much-anticipated The Santacruz Chembur Link Road (SCLR) extension project is in its final stages, with just 100 meters of suspension span awaiting installation. This segment, part of a cablestayed bridge, is on track to be completed once the Mumbai Metropolitan Development Region Authority (MMRDA) secures necessary traffic permissions for two scheduled blocks, sources said. The phased installation will align with the bridge's curved design, followed by suspension cables and road surfacing.

4.2km extension was first slated for a 2019 completion but faced many delays due to land acquisition issues

The 4.2 kilometer SCLR extension, which began construction in 2016, was initially slated for a 2019 completion but faced delays due to land acquisition issues, particularly with defence land. The BMC recently cleared a Rs16 crore payment to defence authorities, a crucial step in finalising the project.

Stretching from Kapadia to Panbai Nagar International School, the extension connects key

The Versova Vidhan Sabha constituency is located in Mumbai Suburban district and is part of the Mumbai North West Lok Sabha constituency. Bharati Lavekar, 58, served as a BJP MLA for two consecutive terms and has now been nominated for a third. With 2.82 lakh voters, Versova covers areas including Seven Bungalows, Yari Road, Versova, Lokhandwala, Oshiwara, Veera Desai Road, and parts of Jogeshwari (West). It is a cosmopolitan area, with a significant minority and North Indian population, and includes the Koli community.

Versova was established during the 2008 delimitation of the Vile Parle constituency. It includes portions of the former Vile Parle and Amboli constituencies. In 2009, Congress candidate Baldev Khosa was elected, but the seat shifted to the BJP in 2014 when Lavekar was elected. In 2019, Lavekar secured 41,057 votes, defeating Congress candidate Baldev Khosa by 5,186 votes. Lavekar, a PhD holder, received the 'Ahilvabai Holkar' award from the Maharashtra government in 2000-2001, and 'Maharashtra Ratna' award in 2005 for her distinguished awaited Versova-Madh bridge has been planned for 35 years, yet construction has not begun, with estimated costs rising from Rs400 crore to Rs4,000 crore. Line 6 of the metro project has completed 80% of its civil work, but the construction of the yard remains stalled. Other pending projects include a post office near Taraporewala Tower (planned since 1990) and a fire brigade station at Grounds, Chitrakoot reserved in the 1991 development plan but not yet built. Dhaval Shah, director of the Andheri Lokhandwala Oshiwara Citizens the Versova-Bandra Sea Link project has been delayed by four years, leading to cost escalation and high tolls for citizens."

Predicting the outcome in this constituency is challenging. Political experts say that in the recent Lok Sabha election, Versova gave a lead of 21,000 votes to the Maha Vikas Aghadi candidate. People are dissatisfied with Lavekar's work, which could negatively impact BJP's votes. "The party declared my name late because it took time to decide who would receive this seat among the Mahayuti allies," Lavekar said. "My party informed me much earlier to start working. Over the last 10 years, I have completed several being developed. The Versova-Bandra Sea Link project is 26% complete," she added. Versova has 1.1 lakh minority voters. To counter the BJP and the AIMIM, Uddhav Thackeray has nominated a loyal Shiv Sena (UBT) member, Haroon Khan, as candidate. Khan stated, "Voters should not think of me as just a Muslim candidate. I want to work for every community and focus on developmental work. In our constituency, several infrastructure projects, such as resolving issues on the JVLR, metro works, and pending SRA projects, are overdue. Good schools and playgrounds are needed in our constituency. This fight is between the BJP and the MVA." Raju Pednekar from the UBT has rebelled and filed as an independent. There is talk that Shiv Sainiks, along with other aspirants from the constituency, are upset because Thackeray has nominated Khan. MNS has announced Sandesh Desai as its candidate, and the AIMIM has fielded Raiees Lashkaria.

FIR against son of bizman for killing dog

Aishwarya lyer MUMBAI

The primary suspect in the October 17 incident that led to the fatal injury of a dog 'Sheru' outside Samar Heights in Antop Hill, Wadala, has been identified as Nilesh Jain, according to police sources. Jain, reportedly aged between 26 and 30, is the son of a wealthy businessman and resides close to the spot where Sheru died.

Although the accused's identity is widely known among police officers and residents of Samar Heights, the FIR registered at Antop Hill police station lists him as 'unknown.'

On the day of the incident, Jain and five friends, all residents of Samar Heights, were smoking in the building's parking lot. "The incident occurred in the evening," a officer police stated. "According to eyewitnesses, one of the boys' father saw them loitering and asked them to disperse immediately. They may have panicked prompting Jain to start his car hastily to leave the premises. In his rush, he reportedly struck the building's car lift and one of the pillars in the parking lot before reaching the main exit," the police officer added. Sheru, the dog, Interestingly, sources revealed that the case has been transferred three times, leading to frequent changes in the investigating officer. Although the incident occurred on October 17 and came to light on October 18, the police initially declined registering an FIR. When residents and complainants from Samar Heights approached an IPS officer, she cited a 2023 Bombay High Court judgment stating that "dogs and cats are not humans, hence hit-andrun sections cannot apply to non-humans." However, after legal intervention by Roshan Pathak, a member of the NGO PAL, who highlighted the "intent" behind Sheru's case, the police agreed to press charges against the accused, whose father is reportedly in the gold business.

The flying squad in Ulhanagar seized Rs17 lakh cash on Thursday early morning amid the model code of conduct in force in Maharashtra since October 15 for the November 20 assembly polls, an official said. The cash was seized from the Innova car's one occupant, who was heading towards Murbad from Thane on Ulhasnagar-Shahad road during a nakabandi, the official added. "A probe into the source of the cash and other details is underway," said another official. The squad alerted the police and income tax department to conduct a further investigation. Vishnu Tamhane, senior police inspector said, "According to the owner of the car, he provided information that he was carrying cash for distribution to labourers. However, further investigation is being carried out by the Income Tax department." On October 30, the Kasara police seized Rs2 crore cash from the car's two occupants on Mumbai-Nasik road near Kasara ghat, Shahapur taluka, near Chintamani police chowki, during a police nakabandi.
