RCap lenders can't take coercive action against IHL: NCLT

IIHL seeks 90-day extension ahead of May 27 deadline

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 23 May

The National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) has barred the lenders of bankrupt Reliance Capital (RCap) from taking any coercive action against IndusInd International Holdings (IIHL) — the highest bidder — and asked the firm to seek the remaining regulatory approvals for the acquisition.

IIHL, which is a Hinduja group company, has to pay lenders by May 27 to conclude the deal, which was approved by NCLT in February this year.

During the hearing on Wednesday, the NCLT also said that there should be no encashment of any bank guarantee of ₹483 crore submitted by IIHL, as demanded by some members of the committee of creditors (CoC).

The order was in response to IIHL's application before the NCLT seeking a 90-day extension of the May 27 deadline due to several pending regulatory approvals and compliances. The CoC and the administrator of Reliance Capital opposed

The NCLT said that bank guarantees worth ₹483 crore submitted by IIHL could not be encashed, as demanded by some members of the committee of creditors this request.

The NCLT then asked the respondents to file their responses by June 3 and the matter will be heard on June 6. IIHL and other Hinduja group entities had earlier indicated that they would make payments worth ₹9,661 crore for the acquisition of bankrupt RCap only after getting all the legal and regulatory clearances, including from May 27, ie, Supreme Court, thus delaying the closure of the transaction.

A source close to the development said as per the NCLT order dated February 27, the payment for the acquisition was to be made within 90 days from the approval of the resolution plan by the NCLT and after receiving all legal, regulatory clearances.

As the matter is still pending in the Supreme Court following a petition filed by the Torrent group, which has opposed the second round of auction for RCap, the payment may not be made by May 27, ie, within three months of the NCLT order. The Supreme Court is expected to hear the Torrent petition in June but no date has been fixed as yet.

Air India's move comes a month after two pilot unions likened the working conditions to bonded labour

A-I pilots to get salary hike, bonus

DEEPAK PATEL
New Delhi, 23 May

Air India (A-I) on Thursday raised the fixed monthly salaries of all pilots, except junior first officers, by up to ₹15,000 per month.

The airline has also introduced an annual performance bonus of up to ₹1.8 lakh for pilots, based on their performance, and the company's overall performance.

The announcement comes a month after two unions — the Indian Commercial Pilots' Association (ICPA), representing a significant section of narrowbody pilots, and the Indian Pilots' Guild (IPG), comprising a major section of widebody pilots — likened pilots' working conditions to "bonded labourers."

The new compensation structure is effective April 1.
