Spencer's Retail forays into q-comm with JIFFY

• In Q3FY25, firm narrowed its net loss to ₹47.34 cr

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO Mumbai, January 16

SPENCER'S RETAIL, THE retail arm of the RP Sanjiv Goenka group, entered the quick commerce sector with JIFFY, its new online platform, on Thursday, starting with Kolkata. The service will soon expand to other regions of West Bengal, followed by Uttar Pradesh.

The retailer, currently, operates 89 stores across West Bengal and Uttar Pradesh.

Shashwat Goenka, chairman of Spencer's Retail, said that the company aimed to fulfil orders within 20-30 minutes by leveraging its existing stores.

For now, it would not invest in a separate dark store network, with delivery operations managed by a thirdparty fleet operator.

"Convenience is where the market is moving, at least in urban centres. While q-commerce will continue to be a subset of e-commerce, it will still be the fastest-growing delivery channel. Therefore, it cannot be ignored," Goenka said. Modern trade, he noted, had been impacted by the growth of q-commerce, as consumers sought convenience as lifestyles evolve.

A recent CLSA report said that the gross order value of q-commerce players in India would triple to $18 billion by FY27 from $6 billion now, touching $78 billion by FY34.

Goenka said that the company was looking to double its daily online orders in three quarters with its q-commerce operation. The online segment currently contributes 10-11% to the retailer's overall revenue.

In the December 2024 quarter (Q3 FY25), the company narrowed its consolidated net loss to ₹47.34 crore from ₹51.20 crore a year ago, in part because of its store rationalisation initiative undertaken over the last few months. But Q3 revenue took a hit as a result of store closures as well as a "soft festive quarter", down nearly 21% year-on-year to ₹516.97 crore.

In the September 2024 quarter (Q2 FY25), the retailer had shut around 43-44 stores in the south including Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Telangana as well as the National Capital Region including Gurgaon.

The move to enter the qcommerce space, said Goenka, was timed with its broader objective to focus on select markets in the country.

"Retail is a very regional business. We realise that if we have to better serve the market, we have to limit our operations to geographies we understand the best," Goenka said.
