MGR-Janaki Women's College vibes to Aadi Perukku

Chemnai, Aug 3:
Over 4,000 vibrant students from Dr. MGR-Janaki Women's College took Aadi Perukku celebrations to the next level, showing immense gratitude for rivers on the eighteenth day of the Tamil month of Aadi. Decked out in colorful half-sarees and sarees, these students embraced tradition with flair, making the event a true spectacle of Tamil culture.

The festivities were nothing short of spectacular. Students took part in 'mulaipari' worship, carrying earthen pots brimming with sprouts from nine different types of grains and legumes. They floated lamps in a small pond, recreating the traditional river rituals. And of course, no celebration is complete without a feast! The girls savored delicious 'chitramam', featuring a variety of rice dishes like lemon rice, tamarind rice, and coconut rice.

But that's not all. The theme of 'save water' was highlighted through a series of energetic folk dances. The students wowed the crowd with 'kummiyattam', a lively circle dance; 'thappattam', set to the beats of the ancient 'thappu' drum; 'oyilattam', another popular group dance; 'mayilattam', the enchanting peacock dance; and 'kaavadi aattam', a devotional dance dedicated to Lord Murugan.

Dr. Kumar Rajendran, Chairman of Dr. MGR Janaki College for Women, emphasized the importance of such celebrations. "Rivers are our lifeline, especially for farmers. Aadi Perukku is a time-honored tradition to honor and thank rivers in Tamil culture. Today, more than ever, we need to respect and conserve our water bodies due to the environmental challenges we face. Our college celebrates Aadi Perukku to raise awareness about water usage, conservation, and the revival of water bodies," he said.

The event also featured expert discussions on the social, cultural, and environmental significance of Aadi Perukku. Traditional practices, music, and dance forms of Tamil culture were showcased, making the celebration both educational and entertaining.

All in all, the Aadi Perukku celebration at Dr. MGR-Janaki Women's College was a vibrant, joyous event that resonated with the youth and kept the spirit of Tamil culture alive and thriving!
