15.05.2024 sum of Rs.64,41,620/- is pending against Petitioner No.2. In view of the same, a case for eviction and rent recovery bearing No. HC Case No. 44 of 2023 before the Ld. Rent Controller cum SDM Dhanbad seeking recovery of sum of Rs.43,91,836.68 along with compensation and future interest against Applicant No.2 was filed and the same is pending for adjudication.

2.1. In respect of the same, the Petitioner Company No.2 has filed affidavit in reply dated 11.07.2024 wherein it is stated that the Petitioner Company had executed a registered lease deed dated 3rd May 2017 with the Objector. In terms of clause 9.1 of the lease deed, the Petitioner company was entitled to appoint franchisee to operate the business and in terms of clause 14.2, the Petitioner was entitled to terminate the lease agreement by issuance of 3 months' notice. The Petitioner timely discharged the monthly lease rentals of store in favour of Objector till time of termination of the lease agreement. In the month of January'2021, the Petitioner company decided not to continue the business operation from the premise and accordingly Termination Notice dated 4th January 2021 was issued to the Objector in terms of clause 14.2 of the lease deed dated 3rd May 2017 whereby the effective date of termination was mentioned as 7th April, 2021.

2.2. It was also informed to the Objector that the rentals during the notice period would be adjusted from the interest free refundable security deposit. The franchisee agreement executed by and between the Petitioner and Pushpalata Kumari expired by efflux of time on 28th February, 2021. Though the franchisee agreement expired, the franchisee in breach of the agreement refused to complete the handover obligations and started making extortion demands. On 6th April 2021, letter was issued by Petitioner company to Objector intimating its surrender of leasehold rights. It also informed the illegal padlock on the premises by Pushpalata Kumari and called upon Objector to take appropriate action against the Pushpalata Kumari for handover of the premises. The Petitioner called upon the Objector to take appropriate action against the unauthorized occupants and also clarified that 8th April, 2021 onwards, the Petitioner would not be responsible for any rentals and/or other charges.

2.3. Thereafter, as per the terms of the franchise agreement, since the civil disputes is exclusively vested with the Civil Court at Bangalore, as such on or about 13th August, 2021, the Petitioner herein filed a commercial suit being No. Comm (OS) No. 522 of 2021 before Commercial Court at Bangalore against Pushpalata Kumari and also impleaded the Objector.

2.4. We have considered the submission of the objector as well the representative of the Petitioner Companies. We note that the Transferee Company has total 7961 unsecured creditors for the value of Rs. 31,10,02,29,127/-. The objector has raised an objection stating that an amount of Rs.64,41,620/- is pending against the Transferee towards rental dues. Proviso to Section 230 (4) of the Companies Act, 2013 states that "any objection to the compromise or arrangement shall be made only by persons holding not less than ten per cent of the shareholding or having outstanding debt amounting to not less than five per cent. of the total outstanding debt as per the latest audited financial statement." However, the Objector is having only 0.02% value of the total unsecured creditors of the Transferee Company. Therefore, the objector does not meet the criteria as provided u/s 230(4) of the Act. Further, a suit is also pending before the Ld. Rent Controller-cum-SDM, Dhanbad and Commercial Court at Bangalore. Therefore, this Bench is of the view that the dues of the objector can be settled subject to the outcome of matters pending before learned Ld. Rent Controller cum SDM Dhanbad and Commercial Court at Bangalore and no prejudice whatsoever is caused to objector if the present scheme is allowed as the claims shall be enforceable against the Transferee Company.
