NO DEAL WITH MILITARY TO COME OUT OF JAIL: IMRAN

PTI LAHORE

Pakistan's jailed former Prime Minister Imran Khan has said he is not Nawaz Sharif that he would strike a deal with the military establishment to come out of prison.

He speculated that he may come out of jail in the wake of the success of the talks. Shehbaz Sharif is the younger brother of Nawaz Sharif.

"I want to make it clear that no matter what tactics are used, I will not make any deal. I am not Nawaz Sharif who seeks to get his billions made through corruption forgiven. I have lived in and will die in Pakistan... I am still stand for my nation," Khan said in a post on X on Wednesday.

Lambasting the military establishment and the government for the "inhuman" treatment of his incarcerated party workers, Khan said he would take the matter to international fora. "Political prisoners in Pakistan are being treated inhumanely. Our workers in military custody have been subjected to severe mental and physical torture. I, too, have been subjected to extremely poor treatment. Several workers, including Sami Wazir, have faced brutal torture.

"We demand that human rights organisations take action against these violations of law and human rights. We have filed petitions in the Supreme Court, Lahore High Court, and Islamabad High Court, but have not been granted a hearing," Khan said. Talking on Pakistan's economic woes, Khan said, "The country's economy is at its worst. Foreign investment is at a historic low. The SIFC and Uraan programmes have failed miserably. Unemployment is rising due to stagnant growth rates."

Khan added that brilliant minds and investments are rapidly leaving the country because no one trusts the nation's stability anymore. Pakistani companies are moving their businesses to Dubai. The PTI chief also said that no economic stability can ever be achieved in a country where rule of law does not exist. "Pakistan is buried under an economic crisis. There is no solution to this problem except for a government that enjoys public confidence," he said. Khan has been in jail since August 2023 in multiple cases.

2 PTI leaders meet Pak Army chief

PTI ISLAMABAD

In a major political thaw in Pakistan, two senior leaders of jailed former Prime Minister Imran Khan's party met army chief General Asim Munir, while separately the party negotiators formally presented their demands to the government to tackle the prevailing political tensions.

that Gohar Khan said that he and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Chief Minister Ali Amin Gandapur separately met General Munir in Peshawar during this week.

Explaining what had transpired during their rare talks with the COAS, the PTI chairman said the demands of the party were presented directly to General Munir. He termed direct negotiations with the establishment as a positive step towards resolving the ongoing issues.

Barrister Gohar added, "I and Ali Amin Gandapur held a meeting with COAS Munir, during which we outlined all of PTI's concerns and priorities." The PTI formally presented its charter of demands in a three-page document signed by the six opposition members.
