JOB FAIR

CK Shah Vijapurwala Institute of Management (CKSVIM) organised a Job Fair for MBA final-year students, providing them with valuable career opportunities. The event saw participation from nine reputed companies and 80 aspiring students, creating a dynamic platform for recruitment and career growth.

This initiative highlights CKSVIM's commitment to providing quality education and career support to its students. The job fair concluded on a high note, with students expressing gratitude for the opportunity. Campus Reporter: Ms Darshi Shah

The job fair aimed to bridge the gap between industry and academia, allowing students to interact with recruiters, understand industry expectations, and explore potential career paths. The participating companies conducted interviews and assessments to identify suitable candidates for various roles. The event was a significant step towards enhancing employability, with many students receiving positive responses from recruiters. Faculty members and placement coordinators played a crucial role in organising the fair successfully.
