India-UK FTA talks slow down as both countries tread cautiously

DISSIPATED DEADLINES. Negotiations to spill into 2025 as the nations struggle to find common ground

Amiti Sen
New Delhi

AT A CROSSROADS. The India-UK FTA talks aim to double bilateral trade to $100 billion by 2030

Negotiations for the proposed India-UK Free Trade Agreement (FTA) may have entered the slow lane with the UK's new Labour Party "more focused" on protecting the interests of its domestic constituency and India too weighing its commitments more carefully, sources said.

"Unlike the previous two Diwalis, this year there has not been much talk about Diwali deadlines to conclude the India-UK FTA. The sense of urgency has clearly dissipated with the new Labour government in the UK more focused on protecting its workers, spurring economic activity and keeping inflation low. While engagements on the FTA are on, an end is not in sight immediately," an official close to the development told businessline.

India, too, is strategising more on future FTAs, and an active exercise is underway to learn from the experiences and mistakes of past pacts to negotiate future ones more effectively.

"India is fully engaged with the UK on the proposed FTA. But commitments will only be taken when there is absolute clarity about what it could entail in the future and that we are getting commensurate benefits," another source said.

There were hopes that the FTA could be forged this year but clearly the negotiations are likely to spill over into 2025 and strong determination from both sides would be needed for its conclusion, the source added.

SPLATTERED FOCUS

The India-UK FTA talks, aimed at doubling bilateral trade to $100 billion by 2030, were started under the Conservative government in January 2022. Since the pact has bipartisan support, the Labour government, led by Prime Minister Keir Starmer, also expressed its keenness for the pact.

"Our FTA negotiations are the floor, not the ceiling, of our ambitions to unlock our shared potential and deliver growth, from Bengaluru to Birmingham. We have shared interests on green transition, new technologies, economic security and global security," UK Foreign Secretary David Lammy said ahead of his India visit in July this year.

But the focus of the new UK government on accelerating economic activity, increasing revenue earnings and inflation control in the unstable global environment, as reflected in its latest Budget, has made it more focused on potential job losses and a decline in manufacturing activity due to FTAs giving more market access to partner countries, the official said.

"Till the UK government is convinced that its market gains in India will be substantial and it can convince its domestic constituency of the potential benefits, it seems difficult for a consensus to be reached on difficult issues holding back the agreement," the official added.

The UK had been asking India for commitments to bring down duties steeply in sectors such as Scotch and automobiles where import duties in India are as high as 150 per cent and 100 per cent (70 per cent for vehicles below $40,000) respectively. It also wants the liberalisation of financial and legal services, as well as stronger IPR rules to provide additional protection to pharmaceutical majors.

India, on the other hand, wants easier work visa norms for its professionals, which London is not ready to commit to.

"While both sides are optimistic about bilateral trade doubling to $100 billion by 2030 ... neither seems to be ready to make the kind of compromises required to give the pact a final push at the moment," he said.

SECI bars Reliance Power, arm from tenders for 3 years

Our Bureau
New Delhi

The Solar Energy Corporation of India (SECI) has barred Reliance Power and its subsidiary Reliance NU BESS from participating in tenders floated by the State-run entity for 3 years.

The renewable energy implementing agency (REIA), in a notice on Wednesday, said Reliance Power submitted a fake bank guarantee in the SECI tender for setting up of the 1,000 megawatt (MW)/2000 MW hour (MWh) standalone BESS (Battery Energy Storage System) project. The bid was under the tariff-based competitive bidding (TBCB).

FAKE DOCUMENTS

"Based on the examination of documents submitted by Maharashtra Energy Generation (the bidder), now known as Reliance NU BESS (request for selection), it was discovered that as per the tender requirements, the endorsement of the Bank Guarantee against EMD (issued by a foreign Bank), as submitted by the bidder, was fake. Since the above discrepancy was discovered subsequent to the e-Reverse Auction, SECI was constrained to annul the tendering process," SECI said.

VIOLATED CONDITIONS

As per tender conditions, submission of a fake document to RfS rendered the bidder eligible for debarment from future tenders issued by SECI.

The bidder, being a subsidiary of Reliance Power, had met the Financial Qualification Requirements using the strength of its parent company, it added.

Upon detailed examination of the matter, "it was found logical to conclude that all the commercial and strategic decisions undertaken by the bidder were fundamentally driven by the parent company. Thus, it became imperative to debar the parent company from participating in the future tenders issued by SECI," the company said.

In September, Reliance Power said it had successfully secured a tender from SECI for a BESS project of 500 MW/1000 MWh through e-Reverse Auction (eRA), marking a significant entry into the renewable energy and storage sector.

Q-commerce is one of the flag-bearers of our growth: Colgate-Palmolive's Ruchir Bhatnagar

Aroosa Ahmed
Mumbai

With shifting consumer demands, Ruchir Bhatnagar, Executive Vice-President of Customer Development at Colgate-Palmolive (India), spoke to businessline on the changing landscape in oral hygiene, swift increase in quick commerce and the demand slowdown across fast-moving consumer goods.

Edited excerpts:

> As you provide the power of choice to consumers, they end up buying a different assortment on q-comm platforms than what they would have bought in a mom-and-pop store
> RUCHIR BHATNAGAR
> Executive V-P, Customer Development, Colgate-Palmolive

As Colgate-Palmolive incorporates latest technology to understand consumer trends, can you provide insights into the changes you are seeing in the oral hygiene sector?

At the entry-level of the price points, there are consumers who are intermittent users of the category or are pressed for money, and therefore they restrict themselves to a ₹10 or ₹20 product range, but they also want multiple assortments in that range. From a time when any ₹10 product would be fine, to a time that my ₹10 product needs to be present — that's a big change we are seeing.

This is impacting both rural and urban India. Unlocking the capability and the ability to make sure that 4-5 right products are present not only frees up the capital but also allows us to capitalise on market share and business opportunities with the consumer.

Over the last couple of years, we have seen almost every single State increase the penetration in oral care to near-universal household penetration in the category, which was not the case a couple of years ago.

Consumers today want solutions that are suited to their needs. People are okay with having multiple products in their house that may suit the many members of the household. And businesses are expected to cater to them. The mega trends emerging in the oral hygiene space are multi-benefit, holistic well-being and whitening benefits, which almost every consumer is looking for.

With consumers opting for personalised, tailor-made oral hygiene products, are you seeing an uptick in your initiative of brushing twice a day?

Brushing twice a day is a long drawn-out phenomenon. It takes a lot of behavioural and attitude change, which we are trying to make by constantly driving the message across to the right set of consumers.

Our 'brush-twice-a-day' initiatives are restricted to the urban areas where the category is well adopted. We are also working closely with our modern trade partners to make sure that we do in-store initiatives to remind people to brush twice every day.

It is too early to say whether these initiatives are giving results or not. But if one consistently sticks with the idea, with the overall wellness being on top of the minds of consumers, it will catch up.

FMCG companies have seen a rapid uptick in quick commerce. How was the growth for you?

Quick commerce is one of the flag bearers of growth, not just in the Colgate ecosystem but also within the new retail segment, which is modern trade and e-commerce put together. In a short span of two years, quick commerce has become almost 30 per cent of our e-commerce business.

E-commerce already contributes in high single-digits to our overall sales. These numbers are even higher in highly penetrated pin codes like Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Mumbai and Delhi.

Quick commerce has very high front-end interfaces. It allows you to not just provide the product a consumer is looking for but also gives them options. We are realising that, as you offer the power of choice to the consumer, they end up buying a different assortment on q-comm platforms than what they would have bought in a mom-and-pop store.

We have partnered with quick commerce platforms to create and launch new brands and also drive awareness about new brands. Recently, one of our launches did well on a quick commerce platform purely because we were able to offer it to the right set of consumers immediately. We have a product called 'Visible White Purple'. It's a purple colour toothpaste that gives you a whitened pair of teeth in the first use. That resonated well with our quick commerce consumers because they are high-end premium consumers who are willing to try things out.

A demand slowdown in the domestic market has been flagged by FMCG companies. Colgate-Palmolive in its quarterly result pointed out "difficult market conditions". Are you seeing pressure in the purchasing pattern of consumers?

We have started to see that impact happen both in urban and rural markets. Consumers exercise their choices upwards or downwards from our product portfolio depending upon their economic situation, and we started to see that impact.

Almost across all types of retail environments, whether it is traditional or modern trade, we started to see some bit of impact of a slowdown coming. We have started to take corrective measures to make sure that we do the right things by driving the right portfolio and mixing our assortment in the right direction so that we continue to meet the needs of consumers.

In Australia, Jaishankar meets CEOs and business leaders, underscores skill mobility

Press Trust of India
Sydney

The world would be moving to a much more integrated global workplace prompting many countries, including the US, to make a distinction in immigration and mobility, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said here on Thursday.

It will be the corporates that will decide whether the talent goes to the business or the business goes to the talent, Jaishankar said as he focused on the mobility of talent and skills during a meeting with CEOs and business leaders in Australia.

"Even as there is a re-globalisation, or reworking of the current architecture, apart from the technological changes, I think, the demographic unevenness of the world is beginning to bite us," Jaishankar, who is on a five-day official visit to Australia, said.

"Our robust business and investment linkages are key drivers of our Comprehensive Strategic Partnership," he added. He also participated in a discussion with foreign affairs and strategy experts at the Lowy Institute, an independent think tank in Sydney.

पेपर ग्लासमधून गरम पदार्थ सेवन करणे धोक्याचे

डॉ. राजेश पेडणेकर | पेपर ग्लास न वापरण्याची विद्यार्थ्यांनी घेतली शपथ

टीम दैनिक हेराल्ड

साखळी, दि. ७: आम्ही अशी शपथ घेऊया की आम्ही आमच्या कार्यालयात तसेच कार्यक्रम स्थळी पेपर ग्लास तथा कपचा वापर करणार नाही. आम्ही आमच्या कार्यलयातील कर्मचाऱ्यांना पेपर ग्लास व कपचा वापर न करण्यांविषयी जागृती करण्याचे कार्य करणार. तसेच पेपर ग्लास व कप च्या जागी स्टील अथवा काचेच्या ग्लासचा वापर करण्यावर भर देणार अशी, कॉलेज अँड रिसर्च सेंटर आसगांव बार्देशचे प्राध्यापक डॉ. राजेश पेडणेकर विद्यार्थ्यांसह पर्यावरण पुरक शपथ घेतली. आम्ही पेपरचे ग्लास व कपांना नकार देऊ, आमचे आरोग्य सांभाळू असे आवाहन डॉ. पेडणेकर आपल्या जागृती मोहिमेअंतर्गत केले.

विवेकानंद ज्ञान मंदिर हायस्कूल केरी सत्तरीच्या तीन दिवशीय शिबिर आयोजित कार्यक्रमांत पेपर ग्लासमधून गरम पदार्थ सेवन करणे धोक्याचे या विषयावर ते बोलत होते.

डॉ. पेडणेकर यांनी सांगितले की, पेपर ग्लास व कपांना आतून प्लास्टिकचे आवरण असते. ते आवरण गरम चहा, पाणी अथवा कोणताही गरम पदार्थ त्या कप अथवा ग्लासमध्ये घातल्यानंतर ते आवरण विरघळून आपल्या पोटात जाते. ते विरघळलेले आवरण आपल्या पोटात गेल्याने अनेक रोगांना आपण आमंत्रण देतो. या पेपर ग्लास व कपांमध्ये लावलेले प्लास्टिकचे आवरण हे अत्यंत कमी दर्जाच्या प्लास्टिकचे असल्याने त्याचा आपल्या शरीरावर घातक असा परिणाम होतो.

आम्ही विद्यालयाच्या विद्यार्थ्यांनी आपल्या पालकांना, गावातील नागरिकांना तसेच आपल्या मित्र – परिवाराला याविषयी जागृती करून सांगायला हवे. पेपर ग्लास व कपांचा वापर करणाऱ्यांना त्याचा दुष्परिणाम सांगायला हवा. हे सांगताना त्यांनी पर्यावरण जतनाचाही विद्यार्थ्यांना मंत्र दिला.त्यांनी प्रत्यक्षात पेपर ग्लास व कपांना कशाप्रकारे प्लास्टिकचे आवरण असते, याचे प्रात्यक्षिकच करून दाखवले. पेपर ग्लास व कपांच्या वापरामुळे आपल्याला होणाऱ्या अनेक रोगांविषयीही डॉ. पेडणेकर यांनी माहिती दिली.

यावेळी त्यांनी जागृतीपत्रकेही उपस्थित विद्यार्थ्यांना तसेच गावातील नागरिकांना आणि म्हादई अभयारण्या वन क्षेत्र वनविभाग अधिकारी व कर्मचारी यांनाही पेपर ग्लास व कपांविषयी जागृती करणारी पत्रके दिली. यावेळी कॉलेज अँड रिसर्च सेंटर आसगांव बार्देशचे डॉ. उमेश गावस, डॉ. राम गावस उपस्थित होते.

यावेळी आठवी ते दहावीच्या वर्गातील विद्यार्थी, सुर्ल सत्तरीच्या पंच सोनिया गांवकर, विवेकानंद ज्ञान मंदिर हायस्कूलचे प्रभारी मुख्याध्यापक गोपिनाथ गावस, संस्थेचे अध्यक्ष नामदेव गावस, खजिनदार विठोबा केरकर, पालक शिक्षक संघ अध्यक्ष शांताराम गावस, उपाध्यक्ष नंदा राऊत इतर पदाधिकारी प्रल्हाद गावस, बाबलो गावस, गणगो गावस तसेच निवासी शिबिराचे प्रमुख रामदास शेटकर, संदेश केसरकर तसेच शिक्षक सिंथिया फर्नांडिस, सनिशा मुळगावकर, चंद्रशेखर गावस, गौरवी गावस, आर्या जोशी, अवी परवार, दिपिक्षा नायक, स्नेहल राऊत, जयेंद्र केरकर, सुहानी गावस, निर्मला गावस यांनी योगदान दिले.

साखळी : पेपर ग्लासमधून गरम पदार्थ सेवन करणे धोक्याचे या विषयावरील सत्रात डॉ. राजेश पेडणेकर यांचे फुलांनी स्वागत करताना गोपीनाथ गावस. सोबत डॉ. उमेश गावस व डॉ. राम गावस, शांताराम गावस.

NCRB data collection in prisons can go on, SC clarifies in caste bias matter

PTI, NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Thursday said its direction to delete the "caste" column apart from any caste reference in undertrials or convicts' registers in jails will not impede the collection of data by National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB).

A bench of Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud and Justices J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra made the clarification.

In a landmark verdict delivered on October 3, the apex court banned caste-based discrimination like division of manual labour, segregation of barracks and bias against prisoners of de-notified tribes and habitual offenders by holding as "unconstitutional" the jail manual rules of 10 states for fostering such biases.

"The 'caste' column and any references to caste in undertrial and/or convicts prisoners' registers inside the prisons shall be deleted," stated one of the directions in the verdict.

Senior advocate S Muralidhar, appearing for the petitioner on whose plea the verdict was delivered, said a prayer in the application sought non-hinderance to the exercise of the NCRB data collection by the direction of caste reference removal from the registers.

"That may be necessary," Additional Solicitor General Aishwarya Bhati weighed in.

When the bench noted that the NCRB ought to have moved the apex court for such a clarification, Bhati said she had instructions from the Ministry of Home Affairs for its issuance of the order.

"... it is clarified that direction (iv) will not impede the collection of data by the NCRB," the bench said.

In its October 3 verdict, the top court observed that the "right to live with dignity" extended "even to the incarcerated".

The Centre and the states were accordingly directed to amend their prison manuals and laws within three months and file compliance reports before the top court.

The top court was dealing with certain discriminatory provisions of jail manuals of Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal, Madhya Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Odisha, Kerala, Maharashtra, Karnataka and Himachal Pradesh when it set aside the same.

"Rules that discriminate among individual prisoners on the basis of their caste specifically or indirectly by referring to proxies of caste identity are violative of Article 14 on account of invalid classification and subversion of substantive equality," it had held.
