Cong's LPG cylinder promise to infiltrators sparks a row

Dheeraj Kumar
RANCHI

Ahead of the second phase of Jharkhand assembly election, AICC in charge of the state Ghulam Ahmad Mir promised subsidised LPG cylinders to infiltrators if his party came to power after the election, attracting sharp reactions from BJP.

Addressing an election rally in support of Congress candidate Kumar Jaimangal aka Anoop Singh in Bermo in Bokaro district, Mir said that every household would be provided gas cylinders at a subsidised rate of Rs 450 from December 1 if his party came to power.

PM raps Cong over LPG for infiltrators remark

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday lambasted Congress's Jharkhand in charge Ghulam Ahmad Mir for promising subsidised LPG cylinders to everyone, including "infiltrators".

"Their (Congress) leader is openly declaring that they will give infiltrators, Rohingyas, Bangladeshi - gas cylinders at cheaper rates. It's the example of how they are playing with the future of your children's future for the sake of that factor will be considered," he remarked.

"BJP has been in power at the Centre for the last 10 years but has not been able to identify infiltrators. BJP has to explain who infiltrators are?" he commented, giving a handle to BJP to attack Congress when the infiltration is the main plank of the party (BJP).

of votes," PM Modi said while addressing a rally at Panvel in Maharashtra.

The Prime Minister cautioned the people against Congress's vote bank politics and said the grand old party is against the poor.

The related video was shared by BJP's C R Kvan on 'X'. Reacting sharply to Mir's comment, union agriculture minister and Jharkhand BJP election in-charge Shivraj Singh Chouhan said, "Ghulam Ahmad Mir is actually saying that Congress will subsidise gas cylinders for infiltrators at Rs 450. This proves that JMM and Congress are the real patrons of illegal immigrants, even facilitating the preparation of fake documents for them. Is this the future they envision for Jharkhand?"

On the other hand, state BJP president Babul Marandi accused Mir of making an attempt to incite communal polarisation by making such a statement. He also urged the Election Commission (EC) to take prompt action in this connection as Congress was openly declaring that Bangladeshi infiltrators would receive gas cylinders at subsidised rates.

"If the Congress-JMM alliance continues to hold power, it will be at the cost of the rights of Jharkhand's indigenous tribal communities. These infiltrators will be settled on tribal lands, and the Congress is using such populist promises to get votes of a particular community," he claimed.

Don't you dare to touch me: Sidda to ED

BENGALURU

With Enforcement Directorate (ED) inching closer to summon him and his wife in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) alternative plot allotment scam, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah dared the BJP to touch him.

The CM said in a function in Mysuru late on Wednesday that "if anyone attempted to touch him, people of the State will not keep quiet."

Referring to attempts of destabilising his government,

Siddaramaiah alleged that the BJP was ready to buy Congress MLAs by offering a whopping Rs 50 crore each. "But none of our MLAs could be purchased," he said. Referring to harassment non-BJP CM's like Arvind Kejriwa (Delhi), Hemanth Soren (Jharkhand), he said that the BJP has been targeting Opposition party leaders by registering false and fabricated cases against them. "Now they are targeting me," he said.

Siddaramaiah's comments are said to be aimed at ED inching closer to serving him and his wife BM Parvathi, one of the co-accused in the MUDA alternative plot allotment case, notices to appear before it.

A day after former IAS officer and Congress MP Kumarnaik and the CM's personal aide CT Kumar were summoned, the ED on Thursday summoned former MUDA chairman and Siddaramaiah's close confidant K Marigowda and previous Tahasildhar of Mysuru Mallige Shankar to question.

Irfan Ansari & Sita Soren locked in intense contest

Dheeraj Kumar
RANCHI

Jamtara, a notorious hub for online fraud, is set to witness a keen electoral battle between Congress candidate and minister Irfan Ansari and BJP candidate Sita Soren, daughter-in-law of JMM founder Shibu Soren.

Jamtara is scheduled to poll in the second phase of Jharkhand assembly election, scheduled on November 20. The first phase of assembly election was held on Wednesday witnessing an estimated voter turnout of 66.48 percent. Results will be declared on November 23.

In the run up to the poll, Jamtara constituency witnessed an unusual face-off between Congress and JMM candidates and Sita Soren, wife of Shibu Soren's eldest son Durga Soren who passed away in 2009.

Ansari allegedly referred to Sita Soren and called her a "rejected" and a "borrowed" player, soon after he filed his nomination papers. His remark virtually triggered a political row as even his apology failed to move her and her new party.

Sita broke down as she spoke before the media about the remarks made by Irfan. She contended the tribal community would never forgive him and accused him of making such comments as her husband was no more.

CANDIDATES PROFILE

Irfan Hussain

Irfan Ansari was born on 17 January 1975 in Deoghar, Jharkhand. He studied at AN College, Patna. Later in 2000, he did his MD from Ukraine. He is a doctor by profession. In the 2014 assembly elections, he defeated BJP's Birendra Mandal by a margin of 9137 votes. He is a cabinet minister in the Hemant Soren government, holding the charge of rural development, rural works and Panchayati Raj departments.

Sita Soren

Born on February 21, 1975, Sita Soren completed her Intermediate of Arts from DGSS Inter College under Jharkhand Academic Council in 2009. She was accused of receiving money from RK Agarwal in the 2012 RS polls as more than Rs 2 crore were seized from her residence.

Sita Soren's daughter Jayshree Soren also registered an FIR against Irfan under the SC/ST Atrocities Act for allegedly making derogatory remarks about her.

Bomb in Indigo flight, proved hoax call, passenger arrested

RAIPUR

A Kolkata bound indigo flight having 187 passengers on board was forced to make an emergency landing at the Raipur airport on Thursday morning after one of the passengers intimidated the crew member about presence of live "bomb" on the aircraft, officials said.

After landing at the airport in capital city Raipur, the aeroplane was thoroughly checked by a joint security force team including CISF, Raipur police, bomb defusing squad, but nothing suspicious was found in the flight. After the bomb threat was found as a hoax call, police lodged a complaint against the passenger under the provisions of Aviation Act 1992 and by arresting him sent to jail.

The flight 6E-812, with 187 passengers and six crew members on board, landed at the Swami Vivekananda Airport in Raipur sometime after 9 am following the passenger's claim about the bomb in the plane Raipur SSP Santosh Singh told media.

After full sanitation the bomb in the flight concluded into a hoax call and finally police arrested the passenger, the SSP said. The accused was identified as Animesh Mandal, resident of Nagpur.

New BJP prez likely to be in office by Jan '25

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar
NEW DELHI

The new president of the Bharatiya Janata Party will be elected following close consultations between Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the ideological mentor of the party, the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh. The BJP is at the moment on a "correction course" with respect to the RSS, who it had antagonised with the comments of the incumbent president J.P. Nadda ahead of the Lok Sabha elections.

Nadda's statement that the BJP was no longer dependent on the RSS for fighting elections -- as it was now "Saksham" (capable), as opposed to earlier when it was "aksham" (incapable) -- had not gone down well with the organisation cadre and they had largely stayed away from actively campaigning for the party, leading to a sharp decline in its Lok Sabha tally. However, since then the BJP had made amends and pacified the RSS through a slew of step -- including getting the ban removed on government servants joining it.

The party is this time also expected to have a person with RSS background as its president. The process for selection of the next president was set rolling last month with the announcement of the name of K. Laxman, the national president of BJP's OBC Morcha, as the national returning officer.

Jamtara, a notorious hub for online fraud, is set to witness a keen electoral battle between Congress candidate and minister Irfan Ansari and BJP candidate Sita Soren, daughter-in-law of JMM founder Shibu Soren.

Jamtara is scheduled to poll in the second phase of Jharkhand assembly election, scheduled on November 20. The first phase of assembly election was held on Wednesday witnessing an estimated voter turnout of 66.48 percent. Results will be declared on November 23.

In the run up to the poll, Jamtara constituency witnessed an unusual face-off between Congress and JMM candidates and Sita Soren, wife of Shibu Soren's eldest son Durga Soren who passed away in 2009.

Ansari allegedly referred to Sita Soren and called her a "rejected" and a "borrowed" player, soon after he filed his nomination papers. His remark virtually triggered a political row as even his apology failed to move her and her new party.

Sita broke down as she spoke before the media about the remarks made by Irfan. She contended the tribal community would never forgive him and accused him of making such comments as her husband was no more.

CANDIDATES PROFILE

Irfan Hussain

Irfan Ansari was born on 17 January 1975 in Deoghar, Jharkhand. He studied at AN College, Patna. Later in 2000, he did his MD from Ukraine. He is a doctor by profession. In the 2014 assembly elections, he defeated BJP's Birendra Mandal by a margin of 9137 votes. He is a cabinet minister in the Hemant Soren government, holding the charge of rural development, rural works and Panchayati Raj departments.

Sita Soren

Born on February 21, 1975, Sita Soren completed her Intermediate of Arts from DGSS Inter College under Jharkhand Academic Council in 2009. She was accused of receiving money from RK Agarwal in the 2012 RS polls as more than Rs 2 crore were seized from her residence.

Sita Soren's daughter Jayshree Soren also registered an FIR against Irfan under the SC/ST Atrocities Act for allegedly making derogatory remarks about her.

Bomb in Indigo flight, proved hoax call, passenger arrested

Avdhesh Mallick
RAIPUR

A Kolkata bound indigo flight having 187 passengers on board was forced to make an emergency landing at the Raipur airport on Thursday morning after one of the passengers intimidated the crew member about presence of live "bomb" on the aircraft, officials said.

After landing at the airport in capital city Raipur, the aeroplane was thoroughly checked by a joint security force team including CISF, Raipur police, bomb defusing squad, but nothing suspicious was found in the flight. After the bomb threat was found as a hoax call, police lodged a complaint against the passenger under the provisions of Aviation Act 1992 and by arresting him sent to jail.

The flight 6E-812, with 187 passengers and six crew members on board, landed at the Swami Vivekananda Airport in Raipur sometime after 9 am following the passenger's claim about the bomb in the plane Raipur SSP Santosh Singh told media.

After full sanitation the bomb in the flight concluded into a hoax call and finally police arrested the passenger, the SSP said. The accused was identified as Animesh Mandal, resident of Nagpur.

New BJP prez likely to be in office by Jan '25

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar

The new president of the Bharatiya Janata Party will be elected following close consultations between Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the ideological mentor of the party, the Rashtriya Swayamsewak Sangh. The BJP is at the moment on a "correction course" with respect to the RSS, who it had antagonised with the comments of the incumbent president J.P. Nadda ahead of the Lok Sabha elections.

Nadda's statement that the BJP was no longer dependent on the RSS for fighting elections -- as it was now "Saksham" (capable), as opposed to earlier when it was "aksham" (incapable) -- had not gone down well with the organisation cadre and they had largely stayed away from actively campaigning for the party, leading to a sharp decline in its Lok Sabha tally. However, since then the BJP had made amends and pacified the RSS through a slew of step -- including getting the ban removed on government servants joining it.

The party is this time also expected to have a person with RSS background as its president. The process for selection of the next president was set rolling last month with the announcement of the name of K. Laxman, the national president of BJP's OBC Morcha, as the national returning officer.
