Family Battle Chautala Fight Am

JatIn.Takkar@timesgroup.co

New Delhi: Hisar is a Lok Sabha seat with its winning candidate mostly chosen by the next election.

The seat has traditionally been round of big political families of but this time, three family members of the Chautala clan are fighting it out themselves.

In this Jat-dominated Lok Sabha political families of Devi Lal, Birender Singh and former Union minister Birender Singh have contested and staked their claim in the past.

Bhajan Lal is a Bishnoi by caste and Lal and Singh are Jats, a numerical voter segment in Haryana.

But this time, Singh and Bhajan Lal are not in the contest. It is the younger members of the Chautala clan (family) - two daughters-in-law and their in-law who are fighting on different tickets.

The BJP has fielded Devi Lal's daughter-in-law, Singh Chautala, who joined the party on the announcement of his candidature and elected as an Independent MLA in the assembly polls.

Naina Chautala has been given the ticket by the Jannayak Janata Party (JJP), led by her father, Dushyant Chautala, erstwhile JJP and JJP chief Ajay Singh's grandson son of Devi Lal.

Indian National Lok Dal (INLD) has fielded Sunaina Chautala from Hisar. Sunaina is the wife of Ravi Chautala, son of Birender Singh Chautala, Devi Lal's youngest son.

The Chautala clan suffered a split following which Ajay and his family, including wife Naina and sons Dushyant and their loyalists, separated from Birender Singh and formed the JJP.

In 2019 Lok Sabha polls, scions of three political families contested the

Patanjali Foods' profit falls 22% on sluggish demand

PATANJALI FOODS POSTED a 22% fall in fourth-quarter profit on Tuesday, as sluggish demand dragged the overall sales down in its mainstay edible oils business amid a surge in expenses. The Ruchi Gold oil maker's profit fell to ₹206 crore for the quarter ended March, from ₹264 crore a year earlier.

Higher prices of everyday items like milk and wheat flour have slowed demand for consumer goods in the rural regions, causing people to cut back their expenditures on other essentials as well as discretionary items.

Patanjali Foods' revenue from the edible oils segment declined nearly 9% to ₹5,889 crore, limiting its overall revenue growth. The company's total expenses rose about 6% to ₹8,048 crore.

However, the firm said it is optimistic about an increase in rural demand in the upcoming quarters. —REUTERS
