Sensex, Nifty trade flat amid profit booking; Hero MotoCorp falls 4%

Business

As of 10.13 am, the NSE Nifty 50 was nearly flat, rising just 7.30 points to 24,146.30, while the S&P BSE Sensex saw a modest increase of 66.37 points to 79,022.40

New Delhi. Benchmark stock market indices opened flat on Wednesday, as gains in information technology (IT) stocks were balanced out by profit booking across other sectors. As of 10.13 am, the NSE Nifty 50 was nearly flat, rising just 7.30 points to 24,146.30, while the S&P BSE Sensex saw a modest increase of 66.37 points to 79,022.40. The IT sector showed some strength, gaining 0.6%, following data that indicated US producer prices rose less than expected in July, hinting at cooling inflation. However, financial stocks struggled, with the Nifty Financials and private banking indices each falling 0.2%. ICICI Bank saw a drop of 1%, contributing to the sector's weakness.

Analysts pointed to ongoig concerns about the rising cost of deposits, which could lead to further profit-taking in Indian markets given the high valuations. Among other sectors, Hero MotoCorp fell over 4% after missing profit expectations for the June quarter, largely due to weaker average prices. Similarly, Piramal Enterprises dropped 6% following a decline in its net profit for the same period. Overall, eight of the 13 major sectors saw gains, but the broader market, particularly small and mid-cap stocks, experienced a decline of about 0.2% each.Investors are now looking ahead to the US consumer price data for July, which will be released after Indian market hours and could provide further direction for the markets.Dr. V K Vijayakumar, Chief Investment Strategist, Geojit Financial Services, said, "The PPI inflation numbers from the US indicate softening of inflation, and a confirmation of this declining trend is likely from the CPI numbers coming today.""The US market moved up yesterday in anticipation of this and a rate cut by the Fed in September. If the rate cut is by 50bp, the US market will remain resilient lending support to global markets. This is the likely scenario. On the other hand, if the Fed disappoints with no rate cut, the market will sell off and this will have repercussions globally," he said."In India the pattern of FII selling on valuation concerns and DII buying supported by money flows continues. Some segments like defence related stocks which have run far ahead of fundamentals are witnessing corrections," Vijayakumar noted.

Ex Starbucks CEO's viral post on why he doesn't work post 6 PM

New Delhi Starbucks recently announced a change in leadership, with Brian Niccol set to replace Laxman Narasimhan as chairman and CEO.Niccol, the current head of Chipotle Mexican Grill, will officially take on his new role on September 9. Until then, Starbucks' CFO, Rachel Ruggeri, will serve as the interim CEO.

This leadership change has stirred quite a buzz on social media. Among the many discussions, a month-old interview with Narasimhan has gained viral attention. In the interview, Narasimhan shared his approach to maintaining work-life balance, revealing that he does not work beyond 6 pm.In the video, Narasimhan explains his work boundaries, saying, "If anyone at Starbucks gets a minute of my time after 6 pm, they better be sure that it's important."His statement has sparked widespread discussion online, especially in light of his recent departure from Starbucks. Users also shared a video of the former CEO, giving an interview and said, This will always be remembered as the interview that got the Starbucks CEO fired.During the interview with Fortune Magazine, the 57-year-old Narasimhan elaborated on his philosophy of worklife balance. He emphasised the importance of personal time, noting that his workday ends by 6 pm unless an issue is of significant importance. Who is Brian Niccol, replacing Laxman

Narasimhan? Brian Niccol has been at the helm of Chipotle Mexican Grill since March 2018, initially as CEO and director, and later as Chairman of the Board from March 2020. Before his tenure at Chipotle, Niccol was the CEO of Taco Bell, where he also held roles Innovation Officer, and President. His career began in brand management at Procter & Gamble. Niccol has also held leadership positions at Pizza Hut and has served on several boards.

such as Chief Marketing and including Walmart Inc. and previously KB Home and Harley-Davidson. He earned his undergraduate degree from Miami University and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

Starbucks CEO replaced by Brian Niccol, a fixer who revived Chipotle when the chain was in distress

New Delhi In 2018, when Chipotle was reeling from multiple food poisoning outbreaks that had sickened 1,100 people, the company called Taco Bell CEO Brian Niccol to turn things around.As Chipotle's chairman and CEO, Niccol beefed up marketing and product innovation, added a loyalty program and improved store operations. He also instituted employee benefits, like a program that pays employees' college tuition costs at certain schools. Chipotle's revenue since then has nearly doubled.On Tuesday, Niccol answered another call, this time from Starbucks. The Seattle coffee giant named Niccol as its new chairman and CEO, hoping he can revive fading sales and re-establish Starbucks as a destination where customers are willing to pay premium prices."I am excited to join Starbucks and grateful for the opportunity to help steward this incredible company, alongside hundreds of thousands of devoted partners," said.Starbucks shares jumped 24.5% Tuesday on the news, recapturing all of their losses for the year. However, Niccol faces far larger and deeper challenges at Starbucks, which has 38,000 stores worldwide compared to Chipotle's largely U.S.-based chain of 3,500 restaurants. Niccol has to figure out how to get inflation-weary U.S. customers back into stores for its pricey drinks."

I will pay $9 for a burrito. I'm not sure I'm going to pay $9 for a cup of Venti shaken espresso," said Nancy Tengler, CEO of Laffer Tengler Investments, which owns shares in Starbucks and Chipotle.In the U.S., Starbucks has struggled to balance demand for mobile orders and faster service with its more traditional role as an upscale cafe where customers can gather and relax. Tengler said long wait times and a deluge of mobile orders have damaged the in-store experience at Starbucks, and Niccol will have to develop a plan to flip that around.Starbucks — along with other big brands like McDonald's — is also confronting U.S. consumers who are increasingly looking for value and deals. Niccol will have to convince drinkers that a medium Starbucks iced coffee — now more than $5 in Manhattan — is worth paying for.In China, Starbucks' second-largest market with 6,500 stores, customers are increasingly opting for coffee from lower-priced rivals. And in the Middle East and some countries in Europe, Starbucks is seeing boycotts related to the Israel-Hamas war. Niccol replaces Laxman Narasimhan, who is stepping down immediately after spending a little more than a year in Starbucks' top job. Niccol will become Starbucks'

chairman and CEO on Sept.
