2. FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

During the year under review, performance of Textile Industry in general was impacted due to various adversities. India' s yarn exports during FY 2019-20 were significantly Lower at 0.96 Mn.mt. as against 1.31 Mn.mt in FY 2018-19, reflecting substantial reduction by 26%. Due to lower demand, cotton prices slightly came down, but remained higher than international prices due to MSP. However, the yarn prices sharply decreased due to glut in the market on account of reduction in exports. Lower sale volumes with reduced price realisations severely affected the performance of Spinning industry in FY 2019-20.

The industry, which was already under tremendous pressure during the year 2019-20 on account of slowdown in exports, sagging operating margins, liquidity constraints, further slipped into distress due to impact of Covid-19 pandemic outbreak worldwide since January 2020. This has led to substantial drop in production and dispatches across the world in entire textile value chain, added to the woes of Indian Spinning Industry. The Indian textile and apparel industry have been adversely impacted in the short to medium term due to lockdown and lower consumer spends. The sector is reeling under liquidity and cost pressure as well due to the unprecedented damage caused by COVID-19 pandemic. Therefore, your company's performance may be perused in the aforesaid circumstances to have a balanced view.

As a result of above given background, your company's Income from Operations during the year decreased to ₹ 39,540.75 lacs from ₹ 55,103.34 lacs of the previous year. This was primarily due to substantial reduction in Exports of Yarn. Operating Profit / EBITDA was lower at ₹151.25 lacs as against ₹ 3651.07 lacs of the previous year. Finance Cost was lower at ₹ 2732.99

Lacs as against ₹ 2923.45 Lacs of previous year, and Depreciation was marginally higher at ₹1035.35 Lacs for the year as against ₹1032.80 lacs in the previous year. The Net Loss before tax was higher at ₹3617.09 lacs as against ₹305.18 lacs in the previous year and the Net Loss for the year recorded after Income Tax Credit (including deferred tax) Adjustments was ₹2401.77 Lacs against the net loss after tax of ₹236.02 Lacs in the previous year.

3. IMPACT OF COVID 19 PANDEMIC

Towards the end of the Financial Year 2019-20, the operations of the company were suspended due to the nationwide lockdown imposed by Government to contain the COVID 19 pandemic. The Company has assessed the impact of this pandemic on its business operations and has considered all relevant internal and external information available up to the date of approval of these financial results, to determine the impact on the Company's revenue from operations for foreseeable future and the recoverability and carrying value of certain assets such as property, plant and equipment, investments, inventories and trade receivables. Based on such assessment, management is confident that no indications of impairment of carrying values of property, plant and equipment and investments exist as on the date of approval of these financial statements.

The Company has resumed its manufacturing activities in a gradual manner as per the guideline issued by the Government authorities and have taking steps to strengthen liquidity position and initiating cost restructuring exercises

As the situation is unprecedented the impact of COVID-19 pandemic on the overall economic environment remains uncertain and may be different from what we have estimated as of the date of approval of these financial statements and the Company will continue to closely monitor any material changes to future economic conditions.

It may be worth mentioning here that, there have been series of interventions from the governments across the world, and recovery curve post COVID-19, is likely to be based on perceived national priorities and technological strength of each country. However, in the labour intensive textile sector like in India, the recovery would happen sooner than later, with measures like policy support for innovative strategies, leveraging new international partnerships and providing stimulus for adoption of new technology. The important levers of change are likely to be ownership of value chain, technology push, operating flexibility, supply chain resilience and adaptable cost models. Already reports are available about growing demand for cotton yarn, dyed fabrics and home textiles where, the data for the month of July 2020 shows that exports of cotton textiles from India grew by 16.4%, giving hopes of recovery.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

Global Textile Industry

It was earlier estimated that the global textile and clothing trade would touch USD 1205 billion by 2025 from USD 801 billion in 2018. However, the Covid pandemic which started sometime in the beginning of 2020, has upset all the economies of the world, with many of them expected to report negative growth in near term, like USA at -5.9% and Europe at -9.1%. As per recent estimates, India as well is expected to show negative growth during coming year. Under the circumstances, global trade in textile and clothing during 2019-20 is estimated at USD 797 billion, requiring reassessment of its future growth prospects.

During the five year period from 2014-15 to 2018-19, India's exports of textile and Apparel stagnated at around USD 37 Billion, and during the year 2019-20, exports declined to USD 34.2 billion, due to adverse impact of pandemic beginning January 2020. Over the years, China has substantially gained market share in global trade, which stands at around 35%. Even countries like Bangladesh and Vietnam which had less than 1% share have increased the same to around 5%, and are now at the same level as India.

The worldwide production of cotton during 2019-20 is estimated at 25.9 million kgs and consumption at 24.9 million kgs. India was the highest producer of cotton with 6.2 million kgs, while China and USA at second and third position, having produced 5.8 and 4.3 million kgs. On consumption side, China consumed 8.1 million kgs, almost one third of world consumption, while India 5 million kgs. India has around 40% of the total cotton area in the world under cultivation, and is also the largest producer of cotton having around 25% share with around 6 million tons of cotton being produced. However, in spite of world's largest area under cotton cultivation, the yield per hectare is only at 495 kilograms, which is one of the lowest in the world. India must make efforts to increase the yield per hectare to at least world average of 750 kilograms per hectare, when China is able to achieve a yield of 1720 kgs.

INDIAN TEXTILE INDUSTRY

Earlier study undertaken had indicated that the overall market for Indian Textiles and Clothing Industry will touch USD 225 billion by 2024, with CAGR of 14.2%. However with the setback received due to Covid pandemic from the very beginning of year 2020, the data needs to be looked in to with more caution. With regard to export sector, the industry showed negative growth by 8.5% as compared to previous year, registering lower exports of USD 33.7 billion during 2019-20. The de-growth in Cotton Yarn segment was amongst the highest, at 29%, where exports fell from USD 3.89 billion to USD 2.76 billion. Fabrics/made-ups and Garments maintained their exports in the year at around USD 5.9 billion and 8.6 billion respectively, in comparison with previous year. Some of the reasons for decline in country's export performance were, higher cotton prices in India compared to international market and increasing competition from Vietnam and Pakistan.

The data relating to Spinning capacity, Cotton yarn production and cotton yarn exports for last Six years is given below :-

Year Spindles (Millions)// Production (Million Kg)// Exports (Million Kg)// Exports

For increasing employment in textile sector as well as productivity and quality, the Ministry of Textiles introduced Textile Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS) in April 1999. The said Scheme underwent many changes on different occasions with introduction of Modified TUFS, Restructured TUFS, Revised Restructured TUFS and finally Amended TUFS, covering different segments. The total investment attracted in the entire industry amounted to ₹324.5 thousand crores and subsidy reimbursement towards interest and capital subsidy amounted to ₹26.5 thousand crores, with employment generated to the tune of 47.65 lakhs as reported last. The spinning and composite segments of the textile sector are major beneficiaries under the Scheme. The package announced by the Government during 2016-17 in favour of garmenting and made-up sector was increased to ₹7148 thousand crores from ₹6000 thousand crores, was available up to March, 2019

ADVANCING BEYOND COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic has rapidly developed in to a global crisis, and has adversely affected the Indian textiles and clothing sector as also many other sectors of the Indian Economy. The contagion has transformed into an unprecedented challenge with very severe socio-economic and health consequences not only for India but for countries around the world. The crisis has also strained global relations, disrupted supply chains and has created a trust deficit. All estimates indicate that the scale of the economic damage caused by the COVID-19 pandemic will be far greater than that caused by the 2008 global financial crisis.

In the aftermath, there is bound to be a paradigm shift in the patterns of socio-economic structures, global cooperation and supply chain management. This crisis also presents an opportunity, even though the impact and imperatives of emerging out of this pandemic are expected to shape a new World order. The current pandemic is global but the solutions to the challenge need to be local. The important levers of change are likely to be ownership of value chain, technology push, operating flexibility, supply chain resilience and adaptable cost models. India, which has a labour intensive textile sector, the road to recovery would be through measures like policy support for innovative strategies, leveraging new international partnerships and providing stimulus for adoption of new technology.

Recent reports of India's remarkable achievement in production of PPE SUITS, where our country achieved self-sufficiency in 90 days is a testimony to the entrepreneurial skills and spirit and the ability to rise to the occasion and live up to the demands of time. Already reports are available about growing demand for cotton yarn, dyed fabrics and home textiles and data for the month of July 2020, which also shows that the exports of cotton textiles grew by around 16.4%, (inclusive of Raw Cotton). As the world recovers from the impact of the worst health crisis after the Spanish Flu which took place a hundred years ago, we need to push the past behind us and look ahead with renewed resilience and resurgence.

RAW COTTON SCENARIO IN INDIA

The 2019-20 Cotton season commenced with opening stock of 32 Lakh bales. Cotton Crop during the season is estimated at 354 Lakh bales, as against 312 lakh bales during previous season. Total cotton consumption of the country is estimated at 250 lakh bales, far lower than 311 lakh bales during previous season. Cotton imports and exports are estimated at 16 lakh bales and 50 lakh bales respectively. With this, season ending stocks are estimated to be very high, at 103 lakh bales. Such unexpected stock results are due to adverse impact on Cotton consumption of the mills due to Covid pandemic, which was further aggravated by shortage of labour during this challenging period.

In the above described scenario, the cotton prices did come down by around 10% or so during the year. However, due to substantial reduction in Cotton Yarn prices, as reflected in steep fall of around 29% in yarn exports, realisations fell sharply, leading to had much higher impact. This negated the advantage of falling cotton prices, and as such, the performance of spinning industry was adversely affected during the year.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW, INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENTS, OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The Company is engaged in business of manufacture and export of high-quality combed cotton yarns. The yarn is manufactured from the world's best sources of long and extra-long staple cotton like American Supima, Egyptian Giza, contamination free Australian and American cottons and superior Indian cotton like Shankar-6 and DCH-32. The company manufactures yarns of various counts ranging from NE 20's to NE 100s. Permutations and combinations in spinning and finishing process results in yarns of varied qualities for specific end users. The company was amongst the first in India to manufacture compact yarn using the breakthrough technology of compact spinning, and also uses state-of-art machineries across its plants. The Company has 2 plants at Palakkad in Kerala and Ponneri in Tamil Nadu having a capacity of 1,14,000 spindles, consisting of 70,752 Compact Spinning and 43,248 Ring Spinning, and also capacity for value added products i.e. Twisting, Gassing and Soft winding.

The promoters have 5 decades of experience in spinning industry with its first unit in Kerala in 1966. The company derives its strength from rich experience of promoters in marketing of cotton yarns in international market for over 4 decades. The company has built up an excellent customer base over the years by supplying consistent quality and timely deliveries of yarns. With flexibility to produce varied counts of cotton yarns, carded, combed, single and twisted, multi fold and gassed, the company is able to retain its customers

For Spinning industry, raw material is cotton, which is a seasonal product, the cultivation of which is mainly rain-fed and as such dependent on vagaries of monsoon. Adequate availability of raw cotton at right price is crucial for the company. However, as import of cotton is freely allowed, and since the company is exporting a part of its production, the risk of cotton availability as well as exchange rate fluctuation is partly mitigated.

The Government had announced Amended Textile Up-gradation Fund Scheme (ATUFS) for giving required thrust to post spinning segment. However, spinning segment has been kept out of TUF Schemes which is a matter of concern for units which were set up in early 2000. The capacity of units which need upgradation, modernization and or replacement is estimated at 15-20 Million spindles, requiring immediate financial assistance. Also, TUF S has pending undisbursed subsidies which need to be cleared as early as possible, where backlog is estimated at around ₹ 9,000 crores under various TUF Schemes. In order to enhance cotton yarn exports from India, the govt should attempt to sign Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) or Preferential Trade Agreements (PTAs) with large global markets to provide a level playing field to the industry. Further, the Govt should consider extending RoSCTL benefit to the spinning industry as well.

RISK AND CONCERNS

- a. Raw Cotton, an agricultural product, is the key raw material used for the manufacture of cotton yarn. Almost 65 percent of area under cotton cultivation is rain-fed and hence is dependent on vagaries of monsoon, which this year has shown uncertain signs so far. Adequate availability of raw cotton at right prices is crucial for the Company. Any disruption in the supply and/or violent changes in the cost structure would affect the profitability of the Company.
- b. Your Company follows an efficient inventory management system and a well-crafted strategy of procuring raw materials through a mix of spot and long-term contracts. The company's conscious efforts on maintaining a judicious mix of markets for its sales and thrust on specialty products like Better Cotton Initiative (BCI), Supima yarns and Giza yarns have also proved to be beneficial.
- c. Volatility in foreign currency exchange rates vis-a-vis Indian Rupee is another area of concern since a sizable production of cotton yarn is exported by your company. The Company has in place various Management Information Systems, which enable the management to take decisions on exposures relating to exports and imports. The Company continues to strengthen these systems to minimize the risk involved due to adverse movement of exchange rates.
- d. Your Company has a system of assessing the risks on an ongoing basis. This includes an effective internal control and management reporting system. Further, the framework also captures the existing practices to manage commodity price risk, interest risk, and foreign exchange risk etc. An important aspect of this framework is to promote a balanced approach that considers risk and return.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS AND THEIR ADEQUACY

The Company has a proper and adequate internal control system to ensure that all assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorised use or disposition and that all transactions are authorized, recorded and reported correctly. The internal control is supplemented by an extensive programme of internal audits, review by management and documented policies, guidelines and procedures. The internal control is designed to ensure that financial and other records are reliable for preparing financial statements and other data and for maintaining accountability of assets.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty related to Going Concern

4. The financial statement indicates that the company has eroded its net worth. This condition indicates that the company may find it difficult to continue as a going concern. Pursuant to that, the company has approached the consortium of bankers with a resolution plan for restructuring of its debts and we have been informed by management that it has been accepted by the consortium and now in the process of sanction.
Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

5. Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined that there is no matter to be communicated as a key audit matter in our report.

The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Standalone) specified under section 133 of the Act read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

8. In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements:

10. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.
11. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:
 - (i) Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
 - (ii) Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
 - (iii) Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
 - (iv) Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
 - (v) Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
12. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
13. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
14. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matter

15. On account of the COVID 19 related lockdown restrictions, Management was not able to perform the year end physical verification of inventories in aggregating to ₹2590.15 lakhs at certain locations. Consequently, We have performed alternative audit procedures to audit the existence of inventory as per the guidance provided in SA 501 "Audit Evidence – Specific consideration to selective items" which includes physical verification done by the management during the

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to financial statements.

A company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to financial statements.

Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss :

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in the profit or loss.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated as such at the initial date of recognition and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied. For liabilities designated as FVTPL, fair value gains/losses attributable to changes in own credit risks are recognized in OCI. These gains/losses are subsequently transferred to P&L. However, the Company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity. All other changes in fair value of such liability are recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

De-recognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the term of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amount is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Derivative financial instruments:

Derivative financial instruments such as future contracts are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when they arise.

2.13 Fair Value Measurement

The Company measures financial instruments, such as, derivatives at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use. The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:"

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period. For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above."

2.14 Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, considering contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government.

Sale of Goods

Revenue from sale of goods are recognised on transfer of significant risk and rewards of ownership to the buyer which generally coincides with shipment. Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates.

Rendering of Services :

Service revenues are recognised when services are rendered, and when the outcome of the transaction can be estimated reliably.

Dividend, Interest income, Claims:

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the Company's right to receive dividend is established provided it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Company as also the amount of dividend income can be measured reliably.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding using the effective interest method provided it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the interest will flow to the Company and the amount of interest can be measured reliably.

Insurance and other Claim are accounted for when no significant uncertainties are attached to their eventual receipt.

2.15 Borrowings:

Borrowings are initially recognised at net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction cost) and the redemption amount is recognised in the Statement of Profit and loss over the period of borrowings using the effective interest method.

2.16 Borrowing cost

Borrowing costs attributable to acquisition and construction of qualifying assets are capitalised as a part of the cost of such asset upto the date when such asset is ready for its intended use. All other Borrowing costs are charged to Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which they are incurred.

2.17 Short-term Employee Benefits

Short Term employee benefits including accrued liability for Leave Encashment (other than termination benefits) which are payable within 12 (twelve) months after the end of the period in which the employees render service are paid/ provided during the year, as per the Rules of the Company.

Defined Contribution Plans:

Company's contributions paid/payable during the year to Provident and Family Pension Funds, and Employees State Insurance are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Defined Benefit Plans:

The Employees' Gratuity Fund Scheme covered by the Group Gratuity cum-Life Assurance Policy of LIC of India is a Defined Benefit Plan. The present value of obligation is determined based on actuarial valuation using Projected Unit Credit Method which recognizes each period of service as giving rise to additional amount of employees benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

2.18 Foreign currency Transactions

Initial recognition:

Transactions in Foreign Currencies entered into by the Company are accounted at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of the transaction.

Measurement:

Foreign Currency monetary items of the Company outstanding at the balance sheet date are restated at year end exchange rates.

Non-monetary items carried at historical cost are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on transaction of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item.

Treatment of exchange difference

Exchange differences arising on settlement/restatement of foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities of the Company are recognised as income or expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss

2.19 Taxation

- a Current tax is made on the basis of estimated taxable income for the year or computed in accordance with the Income-Tax Act, 1961 and recognized in the statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent it relates to items directly recognized in equity or in other comprehensive income.
- b Deferred tax on account of timing differences, between taxable income and accounting income is recognized using the tax rates and laws that have been substantively enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent there is reasonable certainty that these would be realized in future
- c Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

2.20 Provisions and Contingent Liabilities:

Provisions: Provisions are recognized when there is a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and there is a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the Balance sheet date and are not discounted to its present value. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

Contingent Liabilities:

Contingent liabilities is a possible obligation in the normal course of business arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made, is termed as a contingent liability.

The Company does not recognise a contingent liability but disclose its existence in the financial statements.

2.21 Cash Flow Statement:

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / loss before extraordinary items and tax for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments. Cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

2.22 Cash and Cash equivalents Policy:

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.
