Outlook

The cement sector experienced modest growth of 1.5-2% during H1 FY'25. Looking ahead, cement demand is expected to rebound in Q4 FY'25 as construction activity accelerates in the infrastructure and housing segments. The pro-infra and housing Budget 2025, along with increased government spending on infrastructure and construction activities, is anticipated to further support this growth. Cement demand is projected to grow in the range of 4-5% for FY'25.

Achievements

- Gold at the Arogya World Healthy Workplace Awards 2024.
- IconSWM-CE Excellence Award 2024 for excellence in co-processing and AFR.
