"Q2FY25 highlighted the impact of quality content and underscored the need for consistency in successful releases across languages," said Rajesh Mishra, Executive Director and Group CEO. "While some releases performed well, the underperformance of a few titles, along with a lack of successful Hindi films in September, contributed to muted advertising revenue. However, growth in theatrical and exhibitor revenue supported the overall performance, reaffirming the resilience of in-cinema entertainment. Looking ahead, with a strong lineup of upcoming releases such as Singham Again, Bhool Bhulaiyaa 3, Pushpa 2 etc, we are optimistic about building momentum in the upcoming quarters."
