About GAIN

The Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition ("GAIN" or "the Foundation") is an independent non-profit Swiss Foundation, created under Article 80 of the Swiss Civil Code, and is registered with the Geneva Registry of Commerce under statutes dated 26th March 2003. GAIN is monitored by the Swiss Federal Supervisory Board for Foundations, and has special international status granted by the Swiss government.

GAIN was launched at the United Nations in 2002 to tackle the human suffering caused by malnutrition. Working with governments, businesses and civil society, they aim to transform food systems so that they deliver more nutritious foods for all people, especially the most vulnerable.

Headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, GAIN has offices in countries with high levels of malnutrition: Bangladesh, Ethiopia, India, Indonesia, Kenya, Mozambique, Nigeria, Pakistan, and Tanzania. To support work in those countries, they have representative offices in the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

At GAIN, the belief is that everyone in the world should have access to nutritious, safe, and affordable food. Today, one in three people - drawn from nearly every country on the planet - are unable to consume enough nutritious food. GAIN works to develop and deliver solutions to this daily challenge.

GAIN purpose is to improve the consumption of nutritious and safe foods for all. GAIN focuses on children, adolescents, and women because we know that working with these groups is crucial to transforming attitudes about food and hence life chances and livelihoods. GAIN works closely with international organisations and United Nations agencies.

GAIN receives funding from over 30 public and private sector donors including the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, the United States Agency for International Development, the Government of the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Children's Investment Fund Foundation, the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany, the Swiss Federal Department of Federal Affairs, the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and Irish Aid.
