Suhas, Thulasimathi bag silver medals

Nitesh clinches gold in paralympic badminton

Big medal haul; Nithya, Manisha get bronze

Paris, Sep 3: Nithya Sre Sivan won the bronze medal for India in the newly-introduced women's singles badminton SH6 class at the Paris 2024 Paralympics on Monday.

It was India's eighth medal of the day and fifth in badminton, all won on the same day. India won four medals in badminton at the Tokyo 2020 Paralympics.

The 19-year-old Nithya, who came into the tournament as a top seed, dominated Indonesia's Rina Medina to win the contest 21-14, 21-6 in just 23 minutes.

The Indian shuttler made the bronze medal match after she was beaten by the People's Republic of China's Lin Shuangbao 21-13, 21-19 in the SH6 semi-finals.

Athletes competing in the SH6 class have short stature and play in standing positions. S in SH stands for 'standing' while H stands for 'short stature'.

Earlier in the day, Indian badminton player Nitesh Kumar won the gold medal in the men's singles SL3 class. Suhas Yathiraj won silver in the men's singles SL4 Thulasimathi Murugesan and Manisha Ramadass won silver and bronze, respectively, in the women's singles SU5 class.

Nitesh, the 29-year-old Indian para-badminton player took one hour and 20 minutes to win the title, ensuring India's second straight gold medal in the SL3 class event. Pramod Bhagat won the gold medal at Tokyo 2020 in the same class with a win over the same opponent.

Interestingly, It was Nitesh Kumar's first win over Daniel Bethell in 10 attempts. The British badminton player threatened to keep his unbeaten run alive with a late surge in the third game but the world No. 1 Indian held his nerves to clinch a gold medal on his Paralympic Games debut.

"Even before stepping onto the court, I knew it was going to be a mental game. I just wanted to keep my calm and that worked for me in the first set," Nitesh Kumar, a graduate from the Indian Institutes of Technology, said after the match.

Nithya's Paralympic medal took India's tally at Paris 2024 to 15. It is only the second time in the Paralympics history that India have crossed the 10-medal mark.

India won 19 medals, including five golds at the Tokyo 2020 Paralympics for their best show in the competition. At Paris 2024, India have won three gold medals so far.

Indian parathlete Nishad Kumar has once again demonstrated his exceptional talent by securing a silver medal in the men's high jump T47 event, which includes athletes with upper limb impairments, muscle power deficiencies, or restricted passive range of movement.

This remarkable achievement marks India's seventh medal at the Games and adds to Nishad's impressive record as herepicates his silver medal performance from the Tokyo 2020 Paralympics.

Athlead Goa Challengers are now in third place on the league table with 37 points, while U Mumba TT are placed fourth with 36 points. On Tuesday, former champions Chennai Lions will lock horns with Purneri Paltan Table Tennis with one eye on making it to the last-four stage.

In the first men's singles, Quadri Aruna edged out Harneet Desai 2-1 (11-7, 4-11, 11-10) in a tight contest to hand U Mumba TT the early advantage.

Maria Xiao, who was later adjudged the Foreign Player of the Match, bolstered the lead for U Mumba TT with a 2-1 (9-11, 10-11, 11-9) win in the first women's singles against Yangzi Liu, who has now lost three matches on the trot this season.

Yangzi Liu made amends when she joined Harneet Desai to beat the U Mumba TT pair of Maria Xiao and Manav Thakkar 2-1 (11-6, 10-11, 11-7) in the mixed doubles match to reduce the deficit for Athlead Goa Challengers. Mihai Bobocica came up with an impressive performance to beat the talented Manav Thakkar 2-1 (11-6, 11-8, 7-11) as Athlead Goa Challengers drew level at six points each. Cheap Cars Around Us..!

"Our engineers burned the midnight oil to produce this car," said the MD as he showed me into his factory in the outskirts of the city, "and after the lockdown, we thought this was just the car for your highly strained pocket!"

"And this car will cost less than a lakh?" I asked surprised.

"Less than fifty thousand!" said the beaming managing director as he took me to the workshop area, "There's it! The cheap car the whole country wants!"

"It's beautiful!" I chortled.

"The paint we've used is the latest in oven finish technology," said the MD proudly. "The gloss will retain its sheen even after a month."

"There must be somewhere you have cut costs to price a model so low!" I whispered in disbelief.

"Safety belts with imported buckles!" continued the MD.

"Superb!" I said in awe.

"No nonsense seats that will wear out the toughest butt, before wearing itself out!"

"Unbelievable!" I exclaimed.

"Fibre glass bumpers that will not damage the car in front!"

"Nor the car behind!" I shouted with glee.

"Headlights with screw-on-bulbs!"

"Brilliant!"

"Tinted glasses!"

"Awesome!"

The managing director of the automobile company looked at me with unconcealed pride. "This is what the nation has been crying for!" he said. "Our shares will hit the roof!"

"You will be listed on the New York exchange too," I said.

"People will praise us for being thrifty but nifty," he said, "they will now have money left to put in their banks!"

"Yes," I shouted.

"We'll teach a new global philosophy, that cheap is cool!" laughed the MD as he gave me a high five. "Will you mention this in your newspaper column?"

"Ofcourse," I said.

"Let's go to my office for some champagne!"

"Let's take the car for a spin," I said eagerly.

"A what?" asked the puzzled managing director.

"For a drive," I explained pleasantly.

"It can't be driven," said the MD slowly. "For that you'll have to install an engine."

"It doesn't have an engine?" I asked incredulously.

"What do you expect for fifty thousand rupees?" shouted the MD as he pushed me out of the workshop and onto the road outside. "A car with an engine?"

And as you chuckle, think about how we ourselves are fooled: "Are we fooled by political rulers who have no engine, which means no interest for the country? Policemen who sit in police stations, not willing to note down FIRS? Priests in religious places with no engine of spirituality in them? Corporate executives who do not have the growth of the company on their agenda?"

Are we being fooled everyday with outer fancy work and no engines?

Look for the engine, the zeal and passion that should burn in people who lead and look after our welfare, and if we find no engine, throw them out; they are as useless as fancy cars that you cannot drive..!
