Renovation work of Gadkari Rangayatan should be completed in time

Municipal Commissioner Saurabh Rao gave instructions Commissioner inspected the renovation work

The renovation work of Ram Ganesh Gadkari Rangayatan theater of Thane Municipal Corporation has been started on a large scale. Municipal Commissioner Saurabh Rao has directed that the contractor should complete this work within the prescribed time. Commissioner Rao also expressed hope that this building should be opened for enthusiasts and theater workers as soon as possible. Built in 1978, Rangayatan was first extensively renovated in 1998. After that it is being renewed now after 26 years. The renovation work has started in the month of October and it is expected to be completed within 90 days. Commissioner Rao inspected the current status of this work on Wednesday evening. At that time, Additional Commissioner Sandeep Manki, Municipal Engineer Prashant Sonagra, Deputy Commissioner Umesh Bhirari, Suburban Engineers Vikas Dhole and Shubhang Keswani, Executive Engineer Bhagwan Shinde etc. were present. While reforming Gadkari Rangayatan, the traditionality of Rangayatan will be preserved. Also, state-of-the-art facilities will be made available as per time. Rangayatan is being renovated keeping in mind that it will be a pleasant experience for both the artists and the fans. The renovation mainly includes strengthening of the main structure, renovation of the rehearsal hall, replacement of the entire seating arrangement in the main auditorium, necessary improvements in the green room for the color crew, updating of the stage-flooring, improvement of the air conditioning system, complete renovation of the toilets etc. The outline of these works has been decided after discussing with the theater workers. Commissioner Rao inspected the work of main stage, auditorium, entrance. Rao suggested that the entrance of Rangayatan should be designed in a modern way. Also, while arranging the seats, the selection should be made keeping in mind the convenience of the audience, he also explained. He also said that the sound system, air conditioning system should be checked properly. Along with the beautification of the main structure, the area outside the structure should also be beautified. Commissioner Rao also said that proper electrical lighting should be done on it.
