Modi pitches for global framework for AI to enhance trust, transparency GAMECHANGER. All is writing the code for humanity, says PM, offering to host next Action Summit in India

Prime Minister Naren-dra Modi on Tuesday made a strong case for collective efforts to establish a global frame tablish a global framework for artificial intelligence (AI) based on open source which enhances trust, transparency and is free from biases.

Co-chairing the AI Action Summit along with French President Emmanuel Macron here, Modi said that AI is changing the polity, is changing the polity, economy, security and society, and is writing the code for humanity society, and is wramp, the code for humanity in this century.

Modi also offered to host the next AI Action Summit in India, supporting the decision taken at the first summit hosted by France to set up the 'AI Founda-tion' and the 'Council for Sustainable AI'. "There is a need for col-lective global efforts to establish governance and standards that up-hold our shared valuel, address risks and build and standards that uphold our shared values, address risks and build trust," Modi said, adding that governance

is not just about managing risks and rivalries but is also about promoting innovations and deploying then for global good.

"We must democratise technology and create people-centric applications. We must address concerns related to cyber security, disinformation and deep fakes," the Prime Minister said.
Stressing on the need to develop quality data sets free from biases, the Prime Minister said there is a need

President of France Emmanuel Macron at the Al Action Summit in Paris PTI to develop open-source AI ecosystems that en-hance trust and transparency. He said the technology should be rooted in the local ecosystem AI POTENTIAL Modi started his address with an observa-tion on the potential of Al by stating that Al can cut through jargon and summarise medical prescriptions in a language that can be understood easily. "If you upload your medical report to an Al app, to an experience of the property of the propert AI by stating that AI

it in India

tential of AI is absolutely amazing, there are many biases that we need to think carefully about," he said, Modipitched for inclusive development of AI especially for the Global South.

"We must think deeply and discuss openly about innovations and governance. Governance is also about ensuring access to all, especially in the global south. It is where the capabilities are more lacking, be it compute, power, talent, data or the financial resources," Modi said.

Despite rising premiums, millennials continue to drive demand for health cover

G Naga Sridhar

Despite a steep increase in premium for health in-surance policies in the last one year, there has not been any decline in renewals and the demand for new policies, say ex-perts.

perts.
According to industry estimates, health cover premiums increased by 10-15 per cent across various general and standalone health cover projections.

"Increase in health cover premiums are to be understood in the context of rising medical inflation in the country and we don't see any adverse im-pact on the renewal of cover on account of in-crease.

cover on account of in-crease.

"About 25 per cent of our premium comes from renewals," Priya Desh-mukh, Head - Health products, Operations and Services, ICICI Lombard, told husinssiline. Accord-ing to Narendra Bharind-wal, Vice-President, In-surrance Brokers

Brokers

wal, Vice-President, Insurance Brokers Association of India, the increase in retail health cover policies has been higher compared to that in the corporate group cover segment.

One of the reasons for frequent like in premium is the practice of bracketing of age groups in deciding the price of cover, he said, adding: "The younger the person, the cheaper the cover."

NEW POLICIES
Post-Covid 19, those who are in the age group of 35-45 have realised the im-45 have realised the importance of buying health cover and this is one of the drivers for demand for new policies as well as continuation of policies through renewals, according to Bharindwal. Except in the case of senior citizens above 60 years, there is no upper cap on the increase in years, there is no upper cap on the increase in health cover premium by the insurers as per the regulation of the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI). While expressing concern over a general increase of premium, the regulator last month directed insurers not to increase health insurance premiums beyond 10 per cent per annum for senior citizens.

PHENOMENAL HIKE
While accepting that there was a phenomenal hike in the premium in the case of some ailments like cancer, a CFO of a like cancer, a CEO of a private general insurance company said the hike will not actually affect a policyholder as medical inflation is higher.

"There is a need to bridle the private hospitals to control medical inflation which automatically brings down the cost."

flation which automatically brings down the cost of the cover. We have data to show that there has been a 20 per cent increase in the cost of corporate medical care providers," he said.
