Speaking to reporters in Jharkhand, Soren has said, "I had mentioned three options-retirement, organization, or friend. I will not retire; I will strengthen the party, a new party, and if I meet a good friend on the

However, in a veiled remark targeting the BJP, he stated, "Forget about society; these people are focused on breaking homes and dismantling parties. Every other day, they either buy this MLA or that MLA."

Jammu & Kashmir elections: Omar to contest from Ganderbal assembly seat

TheStatesman

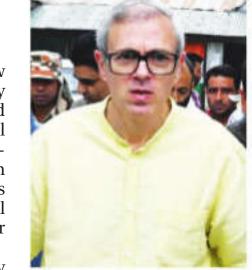

NEW DELHI, WEDNESDAY 28 AUGUST 2024

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE JAMMU, 27 AUGUST

Taking a U-turn on his vow of not contesting the assembly elections until Jammu and Kashmir was restored to full statehood, National Conference leader Omar Abdullah on Tuesday announced his candidature from traditional Ganderbal constituency for the upcoming elections.

Omar had unsuccessfully contested the Lok Sabha election from north Kashmir's Baramulla against Engineer Rashid who is in Tihar Jail on the charges of terror funding. However, Omar had firmly announced that he would not contest the assembly election until complete statehood was restored to J&K. He said that the Delhi or Puducherry type of statehood in which he will have to sit outside the room of Lt. Governor for appointment of his peon was not acceptable.

However, he took people by surprise when his name appeared in the list of 32 candidates released by the NC this morning. Omar in the past few days had dropped hints that he might reconsider his decision of not contesting the polls.

Speaking to media after the NC and Congress announced their seat-sharing arrangement on Monday, Omar Abdullah said he does not want to send out a "wrong signal" by asking his party colleagues to contest and the people to cast their votes for an assembly "that I may be suggesting that I look down upon".

This will be the third time Omar will contest from Ganderbal, which is considered a NC stronghold, from where he won in 2008 and 2014 but lost in 2002 from an insignificant PDP candidate. Three generations of the Abdullah family have won assembly elections from Ganderbal. NC founder and Omar's grandfather Sheikh Abdullah won the seat in 1977, Omar's father Farooq Abdullah won thrice in 1983, 1987 and 1996.

It is worth mentioning that NC chief Dr. Farooq Abdullah had a few days ago asserted that he will lead the party in the assembly elections and then he will resign and Omar will take over after J&K gets full statehood.

Giving the reason for changing his decision, Omar said, "I am conscious of one thing which I had not thought over fully, which is my mistake. If I was not ready to contest an election for an assembly, how can I get the people ready to vote for that assembly?" Abdullah explained. He further questioned, "How can I hope that my colleagues will seek votes for an assembly which I am not ready to accept or may be suggesting that I look down upon? It has put a pressure on me and I do not want to give a wrong signal to the people."

high-handedness on Nabanna Abhijan protesters

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, 27 AUGUST

BJP national president Jagat Prakash Nadda on Tuesday accused the West Bengal police of high handedness on the protesters in the Nabanna Abhijan. The rally was called on Tuesday to protest the rape-murder of a woman postgraduate trainee (PGT) doctor at RG Kar Medical College Hospital in West Bengal's Kolkata, recently.

In a post on X, the BJP chief wrote, "The images of police highhandedness from Kolkata have angered every person who values democratic principles."

In an apparent reference to West Bengal Chief Mamata Banerjee, Nadda said, "In Didi's West Bengal, to help rapists and criminals is valued but it's a crime to speak for women's safety."

Earlier, Nadda accused the ruling dispensation in the state that it tried to "hush up" the matter.

"The way the West Bengal government tried to hush up this matter, I condemn it. There is no law and order in the for their fellow student." "Offenders are being protected in Bengal. The administration of Mamata's government is biased and we cannot expect justice from them. Mamata Banerjee is a dictator," he said.

Youth vs Old Guard tussle in DMK comes out in open

MC RAJAN

CHENNAL 27 AUGUST

Even as the friendly spat between superstar Rajinikanth and DMK veteran and Tamil Nadu Public Works Minister Duraimurugan over old guards refusing to step aside appeared to have come to an end with a truce, the debate on elders in the party paving way for the youth has received a renewed thrust ahead of Chief Minister MK Stalin's fortnight-long US visit.

DMKYouth Wing secretary and Sports Minister Udhayanidhi Stalin made an appeal to the old warhorses in the party to make way for youngsters, bringing the tussle to the fore. "The youth are ready to join the DMK in large numbers and prepared to occupy responsible positions. We have to hold them by hand, guide them and make way for them. This is my

But, the two had patched up with both claiming to be good friends and Duraimurugan saying "It is banter not to be taken as acrimony." Referring to the superstar's remark on veterans, Udhayanidhi said "All of you know what Rajinikanth had said. And you also know for which he drew huge applause." According to analysts,

Alarm over electrocution death of elephants in Chhattisgarh

SHISHIR ROY

RAIPUR, 27 AUGUST

A surge in elephant electrocutions set alarm bells ringing in Chhattisgarh, where 21 majestic creatures have fallen prev to power lines in just two years.

Even as three added to the jumbo death toll this year, the Forest and Energy departments' prolonged blame game over the responsibility and funding has paralysed efforts to address the crisis, leaving the elephant population vulnerable to this avoidable fate. As coal mining operations expand unchecked, the state's inaction risks turning this tragedy into a full-blown epidemic.

Since its inception as a state in November 2000, Chhattisgarh witnessed a staggering 77 electrocution deaths of elephants. Despite this alarming toll, bureaucratic red tape and a clear lack of accountability between the Forest and Energy departments have hindered efforts to implement vital protective measures. The result is a deadly status quo, with the state's elephant population remaining perilously exposed to this avoidable fate.

The conflict over funding and implementation of safety measures to prevent these deaths persisted for years, but recent developments have seen the two departments finally reach an agreement. Both the Forest and Energy departments have filed affidavits in the High Court, outlining their commitment to addressing the issue. Historically, elephants in Chhattisgarh were primarily found in the Sarguja division and Korba-Raigarh districts. However, with the commencement of coal mining operations in these areas, they have been forced to migrate to other regions, leading to increased human-animal conflicts and, tragically, more fatalities. Many of these deaths occur when elephants come into contact with low-hanging power lines or are deliberately targeted by people using live wires.

In response to the rising death toll, the Central government has repeatedly directed state authorities to enforce Section 77 of the Indian ElectricityAct, 1956, which specifies the minimum height for power lines based on their voltage. Despite these instructions, the state's Forest and Energy departments have failed to take effective action against the menace.

In March 2019, following a high court directive, the Chhattisgarh State Power Distribution Company asked for 1,674 crore from the Forest department to raise the height of 810 kilometers of 33 kV lines, 3,761 kilometers of 11 kV lines, and to install covered conductors. However, the Ministry of Environment, Forest, and Climate Change clarified that this responsibility falls on the power distribution companies, as per the Supreme Court's rulings.

It has been two months since a high-level meeting decided to take steps to prevent elephant electrocutions on June 26, 2024. The plan involves tightening sagging wires, raising power line heights, and using insulated cables in forest areas and elephant corridors. However, the absence of a deadline for completion has raised concerns about the government's commitment to addressing this critical issue. The delay in implementation has sparked doubts about the urgency with which these measures will be taken.

(b) Members holding equity shares of the Company in Dematerialised Mode, who have not registered/updated their email addresses with their Depository Participant (DP), are requested to register/update their email addresses with the DP with whom they maintain their Demat Account.
