NPF FELL SHORT OF ABSOLUTE MAJORITY

French left wants to rule, but centrists lay claim to a role

ESTELLE SHIRBON & TASSILO HUMMEL Paris, July 9

FRENCH POLITICAL LEADERS from the left-wing bloc that came first in Sunday's legislative election said they intended to govern according to their taxand-spend programme, but centrists demanded a role as the left lacks a majority.

The unexpected outcome of the snap election has plunged France into uncertainty just before the Paris Olympics, with no obvious path to a stable government capable of getting any legislation passed by a fragmented parliament.

The left-wing New Popular Front (NFP) won the most seats in the National Assembly but fell short of an absolute majoritybyabout 100 seats. President Emmanuel Macron's centrists came second and the far-right National Rally (RN) third.

"The path to government is very narrow, very fragile," said Fabien Roussel, leader of the Communist Party which is one of the smaller members of the NFP. "But we have to try. The president of the republic has to let us govern,"he said. NFP leaders have met behind closed doors several times since Sunday night, attempting to thrash out an agreement on which of them should be PM and how they should approach govern-

Macron, whose term ends in 2027, looks unlikely to be able to drive policy again, having been beaten by the far-right RN in last month's European election and by the left in the snap legislative election he called against the will of some of his own supporters including PM Gabriel Attal. -REUTERS

Fed may tweak rule that could save biggest US banks billions

PETE SCHROEDER Washington, July 9

THE US FEDERAL Reserve is considering a rule change that could save the country's eight largest banks combined billions of dollars in capital, in a potential long-sought win for the industry, according to four people with knowledge of the matter.

At issue is how the central bank calculates an extra layer of capital it imposes on US global systemically important banks (GSIBs), known as the "GSIB surcharge," which it introduced in 2015 to boost their safety and soundness.

The Fed is considering updating inputs it uses in the calculation, which it fixed in 2015, to adjust for economic growth and in turn more

HATHRAS CASE

SIT report puts blame on organisers, district admin; six officials suspended

The investigation committee has also found the event organiser and tehsil-level police and administration guilty

DHEERAJ MISHRA & BHUPENDRA PANDEY Noida/Lucknow, July 9

THE TWO-MEMBER Special Investigation Team (SIT) probing the Hathras stampede submitted its report to the Uttar Pradesh government on Tuesday, holding the organisers, the local police and the administration responsible for the accident that killed 121 people on July 2. Acting on it, the government within hours suspended six officials — Sikan-Rao sub-divisional magistrate, circle officer, tehsildar, station house officer, and two local police outpost incharge officers.

The 855-page SIT report did not mention the 'godman' Suraj Pal, also known as Bhole Baba or Narayan Sakaar Hari, among those responsible for the stampede. The victims of the stampede had come to attend a Satsang (religious gathering) held by Bhole Baba, the police constable turned religious preacher. The police had earlier said the victims, almost all of them women, fell on the uneven surface while trying to collect soil the preacher had walked on before he left the venue at the Sikandra Rao area of Hathras.

The suspended officials are SDM Ravindra Kumar, Circle Officer Anand Kumar, Station House Officer Ashish Kumar, Tehsildar Sushil Kumar, chowki incharge of Kachora Manveer Singh, and chowki incharge of Pora Brijesh Pandey.

Uttar Pradesh government officials stated that during the investigation, statements were collected from 125 individuals, including administrative and police officials, members of the public, and eyewitnesses. Moreover, the SIT reviewed copies of news articles, on-site videography, photographs, and video clips.

The SIT report did not rule out the possibility of a conspiracy, which Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath hinted at when recommending an in-depth investigation into the case.

"Based on the investigation and actions taken so far, the investigation committee has not ruled out the possibility of a major conspiracy behind the accident and has emphasised the need for a thorough investigation. The investigation committee has also found the

IIT-Jodhpur to offer BTech programme in Hindi too

DEEKSHATERI New Delhi, July 9

OVER THREE YEARS after the Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs) first cautioned against the Centre's decision to teach engineering in regional languages, IIT-Jodhpur on Tuesday became the first to embrace the idea. Its new batch of undergraduate students who start this month will be offered the option of being taught in either Hindi or English.

Speaking to The Indian Express, institute director Avinash Kumar Agarwal said the option will be available across all programmes. The admission process remains the same, but at the start of the academic year, the First-Year students will be asked for their preference to be taught in English or Hindi. The batch will then be divided into two sections, based on their preference for Hindi or English medium of instruction. The same professor will teach both sections "to maintain consistency and rigour in education," he said. However, students will also be given the choice of switching between sections.

"If in a Physics course, some students are comfortable with English, and others with Hindi, then we will divide the batch accordingly, but the same professor will teach both the mediums. The same professor means rigor will be the same. Also, here the technical terms will be in

Agarwal said. Additionally, the study material and assignments for First Year undergraduate students will be available in both languages, he said. The decision to teach in Hindi and English was taken by the institute one-and-a-half months ago and was approved by the institute's Senate at its 38th meeting held on June 26, and subsequently by the Board of Governors on June 28.

Students will also be provided remedial "English classes" to improve their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in the language.

Maharashtra Oppn stays away from all-party meeting on reservation issue

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 9

THE OPPOSITION MAHA Vikas Aghadi (MVA) stayed away from an all-party meeting on the reservation issue convened by the Maharashtra government on Tuesday amid the ongoing agitation by the Maratha community for quota under the OBC category. The meeting was called at a time when the state legislature is having its monsoon session in Mumbai and came ahead of the assembly polls which are due in October.

Leader of Opposition in the legislative assembly Vijay Wadettiwar of the Congress said the MVA will not attend the all-party meeting on the reservation issue as the government did not take the opposition into confidence over the matter. Wadettiwar said the people of the state need to know what discussions CM Eknath Shinde and Deputy CMs Ajit Pawar and Devendra Fadnavis have had so far on the quota issue. "What have they discussed and what have they promised (to agitators). They should explain in the assembly. There is a stand off between two communities (OBC and Marathas) and the government should give justice to both. We are not going to the meeting. The government must make its stand clear in the legislature," he said.

Mumbai hit-and-run accused Mihir Shah held after 2 days

SAGAR RAJPUT & VIJAY KUMAR YADAV Mumbai, July 9

MIHIR SHAH, THE main accused in the Mumbai BMW hit-and-run incident, in which a 45-year-old woman was killed in Worli, was arrested on Tuesday, two days after the accident. Mihir is the son of Rajesh Shah, a Shiv Sena leader and close aide of Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde.

According to sources, Mihir surrendered before the police on Tuesday, however, Worli police claimed that he was traced in Virar after they received information through human sources and technical analysis. "We have apprehended Mihir and the process of getting him to Mumbai is underway," a police officer

Meanwhile, the Mumbai Police's crime branch detained the mother and two elder sisters of Mihir for allegedly helping him escape after the accident. They were detained from a resort in Murbad and will be handed over to the Worli police probing the

Police sources said that one of the two sisters had picked up Mihir from his friend's place in Goregaon and dropped near Thane. After that Mihir, his two sisters and mother hid themselves in different hotels in Thane, near Nashik and in Murbad.

The family members were travelling in a hired car and police have detained its driver. Police have also detained two of his friends from Palghar for allegedly facilitating his

On Sunday, Mihir allegedly rammed the BMW car he was driving into a two-wheeler on which Pradip Nakhwa, 50, and his wife Kaveri Nakhwa, 45, were travelling in Worli.

Kaveri was allegedly dragged for nearly two km after she got stuck between the bumper and the tyre of the vehicle. She was later flung off, leading to her death.

According to police, Mihir switched seats with his driver Rajrishi Bidawat and contacted his father Rajesh, who asked him to flee and instructed the driver to take responsibility for the accident. Both Rajesh and Bidawat were arrested in the case. While Rajesh was released on bail on Monday, Bidawat was produced before a court Tuesday and sent to police custody till July 11.

Seeking Bidawat's maximum custody, police told the court, "Bidawat is actively involved in the crime and has been misleading us through the interrogation. We will soon get the main accused to Mumbai. We want to confront them and interrogate the two accused together."

Panel to suggest reopening of Puri temple's treasury chamber

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Bhubaneswar, July 9

THE HIGH-LEVEL committee, set up to supervise the making of an inventory of valuable items stored in 'Ratna Bhandar' of Puri Jagannath temple, has decided to recommend the Odisha government to reopen the inner chamber of the treasury on July 14, a panel member said on Tuesday.

The decision was taken during a meeting of committee members in Puri.

"We have unanimously decided that the committee would request the government to reopen the inner chamber of the 'Ratna Bhandar' on July 14," said Justice Biswanath Rath, who is the chairman of the panel.

The treasury was last opened 46 years ago in 1978.

The chief administrator of Shree Jagannath Temple Administration (SJTA), who is the member convenor of the panel, was asked to produce the duplicate key of the 'Ratna Bhandar' before the committee during this meeting, Rath said. "However, the SJTA administration could not produce the duplicate key as the temple authority was busy conducting Rath Yatra. The chief administrator is now asked to submit the key before the panel on July 14," Rath said.

It was also decided that the treasury would be opened by breaking the lock if the duplicate key would not function, he said.

A detailed discussion was held on several standard operating procedures (SOPs) needed for making an inventory of ornaments and repairing the 'Ratna Bhandar'.

"As per the rules, the minutes of the meeting will be sent to the temple managing committee, which will send it to the government for approval. After that, the 'Ratna Bhandar' can be opened," Rath said.

The reopening of the temple treasury was a major political issue in the state during the recently concluded elections.

The BJP had promised to reopen the 'Ratna Bhandar' for necessary repair work and make an inventory after it came to power in Odisha.

"A consensus was reached that the ornaments and other valuable items of Lord Jagannath will be shifted to a designated place on the temple premises during the repair work of the treasury," he said.

The committee chairman said that the making of the inventory of ornaments and jewellery items is a time-consuming process and the state government first needs to provide all logistic support.

HATHRAS CASE

SIT report puts blame on organisers, district admin; six officials suspended

The investigation committee has also found the event organiser and tehsil-level police and administration guilty

DHEERAJ MISHRA & BHUPENDRA PANDEY Noida/Lucknow, July 9

THE TWO-MEMBER Special Investigation Team (SIT) probing the Hathras stampede submitted its report to the Uttar Pradesh government on Tuesday, holding the organisers, the local police and the administration responsible for the accident that killed 121 people on July 2. Acting on it, the government within hours suspended six officials — Sikan-Rao sub-divisional magistrate, circle officer, tehsildar, station house officer, and two local police outpost incharge officers.

The 855-page SIT report did not mention the 'godman' Suraj Pal, also known as Bhole Baba or Narayan Sakaar Hari, among those responsible for the stampede. The victims of the stampede had come to attend a Satsang (religious gathering) held by Bhole Baba, the police constable turned religious preacher. The police had earlier said the victims, almost all of them women, fell on the uneven surface while trying to collect soil the preacher had walked on before he left the venue at the Sikandra Rao area of Hathras.

The suspended officials are SDM Ravindra Kumar, Circle Officer Anand Kumar, Station House Officer Ashish Kumar, Tehsildar Sushil Kumar, chowki incharge of Kachora Manveer Singh, and chowki incharge of Pora Brijesh Pandey.

Uttar Pradesh government officials stated that during the investigation, statements were collected from 125 individuals, including administrative and police officials, members of the public, and eyewitnesses. Moreover, the SIT reviewed copies of news articles, on-site videography, photographs, and video clips.

The SIT report did not rule out the possibility of a conspiracy, which Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath hinted at when recommending an in-depth investigation into the case.

THE SUPREME COURT on Tuesday said that a date of hearing has been accorded to a PIL seeking probe into the Hathras stampede that left 121 dead."I have ordered listing of the plea yesterday itself," CJI D Y Chandrachud said when PIL petitioner and advocate Vishal Tiwari mentioned his petition for urgent hearing. The PIL sought appointment of a five-member expert committee under the supervision of a retired apex court judge to probe the stampede. # IIT-Jodhpur to offer BTech programme in Hindi too

DEEKSHATERI New Delhi, July 9

OVER THREE YEARS after the Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs) first cautioned against the Centre's decision to teach engineering in regional languages, IIT-Jodhpur on Tuesday became the first to embrace the idea. Its new batch of undergraduate students who start this month will be offered the option of being taught in either Hindi or English.

Speaking to The Indian Express, institute director Avinash Kumar Agarwal said the option will be available across all programmes. The admission process remains the same, but at the start of the academic year, the First-Year students will be asked for their preference to be taught in English or Hindi. The batch will then be divided into two sections, based on their preference for Hindi or English medium of instruction. The same professor will teach both sections "to maintain consistency and rigour in education," he said. However, students will also be given the choice of switching between sections.

"If in a Physics course, some students are comfortable with English, and others with Hindi, then we will divide the batch accordingly, but the same professor will teach both the mediums. The same professor means rigor will be the same. Also, here the technical terms will be in English, but the explanation will be in sort of Hinglish (Hindi + English), and not in Sanskritlike Hindi. Our aim is to remove the problem in understanding," Agarwal said.

Additionally, the study material and assignments for First Year undergraduate students will be available in both languages, he said. The decision to teach in Hindi and English was taken by the institute one-and-a-half months ago and was approved by the institute's Senate at its 38th meeting held on June 26, and subsequently by the Board of Governors on June 28.

Students will also be provided remedial "English classes" to improve their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in the language.

Maharashtra Oppn stays away from all-party meeting on reservation issue

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 9

THE OPPOSITION MAHA Vikas Aghadi (MVA) stayed away from an all-party meeting on the reservation issue convened by the Maharashtra government on Tuesday amid the ongoing agitation by the Maratha community for quota under the OBC category. The meeting was called at a time when the state legislature is having its monsoon session in Mumbai and came ahead of the assembly polls which are due in October.

Leader of Opposition in the legislative assembly Vijay Wadettiwar of the Congress said the MVA will not attend the all-party meeting on the reservation issue as the government did not take the opposition into confidence over the matter. Wadettiwar said the people of the state need to know what discussions CM Eknath Shinde and Deputy CMs Ajit Pawar and Devendra Fadnavis have had so far on the quota issue. "What have they discussed and what have they promised (to agitators). They should explain in the assembly. There is a stand off between two communities (OBC and Marathas) and the government should give justice to both. We are not going to the meeting. The government must make its stand clear in the legislature," he said.

Mumbai hit-and-run accused Mihir Shah held after 2 days

SAGAR RAJPUT & VIJAY KUMAR YADAV Mumbai, July 9

MIHIR SHAH, THE main accused in the Mumbai BMW hit-and-run incident, in which a 45-year-old woman was killed in Worli, was arrested on Tuesday, two days after the accident. Mihir is the son of Rajesh Shah, a Shiv Sena leader and close aide of Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde.

According to sources, Mihir surrendered before the police on Tuesday, however, Worli police claimed that he was traced in Virar after they received information through human sources and technical analysis. "We have apprehended Mihir and

the process of getting him to Mumbai is underway," a police officer

Meanwhile, the Mumbai Police's crime branch detained the mother and two elder sisters of Mihir for allegedly helping him escape after the accident. They were detained from a resort in Murbad and will be handed over to the Worli police probing the

Police sources said that one of the two sisters had picked up Mihir from his friend's place in Goregaon and dropped near Thane. After that Mihir, his two sisters and mother hid themselves in different hotels in Thane, near Nashik and in Murbad.

The family members were travelling in a hired car and police have detained its driver. Police have also detained two of his friends from Palghar for allegedly facilitating his

On Sunday, Mihir allegedly rammed the BMW car he was driving into a two-wheeler on which Pradip Nakhwa, 50, and his wife Kaveri Nakhwa, 45, were travelling in Worli.

Kaveri was allegedly dragged for nearly two km after she got stuck between the bumper and the tyre of the vehicle. She was later flung off, leading to her death.

According to police, Mihir switched seats with his driver Rajrishi Bidawat and contacted his father Rajesh, who asked him to flee and instructed the driver to take responsibility for the accident. Both Rajesh and Bidawat were arrested in the case. While Rajesh was released on bail on Monday, Bidawat was produced before a court Tuesday and sent to police custody till July 11.

Seeking Bidawat's maximum custody, police told the court, "Bidawat is actively involved in the crime and has been misleading us through the interrogation. We will soon get the main accused to Mumbai. We want to confront them and interrogate the two accused together."

Panel to suggest reopening of Puri temple's treasury chamber

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Bhubaneswar, July 9

THE HIGH-LEVEL committee, set up to supervise the making of an inventory of valuable items stored in 'Ratna Bhandar' of Puri Jagannath temple, has decided to recommend the Odisha government to reopen the inner chamber of the treasury on July 14, a panel member said on Tuesday.

The decision was taken during a meeting of committee members in Puri.

"We have unanimously decided that the committee would request the government to reopen the inner chamber of the 'Ratna Bhandar' on July 14," said Justice Biswanath Rath, who is the chairman of the panel.

The treasury was last opened 46 years ago in 1978.

The chief administrator of Shree Jagannath Temple Administration (SJTA), who is the member convenor of the panel, was asked to produce the duplicate key of the 'Ratna Bhandar' before the committee during this meeting, Rath said. "However, the SJTA administration could not produce the duplicate key as the temple authority was busy conducting Rath Yatra. The chief administrator is now asked to submit the key before the panel on July 14," Rath said.

It was also decided that the treasury would be opened by breaking the lock if the duplicate key would not function, he said.

A detailed discussion was held on several standard operating procedures (SOPs) needed for making an inventory of ornaments and repairing the 'Ratna Bhandar'.

"As per the rules, the minutes of the meeting will be sent to the temple managing committee, which will send it to the government for approval. After that, the 'Ratna Bhandar' can be opened," Rath said.

The reopening of the temple treasury was a major political issue in the state during the recently concluded elections.

The BJP had promised to reopen the 'Ratna Bhandar' for necessary repair work and make an inventory after it came to power in Odisha.

"A consensus was reached that the ornaments and other valuable items of Lord Jagannath will be shifted to a designated place on the temple premises during the repair work of the treasury," he said.

The committee chairman said that the making of the inventory of ornaments and jewellery items is a time-consuming process and the state government first needs to provide all logistic support.

HATHRAS CASE

SIT report puts blame on organisers, district admin; six officials suspended

The investigation committee has also found the event organiser and tehsil-level police and administration guilty

DHEERAJ MISHRA & BHUPENDRA PANDEY Noida/Lucknow, July 9

THE TWO-MEMBER Special Investigation Team (SIT) probing the Hathras stampede submitted its report to the Uttar Pradesh government on Tuesday, holding the organisers, the local police and the administration responsible for the accident that killed 121 people on July 2. Acting on it, the government within hours suspended six officials — Sikan-Rao sub-divisional magistrate, circle officer, tehsildar, station house officer, and two local police outpost incharge officers.

The 855-page SIT report did not mention the 'godman' Suraj Pal, also known as Bhole Baba or Narayan Sakaar Hari, among those responsible for the stampede. The victims of the stampede had come to attend a Satsang (religious gathering) held by Bhole Baba, the police constable turned religious preacher. The police had earlier said the victims, almost all of them women, fell on the uneven surface while trying to collect soil the preacher had walked on before he left the venue at the Sikandra Rao area of Hathras.

The suspended officials are SDM Ravindra Kumar, Circle Officer Anand Kumar, Station House Officer Ashish Kumar, Tehsildar Sushil Kumar, chowki incharge of Kachora Manveer Singh, and chowki incharge of Pora Brijesh Pandey.

Uttar Pradesh government officials stated that during the investigation, statements were collected from 125 individuals, including administrative and police officials, members of the public, and eyewitnesses. Moreover, the SIT reviewed copies of news articles, on-site videography, photographs, and video clips.

The SIT report did not rule out the possibility of a conspiracy, which Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath hinted at when recommending an in-depth investigation into the case.

THE SUPREME COURT on Tuesday said that a date of hearing has been accorded to a PIL seeking probe into the Hathras stampede that left 121 dead."I have ordered listing of the plea yesterday itself," CJI D Y Chandrachud said when PIL petitioner and advocate Vishal Tiwari mentioned his petition for urgent hearing. The PIL sought appointment of a five-member expert committee under the supervision of a retired apex court judge to probe the stampede. # IIT-Jodhpur to offer BTech programme in Hindi too

DEEKSHATERI New Delhi, July 9

OVER THREE YEARS after the Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs) first cautioned against the Centre's decision to teach engineering in regional languages, IIT-Jodhpur on Tuesday became the first to embrace the idea. Its new batch of undergraduate students who start this month will be offered the option of being taught in either Hindi or English.

Speaking to The Indian Express, institute director Avinash Kumar Agarwal said the option will be available across all programmes. The admission process remains the same, but at the start of the academic year, the First-Year students will be asked for their preference to be taught in English or Hindi. The batch will then be divided into two sections, based on their preference for Hindi or English medium of instruction. The same professor will teach both sections "to maintain consistency and rigour in education," he said. However, students will also be given the choice of switching between sections.

"If in a Physics course, some students are comfortable with English, and others with Hindi, then we will divide the batch accordingly, but the same professor will teach both the mediums. The same professor means rigor will be the same. Also, here the technical terms will be in

Agarwal said. Additionally, the study material and assignments for First Year undergraduate students will be available in both languages, he said. The decision to teach in Hindi and English was taken by the institute one-and-a-half months ago and was approved by the institute's Senate at its 38th meeting held on June 26, and subsequently by the Board of Governors on June 28.

Students will also be provided remedial "English classes" to improve their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in the language.

Maharashtra Oppn stays away from all-party meeting on reservation issue

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 9

THE OPPOSITION MAHA Vikas Aghadi (MVA) stayed away from an all-party meeting on the reservation issue convened by the Maharashtra government on Tuesday amid the ongoing agitation by the Maratha community for quota under the OBC category. The meeting was called at a time when the state legislature is having its monsoon session in Mumbai and came ahead of the assembly polls which are due in October.

Leader of Opposition in the legislative assembly Vijay Wadettiwar of the Congress said the MVA will not attend the all-party meeting on the reservation issue as the government did not take the opposition into confidence over the matter. Wadettiwar said the people of the state need to know what discussions CM Eknath Shinde and Deputy CMs Ajit Pawar and Devendra Fadnavis have had so far on the quota issue. "What have they discussed and what have they promised (to agitators). They should explain in the assembly. There is a stand off between two communities (OBC and Marathas) and the government should give justice to both. We are not going to the meeting. The government must make its stand clear in the legislature," he said.

Mumbai hit-and-run accused Mihir Shah held after 2 days

SAGAR RAJPUT & VIJAY KUMAR YADAV Mumbai, July 9

MIHIR SHAH, THE main accused in the Mumbai BMW hit-and-run incident, in which a 45-year-old woman was killed in Worli, was arrested on Tuesday, two days after the accident. Mihir is the son of Rajesh Shah, a Shiv Sena leader and close aide of Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde.

According to sources, Mihir surrendered before the police on Tuesday, however, Worli police claimed that he was traced in Virar after they received information through human sources and technical analysis. "We have apprehended Mihir and

and two elder sisters of Mihir for allegedly helping him escape after the accident. They were detained from a resort in Murbad and will be handed over to the Worli police probing the

Police sources said that one of the two sisters had picked up Mihir from his friend's place in Goregaon and dropped near Thane. After that Mihir, his two sisters and mother hid themselves in different hotels in Thane, near Nashik and in Murbad.

The family members were travelling in a hired car and police have detained its driver. Police have also detained two of his friends from Palghar for allegedly facilitating his

On Sunday, Mihir allegedly rammed the BMW car he was driving into a two-wheeler on which Pradip Nakhwa, 50, and his wife Kaveri Nakhwa, 45, were travelling in Worli.

Kaveri was allegedly dragged for nearly two km after she got stuck between the bumper and the tyre of the vehicle. She was later flung off, leading to her death.

According to police, Mihir switched seats with his driver Rajrishi Bidawat and contacted his father Rajesh, who asked him to flee and instructed the driver to take responsibility for the accident. Both Rajesh and Bidawat were arrested in the case. While Rajesh was released on bail on Monday, Bidawat was produced before a court Tuesday and sent to police custody till July 11.

Seeking Bidawat's maximum custody, police told the court, "Bidawat is actively involved in the crime and has been misleading us through the interrogation. We will soon get the main accused to Mumbai. We want to confront them and interrogate the two accused together."

Panel to suggest reopening of Puri temple's treasury chamber

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Bhubaneswar, July 9

THE HIGH-LEVEL committee, set up to supervise the making of an inventory of valuable items stored in 'Ratna Bhandar' of Puri Jagannath temple, has decided to recommend the Odisha government to reopen the inner chamber of the treasury on July 14, a panel member said on Tuesday.

The decision was taken during a meeting of committee members in Puri.

"We have unanimously decided that the committee would request the government to reopen the inner chamber of the 'Ratna Bhandar' on July 14," said Justice Biswanath Rath, who is the chairman of the panel.

The treasury was last opened 46 years ago in 1978.

The chief administrator of Shree Jagannath Temple Administration (SJTA), who is the member convenor of the panel, was asked to produce the duplicate key of the 'Ratna Bhandar' before the committee during this meeting, Rath said. "However, the SJTA administration could not produce the duplicate key as the temple authority was busy conducting Rath Yatra. The chief administrator is now asked to submit the key before the panel on July 14," Rath said.

It was also decided that the treasury would be opened by breaking the lock if the duplicate key would not function, he said.

A detailed discussion was held on several standard operating procedures (SOPs) needed for making an inventory of ornaments and repairing the 'Ratna Bhandar'.

"As per the rules, the minutes of the meeting will be sent to the temple managing committee, which will send it to the government for approval. After that, the 'Ratna Bhandar' can be opened," Rath said.

The reopening of the temple treasury was a major political issue in the state during the recently concluded elections.

The BJP had promised to reopen the 'Ratna Bhandar' for necessary repair work and make an inventory after it came to power in Odisha.

"A consensus was reached that the ornaments and other valuable items of Lord Jagannath will be shifted to a designated place on the temple premises during the repair work of the treasury," he said.

The committee chairman said that the making of the inventory of ornaments and jewellery items is a time-consuming process and the state government first needs to provide all logistic support.

HATHRAS CASE

SIT report puts blame on organisers, district admin; six officials suspended

The investigation committee has also found the event organiser and tehsil-level police and administration guilty

DHEERAJ MISHRA & BHUPENDRA PANDEY Noida/Lucknow, July 9

THE TWO-MEMBER Special Investigation Team (SIT) probing the Hathras stampede submitted its report to the Uttar Pradesh government on Tuesday, holding the organisers, the local police and the administration responsible for the accident that killed 121 people on July 2. Acting on it, the government within hours suspended six officials — Sikan-Rao sub-divisional magistrate, circle officer, tehsildar, station house officer, and two local police outpost incharge officers.

The 855-page SIT report did not mention the 'godman' Suraj Pal, also known as Bhole Baba or Narayan Sakaar Hari, among those responsible for the stampede. The victims of the stampede had come to attend a Satsang (religious gathering) held by Bhole Baba, the police constable turned religious preacher. The police had earlier said the victims, almost all of them women, fell on the uneven surface while trying to collect soil the preacher had walked on before he left the venue at the Sikandra Rao area of Hathras.

The suspended officials are SDM Ravindra Kumar, Circle Officer Anand Kumar, Station House Officer Ashish Kumar, Tehsildar Sushil Kumar, chowki incharge of Kachora Manveer Singh, and chowki incharge of Pora Brijesh Pandey.

Uttar Pradesh government officials stated that during the investigation, statements were collected from 125 individuals, including administrative and police officials, members of the public, and eyewitnesses. Moreover, the SIT reviewed copies of news articles, on-site videography, photographs, and video clips.

The SIT report did not rule out the possibility of a conspiracy, which Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath hinted at when recommending an in-depth investigation into the case.

"Based on the investigation and actions taken so far, the investigation committee has not ruled out the possibility of a major conspiracy behind the accident and has emphasised the need for a thorough investigation. The investigation committee has also found the

IIT-Jodhpur to offer BTech programme in Hindi too

DEEKSHATERI New Delhi, July 9

OVER THREE YEARS after the Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs) first cautioned against the Centre's decision to teach engineering in regional languages, IIT-Jodhpur on Tuesday became the first to embrace the idea. Its new batch of undergraduate students who start this month will be offered the option of being taught in either Hindi or English.

Speaking to The Indian Express, institute director Avinash Kumar Agarwal said the option will be available across all programmes. The admission process remains the same, but at the start of the academic year, the First-Year students will be asked for their preference to be taught in English or Hindi. The batch will then be divided into two sections, based on their preference for Hindi or English medium of instruction. The same professor will teach both sections "to maintain consistency and rigour in education," he said. However, students will also be given the choice of switching between sections.

"If in a Physics course, some students are comfortable with English, and others with Hindi, then we will divide the batch accordingly, but the same professor will teach both the mediums. The same professor means rigor will be the same. Also, here the technical terms will be in English, but the explanation will be in sort of Hinglish (Hindi + English), and not in Sanskritlike Hindi. Our aim is to remove the problem in understanding," Agarwal said.

Additionally, the study material and assignments for First Year undergraduate students will be available in both languages, he said. The decision to teach in Hindi and English was taken by the institute one-and-a-half months ago and was approved by the institute's Senate at its 38th meeting held on June 26, and subsequently by the Board of Governors on June 28.

Students will also be provided remedial "English classes" to improve their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in the language.

Maharashtra Oppn stays away from all-party meeting on reservation issue

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 9

THE OPPOSITION MAHA Vikas Aghadi (MVA) stayed away from an all-party meeting on the reservation issue convened by the Maharashtra government on Tuesday amid the ongoing agitation by the Maratha community for quota under the OBC category. The meeting was called at a time when the state legislature is having its monsoon session in Mumbai and came ahead of the assembly polls which are due in October.

Leader of Opposition in the legislative assembly Vijay Wadettiwar of the Congress said the MVA will not attend the all-party meeting on the reservation issue as the government did not take the opposition into confidence over the matter. Wadettiwar said the people of the state need to know what discussions CM Eknath Shinde and Deputy CMs Ajit Pawar and Devendra Fadnavis have had so far on the quota issue. "What have they discussed and what have they promised (to agitators). They should explain in the assembly. There is a stand off between two communities (OBC and Marathas) and the government should give justice to both. We are not going to the meeting. The government must make its stand clear in the legislature," he said.

Mumbai hit-and-run accused Mihir Shah held after 2 days

SAGAR RAJPUT & VIJAY KUMAR YADAV Mumbai, July 9

MIHIR SHAH, THE main accused in the Mumbai BMW hit-and-run incident, in which a 45-year-old woman was killed in Worli, was arrested on Tuesday, two days after the accident. Mihir is the son of Rajesh Shah, a Shiv Sena leader and close aide of Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde.

According to sources, Mihir surrendered before the police on Tuesday, however, Worli police claimed that he was traced in Virar after they received information through human sources and technical analysis. "We have apprehended Mihir and

the process of getting him to Mumbai is underway," a police officer

Meanwhile, the Mumbai Police's crime branch detained the mother and two elder sisters of Mihir for allegedly helping him escape after the accident. They were detained from a resort in Murbad and will be handed over to the Worli police probing the

Police sources said that one of the two sisters had picked up Mihir from his friend's place in Goregaon and dropped near Thane. After that Mihir, his two sisters and mother hid themselves in different hotels in Thane, near Nashik and in Murbad.

The family members were travelling in a hired car and police have detained its driver. Police have also detained two of his friends from Palghar for allegedly facilitating his

On Sunday, Mihir allegedly rammed the BMW car he was driving into a two-wheeler on which Pradip Nakhwa, 50, and his wife Kaveri Nakhwa, 45, were travelling in Worli.

Kaveri was allegedly dragged for nearly two km after she got stuck between the bumper and the tyre of the vehicle. She was later flung off, leading to her death.

According to police, Mihir switched seats with his driver Rajrishi Bidawat and contacted his father Rajesh, who asked him to flee and instructed the driver to take responsibility for the accident. Both Rajesh and Bidawat were arrested in the case. While Rajesh was released on bail on Monday, Bidawat was produced before a court Tuesday and sent to police custody till July 11.

Seeking Bidawat's maximum custody, police told the court, "Bidawat is actively involved in the crime and has been misleading us through the interrogation. We will soon get the main accused to Mumbai. We want to confront them and interrogate the two accused together."

Panel to suggest reopening of Puri temple's treasury chamber

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Bhubaneswar, July 9

THE HIGH-LEVEL committee, set up to supervise the making of an inventory of valuable items stored in 'Ratna Bhandar' of Puri Jagannath temple, has decided to recommend the Odisha government to reopen the inner chamber of the treasury on July 14, a panel member said on Tuesday.

The decision was taken during a meeting of committee members in Puri.

"We have unanimously decided that the committee would request the government to reopen the inner chamber of the 'Ratna Bhandar' on July 14," said Justice Biswanath Rath, who is the chairman of the panel.

The treasury was last opened 46 years ago in 1978.

The chief administrator of Shree Jagannath Temple Administration (SJTA), who is the member convenor of the panel, was asked to produce the duplicate key of the 'Ratna Bhandar' before the committee during this meeting, Rath said. "However, the SJTA administration could not produce the duplicate key as the temple authority was busy conducting Rath Yatra. The chief administrator is now asked to submit the key before the panel on July 14," Rath said.

It was also decided that the treasury would be opened by breaking the lock if the duplicate key would not function, he said.

A detailed discussion was held on several standard operating procedures (SOPs) needed for making an inventory of ornaments and repairing the 'Ratna Bhandar'.

"As per the rules, the minutes of the meeting will be sent to the temple managing committee, which will send it to the government for approval. After that, the 'Ratna Bhandar' can be opened," Rath said.

The reopening of the temple treasury was a major political issue in the state during the recently concluded elections.

The BJP had promised to reopen the 'Ratna Bhandar' for necessary repair work and make an inventory after it came to power in Odisha.

"A consensus was reached that the ornaments and other valuable items of Lord Jagannath will be shifted to a designated place on the temple premises during the repair work of the treasury," he said.

The committee chairman said that the making of the inventory of ornaments and jewellery items is a time-consuming process and the state government first needs to provide all logistic support.

NPF FELL SHORT OF ABSOLUTE MAJORITY

French left wants to rule, but centrists lay claim to a role

FRENCH POLITICAL LEADERS from the left-wing bloc that came first in Sunday's legislative election said they intended to govern according to their taxand-spend programme, but centrists demanded a role as the left lacks a majority.

The unexpected outcome of the snap election has plunged France into uncertainty just before the Paris Olympics, with no obvious path to a stable government capable of getting any legislation passed by a fragmented parliament.

The left-wing New Popular Front (NFP) won the most seats in the National Assembly but fell short of an absolute majoritybyabout 100 seats. President Emmanuel Macron's centrists came second and the far-right National Rally (RN) third.

"The path to government is very narrow, very fragile," said Fabien Roussel, leader of the Communist Party which is one of the smaller members of the NFP. "But we have to try. The president of the republic has to let us govern," he said. NFP leaders have met behind closed doors several times since Sunday night, attempting to thrash out an agreement on which of them should be PM and how they should approach govern-

PETE SCHROEDER

Washington, July 9

THE US FEDERAL Reserve is considering a rule change that could save the country's eight largest banks combined billions of dollars in capital, in a potential long-sought win for the industry, according to four people with knowledge of

NEWS French left wants to rule, but centrists lay claim to a role

ESTELLE SHIRBON & TASSILO HUMMEL Paris, July 9

FRENCH POLITICAL LEADERS from the left-wing bloc that came first in Sunday's legislative election said they intended to govern according to their taxand-spend programme, but centrists demanded a role as the left lacks a majority.

The unexpected outcome of the snap election has plunged France into uncertainty just before the Paris Olympics, with no obvious path to a stable government capable of getting any legislation passed by a fragmented parliament.

The left-wing New Popular Front (NFP) won the most seats in the National Assembly but fell short of an absolute majority by about 100 seats. President Emmanuel Macron's centrists came second and the far-right National Rally (RN) third.

"The path to government is very narrow, very fragile," said Fabien Roussel, leader of the Communist Party which is one of the smaller members of the NFP. "But we have to try. The president of the republic has to let us govern," he said. NFP leaders have met behind closed doors several times since Sunday night, attempting to thrash out an agreement on which of them should be PM and how they should approach govern-

Macron, whose term ends in 2027, looks unlikely to be able to drive policy again, having been beaten by the far-right RN in last month's European election and by the left in the snap legislative election he called against the will of some of his own supporters including PM -REUTERS Gabriel Attal.

THE US FEDERAL Reserve is considering a rule change that could save the country's eight largest banks combined billions of dollars in capital, in a potential long-sought win for the industry, according to four people with knowledge of the matter.

At issue is how the central bank calculates an extra layer of capital it imposes on US global systemically important banks (GSIBs), known as the "GSIB surcharge," which it introduced in 2015 to boost their safety and soundness.
