Americans await economic changes they've voted for

Trump vowed to topple Biden's many economic policies

ASSOCIATED PRESS
Washington, November 9

FED UP WITH high prices and unimpressed with an economy that by just about any measure is healthy one, Americans demanded change when they voted for president. They could get it. President-elect Donald Trump has vowed to topple many of the Biden administration's economic policies. Trump campaigned on promises to impose huge tariffs on foreign goods, slash taxes on individuals and businesses and deport millions of undocumented immigrants working in the US.

With their votes, tens of millions of Americans expressed their confidence that Trump can restore the low prices and economic stability they recall from his first term — at least until the Covid-19 recession of 2020 paralysed the economy and then a powerful recovery sent inflation soaring. Inflation has since plummeted and is nearly back to normal. Yet Americans are frustrated over still-high prices. "His track record proved to be, on balance, positive, and people look back now and think: 'Oh, OK. Let's try that again,'" said Douglas Holtz-Eakin, a former White House economic adviser, director of the Congressional Budget Office and now president of the conservative American Action Forum think tank. Since Election Day, the Dow Jones Industrial Average has skyrocketed more than 1,700 points, largely on expectations that tax cuts and a broad loosening of regulations will accelerate economic growth and swell corporate profits. Maybe they will.

Yet many economists warn that Trump's plans are likely to worsen the inflation he's vowed to eradicate, drive up the federal debt and eventually slow growth.

Trump policies could boost inflation: The Peterson Institute for International Economics, a leading think tank, has estimated that Trump's policies would slash the US gross domestic product — the total output of goods and services — by between $1.5 trillion and $6.4 trillion through 2028. Peterson also estimated that Trump's proposals would drive prices sharply higher within two years. Inflation, which would otherwise come in at 1.9% in 2026, would instead jump to between 6% and 9.3% if Trump's policies were enacted in full.

Last month, 23 Nobel-winning economists signed a letter warning that a Trump administration "will lead to higher prices, larger deficits, and greater inequality." Among the most important determinants of economic success," they

Iranian charged in plot to kill Trump

THE JUSTICE DEPT. disclosed an Iranian murder-for-hire plot to kill Donald Trump, charging a man who said he had been tasked by a govt. official with planning his assassination. The accused Iranian government asset allegedly spent time in American prisons for robbery and maintained a network of criminal associates enlisted by Tehran for surveillance and murder-for-hire plots.

wrote, "are the rule of law and economic and political certainty, and Trump threatens all of these." Trump is inheriting an economy that, despite frustratingly high prices, looks fundamentally strong.

Growth came in at a healthy 2.8% annual rate from July through September. Unemployment is 4.1% — quite low by historic standards. Among wealthy countries, only Spain will experience faster growth this year, according to the IMF forecast.

The Federal Reserve is so confident that US inflation is slowing toward its 2% target that it cut its benchmark rate in September and again this week.

Canada ends fast-track visa for international students

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Ottawa, November 9

CANADA HAS ENDED with immediate effect the popular fast-track study visa programme, SDS, a major policy decision that is likely to impact scores of international students, including from India. The processing time for students applying under the Student Direct Stream (SDS) was significantly shorter and approval rates higher, something that will change after Canada ended the scheme on Friday.

PM Justin Trudeau in September had announced on X: "We're granting 35% fewer international student permits this year. And next year, that number's going down by another 10%." Immigration is an advantage for our economy — but when bad actors abuse the system and take advantage of students, we crack down," he added in the post as the Canadian government said it was looking to reduce the number of temporary residents. The move comes amid the ongoing diplomatic row between India and Canada.

According to the Indian High Commission here, India is the largest source country of foreign students with an estimated 4,27,000 Indian students studying in Canada. "Canada is committed to giving all international students equal and fair access to the application process for study permits," the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) said in a statement on Friday.

Canada's goal is to "strengthen programme integrity, address student vulnerability, and give all students equal and fair access to the application process, as well as a positive academic experience," the statement said.

The SDS was launched in 2018 to provide faster processing for eligible post-secondary students, it said, adding it was eventually opened to legal residents of Antigua and Barbuda, Brazil, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, India, Morocco, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Senegal, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, and Vietnam. There was a similar Nigeria Student Express (NSE) for prospective university students from Nigeria; it too has ended along with the SDS, the statement said, adding, both the SDS and the NSE initiatives ended on Friday.

The IRCC gave a cut off time of 2:00 pm ET on Friday (00:30 IST Saturday), and said all the eligible SDS and NSE applications received before it will be processed under these streams.

At least 26 dead in Pak railway station blast

A SUICIDE BOMBER blew himself up at a train station in restive southwestern Pakistan on Saturday, killing at least 26 people, including soldiers and railway staff, and wounding about 62 others, some critically, officials said. The attack happened when nearly 100 passengers were waiting for a train to travel to the garrison city of Rawalpindi from Quetta, the capital of Balochistan province, according to Hamza Shafqaat, a senior government administrator.

TV footage showed the steel structure of the platform's roof blown apart and a destroyed tea stall. Luggage was strewn everywhere. Police said about a dozen soldiers and six railway employees were among the dead. A separatist group, the Balochistan Liberation Army, claimed the attack in a statement, saying a suicide bomber targeted troops present at the railway station. The outlawed BLA has long waged an insurgency seeking independence from Islamabad.
