India-Mexico ties take centre stage at Great Lakes event

Chennai, Sep 7: Great Lakes Institute of Management, Chennai, launched its highly anticipated Global Business Dialogues series today, with an inaugural session featuring Mr. Federico Salas Lotfe, Ambassador of Mexico to India. The event, titled "Cementing India-Mexico Bilateral Relations: Journey towards Viksit Bharat 2047," marked a significant milestone in fostering deeper ties between India and Mexico, setting the stage for robust academic and diplomatic engagement.

The Global Business Dialogues, powered by the Centre for International Relations at Great Lakes, is designed to be a platform for thought leadership and dialogue, bringing together global leaders, diplomats, and industry experts to discuss pressing issues of international importance. Through this series, Great Lakes aims to bridge the gap between academia and global business, fostering a rich exchange of ideas and collaborations that align with India's vision for 2047.

In his keynote address, Federico Salas Lotfe emphasized the importance of looking beyond traditional international relations with the United States and Europe, urging India to expand its focus towards Latin America and Africa. He highlighted the role of the G20 in strengthening India-Mexico ties, particularly in the areas of political and trade relations. The Ambassador spoke of the collaborative efforts between ISRO and Agencia Espacial Mexicana (AEM), Mexico's space agency, which have resulted in innovative technologies to address natural disasters from space, and the continued partnership in advancing space technologies.

Chahat Mishra, Head of International Relations at Great Lakes, underscored the importance of integrating higher education, industry, and diplomacy in achieving India's vision for 2047.

The event, which took place at the Great Lakes campus, witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 400 students, faculty, and industry leaders.

LANXESS counters Mpx threat with Rely+On Virkon

Chennai, Sep 7: In view of the increasing Mpx infections in Central and East Africa, the World Health Organization (WHO) has declared an international health emergency.

The disinfectant Rely+On Virkon from specialty chemicals company LANXESS has been proven to be effective against the Mpx virus, formerly known as the "monkeypox virus". This is confirmed by independent tests that confirm the product's effectiveness against the virus.

"Especially in times of rising infection rates, the choice of an effective disinfectant that has been proven to kill the target pathogen is crucial," says Roy van Wel, Head of the market segment Hygiene and Care at LANXESS.

Rely+On Virkon is used for the disinfection of hard surfaces in hospitals, healthcare facilities, airports, public transportation terminals, clinics, shopping malls and many other public places.

Rely+On Virkon has proven to be effective against the pathogen and supports prevention in risk areas. It provides effective inactivation of the virus on hard surfaces, helping to contain the spread.
