SAPMT, SEWA pay tribute to Elaben; thousands attend funeral

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, NOVEMBER 3

PAYING TRIBUTE to Gandhian and SEWA founder Ela Bhatt who died after a brief illness on Wednesday, the Sabarmati Ashram Preservation Memorial Trust (SAPMT), of which Bhatt was the chairperson, prayed for "eternal peace for her soul". SEWA, in its tribute, added that her rich legacy continues in every grassroot woman leader she has nurtured.

In a note, SAPMT secretary Amrut Modi wrote that Bhatt's "perseverance in observing ecosystem of Gandhian thoughts, preserving Gandhian values and approach to taking all stakeholders together was noteworthy". Thousands took part in Bhatt's funeral held in Ahmedabad on Thursday. Bhatt served as a trustee of SAPMT from July 1, 2014, and as chairperson of SAPMT from October 15, 2016.

The SAPMT's statement of tribute signed by Amrut Modi, stated that Bhatt "strived to unite the women and labourers of the lower strata of society for the betterment of society as a whole" and further acknowledged her contributing "enormously in the areas of women empowerment, organisation and advancement through her world-famous organisation SEWA".

"Keeping Elabehn Bhatt's life, work and associations in mind, SAPMT prays for eternal peace for her soul and pays a hearty tribute to her. Let her life and work be an inspiration for the current and future generations," it added.

SEWA, the organisation of which Bhatt was the founding member, stated, "A gentle revolutionary, Elaben led the movement for women's economic empowerment in India, inspiring many across sectors, governments, and borders. A strong believer in Gandhian values, she firmly believed in the power of organising, uniting women, and building sisterhood and solidarity".

The statement by SEWA added that the organisation is "committed to and strives to take forward her unfinished work, and works towards our collective dream of a world free of poverty and inequality".

"For the world, she was a powerhouse, an institution builder, a visionary. For us, simply our ben, showing us the way forward with gentle persuasion. Her rich legacy is carried forward by every grassroot woman leader that she has nurtured, the women's cooperatives that she has nourished, and the institutions and movements she has built," SEWA stated.

SMC to build memorial for 22 children killed in fire tragedy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, NOVEMBER 3

Surat Municipal Corporation Thursday announced the construction of a memorial for the 22 students who died in a fire tragedy at Sarthana area in 2019.

Surat Mayor Hemali Boghwala and Municipal Corporation Standing Committee Chairman Paresch Patel made the announcement in a press conference hours before the dates of Gujarat Assembly elections were declared.

During the annual budget of 2022-2023, a provision was made to build a shahid smarak for those killed in the fire tragedy.

As many as 22 children were killed when a fire broke out at a commercial complex, Takshashila Arcade, in the city on May 24, 2019.

Mayor Boghwala said, "We will identify the location in Sarthana area (for the memorial). We have also made provision to spend Rs 1 crore or more if needed for this."

The Mayor added the decision to go ahead with the construction of the memorial was taken after a proposal for the same was sent by Surat Municipal Commissioner Shalini Agarwal.

Meanwhile, Leader of Opposition with the Surat Municipal Corporation and Aam Aadmi Party councillor Dharmesh Bhandari said that the decision to build the shahid smarak was taken after the BJP sensed that the public mood in the upcoming Assembly elections was against them.

"The provision of Smarak has been made in this year's budget around eight months ago and till now they have not done anything on it. Seeing the public mood is against the BJP, the ruling party leaders in the SMC made the announcement today," Bhandari said.

"The public knows the actual face of BJP and they have already made up their mind to show their anger in the elections. Today's announcement will not change it," the AAP councillor added.
