Premium play: IndiGo to introduce business class

To be offered on 12 domestic routes, starting Nov 14

FE BUREAU New Delhi, August 5

AFTER SUCCESSFULLY RUNNING low-cost services for 18 years, IndiGo on Monday said it will introduce business class seats in select flights on 12 domestic routes, starting from November 14.

The airline also launched a customer loyalty programme, and is preparing to have wide-body A350 planes in 2027. These are part of the airline's measures to expand its business and strengthen its global presence. IndiGo CEO Pieter Elbers said the business class seats will be open for booking from August 6 and the business class passengers will be offered special, curated meals, which will be catered by Oberoi Hotels.

There will be a total of 12 seats in the configuration of 4 seats in 3 rows in the A321neo planes. These aircraft will have a total of 220 seats — 12 business and 208 economy class ones.

The introductory one-way fare for a business class seat will be starting at ₹18,018. Elbers said the business class seats will be available on the busiest and business routes, and will be started with Delhi-Mumbai flights. Currently, Tata Group-owned Air India, Air India Express and Vistara offer business class seats. The business class fare by these carriers on a Delhi-Mumbai route is around ₹25,000.

IndiGo has a domestic market share of nearly 61% and around 975 planes on order. At the end of June, the airline had 382 planes and operates over 2,000 flights daily, connecting more than 120 destinations.

The airline's customer loyalty programme, IndiGo BluChip, will go live in September. IndiGo is describing its business product as IndiGoStretch. "A total of 45 shipsets have been ordered to meet this upgrade, with each A321neo aircraft featuring 12 business class seats and 208 economy class seats. Aircraft deliveries are scheduled to begin in Q4 of the current fiscal, and all business class installations are expected to be completed by the end of 2025," the airline said in a statement.

About IndiGo BluChip, the airline said as part of the next phase of growth towards becoming a global aviation player, it is time to recognise and reward most frequent flyers through the new loyalty programme.

Pre-registrations started on Monday and the programme will go live in September. Elbers said the airline will launch flights to seven more international destinations in the current fiscal.

Currently, IndiGo operates more than 2,000 flights daily and flies to around 120 destinations, including 33 overseas cities. The 34th foreign destination will be Jaffna in Sri Lanka. The carrier will be getting A321 XLR planes in 2025 and wide-body A350 aircraft in 2027.

IndiGo and I are here to stay: Bhatia

INDIGO CO-FOUNDER AND managing director Rahul Bhatia on Monday said he and InterGlobe Enterprises are here to stay, saying that the recent stake sale was to raise funds for business and general corporate purposes.

Bhatia's remarks come against the backdrop of concerns in certain quarters about a promoter entity selling stake amid ambitious expansion plans of the airline.

In June, InterGlobe Enterprises sold 7.72 million shares, representing around 2% of the total share capital of InterGlobe Aviation, the parent of IndiGo.

Speaking at an event to mark 18 years of flying of IndiGo, an emotional Bhatia told the gathering the stake was sold to raise funds for business and general corporate purposes.

"It (the stake sale) is no more complex than that... InterGlobe and I are here to stay," Bhatia said.

Away from war, Team Ukraine wins battle on field, and more

MIHIR VASAVDA Paris, August 5

YAROSLAVA MAHUCHIKH'S TRADEMARK yellow-and-blue eye-liner, the colours of the Ukrainian flag she has draped herself in, sparkle under the bright lights of the Stade de France. The high jump gold medallist, who broke a 37-year-old world record last month, hugs compatriot Iryna Gerashchenko, the bronze winner.

At the other end of the field, Mykhaylo Kohkan, part of Ukraine's National Guard (its military force), watches his compatriots run a lap of honour. The hammer-thrower hopes he too can join them, his event isn't over yet. "(I) had prayed to God, 'Can I please stay in the medals?'" he would say later.

"I thought it would be very nice if I get the medal also, and we could celebrate together on this magical Olympic evening."

Kohkan's effort of 79.39 metres gets him the bronze. Gerashchenko, who, like Kohkan, had finished fourth at the Tokyo Olympics grins. "We did it! We are happy today!"

Inside this Parisian coliseum, the trio is painting a picture of resilience. It's Ukraine's finest hour at the Paris Olympics, winning three medals including a gold. On X, the war-ravaged country's president Volodymyr Zelenskyy showers praise on the trio: "We are very proud! Thank you for this result... Ukrainians know how to be strong and how to win."

At the stadium, the Ukrainians exit the ground to let the 100m sprinters take centre stage and walk into a dull, cramped room where reporters from close to two dozen countries surround them. Kohkan has an easy smile and oozes natural charm. But a crease appears on his forehead when asked if he'll have to join the battlefront now that the Olympics are over. "I don't know," he mutters.

Ukrainian athlete Yaroslava Mahuchikh (front) celebrates after winning the gold medal, with bronze medallist and compatriot Iryna Gerashchenko

Next to him, Gerashchenko breaks down, fearing for her friends and family. "I have many friends who are fighting now, and who died. It is very hard. They are very strong... This medal is for them. I can be here because they are at the front-line," she says.

In a quavering voice, Mahuchikh calls the moment "incredible," given the circumstances. "In my country, the Russians killed people and almost 500 sportsmen died in this war... they will never compete and celebrate and feel this atmosphere."

On the "biggest night" of her life, Mahuchikh's mind constantly goes back to the well-being of her family in Dnipro, her hometown. Home to military hospitals and rocket best hasn't been easy. Among the countries that were once a part of the Soviet bloc, Ukraine has been the best performer at the Olympics after Russia. When they left their homes, paused their lives and started afresh at new bases in new countries, these athletes wondered if Ukraine's sporting fortunes would dip.

It hasn't, at least given the situation. As of Monday afternoon, Ukraine, represented here by 142 athletes, has six medals, including two gold, the second won in fencing. Every medal and every medallist, though, has a story to tell.

Since the war began, hundreds of sports facilities across Ukraine have been destroyed. In Mariupol, the port city that's now occupied by Russia, an aquatic centre was bombed, forcing diver Stanislav Olinerchuk to alter his training plans.

Global firms lease 53 mn sq ft office space: Report

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, August 5

LEADING GLOBAL FIRMS have taken on lease nearly 53 million square feet of office space since 2022 across six major cities to set up Global Capability Centres (GCCs) with maximum demand in Bengaluru, according to CBRE and Zyooin.

In their joint report, property consultant CBRE and hiring solutions firm Zyooin highlighted that GCCs have significantly amplified their Indian operations over recent decades, propelled by a skilled workforce, cost efficiency, and a conducive business climate. This GCC growth trajectory is anticipated to be concentrated in India's top six metropolitan areas, driven by their exceptional talent pools, enabling expansion and future development. "Global corporations are affirming their long-term commitment to India by securing larger office spaces for their GCCs," the consultant said. Nearly 53 million square feet of office space was leased by GCCs between 2022 and the first half of 2024 across Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai, Pune, Delhi-NCR and Mumbai.

Out of these six cities, the share of Bengaluru in the total leasing for GCCs stood at 40%, followed by Hyderabad at 21% and Chennai at 14%.
