results" section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Management's Responsibilities for the Standalone Financial Results

The Statement has been prepared on the basis of the standalone annual financial statements. The Board of Directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Statement that gives a true and fair view of the net profit and other comprehensive loss of the Company and other financial information in accordance with the applicable accounting standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued thereunder and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Statement, the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Results

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the Statement.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Statement, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial results or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Statement, including the disclosures, and whether the Statement represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Key Performance Highlights - Q4 FY24 & FY24

Gross Transaction Value (GTV) crossed ₹100,00 Mn in FY24, growing by 38% YoY for the full year and by 34.9% YoY for Q4 FY24. This was led by Flight GTV expansion of 75% for the full year and 63.6% for Q4 versus the same quarter in the previous year.

Revenue from Operations grew by 30.8% YoY in FY24 to ₹6,558.73 Mn from ₹5,012.50 Mn in FY23. For Q4 FY24, Revenue from Operations grew by 20.4% YoY to ₹1648.52 Mn.

Contribution Margin (CM) increased by 34.7% for the full year, reaching ₹2938.48 Mn for FY24, led by Bus Contribution Margin YoY increase of 40.9% and Train Contribution Margin YoY increase of 34.6%.

EBITDA increased by 23.2% for Q4 FY24 as compared to the same period in the previous year and by 17.8% for FY24, amounting to ₹530.61 Mn for FY24. Adjusted EBITDA (EBITDA plus ESOP Expenses less Other Income) increased by 0.7% for Q4 FY24 vs Q4 FY23 and by 24.7% for the full year, amounting to ₹553.12 Mn in FY24.

Profit After Tax grew by 212.3% YoY in FY24 and 55.2% YoY in Q4 FY24. FY24 PAT of ₹730.61 Mn includes ₹297.21 Mn of Exceptional Item Income due to accounting for loss of control of an Associate, and both FY23 and FY24 have certain deferred tax benefits.

Our Ancillary Value Added Services Attachment Rate, as a percentage of total bookings sold, increased from 28.9% to 31.3% for FY24.

In the letter below, we will address the key questions that we think investors might have.

Q1. You have grown well in FY24 at 30%+ YoY revenue growth. What is your growth outlook for the next couple of years?

Aloke: Thanks! We must remember the context behind this growth. Our growth strategy relies on some major factors.

1. Our ability to monetize our large user base incrementally every year through innovations in our ancillary/value-added services and better cross-selling and up-selling within our ecosystem. We have consistently been working on synergies within the ecosystem on the back of our two acquisitions and exploring ways to grow faster through shared learnings and the rollout of new products and best practices across the group. Our ancillary attach rate has also grown year on year for the past three years to reach 31%+ in FY24. While we believe we are now nearing a level where it becomes increasingly difficult to grow our ancillary attach rate further, all optimization from here will be AI-driven and the equilibrium on higher monetization may not necessarily be at a higher attach rate.
2. On the flights side, though the overall market is growing very slowly, in the last two-quarters of FY24 we have seen much faster growth than the market. Currently, the domestic flight market is capacity-constrained, operating at very high fare levels. The last couple of quarters have seen single-digit YoY growth in pax capacity as well as take rate compression to levels seen only pre-COVID. As our brand gains trust and distribution deals play out, we expect to continue growing faster than the overall market at the flight passenger segment level. However, we may have to spend a little on first-time booker discounts, performance and brand over time to fuel this further, leading to slower growth on the revenue and CM lines compared to the GTV line.
3. As for buses, the market is still under-penetrated and with less than 20% of tickets being booked online, there is scope to grow as fast as or even slightly faster than the overall market. However, we aren't seeing as much supply addition by traditional operators as the demand could absorb or we would like to see, but we welcome the entry of new age operators such as Freshbus, Flixbus and Nuego in this space. Given we are the 2nd largest player in this category, we must work on product improvements, along with brand and supply addition to gain market share and user trust. As for selling more buses and flights within our ecosystem, there is clearly further scope to do that over time, but this shall be a slow and gradual process of discovering better product marketing hooks and customer retargeting. Again there is a balance to be struck between living with a lower contribution margin and higher growth or vice versa.
4. For trains, we foresee being able to grow in the mid-teens in terms of volume every year given the organic acquisition of users as well as the new features and product pipeline we currently have. Capacity addition on trains has generally been in the low to mid-single digits in our country but may pick up more momentum in coming years once the freight corridors free up capacity and as Amrit Bharat, Vande Sleeper and Nammo Bharat trains get manufactured and added to the route network.

All in all, we foresee growing faster than the overall OTA market for the foreseeable future, though the overall market growth may slow down a bit this year for the reasons mentioned above.

Q2. Your Q4 2024 numbers suggest that you have grown more slowly (20.4% YoY for Q4) on revenue. Is that a cause of concern?

Saurabh: Well first of all, we were one of the faster-growing players in the OTA space that quarter so we don't see 20%+ growth as slower growth in the OTA space which is projected to grow at around 18% CAGR over the next 5 years. Having said that, we must remember that for flights the market grew at single digit % during this quarter and take rates contracted due to supply constraints and higher airfares, plus there was hardly any growth in the reserved train ticket market as well. Despite that, at ixigo we have continued to grow volumes in these two verticals much faster than the market and on buses too, we have grown largely in line with the market though we expanded the contribution margin dramatically there. There is a fine balance between making more margins and taking more market share in cyclical businesses like ours, and depending on seasonality and overall market growth potential at that time that call could be different. During that particular quarter on both flights and trains, we were chasing growth in priority over contribution margin expansion and managed to grow much faster than the market.

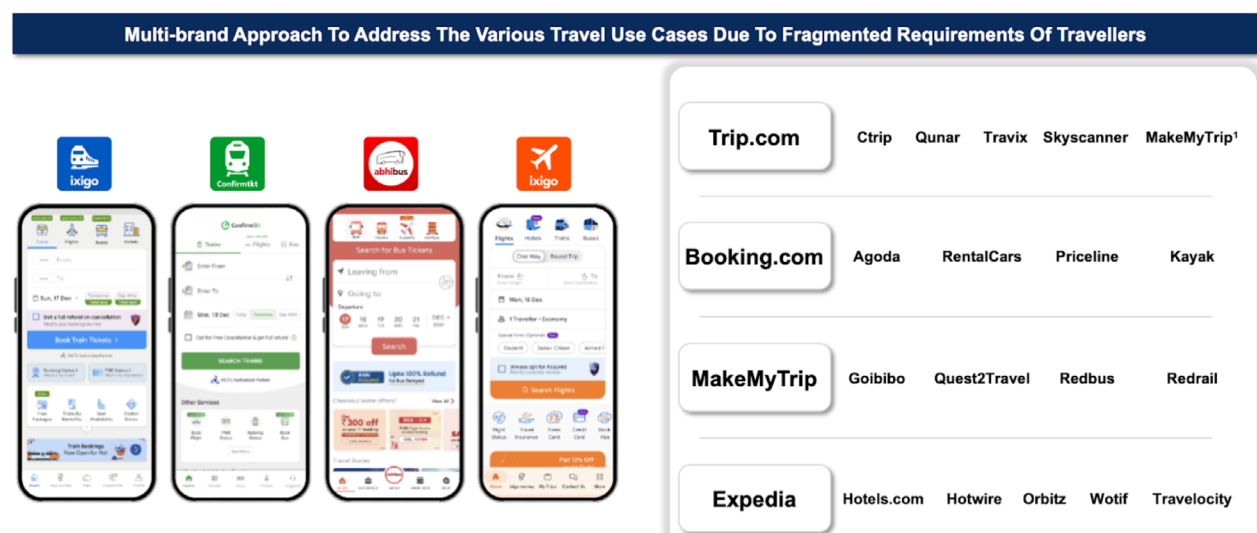

Q3. How does the company view the market potential of tourism in India, specifically spiritual tourism?

Aloke: It is an important growth area for us. According to the World Travel and Tourism Council, the overall travel and tourism sector will grow its contribution to the GDP to INR 36.8 trillion by 2033, approximately 7% of the Indian economy and will employ over 58.2 million people across the country with one in 10 working in this sector. Given the government's focus on tourism and transportation infrastructure and capacity creation, we expect our NBU segment to benefit the most in terms of growth since multiple government initiatives will address the domestic and international travel needs of the aspiring middle-class travelers in our country, be it through improved domestic tourism infrastructure and visa-free regimes being offered by various countries to tap into the demand from India.

Rajnish: We have seen spiritual tourism pick up in our own searches for FY24 with the rise in footfall to Varanasi during the year, and then with the Ram Temple inauguration and the Ayodhya airport launch, we have seen that on flight sectors connecting Ayodhya from major cities, we have been able to tap into a higher market share than our national average and continue to see the same pattern on airports such as Darbhanga, Jharsuguda, Patna, Kanpur, Lucknow, etc.

Q4. What strategic reasons do you have for keeping multiple apps instead of merging them into one comprehensive app?

Rajnish: We follow what is called the Multi-Brand or the House of Brands Approach. A multi-app multi-brand approach is emerging as a dominant way to win in travel given the fragmentation of dominant needs that a traveler may have for various travel use cases for different demographics. Multiple apps allow a more focused and customized experience to be delivered around every user's dominant use case. For example, a frequent bus Booker would build loyalty over time to a bus-focused app which would solve their needs better and with more attention to detail for all the utilitarian and transactional use cases for bus travel. Similarly, a train-focused app will naturally attract travellers looking for train-related information and an avid train traveler may find it more useful to keep such an app on their phone than a generic travel app. However, inside each of our apps, we have integrated and are selling all the services we operate so that the user may not necessarily require another app for their secondary use case. For example, a customer can book a flight on the ixigo train app or Confirmkt app and a bus on the ixigo flight app, and a train on the Abhibus app etc. Globally, the multi-app, multi-brand approach of building online travel businesses has been applied successfully by several incumbents, where some of the apps or brands they own may have been built organically while others would have been built through acquisitions or strategic investments. In fact, most successful brands globally have deployed the House of Brands approach dismissing the concept of a super app. For example, most incumbent OTAs globally and in India have multiple brands and apps for specific use cases and have built large successful businesses around them.

Q5. You have made two acquisitions in the past, how do you measure their success? Can you elaborate on your approach to identifying, evaluating, and integrating potential acquisitions? Are there any immediate targets?

Aloke: Indeed! In addition to the organic growth of our OTA platforms, we have a track record of inorganic growth through strategic acquisitions that supplement our business verticals and strengthen our leadership in the 'next billion users' market segment. In FY21, we acquired ConfirmTkt, a train-utility and ticketing-focused company, which has enabled us to further strengthen our leadership position in the train ticketing OTA market. We have been the fastest-growing OTA in India in the last few years and the second-largest OTA in India in terms of consolidated revenue from operations in the last two years as well. In addition, with our acquisition of the business of AbhiBus, we have become the second largest player in the online bus ticketing segment with approximately 11.5% market share in FY23. Our bus-focused app, AbhiBus, was the second largest bus-ticketing OTA in India, with an 11.5% market share in online bus ticket bookings in FY23 which increased further to 12.5% in the first half of FY24.

We intend to focus on identifying founders and teams who are keen on customer satisfaction, have crossed the product-market fit stage, demonstrated sustained growth and resilience, have built companies with technology intensity and capital efficiency, and where their offering either strengthens one of our existing verticals or adds a complementary vertical for our future objectives. We prioritize growth opportunities involving companies that demonstrate either unique technology or differentiated demand or supply, with sustained positive unit economics and either a near-term path to profitability or already profitable. We realize revenue synergies through increased cross-sell and up-sell across our platforms and brands, as well as learnings from user experience design, growth marketing and customer experience delivery that can be applied across the group. We also propose to realize synergies through unit cost reduction in technology, payments and economies of scale.

Through our acquisition of ConfirmTkt, we have aimed to simplify the lives of train travellers, and through the acquisition of bus-focused app, AbhiBus we aim to enhance user experience in online bus ticketing. The successful and timely integration of such acquisitions will enable us to capture relevant synergies from a team, technology and profitability perspective. We will seek to integrate such acquired businesses into our current operations in a manner that maximizes such synergies.

Saurabh: We keep evaluating companies that satisfy our criteria from time to time and will make announcements as and when we enter binding commitments with any future targets.

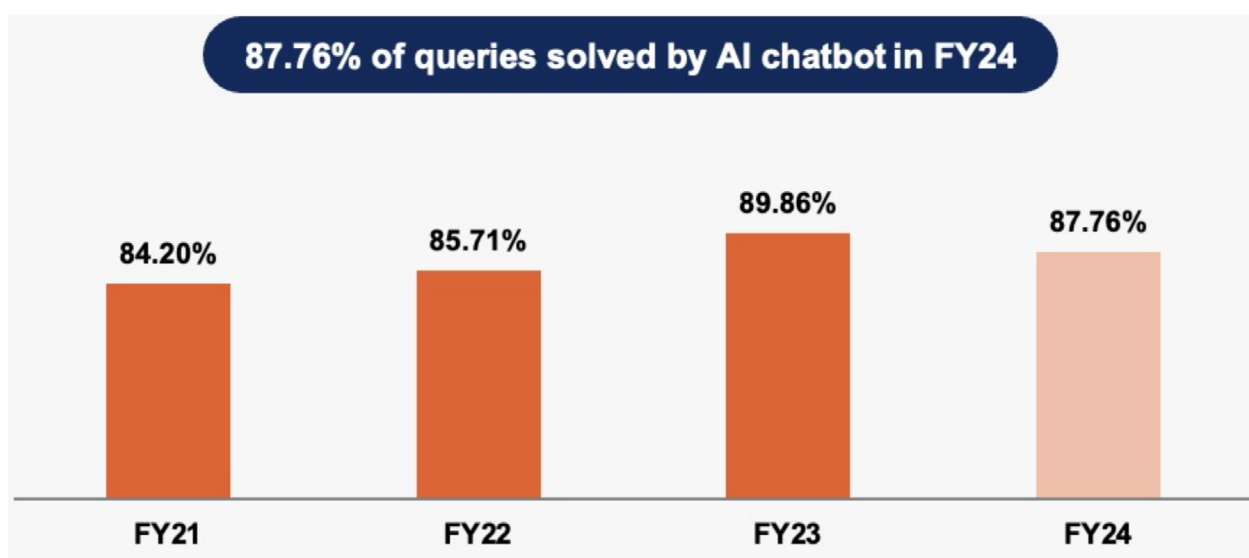

Q6. What is your strategy for hotels? How fast is it growing? Will it lead to any burn in the future?

Rajnish: It's frankly too early to comment on hotels given it's been barely 6 months from launch. Having said that, we are extremely satisfied with the growth we are seeing as we are growing in double-digit per cent month on month albeit from a low base. This is without relying on any external marketing channel or distribution and solely within our own captive user base, which for the short to medium term will remain our dominant channel for booking growth and therefore will not lead to substantial burn. We still need to get to a stronger product market fit and build out a deeper supply before we discuss more on hotels.

Saurabh: Since the core of the hotels team was built out by the end of FY24, in the short to medium term the fixed costs of this business are already being absorbed by us. The product build and launch took place when we had shown operating leverage across our employee and tech costs. In the hotels line of business, we do not intend to be everything for everyone. We remain focussed on solving niche problems for our core user base, being patient and leveraging our tech and AI prowess to build meaningful customer experiences.

Aloke: When we entered the hotels category we thought (just like when we entered flights) that this is a "done" category and therefore there would be little to solve for. But to our surprise, there is still a lot that is broken in this space. We are applying first principle thinking to find solutions that solve India-specific problems when it comes to accommodation, and we know we have a multi-year journey ahead.

Q7. Tara, your AI Chatbot seems to have maxed out on % of chats handled by AI ? Why is that ?

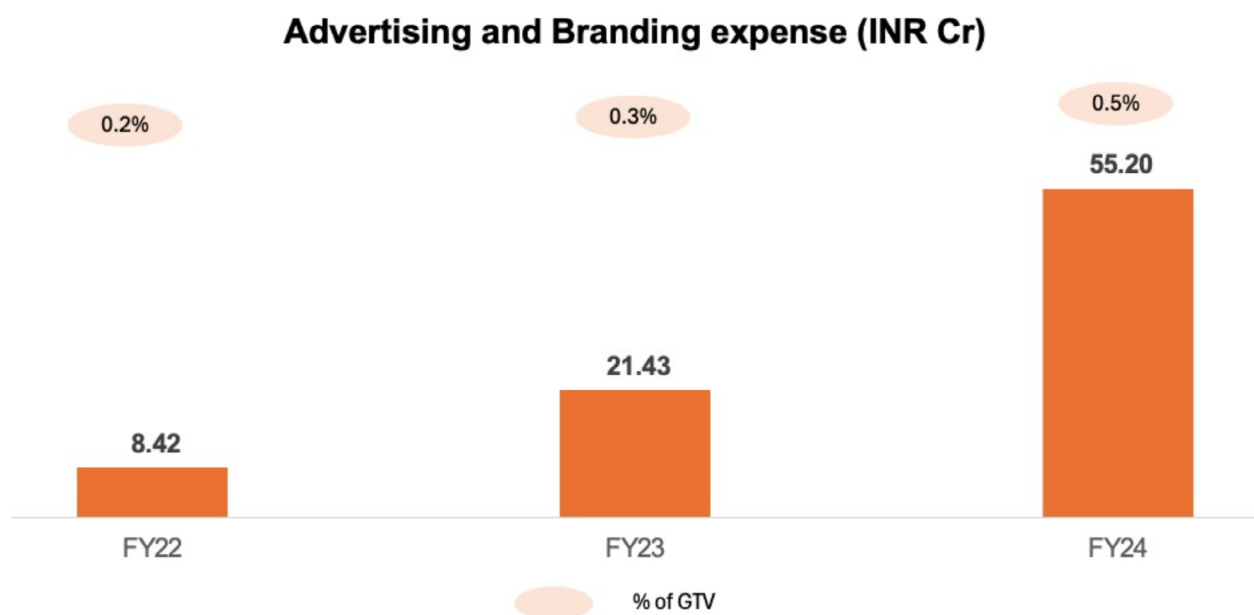

Rajnish: Well, isn't that a fabulous handling rate already? Remember that a fine balance needs to be achieved here to make sure the customer's problem is resolved quickly and to their satisfaction irrespective of whether it is a human or

AI bot solving it. Since certain use cases require prompt human attention where you really need to talk to a human for the sake of true empathy and last-minute out-of-the-box solutions, we don't want to force people down the AI chatbot route beyond a point where NPS could start to deteriorate unless we actually build more human-like empathy and creativity in it.

Aloke: Remember that Rajnish and the team are already testing TARA voice which is starting from near zero handling rate and will climb quite fast here!

Saurabh: Actually, if I see the data it is closer to 1000 voice conversations amounting to 100 hours per day handled by AI already.

Q8. Can you talk about the Brand Advertising expense increase over the last few years? How do you see customer inducement cost (Brand Marketing + Performance Marketing + Discounts) over the long run as a percentage of Gross Transaction Value?

Aloke: This is intentional and is in line with our plans to grow our unaided brand recall and build more trust with the next billion users for all of our core categories. Remember, that in the first 10 years of our existence, we spent very little on brand marketing. We recognize that in the consumer e-commerce space, brand spends should be seen as an investment for the longer-term salience of the brand, and hence we have done 3 major activities in FY24. We completed a campaign at Asia Cup for the ixigo brand, we signed Rana Dagubatti as the brand ambassador for ConfirmTkt and we renewed our partnership with Mahesh Babu as the brand ambassador for our Abhibus brand. These two superstars have immense trust and brand recall in the core markets for these apps and we have seen a decent response to our recent regional campaigns with these celebrities.

Saurabh: Over the next few years, we see customer inducement cost (Brand Marketing + Performance Marketing + Discounts) remaining between 3 - 3.5% of GTV which would make us look like a conservative player in this space.

Q9. Your Net Income has increased by 212.3% to Rs. 73.1 Crore in FY 24 while Adjusted EBITDA has increased by only 24.7% to Rs. 55.3 Crore. How do you explain that?

Saurabh: There are several aspects to this question. First, the Net Income figure for FY24 includes exceptional gain, amounting to Rs. 29.7 crores, related to the accounting for loss of control in an associate business wherein we transitioned to a minority position. In contrast, FY23 saw an extraordinary expense, amounting to Rs. 12.58 Crore (Rs. 5.5 Crore for Go Air recoverable & Rs. 7.1 Crore for previous IPO-related expenses).

As for Adjusted EBITDA, as Alope alluded to in the previous question, we increased our investment in Brand Marketing, amounting to Rs. 55.2 crores in FY24, as compared to Rs. 21.4 crores in FY23. Also, the EBITDA for FY23 included one-off employee-related bonus reversals, amounting to Rs. 4.4 Crore.

These factors collectively account for the difference in growth between these two metrics.

Q10. What keeps you up at night?

Alope: We are sitting on a massive opportunity when it comes to serving the Next Billion users and creating a business that becomes a force for good. With us going public now, we have added responsibility towards our stakeholders - customers, employees, investors and suppliers. To be honest, I am quite bad at falling asleep.

Saurabh: My worsening sleep apnea, and (of course) Alope asking me questions at 2 AM, in the night.

Rajnish: Nothing, I prefer to have 7 hours of uninterrupted sleep every night. I know one day AI will disrupt most things, but hopefully, we are well prepared.
