Subject: Response to Clarification Sought from Stock Exchanges

This is with reference to your email/letter dated January 6, 2025, seeking clarification on the news article published in The Economic Times on January 6, 2025, titled "Easy Trip Planners shares zoom 15% after Nishant Pitti confirms 'no promoter selling'."

We wish to clarify that the Company has not issued any announcement, statement, or communication to the media or any other platform regarding the matter referred to in the article or any other matter that could influence the trading in the Company's securities.

The statements attributed to Mr. Nishant Pitti, one of our promoters, were made in his personal capacity and not as an official communication from Easy Trip Planners Limited. We further confirm that no official communication, statement, or disclosure regarding promoter selling has been made by the Company through any channel.

Upon review, we note that the news article inaccurately attributes a 15% increase in the company's share price, whereas the actual movement, as observed in the market, was 14.948%. We categorically state that the aforementioned news article is factually incorrect in attributing any official stance to the company regarding promoter selling or related matters.

The movement in the share price of the company is not attributable to any announcement, action, or information disseminated by Easy Trip Planners Limited. The increase appears to have been influenced by market dynamics, which are independent of the company's actions or statements.

Easy Trip Planners Limited strictly adheres to the disclosure requirements under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and has disclosed all material information/events that could impact the operations or share price of the company in a timely and transparent manner.

We trust the above clarifies the matter. Should you require any further information or have additional queries, please feel free to contact us.

Thanking you

For Easy Trip Planners Limited
