Q1FY25 Highlights

Commenting on the Results, Mr. Ravindra Kumar Toshniwal, Managing Director said

“During Q1FY25, barring the Fabric vertical which was an outlier, we witnessed a subdued growth across other divisions. The Fabric division experienced a 10% YoY increase in revenue on the back of green shoots in export business. Our B2C brand, Simone Fredrico & Figli, is gaining good traction, and our endeavor is to make it a global brand.

The Yarn division saw a 25% decline in sales on a YoY basis mainly due to labour shortage coupled with the softer demand for synthetic yarns.

The topline for garment vertical dipped on a YoY basis which is attributed towards headwinds both in the domestic market and exports front. We envisage better demand especially in the export market in the second half of the fiscal.

We expect the overall demand to improve in the going forward in H2FY25, driven by the revival of global apparel demand during festive seasons worldwide”
