Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for your prompt response.
I have some questions regarding the procedure:

1. I do not have the original share certificate for the said shares. What is the procedure to acquire the same? Is there an alternative to submitting the original share certificate? If yes, what are the document(s) required?
2. Can I submit a NOC in place of a succession certificate? Is there any other alternative to this?
3. How am I supposed to transmit the said documents to Maheshwari Datamatics? By registered post?

I look forward to having my questions answered from you.

Kind regards,
Uma Somani

Dear Sir,

Please find attached herewith the procedure for transmission of shares. As the market value of the shares held exceeds Rs 2 lacs, you need to follow part B of the procedure for "Transmission Formalities" along with an original cancelled cheque leaf with your name printed on it.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Please find attached herewith a scanned copy of the cheque attached to a dividend warrant received in 2013-14.
Now I look forward to hearing from you about the further steps soon.

Thank you,

Kind regards,
Uma Somani

Dear Madam,

Kindly provide us with any proof of holding e.g. copy of share certificate or any communication from the company depicting name of shareholder, folio no. etc or any counterfoil of dividend warrant.

006731

Only after providing the same we will be able to provide you with the detailed procedure for transmission.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I hope this email finds you well.

An old dividend warrant has brought to my notice that my husband, Late Mr. Ramkishor Somani, was a shareholder in IFGL Refractories Ltd. Unfortunately, I am not in possession of the share certificate for the same. So, as the share transfer agent of the said company, can you please tell me the procedure to transmit the shares in my name? Can you also please send me a list of the required documents for the procedure?

Thank you very much for your help. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kind regards,
Uma Somani
