Ujjivan Small Finance Bank launches an innovative campaign

Ahmedabad, Ujjivan Small Finance Bank (Ujjivan SFB), a leading small finance bank in India, has launched a unique initiative on 'World No Tobacco Day' to drive awareness amongst individuals to make healthier financial choices. Our initiative is to catch people's attention when they are least expecting and make them think. To ensure that the message reaches the right audience, Ujjivan SFB will distribute creatively designed lookalike cigarette boxes in high footfall smoking zones, such as around corporate offices, malls, nudkads etc. Each cigarette pack is designed with the desired 'Healthy habit to save more.' Additionally, the cards within the boxes will encourage people to explore options like opening savings and fixed deposit at an attractive interest rate, for better financial health. Commenting on the initiative Mr. Lakshman Velayutham (Chief Marketing Officer, Ujjivan SFB) said, "The 'World No Tobacco Day', initiative is about presenting people with a choice to people. While they are aware, we are trying to serve a reminder with choices that they could possibly make. We believe our messages on 'Savings Habit' and 'Wealth Creation', without stepping in their personal space, will have the desired positive impact". (13-9)

Additionally, the longer seat offers increased comfort, while a larger glove box with a hinge-type design provides added convenience for riders. The bike offers an exclusive feel and is instantly recognizable through its dual-tone colour theme. (20-4)

MAGGI inspires change with first-of-its-kind edible fork

Ahmedabad, MAGGI's 'Deshkelye 2 minute' initiative, launched in 2020, aims to create a significant impact through small actions. One of its goals is to offer sustainable alternatives to single-use plastic. In line with this objective, MAGGI has introduced an edible fork in partnership with Nestlé R&D India (a subsidiary of Nestlé S.A. and a part of Nestlé's global R&D network) and an Indian start-up Trishula. Made from wheat flour, this innovative fork enhances the delightful experience of savoring MAGGI Cuppa Noodles, adding to its soupy, slurpy, and mesaledd charm. Earlier in 2023, MAGGI also launched foldable, compostable forks in India which was jointly developed in collaboration with Nestlé's Institute of Packaging Sciences in Lausanne, Switzerland, Kaneka India Pvt.Ltd., and Nestlé India R&D. The introduction of the foldable, compostable forks could result in annualised plastic reduction of approximately 35 MT. Commenting on the test launch of the edible forks, Mr. Rajat Jain, Director, Foods, Nestlé India, said "At Nestlé, it is our continuous endeavor to discover ways to build a better future for our consumers and the planet. The launch of edible fork in Cuppa noodles marks a significant milestone in our commitment towards environmental responsibility while pioneering consumer-centric initiatives. (20-4)
