Battle for UP: Electioneering ends for first phase of polling

Electioneering ended Tuesday evening for the first phase of assembly polls in western Uttar Pradesh after a busy day during which the ruling BJP and the main opposition Samajwadi Party released their manifestoes.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi addressed one last virtual rally aimed at the voters of the region, winding up his speech with less than four minutes to go for the 6 pm deadline when campaigning for the February 10 polls had to end.

Polling will take place for 58 assembly constituencies spread across 11 districts, out of the 403 seats in the state, on Thursday. Leading the campaign for the BJP, Prime Minister Narendra Modi pitched in for a double-engine government for fast-paced development while attacking the Samajwadi Party-Rashtriya Lok Dal (RLD) combine.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah tried to put the spotlight back on alleged "exodus" of Hindus from Kairana before 2017. He held door-to-door campaigning in Mathura.

Samajwadi Party (SP) president Akhilesh Yadav claimed that people have made up their mind to vote out the BJP from power.

The polling on the 58 seats, of which nine are reserved, will be held between 7 am and 6 pm on Thursday. The districts where the elections will be held are Shamli, Hapur, Gautam Buddh Nagar, Muzaffarnagar, Meerut, Baghpat, Ghaziabad, Bulandshahr, Aligarh, Mathura and Agra.

The first phase will cover the Jat-dominant belt of western UP. As many as 623 candidates are in the fray in the first phase. Around 2.27 crore people are eligible to vote in this phase.

Under Modi fire, Cong MPs walk out of Rajya Sabha

New Delhi

The Congress on Tuesday walked out from the Rajya Sabha to protest against its criticism by Prime Minister Modi in disguise of replying to four days of debate in the House on the motion of thanks to the President for his address to the joint session of Parliament on January 31.

leader Opposition Mallikarjun Kharge and Congress deputy leader Anand Sharma told a press conference that their party MPs had to stage the walkout since the Prime Minister resorted to attacking the Congress in his reply instead of focusing on the President's address and the issues raised by the opposition.

They said Modi was clearly seizing the opportunity, as he did a day earlier in the Lok Sabha with 100 minutes of rumbling, only to send out a message to five states undergoing the Assembly elections instead of targeting the Congress as if the debate were on future of the Congress and not on the President's address as listed on the agenda.

"He suddenly remembers Mahatma Gandhi. Those who killed Gandhi and worship the killer Godse tell us that Gandhi had vouched for dissolving the Congress. These people killed Gandhi and they are now trying their best to finish our philosophy, our ideology," Kharge said.

He and Anand Sharma said: "The Congress was forced by the Prime Minister to walk out since he did not reply to the issues we raised in the debate like inflation, employment and second wave of Covid. He had no reply, no data while we had raised the issues with data."

The Congress is furious since the Prime Minister has been targeting the party and its dynastic politics while blaming First Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru for delay in the liberation of Goa.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi attacked the Congress saying that it could never think beyond its "dynasty", while praising NCP leader Sharad Pawar and Trinamool Congress for attending the all-party meeting on Covid-

19. While praising the NCP supremo, the Prime Minister tried to divide the Opposition and isolate the Congress as the former is part of the government in Maharashtra.

It's MY vs MY in Uttar Pradesh. While the SP largely banks on its Muslim-Yadav support base, the BJP is trying to counter it with the Modi-Yogi combo in the state Assembly polls. Since days of Mulayam Singh Yadav, the Samajwadi Party (SP) has enjoyed a powerful electoral support base among Muslims and Yadavs, who constitute around 20 per cent and 10 per cent population of the state, respectively.

He, however, has made an attempt to expand his base by giving tickets to non-Yadav Other Backward Castes.

Flocking of leaders like O P Raibhar. Swami Prasad Maurya and Dara Singh Chauhan and the alliance with the Rashtriya Lok Dal (RLD) of Jayant Chaudhary has further given a boost to his efforts to dethrone the BJP.

Meanwhile, several BJP leaders told PTI that setting the narrative around Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath is helping them offset the anti-incumbency against the state government.

In election speeches of all BJP leaders, one can find rich reference to work done by the PM for the country and Adityanath in
