2. Management Discussion & Analysis (M D &A): Review of Business & Outlook

Your company remains a preferred supplier for several software requirements. Stockbrokers are showing a renewed interest in our software which is of the highest quality. Additionally, ERP system for manufacturing, processing and stock control has been the focus of the company.

In the stock markets, SEBI has increased compliance regulations exponentially and the result is that several brokers are preferring to shut down the business rather than comply with all the regulations. Keeping this in mind, the focus of the Company has shifted to other products especially Online opening of Accounts for Stockbrokers.

The mobile market in India is the second largest in the world after China, and Mobile applications developed by your company have shown great acceptance and will continue to be the prime mover. The Global Mobile Applications market is poised to grow at a sustained rate and the number of users of smart phones will soon cross more than half the population of the country. The Online KYC package - and it's Mobile versions - developed by your Company has been accepted by Extremely large Broking houses.

Opportunities and Threats

The Online KYC model so far has been targeted at very large broking houses. To cater to smaller brokers, the software is being modified to be offered in a SAAS (Software As A Service) configuration.

Absence of skilled manpower, high cost of development, high cost of user acquisition, competition driven by independent and freelance developers and the high cost of marketing are major impediments to growth.

Outlook

With the release of our KYC package, we envisage many brokers accepting the system. Since this is virtually independent of SEBI regulations, we see a bright future for the product.

The pandemic has mostly affected the business and the possibility of meeting potential new customers has reduced to a great extent. Also, with the new compliances being brought in for Stockbrokers by SEBI the number of brokers giving up their membership is increasing.

Risk and Concerns

- 1. The first major problem developed in recent times subject to added different legal laws and norms.
- 2. Another major problem the need to develop the optimum mix of employees. A big dilemma is to get the balance correct in terms of recruitment.

Internal control systems and their adequacy

The Company has a proper and adequate system of internal controls. This ensures that all transactions are authorized, recorded and reported correctly, and assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorized use or disposition. In addition, there are operational controls and fraud risk controls, covering the entire spectrum of internal financial controls. The Company has an Internal Control System, commensurate with the size, scale and complexity of its operations.

Discussion on financial performance with respect to operational performance

During the year under review, your Company made a Turnover of Rs. 93.06 Lakhs as against Rs. 96.00 Lakhs for the previous year and had a loss of Rs. 101.33 Lakhs as against a loss of Rs. 9.66 Lakhs for the previous year.

Material development in Human Resource & Industrial Relations

There are no significant developments in human resources and number of people employed. However, all our efforts were made to retain the talent and improve the productivity.

3. Change in the nature of business

There were no changes in the nature of business of the Company during the financial year 2023-2024.

4. Deposits

The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public during the year in pursuant to Section 73 of the Companies Act, 2013.

5. Material Changes and Commitments

The offer was managed by CIL Securities Limited, acting as the Manager to the Offer, for and on behalf of the Acquirers.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the financial statements.

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significant in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Directors Report and Corporate Governance Report but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Directors Report and Corporate Governance Report are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Directors report and Corporate Governance Report if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the IND AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate implementation and maintenance of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

• Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

I. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS:

Transactions in foreign currencies are accounted at functional currency, at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transactions. Gains / losses arising out of the fluctuations in the exchange rate between functional currency and foreign currency are recognized in the Statement of Profit & Loss in the period in which they arise.

The fluctuations between foreign currency and functional currency relating to monetary items at the year ending are accounted as gains / losses in the Statement of Profit & Loss

J) INCOME TAX

Tax expense comprises of current and deferred taxes.

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. The management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

K. PROVISIONS & CONTINGENCIES:

Provisions are recognized in the books when there is a present obligation as a result of past events involving substantial degree of estimation and it is probable that there will be an outflow of economic resources. contingent liabilities, if any, are not recognized but are disclosed in the notes.

L. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS:

Non-Derivative Financial Instruments:

Non-derivative financial instruments are recognized initially at fair value when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Dividend and interest income are recognized when earned.

Non-derivative financial instruments consists of

a) Financial Assets which includes Cash and Cash equivalents, trade receivables, unbilled revenue and eligible current and non-current assets.

b) Financial Liabilities includes short term and long term borrowings bank overdrafts, trade payables and eligible current and non-current liabilities.

Bank overdraft, if any are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the Balance Sheet.

Receivables

Trade and other receivables

Receivables are initially recognized at fair value, which in most cases approximates the nominal value. If there is any subsequent indication that those may be impaired, they are reviewed for impairment.

Trade and other payables

Liabilities are recognized for amounts to be paid in future for goods or services received, Whether billed by the supplier or not.

M. EVENTS AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD

Fair Value Hierarchy

Management considers that, the carrying amount of those financial assets and financial liabilities that are not subsequently measured at fair value in the Financial Statements approximate their transaction value. No financial instruments are recognized and measured at fair value for which fair values are determined using the judgments and estimates. The fair value of Financial Instruments referred below has been classified into three categories depending on the inputs used in the valuation technique. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active market for identical assets or liabilities. (Level-1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable (Level-3 measurements). The categories used are as follows:

 Level 1 - Level 1 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets.

- Level 2 Level 2 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3 Level 3 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).
