Israeli forces storm Gaza hosp as strikes kill 72 across enclave

Cairo/Gaza: Israeli military strikes across the Gaza Strip have killed at least 72 people since Thursday night and Israeli forces launched a night-time raid on a hospital in the north of the enclave, Palestinian officials said.

The Gaza health ministry said a strike on houses in the southern city of Khan Younis killed at least 38, many of them women and children.

The Israeli military said that its forces had killed a number of Palestinian gunmen in air and ground strikes in the southern Gaza Strip and had dismantled military infrastructure.

Some residents of Khan Younis sifted through the rubble on Friday in an attempt to retrieve clothes and documents, while children looked for their toys. Ahmed Sobh recounted how his cousin had screamed, "Help me, help me".

"We ran and found her children, a boy and a girl, martyred. Her son was lying under the concrete column, it took us 1.5 hours to get him out," he told Reuters.

Ahmed al-Farra described digging relatives including his mother from the rubble, adding he had lost 15 members of his extended family during the air strikes. "As I was trying to dig (my mother) out I looked at this wall and saw a tank aiming at me. I was thinking 'shall I dig or shall I watch the tank,' what shall I do? I dug her out full of fear. Everyone was doing the same, digging in fear," he said.

At the nearby Nasser Hospital, medics prepared the dead, among them three children wrapped in the same white shroud. REUTERS

Zelensky says N Korean troops poised to join war

First Deployment In Combat Zones Between Sunday & Monday: Prez

Kyiv: North Korean troops are poised to be deployed by Russia on the battlefield in Ukraine as early as this weekend, Ukrainian Prez Volodymyr Zelensky claimed on Friday.

Western officials have warned that North Korean units joining the fight would stoke the almost three-year war and bring geopolitical consequences as far away as the Indo-Pacific region. The possibility has alarmed leaders and deepened diplomatic tensions around the war.

Russia has been conducting a ferocious summer campaign along the eastern front in Ukraine, gradually compelling Kyiv to surrender ground. But Russia has

Zelensky rejects UN chief's plan to visit Kyiv over Russia trip: Ukrainian official Ukrainian Prez Zelensky has rejected a plan for the UN secretary general to visit Kyiv due to Antonio Guterres's attendance at this week's BRICS summit in Russia, a Ukrainian official said on Friday.

Guterres - who called for a "just peace" in Ukraine at the BRICS event and has repeatedly condemned the invasion - discussed a visit to Ukraine with Zelensky when they met in New York in Sept, deputy UN spokesperson Farhan Haq said. Haq said that since then the UN and Ukraine have been trying to work out a "mutually convenient time" for a visit, but that nothing had been decided.

North Korean units were detected on Wednesday in Kursk, according to Ukraine's Main Intelligence Directorate, which is known by its acronym GUR.

The soldiers had undergone several weeks of training at bases in eastern Russia and had been equipped with clothes for the upcoming winter.

GUR said in a statement late Thursday. It estimated the number of North Korean soldiers sent by Pyongyang to Russia at around 12,000, including some 500 officers and three generals. GUR provided no evidence for its claims. Dutch defence minister Ruben Brekelmans said on Friday on X that intelligence reports indicated that the North Korean soldiers "will probably first be deployed in Kursk". AP

Trump says America the Beautiful now a 'garbage can', blames illegal crossings

LINE OF NO CONTROL SANDEEP ADHWARYU

Washington: Next only to the America's national anthem Star Spangled Banner, the songs America the Beautiful and God Bless the USA, often played at Trump rallies, are widely regarded as the country's top patriotic national songs. But according to the MAGA supremo, America has now become "a garbage can for the world" because of illegal border crossings.

In campaign speeches on Thursday, the ex-prez took his dark dystopian view of what America has become and carried his screed against illegal immigrants to a new low, while blaming the Biden-Harris administration's border policies for turning the US into a "garbage can". "We're like a garbage can, you know, it's the first time I've ever said that. And every time I come up and talk about what they've done to our country, I get angry," Trump raged at a rally in Tempe, Arizona, a battleground state on the border with Texas, in a clear effort to whip up his supporters.

In other rallies through the day, Trump ramped up his tirade against illegal immigrants, who he has previously said are "poisoning the blood of our country", calling them animals, who needed to be evicted from the country quickly. He also used new epithets for his political rivals, calling Prez Biden a 'stupid fool' and saying former House speaker Nancy Pelosi is 'crazy as a bedbug', while continuing to disparage his opponent Kamala Harris. The MAGA supremo also ratcheted up his threats of retribution against journalists, whom he characterised as "the enemy of the people", with a caveat that "some reporters are good" and "we have to free them from the left".

Ohio, but has now picked up more authentic, established stories of murders and rapes by illegal immigrants, which are fewer than what happens in everyday America. Trump's dark vision of an America overrun by illegal immigrants, first expressed during his 2016 prez campaign when he spoke of Mexico sending rapists to the US, has now taken an ominous tone. His speeches are laced with graphic description of immigrant crimes, despite studies showing immigrants - legal or illegal - are more law-abiding than people born in the US. Crime, including homicides and assaults, is also falling nationwide, but the ex-prez cherry-picks data to argue that the US is going to the dogs, with violent illegal immigrant gangs overrunning American cities. He has dined down on the hoax about Haitian immigrants eating dogs and cats in Springfield,

Trump: Xi will bully Harris 'like a baby'

Donald Trump said Thursday that China's leader would handle vice-prez Kamala Harris "like a baby" if she's elected to the White House, as the former president and his top allies increasingly have moved to infantilise the Democratic nominee. "If somehow Kamala wins, she'd have to deal with Xi Jinping," conservative radio host Hugh Hewitt said of the Chinese prez. "He'd take all the candy away very quickly," Trump continued. "She wouldn't have any idea what happened. It would be like a grand chess master playing a beginner." AP uvving on the battlefield. "I think it would be a free-for-all... neighbour on neighbour, based on beliefs and skin colours and religion. And it would be horrific," he says.

So far, there have been no reported attacks on immigrants or neighbour-on-neighbour clashes due to political differences. If anything, battleground states have mixed political neighbourhoods with Trump and Harris supporters living side by side quite amicably. But there are growing apprehensions that passions could explode after Nov 5 when Trump is expected to claim victory regardless of whether he wins or loses. The MAGA supremo has said he will only accept a result that shows him as the winner and it would not have been an honest election if the result is adverse. US correspondent for TOI
