AAP workers protest at Rajkot Municipal Corporation premises, Wednesday. Express

Rajkot Mayor uses official vehicle on Maha Kumbh trip, Cong hits out

Rajkot: Naynaben Pedhadiya, Mayor of Rajkot city, has sparked a controversy after photos of her journey to Prayagraj to attend the Maha Kumbh in her official vehicle went viral. The chairman of the standing committee of BIP-ruled Rajkot Municipal Corporation, however, defended her, saying she had taken necessary permissions for using the vehicle.

Pedhadiya visited the Maha Kumbh last week with her husband and a few BIP leaders and corporators. Photos and videos purportedly showing the Mayor's official vehicle being used to hang wet clothes were widely shared on social media. The opposition Congress targeted the ruling party over the issue. Pedhadiya claimed on Tuesday that she used the vehicle for the "holy purpose of pilgrimage", and not for fun. She had obtained due permissions, and will pay for the vehicle use at a rate of Rs 12 per kilometre though the prescribed rate is Rs 2 per kilometre, she added.

However, the Opposition party took potshots at her. "The mayor went on a pilgrimage to wash her sins using public money. May the Lord accept her prayers so that incidents like TRP Game Zone fire (in which 27 persons died) does not happen ever again in the city, and may her sins incurred due to this get washed off," Congress leader Vashram Sagathiya said in a video message. "A pilgrimage on public money does not succeed. The manner in which the government vehicle was used to dry wet clothes is reprehensible, it is not appropriate,' he said adding that it was not right for her to take others along in her official vehicle. "We demand that the old resolution of the RMC. which has made her trip possible at such a ridiculously low rate, be immediately revoked," he also said. PTI
